Albany.—There are sinking funds for municipal bonds and for water stock. The loan to Albany & Susquch. is secured by 1st mort. The assessed valuation of property in 1874 by State authorities was: Real estate, $43,161,203; personal, $6,508,161; total, $49,669,304. Estimated true value of real estate, $102,764,770.

Augusta.—Of this debt, $600,000 was issued for railroads, and balance for canal enlargement and water works.

Baltimore.—The fiscal year of Baltimore ends with Oct. 31. The city credit has been loaned extensively to railroads, in exchange for their securities, which it holds to a large nominal amount. The sinking fund for Balt. & Ohio Railroad $5,000,000 loan is $1,746,973; West Maryland Railroad sinking fund, $149,165; and the total of the several other sinking funds, $6,457,881. The Balt. & Ohio RR. pays interest on $5,000,000 loan; Water loan is paid by income of water works, and Public Park by City Passenger Railway, and out of a total debt of $32,943,425 only $16,154,192 is dependent on the tax levy. The assessed value of property in 1876 is $231,503,129; tax rate, 1876, $1 80 on the $100 for city purposes, and .17½ for State. Population in 1870 was 267,354, against 212,418 in 1860.

Bangor, Me.—The valuation of real and personal property is $10,510,694; rate of taxation, 2.90 per cent. The loans to European & North American Railroad and to Bangor & Piscataquis Railroad are secured by first mortgages on those roads.

Boston.—The population of Boston in 1870 was 292,497, against 177,940 in 1860. Valuation of real property in 1875, including the recent annexations, was $558,769,500, and personal, $234,998,400; upon which the rate of taxation is $13 70 per $1,000—$12 66 of this for city and $1 04 for State purposes, against a total of $15 60 per $1,000 in 1874. The total debt, both funded and unfunded, at the close of the last fiscal year, April 30, 1875, was $43,512,611, and the sinking funds, bonds, mortgages, &c., $16 218,402. The sinking fund provisions are sufficient to meet the debt as it matures. In March, 1876, Mr. Turner, city auditor, gave his estimates for the revenue required for the coming financial year 1876-77, commencing May 1, 1876. This estimate is based on an assumption of meeting the actual wants of the municipality and avoiding the borrowing of money for other than the water works, and extensive and costly improvements; the tax per each $1,000 will be reduced from $13 70 last year to $13 45 per $1,000 this year. The following is a comparison of the appropriations asked for and income to be received, compared with the estimates for 1875-6:

| Appropriations | $12,302,305 | $11,331,287 |
| Income | 2,864,425 | 2,939,900 |
| | $9,437,880 | $8,391,487 |
| Per centage | 283,136 | 251,745 |
| | $9,721,016 | $8,643,232 |

| | 1875. | 1876 |
| City and County | $9,721,016 00 | $8,643,232 00 |
| State | 802,120 00 | 802,120 00 |
| | $10,523,136 00 | $9,445,352 00 |

During the last forty years, with a single exception, the taxable valuation has shown an annual increase. Mayor Cobb's message, January, 1876, gives a net decrease of debt in 1875, amounting to $305,579. (V. 22, p. 61.)

Brooklyn.—The statement of debt is from the Mayor's message dated January 1, 1876, which made the whole city debt as follows:

|---|---|
| Permanent loans | $26,063,000 |
| Sinking funds | 3,462,720 |
| Balance | $22,600,280 |
| Loans chargeable on specified property | 10,052,000 |
| Tax certificates | 2,379,000 |

—The Mayor, in his message, January, 1876, states that the debt chargeable on taxation decreased in 1875 $5,920, against an increase of $512,089 in 1874, $2,426,516 in 1873, $1,591,411 in 1872, and $3,590,581 in 1871. Population in 1870, 396,200, against 266,661 in 1860. Valuation of property in King's County in 1874, by the State Board of Equalization, $179,085,370 for real estate, and personal, $18,975,980; they estimated the true value of real estate to be $426,393,740. The Board of Supervisors value the total taxable property of Brooklyn in 1875 at $225,176,755, or about 65 per cent of true value. The debt of Kings County, separate from the debt of Brooklyn, is $3,936,000, of which the city is responsible for about $3,739,200. Average tax rate in 1875, $3 41 per $100, against $3 52 in 1874, and $3 46 in 1873. (V. 19, p. 142, 652; V. 20, p. 520.)

Buffalo.—The funded debt, January 1, 1876, was $6,743,199, and floating debt, $396,092. In 1875 real estate was assessed at $33,943,735, and personal at $6,024,370—total, $39,968,105. Buffalo also pays 7-10 (being $712,390) of Erie county debt. City tax-rate, 1875, $35 55 on the $1,000. (V. 22, p. 233.)

Charleston, S. C.—The bonds of Charleston are mostly held within the State of South Carolina. The total assessed value of property in 1873 was $27,978,991; rate of tax, 2 per cent. Sinking funds reduce the total debt to $4,672,663.

Chicago.—The total funded debt at the close of the year 1875 was $13,457,000. Certificates of indebtedness, $4,641,096. Assessed value of real property, '74, $258,549,310; personal, $45,155,830—total, $303,705,140. Tax rate, 18 mills. The Illinois State valuation is $224,118,620, and the city debt is limited to 5 p. c. of that. The comptroller says: "Owing to the wise provision in the Constitution of the State our funded debt cannot be increased above the present amount for some years to come. Of our $13,478,000 of funded debt $4,581,000 is on account of the Water Works, which last year yielded an income of $730,144 21, and from the rapid extension of the mains and increase of population, will yield much more largely in future. Practically, therefore, the amount of our funded debt is $8,897,000, being the remainder after deducting the water debt. From other sources the following is compiled:

| Year. | Assessed Value.—Real Estate. | Per. Estate. | Tax Rate. |

Population in 1870 was 306,605, and in October, 1874, 395,226, against 109,260 in 1860. Cook Co. debt is all 7 per cent, and interest is all payable in J. & J., or in M. & N. The So. Park, W. Chicago Park, and Lincoln Park loans are not debts of the city, but of distinct corporations. (V. 21, p. 207.)

Cincinnati.—In addition to the issues above named, there remain several small amounts, as follows: $45,000 (T.) 6s, due July, 1876; $108,000 5s, November, 1845; $56,000 (YY2, & O.) 6s, 1886-88; $17,000 6s (Q.), November, 1890; $27,000 6s, (A.), March, 1897. By the census of 1870 population was 216,500, against 161,044 in 1860. Tax rate for 1875, $23 82 per $1,000, against $23 38 in 1874. Under the laws of Ohio real estate has been valued for purposes of taxation once in ten years. The following table from the books of the Auditor of Hamilton County, Ohio, exhibits the assessed valuation of the city of Cincinnati in the year 1860 and from '70 to '74:

| Year. | Real estate. | Personal estate. | Total valuation. | Rate tax per $1,000. |
| 1860.. | $61,621,901 | $31,411,812 | $93,032,716 | $17 45 |

| 1874.. | ..... | ..... | 181,930,074 | 23 38 |
| 1875.. | 123,976,835 | 58,521,730 | 184,498,565 | 28 82 |

The debt of Cincinnati, exclusive of the new loan for the Cincinnati Southern RR., is small, being about $7,300,000. The city will be the sole owner of the stock of this railroad, and thus not "aid in building railroads," &c. (V. 18, p. 454, 526; V. 20, p. 14; V. 21, p. 511; V. 22, p. 209.)

Cleveland.—The total valuation of property for taxation is $73,210,144 and tax rate 18 8-10 mills, of which 4½ mills are levied for interest on the debt. The sewer, street improvement and street opening bonds are for special local improvements, and redeemed by assessments on the property benefitted.

Columbus, Ga.—The total debt is $582,500, and the annual interest required about $40,000. Bonds are all coupon, and were issued in small amounts as wanted; 25,000 fall due each year. City holds some stocks and other property. Valuation of real estate, 1875, $3,923,575.

Detroit, Mich.—The population in 1870 was 79,601; in 1874, by State census, 101,083. The value of waterworks is $1,589,688, against a debt of $1,100,000. The water works bonds are issued on a pledge of the city credit, and $75,000 per year collected in taxes to pay interest on them. Assessed valuation, 1875, real estate, $20,225,875; personal, $7,448,755—total, $27,774,630; true value estimated at $92,582,100. Tax rate, $3 92 per $100.

Elizabeth, N. J.—Total debt of the city of Elizabeth August 1, 1875, was stated at $5,400,000, as follows: General debt, $950,000; assessment debt, $4,450,000. The sinking fund has to its credit $900,000. Valuation of real and personal property, $32,000,000; assessed valuation, $16,000,000. Tax rate is $2 66 within the lamp and water district, and $2 18 outside. Population in 1875, 35,000.

Galveston, Texas.—The total city debt is $873,000, of which all are 10 per ct. currency except $106,500.

Indianapolis.—The assessment of taxable property in 1874 was $67,301,546; taxes for that year, $510,026, or a levy of $1 35 per $100. Total debt June 30, 1875, was $1,455,000. The School Board is a distinct organization from the city, created by a separate act of the Legislature; levies its own tax, which is collected by the City Treasurer. The city warrants are discounted when sold. The floating debt of this character, Jan. 1, 1875, was $200,000, payable during this year.

Jersey City.—The total bonded debt of the city, April 1, 1875, was stated at $14,247,500, as follows: General, $3,558,000; assessment debt, $5,06?,500; water debt, $4,629,000. The sinking fund was $525,565. Assessed valuation, including railroad property, is $88,496,885, on which the tax rate is $3 00 per $100 on $68,496,855, and 1 per cent on railroad property assessed at $1 ,000,000. Population by State census in 1875 was 110,883, against 85,000 by U. S. census of 1870. (V. 18, p. 190.)

Louisville.—The funded debt, January 1, 1876, exclusive of railroad loans, was $8,330,000, against $8,504,000 January 1, 1875. Of the $8,330,000 there is payable out of the sinking fund $3,705,000; payable by special tax, $4,625,000. Assets of the sinking fund, Jan. 1, 1875, were $3,130,625. Population by census of 1870 was 100,750, against 68,033 in 1860; now estimated upon the basis of 7 to a voter makes 120,000. Assessed value of property, about $79,000,000. Real value, $100,000,000. Rate of taxation for all city purposes in 1875 is—Eastern District, $2 27 on $100; Western District, $2 83; State tax, 45c. The following figures give the assessed property valuation for the past six years. For 1868, $59,423,974; for 1869, $63,284,091; for 1870, $70,806,712; for 1871, $76,845,995; for 1872, $77,156,612; for 1873, $77,225,372.

Memphis, Tenn.—The city has been in default for interest since Jan. 1, 1873. The total floating debt January 1, 1876, was $2,074,872, and there were nominal assets (unpaid taxes, &c) to balance this of $1,927,608. In 1874 the policy was adopted of receiving proposals for the sale of past due coupons, so far as the funds in hand permitted. The City Council declared the funding and paving bonds issued by Mayors Leftwich and Lofland 1867-8-9 to have been issued illegally, but allowed the coupons to be received, pro rata, according to the amount realized by the city for the bonds; but a decision of Tenn. Supreme Court, December, 1875, was against the city on this point. Assessed valuation, $32,000,000. Tax rate, $2 per $100. Population in 1870, 40,230. (V. 21, p. 186, 570.)

Milwaukee.—The city cannot issue debt beyond 5 per cent of its average assessed value for five years, which is $43,545,000; in 1874 it was $35,157,000 of real, and $16,167,8?3 of personal; tax rate, 28½ mills. Sinking funds are provided for all the bonds. Old railroad bonds, $200,000, due 1876 and 1877 (with interest about $400,000), have been held valid against the city. Population by State census, 1875, 101,000. (V. 17, p. 187, 628, 691.)

Mobile.—The valuation of property in 1876 is $12,894,825 real estate and $5,377,716 personal property; tax rate, 1% per cent. Interest has been in default since July, 1873. A settlement with bondholders was offered by Commissioners in New York, Sept., 1875, viz.: $510 in 6 per cent bond for $1,000 of the old 8 per cent. The 5 per cent bonds have a lien on city revenue, and exchange for these is offered at 25 per cent of their face in the new 6 per cents. This has been accepted to a considerable extent, but no report yet given. Population about 38,000. (V. 20, p. 302.)

Nashville, Tenn.—At the close of the fiscal year, Sept. 30, 1875, there were $131,100 of past due bonds and $136 440 unpaid coupons. The total debt was $1,737,2?2. Assessed valuation of all property, about $13,625,775; tax rate, 1875, 2 per cent.

Newark.—The bonds in the first line in the table are payable out of the sinking fund of 1869, which amounts to $385,368; those in second line out of sinking fund of 1864, $8 2,757; public school bonds out of public school fund, $89,034; Clinton Hill bonds by sinking fund, $22,221, against local improvement bonds the city holds $2,568,08? of assessments unpaid and a lien on the property. Temporary loan bonds, Jan. 1, 1876, were $767,750. Valuation of real estate, 1874, $72,538,2?8; personal, $24,8?0,800; tax rate for all purposes, 1875, $1 98 per $10?. Population in 1870, 105,059.

New Orleans.—Interest was in default December, 1874, but coupons then due were paid May 15, 1875. In July it was decided to pay half the face of coupons on specified issues, on the strength of the financial statement then made. (See V. 21, p. 86.) The total funded debt, July, 1875, was $22,0?2,030; floating debt, $1,?86,870. The assessed valuation of property is $98,463,269 real estate, and $24,118,833 personal. State tax, 14½ mills; city tax, 25 mills; total tax, 39½. A scheme for settling the debt by a bond premium drawing plan has been started, and first drawing took place Nov. 3, 1875. The premium bonds exchanged for others and outstanding, April 15, 1876, were $5,667,300. Population in 1870, 191,418; in 1860, 138,670. (V. 21, p. 64, 86, 159, 278, 511, 613.)

—Less sinking funds—

—The true value of real estate is estimated at $1,935,021,510. By an act of 1874 the towns of West Farms, Morrisania and Kingsbridge, embracing about 12,000 acres, were annexed to New York. The debt of these towns was about $1,500,000.

From the termination of the Tweed regime in 1871 to January, 1875, the gross increase in debt was $33,252,049, and Comptroller Green has claimed that the old demands existing when he took office, together with the bonds issued to pay deficiency in State sinking fund, and for up-town improvements, aggregate more than this whole increase. All unadjusted claims against the city Jan. 1875, were nominally $6,971,149, a large part of which the Comptroller claims to be fraudulent and has determinedly opposed. The outstanding assessment bonds (payable out of local assessments on property benefitted) are represented by advances to contractors, advances on Boulevard work, and uncollected local assessments. Mayor Wickham objects to the present method of authorizing bonds; that the laws are mandatory on the Board of Estimate and leave them no discretion. He says: "The Common Council has no control over the proceedings required to be taken under several of them. But some officer or department of the City Government is by each of them authorized to prosecute a public work of some sort, and to incur obligations for it in the name of the city, and for the payment of such obligations city bonds must be issued." Extract from Mayor's Message of January, 1876, is given in V. 22, p. 63. (V. 20, p. 14, 29; V. 21, p. 86.)

Philadelphia.—The total funded debt, January 1, 1876, was $55,625,691; guaranteed debt, $5,899,400; floating debt, $3,691,432. Sinking funds, $10,030 800. The net increase of debt in 1875 was only $353,5.9. Total disbursements of the city for 1875 were $13,446,451, classified as follows: Judgments, &c., $378,422; interest on city loan, $3,731,215; interest on endorsed warrants, $196,898; sinking funds, $785,899; warrants of previous years, $3,937,417; amount paid on loan warrants, $1,447,809; for the erection of public buildings, $320,412; school fund, $2,454; State tax on settlement, $53,515; cash for the departments, $2,389,377. The Comptroller's statement to form a basis for taxation in 1876, was issued Nov. 1, 1875, making total estimated liabilities, $26,296,282 64.

Of this amount $9,296,202 was estimated to come from other sources than taxes, leaving $17,000,080 to be raised by taxes, at a rate of $30 per $1,000 on full city property. These estimates, however, were materially reduced by the Councils, and the tax rate was kept at $2 15 for full city property. The following table exhibits the assessed valuation and tax rate in the city since 1870:

| 1870 | $470,851,800 | $8,188,873 | $18 00 |
| 1871 | 491,814,096 | 8,592,786 | 18 00 |
| 1872 | 502,415,863 | 8,608,819 | 20 80 |
| 1873 | 518,324,568 | 8,930,700 | 21 50 |
| 1874 | 539,004,602 | 9,239,933 | 22 00 |
| 1875 | 563,849,095 | 9,431,873 | 21 50 |
| 1876 | 585,408,705 | 10,001,673 | 21 50 |

There is no large amount of city debt maturing in the next five years. Assessed valuations for 1876 are: Full city property, $537,213,282; tax rate, $2 15; suburban property, $38,031,673; tax rate, $1 46; farm property, $20,168,423; tax rate, $1 12½. Population, 1870, 674,022, against 565,529 in 1860.

Alabama Central.—In default since January, 1872. Negotiations pending for a new adjustment.

Alabama & Chattanooga.—Road sold May 3, 1875, for $1,200,000, subject to lien of receiver's certificates. Time for bondholders to accept extended to June 15, 1876. (V. 21, p. 38, 62, 253, 302, 322, 511; V. 22, p. 61, 87, 135, 157.)

Albany & Susquehanna.—This road was leased for 150 years from 1870 to Delaware & Hudson Canal Co., at 7 per cent per annum, on stock and bonds. Important change in terms made in 1876; see V. 22, p. 399.

Alleghany Valley.—This road was embarrassed in 1874, and compromised with creditors. Abstract of operations in 1875 in annual report, V. 22, p. 392.

Alexandria & Fredricksburg.—The Pennsylvania Railroad holds $512,000 of the bonds and controls the road. Loss on operation in 1873, $25,074.

Arkansas Central.—Most of the bonds were sold in London, where $600,000 of 2d mortgage bonds were also hypothecated. Receiver appointed, March, 1876. (V. 22, p. 374.)

Ashtabula, Youngstown & Pitts.—It is leased and operated by Pennsylvania Co. at cost. Net earnings paid to lessor, but lessee guarantees interest on 1st mortgage for five years. Common stock, $1,500,000; preferred, $400,000. Net earnings, 1875, $84,156.

Atchison & Nebraska.—Interest was in default September, 1873, and coupons funded. Gross earnings, 1875, $270,955; net, $272; unpaid coupons to Jan., 1876, $750,000. Annual report V. 22, p. 399.

Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe.—Interest is paid on $976,000 of the 2d consol. mortgage bonds, but on the balance of that issue the coupons are funded to Oct. 1, 1876. (V. 20, p. 161 357 515; V. 21, p. 63, 136, 328, 591; V. 22, p. 232, 327.)

Atlanta & Richmond Air Line.—Defaulted in 1873, and now in litigation. A decree of sale in foreclosure was made October, 1875. Report of earnings, &c., V. 22, p. 135. (V. 20, p. 14, 85; V. 21, p. 14, 85, 323, 418, 488, 612.)

Atlanta & West Point.—The road has paid 8 per cent dividends for some years; it has about $200,000 of bonds.

Atlantic & Great Western.—This road was leased to the Erie for 99 years from May 1, 1874, but the lease did not go into effect. Shortly after (in July, 1874) default was made on its bonds. The last annual report, to October 1, 1875, will be found in V. 22, p. 374. Proceedings looking to re-organization are in progress, and a considerable amount of securities has been deposited by holders with the London Committee. (V. 20, p. 85, 139, 289, 499, 592; V. 21, p. 136, 159, 230, 393, 440; V. 22, p. 181, 347, 352.)

Atlantic & Gulf.—Gross earnings in 1874 were $1,032,256; net earnings, $285,638. The Company also has $500,000 10 per cent coupon notes outstanding. Annual report in V. 21, p. 275, also p. 488.

Atlantic, Mississippi & Ohio.—Of the stock $5,845,700 is common, $800,000 preferred, and $276,200 guaranteed; the company, itself, holds $3,441,200 of the common, all the preferred, and $165,700 of the guaranteed stock. Gross earnings year ending September 30, 1875, $1,782,453; expenses, $1,108,947; net earnings, $673,505. There was a decrease of gross revenue by $42,890, and a decrease of net revenue of $54,114. Of the $15,000,000 loan enough is held to retire all the old debt. The company funded one coupon on old bonds, Jan., 1874, but paid subsequent coupons in part. Funding notes due 1875 and 1879 were issued. In October, 1875, in London, the company made a proposal to fund whole coupon then due, on consol. bonds, and four-sevenths of coupons due up to 1881, paying three per cent cash on coupons till 1881, and balance, if earned. This proposition is still before the bondholders for their assent. A bill to foreclose the consolidated mortgage was filed by the trustees thereof, at Richmond, Va., March, 1876. Extract from President Mahone's circular to bondholders, showing the financial condition, is given in the CHRONICLE, V. 22, p. 280. (V. 21, p. 569, 591; V. 22, p. 110, 231, 280, 327.)

Atlantic & Pacific.—This was a consolidation, in Oct., 1870, of the Atlantic & Pacific and So. Pacific. The land grant amounts to some 1,000,000 acres. Interest was passed Jan., '74, on the land grant bonds, the 2d mortgage and the interest scrip, but coupons funded. A break in the company's affairs occurred in October, 1875; the Missouri Pacific lease was surrendered and complicated litigation against the Atlantic & Pacific Company: commenced on the ground of fraud in the Missouri Pacific management. Receivers were appointed. Interest of January, 1876, on land grant bonds was not paid, and interest on the 3d mortgage bonds of the Missouri Pacific is also unpaid. The latter were mostly held by the Atlantic & Pacific Company for improvements claimed to have been put on the Missouri Pacific road. (V. 19, p. 397; V. 20, p. 288; V. 21, p. 9, 418, 440, 466; V. 22, p. 61, 352, 374.)

Atlantic & St. Lawrence.—Leased for 999 years, from July, 1853, to Grand Trunk Railway of Canada. Annual rent, 6 per cent on bonds and stock.

Augusta & Savannah.—Leased to Central of Georgia for $73,000 per annum; has surplus fund of about $50,000.

Bald Eagle Valley.—Leased to Pennsylvania Railroad at 40 per cent of gross receipts. The Pennsylvania Railroad holds all the 2d mortgage bonds.

Baltimore & Ohio.—The B. & O., in comparison with its rival trunk lines, claims a much smaller capital account in proportion to the value of its property. The gross earnings of main stem and branches, and financial condition of B. & O. Co. for four years were as follows:

| | Gross Earnings. | Net Earnings. | Stock and Debt. |
|---|---|---|---|
| 1874-5..... | $10,514,178 | $4,332,206 | $47,173,134 |
| 1873-4..... | 11,693,955 | 5,018,060 | 45,876,927 |
| 1872-3 .... | 12,252,844 | 4,934,796 | 28,567,899 |

The gross earnings of the main and all leased lines in 1874-75 were $14,426,552, and net earnings, $4,490,098. The company claims a surplus of $84,023,566, in the value of its assets above its stock and debt, which surplus is represented chiefly by securities of branch lines, received for advances made by the B. & O. In Dec., 1875, the operating contract with Pittsburgh & Connellsville road was ratified, by which B. & O. guarantees $10,000,000 bonds. See report in CHRONICLE, V. 21, p. 487; V. 20, p. 183, 391, 404, 433, 592; V. 21, p. 371, 511, 591; V. 22, p. 374.

Baltimore & Potomac.—This is the line of the Pennsylvania Railroad from Baltimore to Washington. The bonds are guaranteed by Penn. RR. and Northern Central. Last annual report V. 21, p. 37.

Belleville & Southern Illinois.—Leased and operated by St. L. Alt. & T. H. Co. on a percentage of gross earnings. Gross earnings, '75, $279,337. (V. 20, p. 380.)

Belvidere Delaware.—Stock is $995,700. Leased to United Co.'s of N.J., and lease assigned to Penn. RR. Net earnings go to lessor. In 1875 net earnings of B. D. were $226,404, against $4:6,367 in 1874. Floating debt, $1,245,392. (V. 20, p. 488.)

Berkshire.—Leased to Housatonic, at 7 per cent per year on stock.

Boston & Albany.—The Boston & Albany is the main western trunk line of New England. In past three years the following has been its exhibit:

| | Gross Earnings. | Net Earnings. | Total Stock and Debt. |
|---|---|---|---|

Boston, Clinton & Fitchburg.—The stock outstanding is $872,600. Net earnings for the year ending September, 1875, $401 202; a dividend of 3 per cent paid on pref. stock Jan., 1876. (V. 21, p. 84, 591.)

Boston, Concord & Montreal.—Gross earnings for the year ending with March, 1875, were $664,194; net earnings, $140,208. There are also $76,000 old bonds due in 1865. (V. 20, p. 520.)

Boston & Lowell.—Operated with the Nashua & Lowell, which receives 31 per cent. (V. 20, p. 85; V. 22, p. 42)

Boston & Maine.—Net income, 1874-5, over interest payments, $607,97?. Pools earnings from competing points with Eastern. (V. 20, p. 14, 614; V. 21, p. 533; V. 22, p. 280.)

Boston & N. Y. Air Line.—Formerly N. Haven Middletown & Wil. Road cost about $6,000,000, represented now by $3,000,000 pref. stock and $1,000,000 common.

Boston & Providence.—The bonds and also $934,000 notes have been issued for purchase of branch roads. Total income, 1874-5, $1,581,258; net, over operating expenses, $447,236. (V. 21, p. 569.)

Buffalo, Bradford & Pittsburgh.—Under perpetual lease to Erie at $40,600 per year.

Buffalo, New York & Erie.—Leased to Erie in 1863, for 490 years, at 7 per cent on stock and interest and sinking fund on bonds. In 1873 Erie bought $530,600 of the stock at $150 per share. (V. 20, p. 61, 614.)

Buffalo, New York & Philadelphia.—This is the connecting line of the Philadelphia & Erie with Buffalo. In 1874 the net earnings were $186,843.

Burlington, Cedar Rapids & Minnesota.—In 1874 default was made in interest. A decree of sale in foreclosure was made November, 1875. (V. 20, p. p. 235, 520, 545, 570; V. 21, p. 85, 277, 591; V. 22, p. 350, 374.)

Burlington & Missouri River.—An agreement of consolidation and a perpetual lease to Chicago, Bur. & Quincy, was made in Oct., 1872. In August, 1875, stock of Chic. Burl. & Q. was issued in place of stock of this Co. and for convertible bonds. Annual report V. 20, p. 335. (V. 20, p. 139; V. 22, p. 87.)

Burlington & Missouri in Nebraska.—The stock is $8,583,750. A report of company's operations, &c., to Jan. 1, 1876, has not been published, but we have the earnings in 1875 as $723,843, and expenses, $351,643. The total land sales up to Jan. 1, 1876, amounted to 733,464 acres for $5,335,675, after deductions for dead contracts. (V. 20, p. 289, 598.)

Burlington & Southwestern.—Defaulted Nov., 1873. Foreclosure in progress. (V. 21, p. 159, 441.)

Cairo & St. Louis.—Defaulted in 1873 by failure to receive town and county bonds. Road completed February, 1875. (V. 20, p. 265, 313; V. 21, p. 31, 441; V. 22, p. 352.)

Cayuga.—The Cayuga Lake road was sold under second mortgage, and this Co. organized. (V. 19, p. 270.)

Cayuga & Susquehanna.—Leased in perpetuity to Delaware, Lackawanna & Western. Dividends, 9 per year.

Cedar Falls & Minnesota.—Leased to Dubuque & Sioux City, and sublet to Illinois Central at $1,500 per mile yearly, and a per cent of all earnings over $3,500 per mile.

Cedar Rapids & Missouri.—Leased to Chicago & Northwestern at $700 of first $1,500 gross earnings per mile; one-third of the next $3,000 per mile, and one-fifth of all above that. (V. 2, p. 162.)

Central Railroad & Bank, Ga.—Leases several roads, and guarantees $1,492,500 of bonds. In April, 1875, purchased one-half interest in Western Railroad of Alabama at foreclosure sale. Gross earnings year ending Sept 1, 1875, $2,8-6,536; net, $1,199,831. (V. 20, p. 239, 335, 398; V. 21, p. 372, 417; V. 22, p. 304.)

Central of Iowa.—Decree of sale in foreclosure made October, 1875. (V. 20, p. 15, 85, 235, 546; V. 21, p. 85, 398, 417, 465, 511; V. 22, p. 110.)

Central of New Jersey.—The annual report for 1875 was given in Vol. 22, p. 326, showing gross earnings of $7,411,636; net, $3,282,909. Of the consolidated mortgage sufficient will be held to pay all the prior issues. This company also assumes $2,310,000 of Lehigh Coal & Navigation Company's debt and $2 5,793 of the Railroad Car Trust Company. The following table shows the receipts, expenses and net earnings, from the beginning of 1863 to the present time; including, since 1870, those of the Lehigh & Susquehanna Division:

| | Receipts. | Expenses. | Net earn'gs. |

Central Ohio.—Leased to Balt. & Ohio RR. in 1866 for 21 years, rent 35 per cent of gross receipts for 5 years, and 40 after. Pays 6 per cent dividends.

Central Pacific.—Gross earnings in 1874 were $14,-531,355 (currency), and net earnings $5,682,378. Land grant statement, V. 21, p. 136. An abstract of the annual report for 1874 is given in the CHRONICLE, V. 21, p 251, and earnings and expenses later, to July, 1875, on p. 242, showing net earnings for six months of $1,229,783 in mixed coin and currency. Regular dividends of 8 per cent a year now to be declared. A settlement with bondholders of California Pacific has been proposed, by which the Central Pacific guarantees certain new bonds to a limited amount (V. 20, p. 3, 37. 42, 178, 182; V. 21, p. 159, 483; V. 22. p. 61, 233, 352.)

Charlotte, Columbia & Augusta.—Stock is $2,578,-000. Net earnings in the year ending September 30, 1875, $250,004, against $225,730 the previous year. Increase in local business, 19 per cent. (V. 21, p. 590; V. 22, p. 134.)

Charliers.—Leased to Pitts. Cin. & St. Louis, and operated by Penn. Co. Net earnings go to lessor—in 1875, $34,727. (V. 20, p. 427.)

Cherry Valley, Shar. & Al.—Transferred to Delaware & Hudson Canal Co., April, 1875. Interest unpaid in December, 1875. (V. 20, p. 404.)

Chesapeake & Ohio.—After the panic, default was made on interest. Net earnings in 1874-'75, $346,868. Receiver appointed October, 1875, and foreclosure proceedings will be had for the purpose of re-organization. A very complete statement of outstanding liabilities and the plan of re-organization are given in V. 21, p. 569. (See V. 20, p. 162, 184, 357; V. 21, p. 323, 371, 417, 441, 534, 569, 612; V. 22, p. 42, 87, 134, 280, 375, 392.)

Cheshire.—Net income, 1874-'75, $76,927. Dividends, 4 per year. (V. 18, p. 295; V. 21, p. 59 0.)

Chester Valley.—In hands of trustees and leased to Philadelphia & Reading.

Chicago & Alton.—The report for 1875 is given at length in V. 22, p. 255, and shows gross earnings of $4,656,765, and net earnings of $2,052,648, against $2,336,876 in 1874. Joliet & Chicago RR. is leased for interest on stock and bonds. St. L., Jack. & Chic. Railroad leased at $240,000 per year. Louisiana & Mo. RR. built and operated under contract. (See V. 19, p. 479; V. 20, p. 429.) The Chicago & Illinois River bonds had not been sold to January, 1876, and there was some litigation. (V. 18, p. 350; V. 19, p. 16, 479; V. 20. p. 176, 265, 289, 500; V. 21, p. 185, 612; V. 22, p. 255.)

Chicago, Burlington & Quincy.—Stock was issued in exchange for that of the Burl. Mo. River in Sept., 1875. Gross earnings for 1875 were $11,791,361; expenses, $6,430,122; net earnings, $5,361,238; interest charge, $2,014,709. The C. B. & Q. leases numerous branch roads, giving them a traffic guarantee (usually 40 or 50 p. ct.) for purchasing their bonds. Enough of the consolidated mortgage is reserved to take up prior debts. In August, 1875, stock of this Company was issued in exchange for Burlington & Missouri River Railroad stock, and the same is also given for the convertible bonds of Burlington & Missouri River Railroad. (V. 20, p. 15, 37, 60, 134, 335, 499; V. 22, p. 231.)

Chicago & Canada Southern.—Connection of Canada Southern. Interest not paid.

Chicago, Cincinnati & Louisville.—No information furnished.

Chicago, Clinton & Dubuque.—This road defaulted in 1873. It was built by construction companies in which directors of C. B. & Q. were stockholders. (V. 20, p. 85, 134; V. 21, p. 14, 612.)

Chicago, Danville & Vincennes.—There is also a 2d mortgage for $1,000,000 and a chattel mortgage of $1,000,000, most of which are pledged. Default was made in 1873, and coupons partly funded, subsequently receiver appointed, and litigation in progress. (V. 20, p. 60, 241, 266, 289, 313, 357, 382, 404, 453, 499, 570; V. 21, p. 157, 185, 347; V. 22, p. 87, 304.)

Chicago, Dubuque & Minnesota.—Defaulted December, 1873, same as Chicago Clinton & Dubuque. (V. 20, p. 85, 139, 184; V. 21, p. 14.)

Chicago & Iowa.—Has a traffic guarantee of Chic., Burlington & Quincy 40 per cent for purchase of bonds. (V. 22, p. 87.)

Chicago, Iowa & Nebraska.—Leased in perpetuity to Chicago & Northwestern, at 37½ per cent of gross receipts.

Chicago & Michigan Lake Shore.—The first mortgages, main line, have traffic agreement from Michigan Central. In default for interest since July, 1873, except on first bonds $477,000. (V. 17, p. 188, 211; V. 18, p. 14; V. 19, p. 247; V. 20, p. 60, 312.)

Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul.—The following is a comparison for three years:

| | 1875. | 1874. | 1873. |
| Miles..... | 1,399 | 1,399 | 1,399 |

The issue of consol. bonds of 1875 was made to substitute for that of 1874: of these bonds $27,339,000 are reserved to take up old debt. The dividend on preferred stock March, 1874, was paid in consol. bonds, and the same April, 1876. See statement V. 22, p. 280. The sterling bonds of 1872 are convertible into dollar bonds. Dividends have been paid since 1869—on pref. stock—in 1876 14 per cent, in bonds; in 1874 7 in bonds, 1873 7 cash, 1872 7, 1871 7, 1870 7 and 3 scrip; on common stock in 1871 7 scrip, 1870 3 cash and 7 scrip. V. 21, p. 38, 186, 253, 612; V. 22, p. 280.)

Chicago & Northwest.—The fiscal year ends with May. The last annual report will be found in the CHRONICLE, V. 21, p. 206. The net surplus of the year on the Chic. & Northwest. lines proper, after paying interest, was $1,366,167, and on the whole system, including proprietary roads, $518,266. The net earnings of proprietary roads were $282,004, and the interest on their bonds, $1,129,905. Lands of the company are 2,108,643 acres unsold, and were only recently placed in market. In 1874-5, 24,296 acres were sold at an average price of $4 78 per acre. The nominal surplus balance of the Company, May 31, 1875, was $2,637,612. Operations for the last six fiscal years compare as follows:

| | Gross earnings. | Expenses and taxes. | Net earnings. |
| 1874-75 .... | $12,707,726 | $7,984,694 | $4,723,031 |
| 1873-74..... | 14,410,124 | 9,334,450 | 5,075,673 |
| 1872-73..... | 12,736,607 | 8,178,237 | 4,568,370 |
| 1871-72..... | 11,402,161 | 6,810,026 | 4,592,135 |

The trust deed of the gold loan provides contingently for a possible issue of $48,000,000, by ultimately absorbing all the other bonds and also all subsequent issues, including all the bonds of the proprietary roads of the company, together aggregating $35,349,000, which amount is reserved from the $48,000,000. The residue of the gold loan, viz., $12,651,000, represents all the additional indebtedness resulting from the mortgage. Dividends have been paid—July, 1873, 3½ on preferred; December, 1872, 3½ on both; June, 1872, 3½ on preferred; December, 1871, 3½ on preferred; June, 1871, 5 on both; December, 1870, 5 on both; June, 1870, 2 on preferred; December, 1869, 5 on preferred, 4 on common; June, 1869, 5 on both; December, 1868, 5 on both. (V. 19, p. 295, 375 528; V. 20, p. 136, 186, 593; V. 21, p. 109.)

Chicago, Pekin & Southwestern.—Opened in 1873 Gross earnings first half of 1874, $66,346; net, $33,720.

Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific.—Net receipts in year ending April 1, 1875, $3,543,283, against $3,256,684 in 1873-74. The income account for year was as follows: Gross receipts, $7,399,613; net receipts, $3,534,283; dividend payments, $1,678,334; interest, &c., $755,000; surplus for the year, $1,109,-899. Chicago & Southwestern road is leased and interest guaranteed on $5,000,000 of its bonds; the others are in default. (V. 20, p. 614; V. 21, p. 38, 186, 253.)

Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton.—See report in V. 21, p. 62, showing net income of $197,192 in 1874-5. Investigating Committee's report, V. 20, p. 357. (V. 19, p. 183; V. 21. p. 62; V. 22, p. 280.)

Cincinnati, Lafayette & Chicago.—Lafayette, Ind., to Kankakee, Ill. Gross earnings in 1874, $453,717. net, $223,488. Cost of road, &c., $3,752,870. (V. 20, p. 568.)

Cincinnati & Martinsville.—Recently leased again to the Ind. Cin. & Laf. Interest in default some years. Receiver appointed, Feb., 1876. (V. 20, p. 289; V. 22, p. 232.)

Cincinnati & Muskingum Valley.—Is leased for 99 years from 1873 to Pittsb., Cin. & St. Louis for net earnings, but bonded interest is guaranteed. Net earnings, 1875, $35,744. (V. 20, p. 427.)

Cincinnati, Richmond & Chicago.—Leased to Cin., Ham. & Dayton, which owns most of the stock. Net income above interest, 1874-5, $25,623. (V. 21, p. 62.)

Cincinnati, Richmond & Fort Wayne.—Leased to Grand Rapids for 99 years. Interest on bonds is guaranteed by Grand Rapids, Cincinnati Hamilton & Dayton, and by Pennsylvania Co. (V. 20, p. 15.)

Cincinnati, Sandusky & Cleveland.—In the year ending June 30, 1875, gross earnings were $857,695; expenses, $561,775; net earnings, $295,919, being $28,748 better than in 1873-74. (V. 21, p. 591.)

Cincinnati & Springfield.—Leased in perpetuity to Clev. Col. C. & I., with guarantee of interest; on first mortgage half of interest is also guaranteed by Lake Sh. & M. S.

Cincinnati, Wabash & Michigan.—Paid interest January, 1876, to bondholders not consenting to pass, and allow funds to be used for completion of road. Some bonds held by Lake Shore & Michigan Southern, but no indorsement by that company. (V. 22, p. 158.)

Cleveland, Columbus, Cincinnati & Indianap.—By the annual report surplus over interest in 1875 was $300,261. Net earnings in 1875, $384,024, against $902,674 in 1874. (V. 20, p. 241; V. 21, p. 63, 253; V. 22, p. 257, 303.)

Cleveland & Mahoning Valley.—Was leased to Atlantic & Great Western, but that company defaulted on the rent. See V. 17, p. 512; V. 20, p. 85, 139.

Cleveland, Mount Vernon & Delaware.—Defaulted July, 1874, and made compromise by which all the coupons due July, 1874, and one-half of coupons from January 1, 1875, to and including July 1, 1877, are to be postponed to Jan. 1, 1885, and the remaining half to be paid as they mature. Gross earnings 1875, $426,027; expenses, $329,360; net, $96,667. (See report, V. 20, p. 380; V. 22, p. 350.)

Cleveland & Pittsburgh.—Leased to Pennsylvania Railroad at 7 per cent on stock, besides expenses and interest, and transferred to Pennsylvania Co. Report for 1875, V. 22, p. 206, shows surplus of $173,385 over all expenses, interest, &c.

Cleveland, Tuscarawas Valley & Wheeling.—This road was sold under a 2d mortgage, Jan. 27, 1875, and re-organized. See V. 20, p. 62, 140, 336; V. 22, p. 352.

Colebrookdale.—Leased to Philadelphia & Reading. No dividends paid on stock.

Colorado Central.—Built by Union Pacific, which holds the bonds, $5,270,593 in all. (V. 21, p. 85; V. 22, p. 61.)

Columbus & Hocking Valley.—Gross earnings, 1875, $877,590; net, $338,376, against $357,077 in 1874. See annual report V. 20, p. 476; V. 22, p. 350.)

Columbus, Chicago & Indiana Central.—This was a consolidation (Dec. 4, 1867). On January 22, 1869, it was leased by the Pittsburgh Cincinnati & St. Louis, guaranteed by Pennsylvania Railroad. An amended lease was made Feb., 1, 1870, also guaranteed by Pennsylvania Railroad. The first lease guaranteed interest on $15,000,000 of first and $5,000,000 of second mortgage bonds, the amended lease on only $15,821,000 of first and second bonds. Aug., '74, default was made on the $5,000,000 seconds. April 1, 1875, defaulted on 1st mort. The guarantee of interest was absolute, but the Pennsylvania Railroad claims that the C. C. & I. C. Co. did not fulfil all its part. Bondholders claim that no such failure after bonds had been sold with the guaranty could prejudice their rights. Suit is pending against Pennsylvania Railroad. Interest on most of the old prior bonds has been taken up. Net earnings, 1875, $606,442. (V. 20, p. 29, 61, 140, 162, 241, 325, 355, 382, 426, 593; V. 21, p. 13, 347, 511, 534; V. 22, p. 352.)

Columbus & Xenia.—This road is leased to the Little Miami Co., and both roads for 99 years to Pittsburg Cinn. & St. Louis Co.; the lease is guaranteed by Pennsylvania Railroad, and the terms are 8 per cent on stock and interest on bonds.

Concord.—Pays 10 per cent a year; net receipts in 1874-5, $310,904. (V. 20, p. 499.)

Concord & Portsmouth.—Leased to Concord RR. at $25,000 per year.

Connecticut & Passumpsic.—Annual report to June, 1875, showed net earnings for year $226,875, against $272,790 in 1873-4. Div. passed Aug., 1875. The new mortgage of $1,500,000 will retire previous issues. (V. 21, p. 277.)

Connecticut Central.—Leased to Connecticut Valley at a rental covering interest. (V. 22, p. 209.)

Connecticut River.—Net earnings 1873-4, $295,067 Surplus account October 1, 1874, $518,039. (V. 20, p. 61.)

Connecticut Valley.—Hartford to Saybrook—The stock paid is $1,084,600; floating debt, $1,177,000; cost of road, &c., $2,833,819. (Vol. 21, p. 534.)

Connecticut Western.—Net earnings 1874-5, $184,295; interest, &c., $221,296. (V. 21, p. 611.)

Connecting.—Leased to Philadelphia & Trenton, and operated by Pennsylvania; terms, 6 per cent on $1,218,300 stock, and interest on the bonds.

Cumberland & Pennsylvania.—Owned and operated by Consolidation Coal Company, which guarantees second mortgage. Stock $1,500,000.

Cumberland Valley.—The stock is owned in large part by Pennsylvania Railroad Co. Net earnings, year ending Sept. 30, 1875, $260,594. Large advances have been made to branch roads. This company paid 9 per cent in 1871, 5 in 1872, nothing in 1873, but resumed in 1874, and declared 5 per cent. in October, and semi-annually since.

Danville Hazleton & Wilkesbarre.—Leased, March, 1872, to Pennsylvania Railroad for 33 years. The coupons due October, 1874, were purchased by Pennsylvania Railroad. In default, April, 1875. (V. 20, p. 339, 476, 500, 570.)

Danville Urbana, Bloomington & Pekin.—This is a part of the Indianapolis Bloomington & Western, now in default. See I. B. & W.

Davenport & St. Paul.—Sold in foreclosure, March 2, 1876. (V. 20, p. 61, 313, 593; V. 21, p. 441, 570, 612; V. 22, p. 87, 231, 305.)

Dayton & Michigan.—Leased in perpetuity to Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton for annual interest on bonds. Dividends of 3¼ per year are guaranteed by C. H. & D. on common stock. (V. 21, p. 62.)

Indiana & Illinois Central.—This road was sold April 26, 1875, and re-organized as Springfield Decatur & Indianapolis. (V. 20, p. 162, 429, 521; V. 21, p. 40.)

Indianapolis, Bloomington & Western—Default was first made July, 1874, and affairs are yet unsettled. Receiver's certificates issued to Aug. 1, '75, $205,000. The Danville, Urbana, Bloomington & Pekin is part of this road. Plan of re-organization. V. 22, p. 110. (Vol. 20, p. 61, 405; V. 21, p. 245, 277, 348, 395; V. 22, p. 16, 61, 110, 257, 375.)

Indianapolis, Cincinnati & Lafayette.—The company was re-organized in June, 1873, and has since been doing a good business. The last annual report was in V. 21, p. 464. Gross earnings, 1874-75, $1,767,231; net, $670,980. (V. 20, p. 162, 357; V. 21, p. 207, 277, 465; V. 22, p. 257.)

Indianapolis & St. Louis.—The stock, $600,000, is owned by Pennsylvania Co. and C. C. C. & I. This company forms part of the Pennsylvania system, and leases the St. Louis, Alton & Terre Haute. (V. 21, p. 395.)

Indianapolis & Vincennes.—Is controlled by Penn. Co., through stock ownership, and interest is guaranteed by Penn. Railroad. Net earnings in 1875 were $32,708. (V. 20, p. 426.)

International & Great Northern (Texas).—This is a consolidation of the International and the Houston Great Northern. Interest passed and funding progressing. The company had an issue of Texas bonds granted it, but the grant was repealed and land given instead. (V. 20, p. 186, 291, 313, 383; annual report, V. 22, p. 398)

Iowa Falls & Sioux City.—Leased to Illinois Central at 35 per cent. on earnings. Dividend 2½ per cent, Jan. 1, 1876, on $4,625,000 stock.

Iron Mountain, Chester & Eastern.—This was formerly the Chester & Tamaroa. Bonds are in default since 1873, and a receiver has been appointed. (Vol. 19, p. 520.)

Jacksonville, Pensacola & Mobile.—This road is mortgaged for a like amount of Florida State bonds. Indefault and litigation. (V. 19, p. 629; V. 21, p. 591; V. 22, p. 158.)

Jefferson.—Leased to the Erie Railway Company, which pays interest on the bonds. (V. 14, p. 628.)

Jeffersonville, Madison & Indianapolis.—Leased in 1871 to Pittsburgh, Cincinnati & St. Louis Railroad for interest and sinking fund of bonds and 7 per cent. a year on stock. Lease transferred December, 1872, to Pennsylvania Company. In 1875, net earnings were $468,281. (V. 20, p. 426.)

Jersey City & Albany.—Road was in progress but was stopped in panic of 1873. Bondholders held off. (V. 19, p. 365; V. 21, p. 612.)

Joliet & Northern Indiana.—Mich. Central offered to extend with a 6 per cent. bond, but court decided that total rent must be applied to principal and interest of bonds; still in litigation. (V. 20, p. 85, 140, 429; V. 21, p. 110.)

Junction (Phil.).—Owned by connecting companies. Cost of road $898,321; paid-up stock, $185,000.

Kansas City, St. Joseph & Council Bluffs.—In addition to these, there are also funding bonds of about $640,000 in different issues. Annual report for 1874 in V. 20 p. 475, gives the funding arrangements in full. Gross earnings in 1874, $1,436,073; net, $494,908. Stock, $2,776,000. Interest defaulted Sept., 1873. (V. 20, p. 475; V. 22, p. 233.)

Kansas Pacific.—In 1874 net earnings were $1,685,704, against $1,146,308 in 1873. The land grant is in two trusts, 2,000,000 acres in the first, from the 1st to the 389th mile, and 3,000,000 acres in the second, from 389th mile westward. Interest on income bonds is payable in lands or cash, only out of net earnings. The company now pays half the current interest on its bonds, (except the incomes) as about four-fifths of bondholders have funded. An important settlement with Union Pacific made in May, 1875. See annual report, V. 21, p. 252. (V. 19, p. 271, 365; V. 20, p. 8, 85, 476, 501, 544; V. 21 p. 466, 613.)

Kent Co.—This road was completed in 1872, but defaulted in 1873. No recent information received.

Kentucky Central.—This was formerly Covington & Lexington. (V. 20, p. 500; V. 21, p. 39.)

Keokuk & Des Moines.—Formerly East. Div. of Des M. Valley. Int. on first mort. is funded to April, 1876, except on $452,000 bonds reserved by Co. to be sold. The stock is $1,524,000 pref. and $2,400,000 common. In year 1874-5 gross earnings were $757,381; net, $282,868. (V. 19, p. 82, 583; V. 20, p. 520.)

Knox & Lincoln.—Annual report, V. 22, p. 304.

Lake Erie & Louisville.—This road was a reorganization, and has been financially embarrassed. There is a second mortgage of $590,000. See V. 19, p. 366.

Lake Shore & Michigan Southern.—The annual report for 1874 was published in the CHRONICLE, V. 20, p. 451, and report to June 30, 1875, in V. 21, p. 252. Other reports, V. 22, p. 41, 61. Th

Little Miami.—This company leases the Columbus & Xenia, and both are leased to Pittsburg, Cincinnati & St. Louis, guaranteed by Penn. RR., lessees assuming interest payment on bonds and 8 per cent on stock. Net earnings, 1875, (L. M. & C. & X.) $351,099. (V. 20, p. 427.)

Little Rock & Fort Smith.—Foreclosed Dec. 10, 1874. Re-organized and stock issued for old bonds. The new mortgage is for construction to Fort Smith. (V. 19, p. 583, 617, 639; V. 20, p. 62; V. 21, p. 418.)

Little Rock, Pine Bluff & New Orleans.—Sold in foreclosure Dec. 16, 1875, for $35,000. V. 21, p. 535, 613.

Little Schuylkill.—Leased and operated by Philadelphia & Reading. Dividends, 7 per cent.

Logansport, Crawfordsville & S. W. of Ind.—Defaulted in 1874. The total liabilities, September, 1875, reported at $4,097,000, of which $322,000 were receiver's certificates. Litigation in progress. (V. 20, p. 86, 312, 521, 593; V. 21, p. 302, 613; V. 22, p. 63.)

Long Island.—Change of management was made April, 1875, and in January, 1876, a sale of stock was made to Mr. Poppenhusen, of the Flushing, North Shore & Central road, giving him control. (V. 22, p. 135, 158, 375.)

Louisville, Cincinnati & Lexington.—There are also $60,000 old bonds. Gross earnings in 1872-3 were $1,212,027; expenses, $976,574; net earnings, $235 452. The company, after paying dividends on preferred stock for some years, defaulted on interest 1873-4. Receiver took possession in September, 1874. See his report to December, 1875, in V. 22, p. 181. (V. 19, p. 351; V. 20, p. 212, 383; V. 21, p. 277, 395; V. 22, p. 181, 352.)

Louisville, New Albany & St. Louis Air-Line.—This road is projected from Louisville to St. Louis, and has 28 miles built. To be sold in foreclosure. (V. 20, p. 16, 357, 453; V. 21, p. 86; V. 22, p. 328.)

Louisville & Nashville.—Annual report for year ending June 30 1875, in V. 21, p. 369. Gross earnings of main stem and branches, $4,308,952, net, $1,516,398. General result of operating whole system and leased lines was a deficit of $31,793, after paying interest and all charges. Net earnings, July to December, 1875, much better, being $1,043,731. Nashville & Decatur is leased, and liabilities for the South & North Alabama are assumed. (V. 20, p. 16; V. 21, p. 157.)

Louisville, Paducah & S. W.—Formerly Elizabethtown & Paducah, to which Louisville city loaned $2,000,000. In September, 1874, interest was not paid. Foreclosure in progress. (V. 20, p. 357, 405; V. 21, p. 323, 395, 489.)

Lykens Valley.—Leased to Summit Branch Railroad at $62,500 per annum.

Macon & Augusta.—Leased and operated by the Georgia Railroad, which guarantees all the bonds except $100,000 of first mortgage. (V. 21, p. 157.)

Macon & Brunswick.—This road being in default, was sold June 2, 1875, and bought for the State; offered again for sale or lease January, 1876. The Georgia Legislature declared fraudulent $600,000 of the endorsed bonds issued in 1870. (V. 20, p. 405, 501, 546, 570, 593, 615; V. 22, p. 3 of advertisements.)

Madison & Portgage.—Consolidated as Chicago & Superior. No bonds could be negotiated after the "Potter law." (V. 21, p. 15.)

Maine Central.—The Maine Central leases several roads. The report of the year's operations, ending December 31, 1875, had the following:

Subscribers will confer a great favor by giving immediate notice of any error discovered in these Tables.

"The total earnings for the year 1875 have been $1,786,076 47; operating expenses, $1,147,066 82; net earnings, $639,009 65—sufficient to pay all operating expenses, interest, coupons and rents, and leave a small balance. In 1874 the total receipts were $2,094,080 55, and operating expenses $1,281,631 25. Net, $812,399 30. Showing a diminution this year, as compared with last, in gross receipts, $308,004 08; in operating expenses of $134,614 43; and in net receipts of $173,389 65.

"Of this reduction in our gross receipts the past year, $77,322 56 was occasioned by the modification of former contracts, for the purpose of producing uniform and harmonious action between the Eastern and Boston & Maine roads, which will result, as we trust, to the benefit and in the general convenience of our patrons who have occasion to do business over the railroads west of Portland. The balance of the diminution in our gross receipts, $230,681 62, must be attributed to the general depression of the business of the country, and reduction of tariff by special rates." (Vol. 20, p. 313, 356; V. 22, p 350.)

Manchester & Lawrence.—Formerly operated with the Concord Railroad as one line. Net earnings 1874-5, $101,117. (V. 20, p. 569.)

Mansfield, Coldwater & L. M.—Leased by Penn. Company for net earnings. In hands of mortgage trustees. (V. 20, p. 426; V. 21, p. 42.)

Mansfield & Framingham.—Leased to Boston, Clinton & Fitchburg, at 25 per cent of gross earnings. Consolidation made June, 1875. (V. 20, p. 615.)

Marietta, Pittsburgh & Cleveland.—Net earnings in 1874 were $40,717. Defaulted and in receiver's hands August, 1875.

Marietta & Cincinnati.—Gross earnings for the year 1875 were $1,862,015; expenses, $1 290,590; net earnings, $571,424 against $523,150 net earnings in 1874. This road forms a part of the through route, and is operated in close connection with the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad, which has made large advances for recent construction on the "Short Line." Annual report V. 22, p. 208.

Marquette, Houghton & Ontonagon.—This is a consolidation of Marquette & Ontonagon and Houghton & Ontonagon. Lands amount to 425,000 acres, chiefly timber and mineral. Stock, $2,306,600.

Maryland & Delaware.—This line was leased by the New Jersey Southern, to form part of the through route. Lately proceedings looking to foreclosure have been started. (V. 20, p. 242.)

Memphis & Charleston—This road was leased to the Southern Railway Security Co., but in 1874 the lease was cancelled and Mr. R. T. Wilson, President of the East Tennessee, Virginia & Georgia, road was elected President of the Memphis & Charleston, with a new board of directors. No recent report has been obtainable. (V. 19, p. 424.)

Memphis & Little Rock.—Interest has been in default since November, 1872. (V. 17, p. 380, 649; V. 20, p. 336, 615; V. 21, p. 15.)

Michigan Central.—The annual report to May 31, 1875, (V. 21, p. 109.) showed gross earnings on main line and branches of $7,102,286, and net earnings, $2,034,188, or $76 250 less than previous year. The floating debt June 1, 1875, was $770,015, against $1,056,452 on the 1st of June, 1874. The J., I. & S. debt is assumed by Michigan Central, which also pays $70,000 per year on the stock, one-third of which it owns. Semi-annual report to Dec. 1, 1875, in V. 22, p. 41, showing net income of $185,692 above interest charges, &c. Interest was passed on the Detroit & Bay City bonds, not guaranteed, Nov., 1875. (V. 19, p. 143; V. 20, p. 101; V. 21, p. 15; V. 22, p. 41.)

Michigan Lake Shore.—Defaulted 1874, and in receiver's hands. (V. 18, p. 248, 504; V. 21, p. 110.)

Midland Pacific.—This was one of the roads represented by Messrs. Turner Bros. in New York, of which Benj. E. Smith was president. Default in interest was made in February and August, 1875. No litigation as yet.

Milwaukee & Northern.—This road defaulted on interest December, 1874. Circular to bondholders, V 20, p. 615. It is leased to Wisconsin Central and there is said to be some prospect of resumption. (V. 22, p. 235.)

Milwaukee, Lake Shore & Western.—In 1873 the net earnings were $7 000; cost of road and equipment, $3,750,000. Sold in foreclosure for $2,509,788, Dec. 10, 1875. (V. 21, p. 277, 591.)

Mine Hill & Schuylkill Haven.—Leased to Philadelphia & Reading, May 1864, for 999 years; 8 per cent dividends on stock.

Mineral Point.—Total receipts 1873, $128,121; expenses and interest, $130,614; cost of road, &c., $1,200,000.

Mississippi, Ouachita & Red River.—Land grant 257,000 acres. Sold in foreclosure, Dec. 16, 1875, for $25,000. (V. 20, p. 495; V. 21, p. 535, 613.)

Mississippi & Tennessee—Stock, $825,400. Net earnings 1874-5, $211,332. V. 22, p. 181.

Missouri, Kansas & Texas.—This road was building under most favorable auspices and showed good earnings, but in December, 1873, passed interest. A compromise with bondholders has been pending and will probably be effected. (V. 21, p. 137.) Receiver was appointed, December, 1874. Land grant is about 4,565,142 acres. Latest plan V. 22, p. 305. (V. 19, p. 29; V. 20, 16, 141, 501; V. 21, p. 87, 186, 207, 253, 395; V. 22, p. 111, 158, 368.)

Mobile & Montgomery.—Sold in foreclosure, November, 1874, and stock given to old bondholders. Old mortgage debt yet out, $253,000. (V. 20, p. 62, 501; V. 22, p. 280.)

Mobile & Ohio.—The company has been in default since March, 1875. A full account of its affairs, with annual report for 1874 is in V. 20, p. 452; later statement, V. 21, p. 605. W. B. Duncan and A. F Elliot are Receivers. (V. 20, p. 358, 452, 501, 571; V. 21, p. 605; V. 22, p. 154, 375.)

Montclair.—The 2d mortgage was foreclosed December, 1874, and road sold again Sept. 25, 1875. (V. 20, p. 10, 290, 393, 488, 501, 571; V. 21, p. 186, 278, 324, 395.)

Montgomery & Eufaula.—Interest has been in default since January, 1873. It is one of the State aid roads, and advertised for sale Dec. 6, 1875. (V. 21, p. 489.)

Monticello & Port Jervis.—Defaulted in 1873. Sold July 7, 1875. (V. 19, p. 39, 143, 503; V. 20, p. 358, 393; V. 21, p. 39, 592.)

Morris & Essex.—Leased in perpetuity to the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western. The lessees assume all liabilities and pay 7 per cent on stock, and 8 after 1874, if they then earn 10 net on Morris & Essex road. (V. 20, p. 85, 477, 488; V. 22, p. 399.)

Nashville, Chattanooga & St. Louis.—Gross earnings of 1874-5, $1,6 0,826; expenses, $1,151,954; net earnings, $528,871. In six months ending Dec. 31, 1875, net earnings were $391,120. (V. 21, p. 370; V. 22, p. 109, 181, 305, 420.)

Nashville & Decatur. Leased May 4, 1871, to Louisville & Nashville Company for thirty years.

Nashua & Lowell.—Net earnings in 1874-5, $56,464. (V. 21, p. 590.)

Naugatuck.—Net earnings 1874-5, $222,327. (V. 21, p. 611.)

Newark, Somerset & Straitsville.—Leased to Sandusky, Mansfield & Newark. Guaranteed by Baltimore & Ohio.

New Bedford.—This road is leased and operated by the Boston, Clinton & Fitchburg for 8 per cent on stock and interest on debt.

New Castle & Beaver Valley.—Leased to Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago, and lease transferred to Penn. Company. Net earnings, 1875, $219,531. (V. 20, p. 425.)

New Haven & Derby.—Net earnings 1873-4, $24,832. New Haven city guarantees $225,000 of the bonds.

New Haven & Northampton.—Gross earnings, 1874-5, $595,164; operating expenses, $399,250; net earnings, $195,913. (V. 21, p. 590.)

New Jersey & New York.—This was a consolidation of the Hackensack & N. York and Hackensack Extension, and further built to Haverstraw. The old bonds are about $500,000, 7 p. c., due May, 1890. (V. 20, p. 488.)

New Jersey Midland.—Defaulted after the panic of 1873 and funded coupons. The company, having exhausted its capital and credit in construction, leased to the New York Midland for 7 per cent on its cost; it had at the time a floating debt of about $400,000. After the panic of 1873 the road came back without sufficient rolling stock and without means to pay interest. The bondholders funded coupons, but default was again made. Several plans of re-organization are proposed. (V. 20, p. 242, 258, 313, 358, 488; V. 21, p. 39, 64, 85, 230, 318, 395, 442, 466, 489; V. 22, p. 87, 135.)

New Jersey Southern.—This was a consolidation of several roads. Net earnings, 1875, $103,276. Interest in default since October, 1873. Litigation in progress. Comprehensive plan of re-organization, V. 21, p. 466. (V. 20, p. 313, 488; V. 21, p. 466, 489.)

New Jersey West Line.—In foreclosure. (V. 19, p. 640; V. 20, p. 393; V. 22, p. 352, 400.)

New London Northern.—Operated under lease till 1891 by Vermont Central for $150,000 a year. Income of Co., in 1874-5, $151,975; disbursements, $143,973. (V. 21, p. 590.)

New Orleans, Mobile & Texas.—The Western Division of this road was sold Nov. 18, 1874. Interest in default since 1872. The trustees' circular for reorganization of Western Division is given in V. 21, p. 231. (V. 21, p. 231, 535; V. 22, p. 243, 352.)

New Orleans, St. Louis & Chicago.—Gross earnings year ending June 30, 1875, $3,184,320; net, $1,363,943. See annual report, V. 22, p. 156. Operated as a connecting line with Ill. Cent. Ill. Central buys up $200,000 per year of consol. mortgage bonds of 1873. The Miss. Cent. 1st mort. bonds, due Nov., 1874, were not all paid, and Nov. 1, 1875, and Jan., 1876, there was some delay in payment of interest. Floating debt June 30, 1875, $1,929,087. Receiver appointed March, 1876. (V. 21, p. 15, 613; V. 22, p. 63, 111, 156, 281, 328.)

New York, Boston & Montreal.—Proposed consolidation of several roads from New York to Rutland. Company defaulted in 1874 and now in hands of receiver; foreclosure pending. (V. 20, p. 536, 358, 383, 405; V. 21, p. 16, 349.)

New York & Canada.—The bonds are guaranteed by the Delaware & Hudson Canal Co. Road opened through Oct., 1875. (V. 21, p. 207.)

New York Central & Hudson River.—The consolidation of New York Central and Hudson River was made Nov. 1, 1869. In 1868 the stock of the separate companies was $42,712,700. The scrip dividend on New York Central of 80 per cent was made in Dec., 1868. On consolidation, another 27 per cent was distributed on Central stock and 25 per cent on Hudson. The mortgage loan for $40,000,000 is to retire prior debt, and the balance for laying third and fourth track and other improvements. These tracks were nearly completed from Buffalo to Albany Jan. 1, 1875, thus furnishing a double track road exclusively for freight traffic. The Harlem Railroad was leased April, 1873. The following is a comparison of operations, &c., for five years:

| | Gross Receipts. | Net Receipts. | Funded Debt. | Cost of road and equipm't. |

Owensboro & Russellville.—Now Evansville, Owensboro & Nashville. To be sold in foreclosure.

Pacific of Missouri.—Road was leased July, 1872, to Atlantic & Pacific Railroad and dividends guaranteed. In Sept. and Oct., 1875, the price of stock fell from 47½ to 7½, the principal causes being a decrease of $632,996 in earnings since January 1; the failure of A. & P. to pay the October dividend advertised, and the fact that the road was so heavily loaded with debt to A. & P. Co. The lease was surrendered Nov., 1875, and litigation is pending. Interest on 3d mortgage and on Lexington & St. Louis in default, December, 1875. (V. 20, p. 288, 429, 593; V. 21, p. 40, 372, 396, 412, 418, 466, 459, 535, 571, 592; V. 22, p. 10, 182, 348.)

Paducah & Memphis.—Foreclosure proceedings commenced, but compromise afterward reported. (V. 21, p. 110; V. 22, p. 233.)

Panama.—A steamship line lately started. (V. 20, p. 358; V. 21, p. 207, 231, 489; V. 22, p. 88, 233, 247, 305, 352, 368.)

Paris & Danville.—Foreclosure in progress. (V. 21, p. 186, 297.)

Paris & Decatur.—Consolidation. Now Illinois Midland. (V. 19, p. 351; V. 21, p. 613.)

Paterson & Newark.—Lately operated by Erie. Stock is $250,000.

Pekin, Lincoln & Decatur.—Leased to Toledo, Wabash & Western. To be sold in foreclosure April 21, 1876. (V. 22, p. 247.)

Peninsular.—There is also a second mortgage for $540,000. Defaulted May 1, 1872. Coupons unfunded. Consol. with Pt. Huron & L. M. July, 1873. W. L. Bancroft, Receiver. (V. 17, p. 155, 650, 763.)

Pennsylvania.—The report for 1875 is given in V. 22, p. 233. In May, 1875, the dividend was changed to the rate of 8 per cent per annum. The direct funded debt of the company is $59,000,000; in 1874 the liability as a guarantor of principal and interest was on $33,933,600 bonds; annual liability additional on guarantees of interest or rentals, $13,862,319. On all operations east of Pittsburg, in 1875, the report shows a net surplus of $1,031,929 over all payments, including dividends. The following is a comparison for four years on main line and branches in Pennsylvania:

| | Gross Earnings. | Net Earnings. | Total Stock and Debt. |
|---|---|---|---|
| 1875 | $20,493,251 | $8,147,388 | $128,096,560 |
| 1874 | 22,642,371 | 9,396,924 | 113,010,000 |
| 1873 | 24,886,009 | 9,443,704 | 105,784,015 |
| 1872 | 22,012,525 | 8,247,852 | 82,589,537 |

—The Pennsylvania Company is a corporation distinct from the Pennsylvania Railroad, formed to operate all the leased lines west of Pittsburg. The stock is owned by the Penn. RR. In 1874 the operations showed net profit of $844,338, including receipts from the Company's investments. A very complete exhibit of the operations and financial condition of all its leased roads was published in V. 20, p. 425, &c. (V. 18, p. 192, 285, 370, 501, 584, 630; V. 19, p. 377, 473, 504; V. 20, p. 16, 86, 267, 314, 425; V. 21, p. 130, 361, 458, 592; V. 22, p. 253.)

Pennsylvania & Delaware.—The lease of this road to the Pennsylvania Railroad was ratified in 1874. Previously operated under temporary lease.

Pennsylvania & New York.—Operated in close connection with the Lehigh Valley. Net earnings 1873, $448,361. Dividend of 7½ per cent paid on preferred stock, $2,000,000; common stock is $1,061,700.

Peoria & Bureau Valley.—Leased perpetually to Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific at $125,000 per year.

Peoria, Pekin & Jacksonville.—In year ending June 30, 1874, net earnings, $60,361.

Peoria & Rock Island.—In hands of receiver. Defaulted in 1874. There are old 10 per cent bonds of $150,000. (V. 20, p. 141, 616; V. 21, p. 159, 319, 535; V. 22, p. 56, 344.)

Perkiomen.—Leased to Philadelphia & Reading.

Petersburg.—Gross earnings 1874, $240,145; net, $103,373 (Vol. 19, p. 351; V. 20, p. 592; V. 21, p. 64, 372; V. 22, p. 135.)

Philadelphia & Baltimore Central.—Operated for some time past, in Pennsylvania, by trustees of first mortgage bondholders. Phil., Wil. & Balt. largely interested.

Philadelphia & Erie.—Leased February, 1862, for 999 years to Penn. Railroad, but without any guarantee of bonds. Gross earnings, 1875, $3,[illegible]; net earnings, $1,137,413. The Penn. Railroad is credited $231,244. (V. 20, p. 8, 243; V. 22, p. 206.)

Philadelphia & Reading.—The net earnings of main and branch lines in 1874-5, were $4,530,765, against $5,720,205 in 1873-4, and $5,357,766 in 1872-3. Income from other sources, $2,341,789, against $1,251,670 in 1873-4. The trustees of the general mortgage hold the mortgage of the Coal & Iron Co. A comparison of statistics for three years is as follows:

| Gross earnings | $14,832,661 | $14,452,121 | $12,660,927 |

Pittsburg, Fort Wayne & Chicago.—This company having previously earned a surplus above 10 per cent dividends, was leased July 1864, for 999 years, to Pennsylvania Railroad, at a rental equivalent to interest, sinking fund of debt, and 7 per cent on $19,714,286 stock, which was increased at that time from $11,500,000. The lease was transferred subsequently to the Pennsylvania Company. The lessees to keep the road in repair, and also pay taxes, expenses, etc. Pittsburg, Fort Wayne & Chicago leases the Newcastle & Beaver Valley and the Lawrence roads; which in turn are leased again by Pennsylvania Company. New stock of $4,100,000, issued to Penn. Railroad for improvements, &c., is under article 16 of lease; guaranty on old stock not affected. Net earnings, 1875, $3,273,398. (V. 20, p. 425.)

Pittsburg Virginia & Charleston.—Of these bonds the Pennsylvania Railroad owns $500,000.

Pittsburg Washington & Baltimore.—This was formerly Pittsburg & Connellsville. Interest was in default to city of Baltimore, which owned a large amount of the bonds, and a transfer was made May, 1875, to Baltimore & Ohio RR. for $1,000,000. (V. 18, p. 528; V. 19, p. 17; V. 20, p. 291, 546; V. 21, p. 161.)

Plymouth, Kankakee & Pacific.—In foreclosure. V. 19, p. 120; V. 20, p. 314, 491; V. 21, p. 372.)

Port Huron & Lake Michigan—This forms part of the Chicago & Lake Huron consolidation, with Peninsular of Michigan. Interest was in default Nov., 1873, and coupons funded for three years. (V. 18, p. 192, 253, 376, 455, 608; V. 20, p. 357; V. 22, p. 375.)

Portland & Ogdensburg.—The two divisions were consolidated March 1875 as one company, and a mortgage of $8,000,000 on whole line proposed. In March, 1876, Co. passed the interest on Portland city bonds. (V. 21, p. 130, 396, 613; V. 22, p. 182; V. 22, p. 304.)

Portland & Rochester—This is the old York & Cumberland sold out in 1865. Net earnings year ending August 31, 1875, $33,659.

Portland, Saco & Portsmouth—Leased March 18, 1871, to Eastern Mass. Railroad for 99 years at 10 per cent per annum; modified Dec., 1875, to 6 per cent for two years. (V. 21, p. 372, 434, 592.)

Port Royal.—The Georgia Railroad guarantees $500,000 of these bonds; balance in default. (V. 20, p. 291, 453; V. 21, p. 73.)

Portsmouth, Great Falls & Conway.—Opened in 1872, and is leased by Eastern Railroad, Massachusetts.

Providence & Worcester.—Net earnings year ending September 30, 1875, $230,278; floating debt, $1,370,000. (V. 21, p. 590.)

Reading & Columbia.—This road is operated and controlled by the Philadelphia & Reading Railroad. Floating debt, $1,093,494.

Reading & Lehigh.—This was the Berks County road; sold out, and leased to Philadelphia & Reading, March, 1875, for 99 years. (V. 20, p. 63, 267.)

Rensselaer & Saratoga.—Leased May 1, 1871, to Delaware & Hudson Canal Company, which pays interest on bonds and 8 per cent on stock. In 1872-3 the net surplus to lessee was $201,597. (V. 20, p. 244.)

Richmond & Danville.—Gross earnings 1874-5, $923,057; net, $323,447. This company leases the North Carolina Railroad and the Piedmont Railroad, and forms a through route with the Atlanta & Richmond Air-Line. The Penn. Railroad owned $600,000 stock of the Richmond & Danville, and took $1,000,000 of the new bonds at 80. (V. 20, p. 8, 291, 568; V. 21, p. 614; V. 22, p. 180.)

Richmond, Fredericksburg & Potomac.—Gross earnings, $382,298; expenses, $180,049; net earnings, $202,248. (V. 21, p. 612.)

Richmond & Petersburg.—Gross earnings year ending Sept. 30, 1875, $161,935; net, $78,251. Bonds due and not presented, $99,500; bonds paid off, $59,500. (V. 22, p. 15.)

Rockford, Rock Island & St. Louis.—Sold in foreclosure August 16, 1875, for $1,320,000. $5,000,000 of the bonds have a priority. Distribution after sale, V. 22, p. 185. (V. 21, p. 87, 110, 160, 186, 207, 231, 245, 319, 396, 458, 489; V. 22, p. 135, 182, 340, 375.)

Rome, Watertown & Ogdensburg—The last report, in V. 20, p. 311, shows gross earnings in 1874 of 1,132,868; expenses, $770,256; net earnings, $362,611. Against the bonded debt the company holds $617,183 in sinking funds. The Lake Ontario Shore Road has been consolidated with the Rome, Watertown & Ogdensburg, and is in progress to Niagara. (V. 19, p. 169; V. 20, p. 8, 163, 311; V. 21, p. 442).

Rutland.—Leased January, 1871, to the Vermont Central. Terms modified in July, 1874. Default made on rental, and lease again modified. (V. 19, p. 120; V. 20, p. 186; V. 21, p. 185, 490; V. 22, p. 209.)

Texas & Pacific.—A history of the company is given in the annual report in CHRONICLE, V. 21, p. 229. Land grant bonds had been issued, but new arrangements were made with the construction company. See report. (V. 19, p. 397; V. 20, p. 63; V. 21, p. 229, 324.)

Toledo, Peoria & Warsaw.—Interest in default December, 1873. Passed into receiver's hands February, 1874. Foreclosure suits commenced 1875. (V. 21, p. 160, 372, 505, 592, 614; V. 22, p. 159, 297.)

Toledo Tiffin & East.—In hands of mortgage trustees.

Toledo, Wabash & Western.—Operations for four years compared as follows:

| | Gross earnings. | Operating expenses. | Net earnings. |
|---|---|---|---|
| 1873 | $5,738,807 | $4,4 7,378 | $1,331,429 |
| 1873 | 6,0 8,978 | 4,365,144 | 1,613,834 |
| 1871 | 5,736,666 | 3,776,828 | 1,959,838 |

A later report to June 30, 1874, was in V. 19, p. 480. Feb. 1, '75, default was made on interest and a funding proposition offered, but not accepted. Mr. J. D. Cox, the President, was appointed receiver Feb. 22, 1875. To be sold under consolidated mortgage June 10, 1876. (V. 21, p. 16, 64, 186, 269, 321, 349, 490, 604, 613; V. 22, p. 88, 182, 200, 234, 305, 344, 375.)

Troy & Boston.—With leased roads forms a line from Troy, N. Y., to North Adams, Mass. In 1873-74 gross earnings were $530,310; operating expenses, $283,879. There are a few of old 1st and 2d mortgage bonds yet outstanding.

Troy Union.—A short road in Troy city. Bonds issued by city and guaranteed by several roads.

Tuckerton.—From New Jersey Southern Railroad to Tuckerton, N. J. Net earnings 1873, $7,759.

Union Pacific.—Gross earnings in 1874 were $10,559 880; net earnings, $5,907,565; gross earnings in 1875 were $11,993,832, and net earnings $7,011,784. The percentage of operating expenses to gross earnings was 41·51 per cent in 1875 and 44·05 per cent in 1874. Land sales in 1875, 111,049 acres at $3 66 per acre, or $404,462. Total sales to Jan. 1, 1876, 1,082,893 acres for $5,336,014. Land notes and contracts on hand, January 1, 1876, $3,012,501. The suit to recover for Government transportation was decided by the United States Supreme Court in favor of this company, Nov. 29, 1875, including the important ruling that interest on the Government loan is not payable till the principal is due in 1896-99. Abstract of last report V. 22, p. 257, and government report to June 30, 1875, V. 21, p. 467. The annual report gives no general balance sheet nor income account. Dividends at 6 per cent per year were begun in July, and increased to 8 per cent October, 1875. The United States Attorney-General has a suit pending for $1,040,056 against the company as 5 per cent of its net earnings. (V. 20, p. 314, 358, 405, 453, 492, 522, 547, 586, 594; V. 21, p. 64, 105, 245, 302, 372, 467, 536; V. 22, p. 111, 182, 234, 257, 400.)

Union Pacific Central Branch.—This was formerly the Atchison & Pike's Peak road. Interest in default since November, 1873. Gross earnings 1874-75, $113,519; expenses, $123,183. (V. 17, p. 588, 834; V. 20, p. 8, 314; V. 21, p. 612; V. 22, p. 111).

United New Jersey Railroad & Canal Companies.—The Camden & Amboy Railroad and branches, Delaware & Raritan Canal, and New Jersey Railroad form the United Companies of New Jersey. They were leased to Pennsylvania Railroad, Oct. 20, 1871, at 10 per cent on stock and assumption of all liabilities. In 1874 the gross earnings were $10,021,468; operating expenses, $7,098,449; net, $2,933,039, leaving a loss to lessees of $31,161 after paying interest and dividends. The loans due in February, and April 1875, were paid off and bonds of 1871 increased by $2,300,000, issued in London.

Utah Central.—Salt Lake to Ogden. In 1872-3 net earnings were $206,358.

Utica & Black River.—Gross receipts 1874-5, $513,397; expenses, $251,660; dividends disbursed, $106,149. (V. 22, p. 207.)

Utica, Ithaca & Elmira.—The road was completed November, 1875. The sinking fund is $30,000 yearly from 1878. (V. 21, p. 16.)

Valley (Va.).—This road was built chiefly by subscription of Balt. & Ohio RR., Baltimore city, and Va. counties, but building was stopped for some time under difficulties, which were settled in October, 1875. (V. 19, p. 640; V. 20, p. 16, 453; V. 21, p. 396.)

Vermont & Canada.—Under lease to Vermont Central, and proposed to be sold to same for $3,000,000 in 6 p. c. bonds; but still in litigation (V. 19, p. 40, 501; V. 20, p. 16, 141, 419, 445, 468, 492; V. 21, p. 442.)

Vermont Central.—In 1872 the Company went to default on interest, and has since been in numerous complications. A new corporation under the name of Central Vermont has been formed, with $2,000,000 paid-up capital, and assumed obligations of the old Vermont Central. Foreclosure in progress on 2d mortgage. (V. 20, p. 16, 141, 186, 314, 358, 492, 547, 594, 610; V. 21, p. 38, 245, 418, 490; V. 22, p. 110.)

Vicksburg & Meridian.—Net earnings year ending March 1, 1875, were $130,089. Coupons are paid 2 per cent cash, balance scrip. Coupons of July, 1874, and April, 1875, were passed. (V. 20, p. 591; V. 21, p. 207.)

Vermont & Massachusetts.—This road is leased to the Fitchburg RR. Co. for 999 years, commencing Jan. 1, 1874; they paying interest on the debt and 4 per cent on the stock for the first two years, 5 per cent the next two years, and 6 per cent for the remainder of the lease, exclusive of all taxes.

THE CONTINENTAL

WAS THE

FIRST COMPANY TO SUBMIT TO THE RESTRICTIONS OF THE SURPLUS LAW OF 1874.

By the provisions of this Law the Company is compelled to limit its dividends to stockholders to 7 per cent. per annum, and to deposit one-half of the remainder of its earnings in the Insurance Department of this State, as a SPECIAL RESERVE SAFETY FUND, for the PROTECTION and SAFETY of such policy holders as may not be burned out at the time of a conflagration so great as to destroy the ability of all Companies, to pay their losses in full, thereby avoiding the necessity of placing the Company in the hands of a Receiver in Bankruptcy.

Some of the benefits of submission to this law are as follows:

First—To the assured, who are claimants for losses at the time of the great fire.

It will give them more money than can be obtained under the requirements of any other law on this subject, because it exempts the Company from receiver's fees, legal costs, or other expenses of bankruptcy.

It requires the Company to maintain at all times a "GUARANTEE SAFETY FUND" equal in amount to the "Special Reserve Fund," for the greater protection of policy holders generally.

It will prevent any encroachment upon it by later losses under uncancelled policies.

It compels just and prompt adjustments and payments, no matter how great the fire or loss.

Second—To the policy-holders whose property is not involved in such fire—a hitherto neglected class:

It will give a deserved protection and provide for the payment of their later sustained losses, as if no great fire had occurred.

It will save them from vexatious and serious loss of time and money in seeking and paying for new insurance, while waiting indefinitely for the return of what is due from the Bankrupt companies whose policies have become worthless, and whose assets may be in the clutches of a slow-paced Receiver.

Publications.

"FAIRLY WITHOUT A RIVAL."
—Congregationalist.

The most eminent authors of the day, such as Hon. W. E. Gladstone, Prof. Max Muller, Prof. Huxley, Dr. W. B. Carpenter, Prof. Tyndall, R. A. Proctor, Frances Power Cobbe, The Duke of Argyll, James A. Froude Mrs. Muloch, Mrs. Oliphant, Miss Thackeray, Jean Ingelow, Geo. MacDonald, William Black Anthony Trollope, R. D. Blackmore, Matthew Arnold, Henry Kingsley, Thomas Carlyle, W. W. Story, Robert Buchanan, Tennyson, Browning, and many others, are represented in the pages of

LITTELL'S LIVING AGE.

In 1876 THE LIVING AGE enters upon its thirty-third year. It has never failed to receive the warmest support of the best men and journals of the country, and has met with constantly increasing success. Having recently absorbed its younger competitor, "EVERY SATURDAY," it is now without a rival in its special field.

During the year it will furnish to its readers the productions of the ablest authors, above-named and many others; embracing the Serial and Short Stories of the and an amount unapproached by any other periodical in the world of the most valuable literary and scientific matter of the day, from the pens of the FOREMOST ESSAYISTS, SCIENTISTS, CRITICS, DISCOVERERS AND EDITORS, representing every department of Knowledge and Progress.

A weekly Magazine, of sixty-four pages, THE LIVING AGE gives more than double column octavo pages of reading matter yearly It presents in an inexpensive form, considering its amount of matter, with freshness, owing to its weekly issue, and with a satisfactory completeness attempted by no other publication, the best Essays, Reviews, Criticisms, Tales, Sketches of Travel and Discovery, Poetry, Scientific, Biographical, Historical and Political Information, from the entire body of Foreign Periodical Literature.

THREE AND A QUARTER THOUSAND

It is, therefore, invaluable to every American reader, as the only thorough as well as fresh compilation of a generally inaccessible but indispensable current literature,—indispensable because it embraces the productions of the

ABLEST LIVING WRITERS

in all branches of Literature, Science, Art, and Politics

"It reproduces the best thoughts of the best minds of the civilized world, upon all topics of living interest."—Philadelphia "Inquirer."

"The best of all our eclectic publications."—"The Nation," New York.

"And the cheapest. A monthly that comes every week."—"The Advance," Chicago.

"A pure and perpetual reservoir and fountain of entertainment and instruction."—Hon. Robert C. Winthrop.

"The best periodical in America."—Rev. Dr. Cuyler.

"It has no equal in any country."—Philadelphia "Press."

"Its publication in weekly numbers gives it a great advantage over its monthly contemporaries in the spirit and freshness of its contents."—"The Pacific," San Francisco.

"Ought to find a place in every American Home."—New York "Times."

"Simply indispensable to any one who desires to keep abreast of the thought of the age in any department of science or literature."—Boston "Journal."

PUBLISHED WEEKLY at $8 00 a year, free of postage; or for $10 50 (covering prepayment of postage on both periodicals,) THE LIVING AGE and either one of the American four dollar monthly Magazines (or Harper's Weekly or Bazar, or Appleton's Journal, weekly) will be sent for a year; or, for $9 50, THE LIVING AGE and Scribner's St. Nicholas.

CURRENCY CONTRACTION.

The currency changes which have been in active progress the past few months, appear, as yet, to have met with no decided check. Compared with March, the greenbacks deposited in April to retire Bank circulation show a considerable falling off, being $5,304,027 in March and $3,001,000 in April; but this large excess in the former month was probably due to special causes; the temporary decrease in the movement since is no evidence of a permanent decline in it. So long as the conditions are favorable—that is, so long as it is more profitable for the banks to retire their circulation than to retain it—the change will continue to be made. It is surprising how quiet the anti-bank party has of late become. A short time since, it was loud in its criticisms upon these institutions, on account of the monopoly they enjoyed. A truly wonderful monopoly that must be, which, those enjoying it, are so eager to give up.

On a previous occasion, through the kindness of the Comptroller of the Currency, we were able to present the full amount of currency contraction to the close of February. We now have his figures to the first of May, and give them below. The statement indicates the issue and retirement of currency under the acts of June 20, 1874, and of January 14, 1875, to May 1, 1876:

|---|---|---|
| National bank notes outstanding when act of June 20, 1874, was passed | | $349,894,182 |
| National bank notes issued from June 20, 1874, to January 14, 1875 | $4,734,500 | |
| National bank notes redeemed and retired between same dates | 2,767,232 | |
| National bank-note increase from June 20, 1874, to Jan. 14, 1875 | | 1,967,268 |
| National bank notes outstanding Jan. 14, 1875 | | $351,861,450 |
| National bank notes redeemed and retired from Jan. 14, 1875, to May 1, 1876 | $24,603,706 | |
| National bank notes surrendered between same dates | 4,685,877 | |
| Total redeemed and surrendered | $29,489,583 | |
| National bank notes issued between same dates | 14,368,855 | |
| Decrease from Jan. 14, 1875, to May 1, 1876 | | 15,120,728 |
| Amount outstanding May 1, 1876 | | $336,740,722 |
| Greenbacks on deposit in the Treasury on June 20, 1874, to retire notes of insolvent and liquidating banks | | $3,813,675 |
| Greenbacks deposited from June 20, 1874, to May 1, 1876, to retire national bank notes | | 61,845,297 |
| Total deposits | | $65,658,972 |
| Greenback deposits used by Treasurer to retire bank notes between same dates, without re-issue | | 27,575,771 |
| Balance of deposits May 1, 1876 | | $28,083,201 |
| Greenbacks retired under act of January 14, 1875 | | $11,472,124 |
| Greenbacks outstanding May 1, 1876 | | $370,527,876 |

This statement shows that since March 1st the total of Bank notes redeemed and surrendered is $4,527,256; during the same time, there were issued of new notes $548,095; so that the net decrease of these notes outstanding, from March 1st to April 1st, was $3,979,161. Of greenbacks deposited by the banks to retire their notes, the balance unused, and therefore on hand, was, March 1, $23,733,790, and May 1, $28,083,291, or an increase for the two months of $4,349,501. On March 1, the total greenbacks outstanding were, $370,943,392, and on May 1, $370,527,876, or a net decrease of $415,516. The full figures, therefore, showing the changes in the active circulation during the two months, would be as follows:

| | To May 1, '76. | To Mch. 1, '76. | Decrease two mos |
|---|---|---|---|
| National bank notes redeemed and surrendered from Jan. 14, 1875 | $29,489,583 | $24,962,327 | $4,527,256 |
| Notes issued same time | 14,368,855 | 13,820,760 | 548,095 |
| Net decrease | $15,120,728 | $11,141,567 | $3,979,161 |
| Greenbacks on deposit with U. S. Treasurer to retire notes | 28,083,291 | 23,733,790 | 4,349,501 |
| Making the decrease | $43,204,019 | $34,875,357 | $8,328,662 |
| Total greenbacks outstanding | $370,527,876 | $370,943,392 | $415,516 |
| Total decrease in active currency during two months | | | $8,744,178 |

We thus see that there has been during the last two months a decrease in the active or available circulation of $8,744,178. But, if we would measure the full force of the movement, we must go back to January, 1875. At that time the greenbacks outstanding were $382,000,000; at present they are, as stated above, $370,527,876, or a decrease of $11,472,124, that being the amount retired under the act of January 14, 1875. Now, if we add this total to the amount of National Bank notes already surrendered and redeemed since January, 1875, and to that total the greenbacks on deposit, which will not be again issued till the same amount of Bank notes are retired, we would have the following as the decrease in the active currency since January, 1875:

| Net decrease in bank notes from Jan. 14, 1875, to May 1, 1876 | $15 120,728 |
| Greenbacks on deposit with Treasurer to retire notes, May 1, 1876 | 28,083,291 |
| Decrease in greenbacks since Jan., 1875 | 11,472,124 |
| Total decrease since Jan., 1875 | $54,676,143 |

Very likely, some will say that the 28 million of greenbacks on deposit are only temporarily withdrawn. This is true in one sense, for the greenbacks will come out again, but only as they redeem an equal number of dollars in Bank notes. They are placed there by the Banks, and are now held by the Treasurer for that purpose alone; and they can never be in circulation until the Bank notes which they now represent are out of circulation. Hence, the total given above, of $54,676,143, represents the actual decrease in circulation since January, 1875. The actual greenback and Bank note circulation outstanding in January, 1875, and at the present time, may, therefore, be stated as follows:

|---|---|
| Greenbacks outstanding January, 1875 | $382,000,000 |
| Bank notes outstanding same date | 351,861,450 |
| Outstanding January, 1875 | $733,861,450 |
| Decrease since, to May 1, 1876 | 54,676,143 |
| Total outstanding May 1, 1876 | $679,185,307 |

OUR NATIONAL BANK RESERVES.

It is extremely gratifying to be able to feel that, while now and then single banks in different parts of the country are developing weakness, and a few are failing, the great National system is thoroughly sound. In a time like the present, no fact is of more importance. As we all know, weakness there would impart weakness to every department of our commercial organism. For this reason, the frequent publication of reports was originally made a part of our National Bank laws, and that plan has been always continued, and felt to be a conspicuous merit of the National system. Each institution is required to publish in its own vicinity its detailed statement, and out of all the reports the Comptroller furnishes aggregates of great usefulness. The public is thus kept informed as nearly as possible of the actual strength of every institution, and also of the combined strength of all the banks in the United States. This plan depends, of course, for much of its usefulness upon the Comptroller, and Mr. Knox has always shown that he fully understands the significance and importance of the work. His compilations are very full, presenting the vital facts in the returns in such connection and with such comparisons as best to convey and illustrate the information required. The following brief statement, which we have received from him this week, will, in that respect, be found to be no exception to this rule:

LAWFUL MONEY RESERVE OF THE NATIONAL BANKS, AS SHOWN BY THE REPORTS OF THEIR CONDITION AT THE CLOSE OF BUSINESS ON OCT. 1ST AND DEC. 17TH 1875, AND MARCH 10TH, 1876.

In this total is included, due from reserve agents October 1, 1875 $50,644,964; December 17, 1875, $31,462,680; March 10, 1876, $99,036,007.

We think that some surprise will be felt, as well as gratification, at the improved position of the banks as reflected in this statement of their reserves. It will be seen that in October last the excess in the total held, over the requirements of the law, was 82 millions; in December it had fallen to 76 millions; while in the last returns, of March 10, it had risen to 101 millions. This, certainly, is very satisfactory. The analysis of the reserve is also instructive. In legal tenders the change since October is merely nominal, but in specie there appears to be a gradual strengthening of the banks. Of course, part of this increase is due to special causes. As is natural, the accumulation of specie is mainly in New York and Boston, as may be seen from the following detailed statement:

While these points, and others we might refer to, are so satisfactory, the failures of individual banks which are occurring show the wisdom of the system of examination which the law also provides. It is no surprise that some of these institutions during the past speculative period should have weakened themselves. But it is very important that weak banks be discovered, and when the evil cannot be cured they should be weeded out; for that purpose the policy of frequent examinations, which has been pursued during late years, is especially useful. The changes which are taking place as we progress towards specie payments, render examinations more necessary, and we have no doubt the Comptroller will see that the duties thus imposed upon his department are wisely exercised.

KANSAS COUNTY BONDS.

We have from time to time called attention to some of the legal questions growing out of the rapid issue during late years of town and county bonds. It is amazing what favor this class of security once found. Of course, where the amount which can be issued has a reasonable limit and the law authorizing the issue is conformed to, no bond could be safer. But disappointments have arisen, and are now constantly arising, because these securities have been taken without sufficient examination, the high rates of interest and the gilt edge being sufficient to float them. We are acquainted with one transaction where one hundred thousand dollars of such bonds were cashed in 1872, (not by an infant or an idiot either), to find a few months later that the city issuing them never existed except on paper. And even now the public is constantly reading in the daily press complaints of defaults and contests under circumstances which, had ordinary prudence been exercised, a negotiation would have been impossible. For instance, we see this week in the Boston Commercial Bulletin the default on the bonds of the County of Leavenworth, Kansas, commented upon very severely and at considerable length. Much has already been written with regard to this matter, but more may well be said, for the case carries with it a moral of wide application among the investing class. It is this—a man who parts with his money on the promise of a high rate of interest for a gilt-edge bond, without examining the law or facts which underlie it, is pretty sure to lose both principal and interest.

Now, what was the law under which these Leavenworth bonds were issued? Certainly the credulous investor in them could never have read it, or it would have shaken his simplicity out of him, and he would have had his money still. This is the first section of the law:

SECTION 1. That the Board of County Commissioners of any county, the Mayor and Common Council of any incorporated city, and the Trustee, Clerk and Treasurer of any municipal township, in this State, are hereby empowered to issue the bonds of such county, city or township, in any sum necessary, not greater than ten per cent, inclusive of all other bonded indebtedness, of the taxable property of such county, city or township, for the purpose of building bridges, free or otherwise, or to aid in the construction of railroads or water power by donation thereto, or the taking of stock therein, or for other works of internal improvement Provided, That all counties may issue in addition to the amount authorized by this section, bonds not to exceed one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000); and all counties having property of an assessed valuation of three million dollars ($3,000,000) or more, may issue in addition thereto two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000). Provided further, That under a proposal for aid to any railroad, any township having less than two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000) taxable property, may issue in addition to the ten (10) per cent authorized in this section, ten (10) per centum of an amount equal to the number of miles of railroad (agreed under such proposal to be constructed within such township) multiplied by six thousand (6,000); and, Provided further, That to the limit prescribed in this section shall not apply and be considered to restrict or prevent the issuing of any bonds heretofore voted, or vote now pending, in any county or township, in this State, and which bonds may not have yet been issued, but that the limit herein shall only be considered as applying only to the issuing of bonds to be hereafter voted under this law.

Here we have a modern machine for making bonds at wholesale. By it every county and town or city is authorized to freight itself with debt beyond even the possibility of payment. See how it acted on Leavenworth County. Its assessed valuation was $8,863,665. Under this law, then, it had the right (1) to borrow (ten per cent on valuation) $886,000; next, (2) as its assessed valuation exceeded three million, this debt could be increased $200,000 more; again, (3) the limit named did not include any bonds of whatever amount which had before been voted; and finally, (4) every other county in the State could do the same thing, so they weakened one another. Should not a law like that at least put a man on the inquiry? Of course, with such opportunities, the County of Leavenworth went into the bond-making business, and kept at it, stopping only when it reached the full limit authorized by the law. The census of 1870 gives the total population of the county at 32,444. So that the bonded debt of this county thus authorized (and now actually contracted) would be and is about $1,100,000; and calling each five persons a family, we have 6,480 families, or a debt on each family of nearly $200. And what is the result? In 1874, the total taxes in Leavenworth County were $295,321 38, or a rate on the valuation of 4·22 per cent; this the people feel to be very onerous, as it really is. Four and a quarter per cent would be onerous anywhere; but there, the valuation in the first place is not low, and, in the second place, the larger portion is farm property in a comparatively new community, which, of course, cannot bear taxation like a thickly-settled eastern district. Consequently, the people hunt up a defence for their bonds, and default on them. We are, of course, not justifying their act, but simply indicating that, with certain facts given, the result must necessarily be disappointment to the investor.

All this cannot be too widely or frequently dwelt upon. Though we cannot recall the past, we have a future which experience should make less disastrous. In all such cases, the investor must suffer, while at the same time the progress of the County and State will be fettered for years by the transactions. Eventually, it is probable, the courts will hold the bonds good; but while that end is being attained, the original bondholders are likely to be shaken out, and finally some compromise will close the history. And yet, in the defence made by the County of Leavenworth, we can see little expectation of ultimate success. They urge that the bonds are void; that the question of their issue was never properly submitted to a vote of the people; that there was no law authorizing their issue; that there was no consideration given, the railroad company having failed to perform the covenants on its part; that they were issued to a foreign corporation, to aid in building a railroad in another State; and that, further, the pretended act under sanction of which they were issued, never passed the legislature nor received the signature of the proper officers. Just the contrary of this defence is stated with great detail in or upon all these bonds, and the certificate of the auditor of the State is added to the effect that the bond was regularly and legally issued, &c. But it is unnecessary to argue these points, as they are still before the courts.

We notice, however, a late decision of the Supreme Court of the United States which sets at rest an important part of this defence. The case was "The Town of Coloma (Illinois) vs. Eaves." It seems that the authority to make the subscription upon which the bonds were issued, was, by the act, made dependent upon the result of the submission of the question whether the town would subscribe, to a popular vote of the township; and the defence set up was that no such election had been held. But the Court decided that the person or persons whose duty it was to determine whether the statutory requisites to a subscription and to an authorized issue of the bonds had been performed, were those whose duty it was also to issue the bonds in the event of such performance. The statute required the supervisor or other executive officer, not only to subscribe for the stock, but also in conjunction with the clerk to execute bonds to the railroad company, in the name of the town, for the amount of the subscription. The bonds were required to be signed by the supervisor or other executive officer, and to be attested by the clerk. They were so executed. The supervisor and the clerk signed them, and they were registered in the office of the auditor of the State, in accordance with an act requiring that, before their registration, the supervisor must certify under oath to the auditor that all the preliminary conditions to their issue required by law had been complied with. On each bond the auditor certified the registry. It was only after this that they were issued. And the bonds themselves recite that they "are issued under and by virtue of the act incorporating the railroad company," approved March 24, 1869, "and in accordance with the vote of the electors of said township of Coloma, at a regular election held July 28, 1869, in accordance with said law." The Court concludes, therefore, that it is not an open question, as between a bona fide holder of the bonds and the township, whether all the pre-requisites to their issue had been complied with. Apart from and beyond the reasonable presumption that the officers of the law, the township officers, discharged their duty, the matter has passed into judgment. The persons appointed to decide whether the necessary pre-requisites to their issue had been completed, have decided and certified their decision. They have declared the contingency to have happened, on the occurence of which the authority to issue the bonds was complete. Their recitals are such a decision, and beyond these a bona fide purchaser is not bound to look for evidence of the existence of things in pais.

Though we do not claim that this case of the Town of Coloma meets the whole defence set up by the County of Leavenworth, still, other decisions appear to go even farther, shutting out any reasonable expectation of success. Not unlikely however, if the present defence fails, other dilatory measures will be taken, until a compromise wipes out the obligation. This, as we all know, is the usual course. In the meantime, and for a long time after, the people must suffer, progress in the county must be checked, and finally the simple-minded investor will transfer his security to the speculator—the only party who makes anything out of the transaction. And is it necessary to point the moral? When another State passes such laws for the easy and wholesale making of debt, will the bait of large interest with a superfluity of gilt be any less inviting? In the interest of the borrower, as well as of the lender, we hope it may.

FINANCIAL REVIEW OF APRIL.

The month of April was marked by serious depression in speculative stocks, and a dull business in investment securities. The money market remained tolerably steady, notwithstanding a large reduction in the legal tenders in bank in the first half of the month, the small demand for money in stock operations leading to much less activity in call loans. Mercantile business showed some improvement towards the close, but the reports had previously been decidedly unfavorable, and the circular of Messrs. Dun, Barlow & Co.'s Mercantile Agency showed a large number and amount of failures for the first quarter of 1876. Prime commercial paper of the choicest grade was easily sold at 5 per cent, but there was much more scrutiny exercised by the purchasers of paper, and other grades sold relatively much higher.

In government securities there was less business in the early part of the month, but afterwards the demand increased largely, and, both from town and country, the purchases were considerable. The important event was the sale by the government of $5,883,000 new fives of 1881 for account of the Alabama claimants, which took place on Monday the 24th inst. The total bids exceeded $70,000,000, and the whole amount was taken by Messrs. Drexel, Morgan & Co., as the representatives of a syndicate including Messrs. Rothschild, of London, at 103.78 7-16, gold. State, city and railroad bonds were dull, and the latter showed in some cases a decline in sympathy with railroad stocks.

The stock market was greatly depressed in tone, and many stocks reached the lowest prices of the current year. The attack on Western Union Telegraph was followed up vigorously by the "bear" party, of which Mr. Jay Gould is the accredited leader, and every element was brought to bear which could depress that stock, and this coming after the passing of the quarterly dividend had the effect of carrying the price down to 63 and a fraction. The break up among the managers of trunk railroad lines from Chicago eastward, had a damaging effect on railroad stocks, and the stocks of the weaker roads involved in the compact declined heavily, particularly Michigan Central and Lake Shore.

The following table will show the opening, highest, lowest and closing prices of railway and miscellaneous stocks at the New York Stock Exchange during the months of March and April:

Foreign exchange remained quiet and generally pretty strong on a small business. The rates were most of the time a little below specie shipping point, and the amount of coin and bullion sent out was less than many had anticipated.

—Messrs. Wm. W. Wakeman & Co., bankers and brokers, at No. 36 Wall street, have formed a co-partnership for the transaction of a banking and general brokerage business under the above name, and are now prepared to give special attention to the purchase and sale on commission of Government securities, stocks and bonds; also of California and Nevada mining stocks. Messrs. Wakeman & Conklin, of this firm, have been executing orders for the purchase and sale of California and Nevada mining stocks for the past twelve years, and have an extensive acquaintance with the principal mines, and are in daily receipt of information regarding same.

—Parties having occasion to transact any banking business with Houston, Texas, or its vicinity, are invited to give attention to the card of the City Bank of Houston. This bank, with a capital of $500,000, is still under the management of the officers who have for a long time past controlled it, and invites correspondence for collections or other banking business.

[From our own correspondent.]

LONDON, Saturday, April 22, 1876.

The directors of the Bank of England have, this week, reduced their minimum rate of discount from 3 per cent., to which it was lowered on the 6th inst., to 2 per cent. In most quarters the impression was that a reduction of one-half per cent. would have been sufficient for the current week, and that a further reduction could have been adopted next week, if necessary. It was clear, however, that the rates of discount were certain to decline to 2 per cent., and perhaps there is no just cause for complaining about the course pursued by the Bank authorities, when it was evident that 2 per cent. must have eventually been adopted. To argue that half per cent. should be relinquished this week, and another half next week, seems puerile, and a good deal of labor will be saved by fixing at once the figure at which, in all probability, the rate will remain for a long time to come. There are indeed apprehensions that cheap money will lead to speculation and eventual disaster; but on that point I do not think there is any occasion for immediate fear. As I have so frequently pointed out, and as, indeed, is now so very well known, the absence of speculation, both in commercial and financial circles, has had the effect of rendering the supply of money largely in excess of the requirements of the community. There seem at the moment but few safe outlets for the large supplies of unemployed money, and it is still very difficult to perceive in what direction our surplus capital will find employment. The investing public are even fearing that our colonies are borrowing too rapidly, their recent loans not having been in all instances subscribed for. If these begin to be viewed with less favor, it is very certain that foreign loans are not likely to meet with much success, as the losses incurred by the country have during the last few years been very severe. Public companies, also, are out of the question. In these the public losses have been very severe, and we now only hear of a skating-rink company being introduced into some provincial town or popular watering-place. Commerce, too, shows but few signs of vitality, the same cautious policy being pursued in commercial as in financial circles. It is believed, nevertheless, that there is considerable soundness in trade, the collapse in certain branches last year having rendered a sound and legitimate policy of trading necessary, and, indeed, imperative. There is, however, but little speculation in progress, but this is the natural and perhaps beneficial result of the recklessness which met with so severe an exposure last year.

The return of the Bank of England is of a favorable character, the proportion of reserve to liabilities being nearly 48 per cent. The total reserve has been augmented by about £600,000, and the supply of bullion by nearly £400,000. The provincial coin circulation appears to have been slightly augmented during the week, a result due, no doubt, to the additional requirements of the holiday season. The demand for gold for export is on a very moderate scale, and there is every probability of the Bank assuming a position of considerable strength.

The demand for money during the week has been upon a very moderate scale, and there are not the slightest indications of approaching activity. Throughout the summer, indeed, a period of considerable ease is anticipated, as the means do not exist, and are not likely to present themselves, whereby our supplies of idle money are likely to be absorbed. The market for capital is very timid, and capitalists and investors seem altogether unwilling to pursue other than a policy of extreme caution. The quotations for money are now as under:

|---|---|---|---|
| Bank rate | 2 | Open-market rates: 4 months' bank bills | 1⅞@2 |

| 3 months' bills | 1¾@1⅞ | 4 and 6 months' trade bills | 2 @2⅛ |

The rates of interest have been reduced by the Joint-stock banks and discount houses to the extent of one per cent, and they are now as follows:

There has been very little demand for gold for export, and, during the week embraced in the last Bank return, £472,000 was sent in on balance from foreign and colonial sources. The silver market has been rather firm, the price for fine bars being 54d. per ounce. The prices of bullion are as follows:

The periodical sale of bills on India was held at the Bank of England on Wednesday. The amount offered was £500,000, of which £381,800 was allotted to Calcutta, and £118,200 to Bombay. Tenders on all Presidencies at 1s. 8⅝d. received about 17 per cent., and above that price in full. Three lacs of rupees were allotted on the 17th ult. at 1s. 9., and an allotment was also made on the 20th of January last. With these exceptions, there have been no sales of Council bills on India during the current year.

Business in the stock markets has been exceedingly quiet during the week, partly owing to the holidays, and partly to the indisposition of the public either to speculate or invest. The reduction in the Bank rate has, however, given a firmer tone to the railway market, but in foreign stocks an unsettled feeling has continued to prevail.

Business in the corn trade has been exceedingly quiet. A moderate consumptive business has been transacted in wheat, and prices show no change from last week. Spring sowing is now only approaching completion, the season being unusually late. The weather has, this week, been favorable; but some rain has fallen, which is now required on the lowlands. The young wheat plant is said to be promising. A large crop of hay is looked forward to. We have not had one for several years, and hay is, consequently, very dear.

The following figures show the imports and exports of cereal produce into and from the United Kingdom since harvest, viz, from September 1 to the close of last week, compared with the corresponding periods in the previous three years:

The return for the week ending April 15, shows that in the 150 principal markets of England and Wales the deliveries of home-grown wheat amounted to 40,990 quarters, against 64,244 quarters last year. In the whole Kingdom it is estimated that they were 163,960 quarters, against 257,000 quarters. Since harvest the sales have been 1,492,581 quarters, against 1,980,770 quarters; and in the whole Kingdom it is computed that they have been 5,970,300 quarters, against 7,923,080 quarters in the corresponding period of the previous season. The diminution this season, therefore, compared with its predecessor, amounts to as much as 2,000,000 quarters. It is estimated that the following quantities of produce have now been placed upon the British markets since harvest:

—The election for trustees and officers of the National Trust Company was held at the office of the company, in New York, on May 2, when the following gentlemen were unanimously elected: Mr. Darius R. Mangam, President; Mr. Samuel S. Constant, 1st Vice-President; Mr. Benjamin F. Bancroft, 2d Vice President; and Mr. J. C. Cruikshank, Secretary. Messrs. B. L Solomon, Geo. A. Fellows, H. S. Terbell, Daniel S. Appleton, Jos. S. Lowery, John P. Moore, S. H. Witherbee and Wm. S. Whitlock, were elected as executive committee. The list of trustees, twenty-eight in number, embraces some of the best known merchants and capitalists in the city. Mr. Mangam, the President, reports the company in a flourishing and prosperous condition.

—Sealed tenders addressed to the Secretary of Public Works, will be received at Ottawa, Canada, up to May 22 inst., for excavation and grading on certain sections of the Pacific Railway, some 117 miles in all, as well as for tracklaying and other work west of Fort William. An opportunity is now offered to railroad contractors who have been complaining of dull business, to show the best they can offer to so substantial a party as the Canadian Government. The advertisement will be found in another column.

—Messrs. Kuhn, Loeb & Co., as may be seen by their advertisement on another page, are inviting proposals, till May 16th, for $1,500,000 of the Six Per Cent. Gold Bonds of the City of Cincinnati, issued for the Cincinnati Southern Railroad. The debt of Cincinnati, exclusive of that issued for this railroad, is exceptionally small among our large cities, and the taxable valuation of property in the city is $184,496,505. No bid will be considered, if less than 103 per cent. and interest.

—We call the attention of holders of the first-mortgage consolidated bonds of the Missouri Kansas & Texas Railway Company, and also of the Union Pacific Railway, Southern Branch, bonds, to the notice issued to-day by the Union Trust Company of New York. Information of importance is contained in it.

—The Pennsylvania Railroad has declared its regular quarterly dividend of two per cent., payable on and after May 30.

The Money Market and Financial Situation.—The principal features of the past week have been the further depression in speculative stocks, and the prevailing dulness in the other departments of financial business. Government bonds, since the Treasury sale noticed last week, have been less active, and the demand from both city and out-of-town purchasers has been smaller. Railroad stocks are greatly depressed by the quarreling among the officers of the leading trunk lines; and one of the worst features of the railroad "war" is in the fact that it tends to demoralize mercantile business, as well as stock operations. The cutting under in rates is a matter of temporary duration, and altogether unsettles freight rates, as merchants do not know from day to day what the terms will be to-morrow, nor does one party know for how low a price another may ship his goods.

The local money market has been easy at 3 to 4½ per cent. Of very choice commercial paper, some sales have been made as low as 4 to 4½ per cent., but this is exceptional, and prime paper is quoted at 5@6 per cent., with the next grades at 7@10 per cent. Most of the legal tenders which went into the Sub Treasury on the sales of gold last week, have not yet been paid out.

The Bank of England, on Thursday, reported an increase in bullion for the week of £119,000, the discount rate remaining unchanged at 2 per cent.

The last statement of the New York City Clearing-House banks, issued April 29, showed an increase of $875,125 in the excess above their 25 per cent. legal reserve, the whole of such excess being $9,533,625, against $8 658,500 the previous week.

The following table shows the changes from the previous week and a comparison with 1875 and 1874:

United States Bonds.—There has been less business in governments this week, and it appears that the Treasury sale had the effect of concentrating business into the few days just before and after its occurrence. It is not known whether the new fives taken last week will be sold here or mostly sent abroad; as a matter of business, however, there would be no profit in sending them to London, as they can be bought there lower in moderate amounts, though the purchase of so large a lot would probably put up prices. There has been some demand here this week from Baltimore and other points southward.

State and Railroad Bonds.—Louisiana consols are firm; Virginia consols also firmer at the recent decline. Tennessee sixes, old, sold to-day at 43, and new series at 40⅞@41. The State of Georgia will presently fund the past-due coupons of the recognized bonds of the Macon & Brunswick and North & South railroads, endorsed by the State, into State 7s, dated July, 1876; notice to holders will be published.

Railroad bonds have been rather more active, and prices of some of the popular bonds which had recently declined have been stronger. The tendency of prices, and the volume of business in this department, depends considerably on the tone of stocks, and to-day Michigan Central 7s were among the active bonds, declining to 99, as the stock fell off to 42¾.

Railroad and Miscellaneous Stocks.—The stock market has continued to show great depression on most of the active list, and the decline in prices culminated with a fall in Michigan Central to-day to 42¾. In partial explanation of the present situation of stocks, it may be stated briefly that the Messrs. Vanderbilt and Jay Gould are both in a position to depress prices, and with the weight of two such parties, from different directions, bearing on the market, it is not remarkable that a decline should take place. It is true that the attitude of the parties named is altogether different; Jay Gould is accredited with being the leader of the bear clique, which, commencing its operations against Western Union Telegraph some two months ago, has since been operating heavily against that and other stocks, and has carried down nearly the whole list. The Messrs. Vanderbilt in their stand on the question of railroad freights are in a position of virtual hostility to the maintenance of railroad earnings, though we cannot pretend to say who are the parties most in fault for the present disagreement. It seems an absurdity for the Grand Trunk of Canada, in its present financial position, to attempt to dictate terms to the N. Y. Central, as another railroad war, long continued, would be suicide for the former Company. If they cannot get the terms they desire, they should get the best possible from Mr. Vanderbilt, and remain on friendly terms; it is only the Chinaman who commits hari-kari when he cannot get what he wants. The Post, to day, says that Mr. Joy, of the Michigan Central, telegraphs that he will refuse to prorate with the Grand Trunk Line in its recent reduction in rates for through business, and if he holds to this wise resolution the latter company will probably be driven out of their reduced tariff. The net earnings of the Michigan Central for March, just published, are $195,801. The latest gross earnings are given below. The extraordinary decline in this stock to day is said to be from other causes than sales by the prominent directors, and chiefly from the fact that there was no clique or speculative party to support it. The attacks on Western Union Telegraph seemed to culminate about Wednesday, and there has been strong buying since then, with a decided advance in price. This stock was sold in some heavy lots, "seller 60," on Wednesday, and on Thursday morning came the news of the breaking of all the Atlantic cable lines connecting with the Western Union—leaving only the direct cable working, which connects with the Atlantic and Pacific. These facts occasioned a good deal of unfavorable comment. The Western Union has obtained control of the Southern and Atlantic line, but upon what terms it is impossible yet to ascertain. The coal stocks close weak, but the outside public must operate in the dark, as no information is given of their financial condition. Railroad earnings keep up well as compared with 1875, and a fair increase is shown in most of the April reports thus far received.

The Gold Market.—Gold has been steady, and shown but little variation from day to day. Shipments of coin are renewed, and for to-morrow's steamers the export is variously estimated at $1,000,000 to $1,500,000. On gold loans the terms to-day were 2¼@2 and 1 per cent. for carrying, and flat. Customs receipts of the week were $1,648,000.

The following table will show the course of gold, and operations of the Gold Exchange Bank, each day of the past week:

(For the year ending December 31, 1875.)

The report has the following:

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| The gross earnings for the year, including leased lines, were | | $1,520 253 31 |
| The operating expenses for the year were | | 698,750 47 |
| Net earnings | | $821,607 84 |

Operating expenses 45·96 per cent of gross earnings.

The comparative earnings and expenses of 1874 with 1875 are as follows, viz.:

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| Earnings for 1875 | $1,520,818 | |
| Earnings for 1874 | 1,250,805 | |
| | | $269,552 |
| Operating expenses for 1875 | $698,750 | |
| Operating expenses for 1874 | 557,641 | |
| | | 141,108 |
| Net gain for 1875 | | $128,443 |

The increase of earnings and expenses for the year are attributable, in part, to the leases made Oct. 1, 1875, with the Kansas City Topeka & Western Railroad Company, a road running from Kansas City to Topeka (a distance of 67 miles), and the Pueblo & Arkansas Valley Railroad Company, a road running from the west line of the State of Kansas (in process of construction) to Pueblo, Col., 148½ miles. The Colorado & New Mexico Railroad Company, from the State line to Granada, Col., a distance of 11 miles, being consolidated into the P. & A. V. Railroad, Oct. 1, the lease with this company is cancelled. The aggregate net earnings on these leases from Oct. 1 to Dec. 31, 1875, were $40,525 57.

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| The amount paid to leased lines for the year 1875 | | $82,630 96 |
| And for the year 1874 | | 26,183 91 |
| Leased lines, increase for 1875 | | $56,346 96 |
| Main line, increase for 1875 | | 72,097 03 |
| | | $128,443 99 |

Under a law passed by Congress some three years since, all the railroads which have received a land grant are obliged to apply to the Court of Claims for compensation for all transportation done for the United States Government. The amount due for transportation to Dec. 31, 1875, is about $120,000. The case has been argued in the Court of Claims for our approved account to April 1, 1875, $68,690 13, and will speedily reach the Supreme Court, where alone the question can be finally decided.

The notable event of the year, and the one which promises to be a source of large revenue to the company, is the construction of the Pueblo & Arkansas Valley Railroad, from the terminus of your road to Pueblo, Col., which will be completed on or before March 1, 1876. This road has been leased by your company for the term of thirty years without any guaranty; and the value of this enterprise to the company cannot be over-estimated. It gives us a western terminus, which commands a large amount of traffic, both in freight and passengers, east and west. It opens a new route for the tourist to "the Switzerland of America." It furnishes a ready market for much of the produce of Kansas in the mining regions of Colorado. It provides for the use of the company, and of the settlers all along our line, a superior quality of coal at a cheap price. It brings our road nearer by a hundred miles to the vast and rich territory lying south and west of Kansas than any other railroad.

The report of the Land Commissioners shows that the sales of land during the year past (75,415 acres) amount to $416,409, at an average price of $5 59 per acre. The sales for the last four months of the year were larger than those of the eight months previous.

Grand Trunk of Canada.
(For the half year ending December 31, 1875).

The report shows:

| | Dec. half of 1874. | Dec. half of 1875. |
|---|---|---|
| The gross receipts upon the whole undertaking, including the Buffalo and Champlain lines have been | £1,127,031 | £1,046,348 |
| Which are reduced by the discount on American currency | 19,785 | 22,490 |
| To | £1,107,246 | £1,023,858 |
| Deduct working expenses (being at the rate of 79.93 p r cent, against 80.42 for the corresponding half of last year) | 890,459 | 818,408 |
| Leaving a sum of | £216,787 | £205,450 |
| From this, however, has to be deducted the postal and military revenue due for the half-year to the bondholders | 16,663 | 10,648 |
| Which leaves | £200,119 | £188,802 |

Applicable for the following payments, viz.:

|---|---|
| Interest, etc., paid on lands, temporary loans, etc., etc | £20,720 |
| Atlantic & St. Lawrence lease | 52,539 |
| Lewiston & Auburn Railway rent | 1,849 |
| Detroit line lease | 11,250 |
| Montreal & Champlain bond interest | 12,661 |
| Buffalo & Lake Huron rent | 83,500 |
| First equipment bond interest | 15,000 |
| Second equipment bond interest | 15,000 |
| 5 per cent perpetual debenture stock | 6,500 |
| Leaving a balance of | 362 |
| | £188,801 |

There has, therefore, been for the past half-year no balance available for dividend on the preference stocks, and the above sum of £362, added to the balance from the last account of £1,324, makes a total amount to be carried forward to the next account of £1,686. The operations of the half-year have resulted in a diminution of gross receipts (after deduction of discount on American currency) of £83,388, or 7.53 per cent., as compared with the corresponding period of 1874, which has, however, been nearly compensated for by the reduction of £72,051 effected in the working expenses. The net revenue, therefore, has only been reduced by £11,337, having been £205,450 against £216,787 in the correeponding half-year of 1874. The charges against the net revenue have been increased as follows:

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| Interest on lands, temporary loans, etc | | £7,500 |
| Lease-hold lines rentals | | 800 |
| Interest on debenture stock | £22,700 | |
| Less interest on mortgage to Bank of Upper Canada extinguished | 4,300 | |
| | | 18,400 |
| Total | | £26,700 |

The loss of net revenue of £11,337 added to this amount makes £38,000, which, with the balance carried forward, equals the balance carried to dividend account in the corresponding half-year in 1874. The decrease in the passenger receipts of £34,698, or nearly 10 per cent as compared with 1874, has been caused simply by a diminution in the numbers of the traveling public, and is an index of the commercial depression which exists. Such a loss of traffic cannot be completely recouped by reduced train service, as the accommodation afforded to the public cannot be all at once restricted; but the executive were enabled during the half-year to make some reduction in the passenger train miles run. The loss in the freight traffic of £49,070, or nearly 7 per cent, accompanied with an increased tonnage of 53,958, as compared with 1874, is the result of entirely lower rates. The following comparative statement shows the average distance each ton has been carried, and the average rate per ton per mile received since 1872, viz.:

| | Tons of Freight. | Average distance carried. Miles. | Av. rate per ton per mile. Cents. |
| 31st December, 1875 | 1,070,930 | 320 | 1·00 |
| " 1874 | 1,011,972 | 323 | 1·10 |
| " 1873 | 836,012 | 285 | 1·44 |

The expenditure charged against revenue account for the whole year 1875 shows a decided economy in this department, as the following figures illustrate:

| Expenditure. | 1874. | 1875. |
|---|---|---|
| Half-year ending June | £115 879 | £65,990 |
| Half-year ending December | 217,500 | 217,223 |
| Total for the year | £333,379 | £283,213 |

or a reduction of £50,166.

Up to the end of 1875, 942 miles of main line and branches had been laid with steel rails, leaving 446½ miles still laid with iron. In addition, 17½ miles of sidings and switches have also been laid with steel.

In reviewing the events of the whole year of 1875, the proprietors cannot fail to observe that the company has passed through a period of great difficulty and anxiety. Up to the close of 1874 the gross receipts had shown uniform improvement, even when the traffic of neighboring lines was showing, in diminished receipts, the effects of the depreciation of rates; but from the beginning of 1875, and throughout the whole year, the weekly traffic receipts have shown nearly continuous decreases. The loss of gross receipts from all sources during the year has been £190,000, or an average of £3,650 per week; as this loss was caused entirely by lower rates, the company have been compelled to do an increased business at a lower rate of remuneration. In thus referring to the events of the year 1875 it is satisfactory to be able to point out that some improvement is now manifesting itself in the affairs of the company. Since the close of 1875 down to the present time, there has been a substantial addition to the gross receipts; the freight rates are, on the whole, somewhat higher, and the supplies of fuel and other stores for the years 1876–7 are being now obtained at the further reductions.

Great Western of Canada.

(For the half-year ending Jan. 31, 1876.)

The figures throughout the report are reduced to a uniform gold equivalent, and therefore do not compare in all respects with those of former half-years.

Revenue Account.—The following summary affords a comparison with the figures of the corresponding half-year of 1875, both being reduced to the same gold basis:—

| | Jan. 31, 1876. | Jan. 31, 1875. |
|---|---|---|
| Gross receipts | £436,087 | £482,151 |
| Working expenses, excluding the transfer to renewal funds, being at the rate of 70·99 per ct., against 74·38 per cent for the corresponding period | 309,567 | 358,631 |
| | £126,520 | £123,520 |
| Balance of transfer to renewal funds, change-of-gauge fund | 33,976 | 22,226 |
| | £92,544 | £97,294 |

The loss on working leased lines being £10,019, and the charge for the depreciation fund to replace over-valued assets £6,500, there remains £76,025 applicable to interest on bonds and debenture stock. The amount required for this purpose, after deducting the credit balance of the general interest account, is £93,607. The net deficit of the revenue of the half-year is therefore £17,582. In the corresponding half-year of 1874–75 it was £14,231.

Revenue Overdraft.—The total overdraft on revenue account at Jan. 31, 1876, was £159,146, and the accumulated dividend in arrear on the 5 per cent preference stock was £38,224.

Renewal Funds.—The several renewal and other funds exhibit balances on Jan. 31, 1876, of £133,566.

It may be observed that, but for the requisite transfers to the various renewal funds, the insurance fund, the change-of guage fund, and the depreciated assets fund, amounting in all to £42,150, the half year's revenue would have shown a credit balance of £24,567, after providing for the bond and debenture stock interest.

Earnings.—The gross traffic receipts on the main line and branches show a decrease of £46,064, the detail of which is thus classified:

|---|---|
| Decrease in local passenger earnings | £5,368 |
| Decrease in through passenger earnings | 17,112 |
| Decrease in foreign freight and live stock earnings | 29,036 |
| Decrease in mails, express freight, and rents | 2,608 |
| Total | £54,114 |
| Increase in local freight and live stock | 18,050 |
| Total decrease | £16,061 |

This deficiency in the traffic earnings is chiefly due to the continuance of the very low rates, especially on through business, to which reference was made in the last report. Towards the end of the half-year some improvement took place, but too late to bring up the traffic receipts to the former level. The volume of traffic was in excess of that of the corresponding period in 1875 by about 115,000 tons of freight.

The permanent way and works throughout the Great Western system have been maintained in an unexceptionally good condition. Rather more than 31 miles of steel track have been laid down during the half-year. In the working expenses is included the sum of £7,452, being the balance of the change of guage account. This account is now finally closed, and there will be no further debit to revenue in respect of it. The total amount borne by revenue from the commencement on July 31st, 1871, is £89,352. The earnings and working expenses, reduced to a similar gold standard, compare as follows for the last four half-years:

| Half-years ended. | Earnings per train mile. | Cash wkg. expenses, excluding renewal and other funds. Per train mile. | Cash wkg. expenses, excluding renewal and other funds. Per ct. of gross receipts. | Wkg. expenses, incldg. renewal and other fds. Per train mile. | Wkg. expenses, incldg. renewal and other fds. Per ct. of gross rec'pts. |
| | s. d. | s. d. | | s. d. | |
| July 31, 1874 | 6 3¾ | 5 0 | 79·33 | 5 3¾ | 84·31 |
| Jan. 31, 1875 | 6 8¾ | 4 11¾ | 74·33 | 5 4 | 79·82 |
| Jan. 31, 1876 | 5 7 | 3 11½ | 70 99 | 4 4¾ | 78·77 |

The unexpended portion of the earnings in American currency has been converted into gold from time to time at the current rates of the day. The average rate at which the conversions have been effected is 114¾, as against 110¾ in the corresponding half-year of 1875.

Leased Lines.—The working of the leased lines resulted in a balance of loss for the half year of £10 019, or £3,969 less than that of the half-year ending 31st July, 1875.

Capital Account.—The cash receipts on capital account for the half-year amounted to £76,546, as follows:

| SHARE ACCOUNT. | |
|---|---|
| Nominal amount of final instalment on 37,889 new shares, issued at the price of £10 for each £20 10s. share | £194,182 |
| Second and third instalments in arrear, 31st July, 1875 | 1,822 |
| | £196,004 |
| Less received on account of final instalment, as per last half-year's report | 15,179 |
| | £180,825 |
| Deduct calls in arrear 31st January, 1876 | £4,822 |
| Proportion of discount on final instalment | 99,457 |
| | 103,779 |
| | £77,046 |
| Less Bond Account— | |
| Balance of 6 per cent. bonds due 15th November, 1873, paid off | 500 |
| | £76,546 |

The charges to capital account, during the half-year, have amounted to £300,102. This sum includes the amount of £99,457, being the balance of discount on the final instalment of the new shares, and £179,509 for investments in the bonds of the London, Huron, and Bruce & Wellington, Grey, and Bruce railways. The balance of £21,136 embraces a transfer to capital account of £3,786, for an expenditure prior to December, 1873, for construction cars and tools, which has hitherto been included in the engineering stores account. The remaining expenditure, amounting to £17,350, is composed chiefly of the proportionate charges to capital for steel rails, and the renewal of wooden bridges in stone and iron. The total capital expenditure to 31st January, 1876, amounted to £9,183,649, leaving a credit balance on that account of £396,947.

* Details in INVESTORS' SUPPLEMENT.

Boonville Bridge.—By order of Judge Dillon, the receiver of the Missouri Kansas & Texas Railroad was required to pay over to the American Bridge Company the amount due for building the Boonville bridge. The sum, amounting to over $175,000, was paid, and a clear title to the ownership of the bridge now passes to the railroad company.

Cairo & Vincennes.—The sale of the rolling stock of this railroad was made, April 28, for Drexel, Morgan & Co., of New York, the mortgagees, to pay a claim for money furnished to make improvements.

Cincinnati & Martinsville.—This road is noticed for sale in foreclosure, June 20, 1876, at Franklin, Johnson County, Ind.

Detroit Lansing & Lake Michigan.—The holders of the first mortgages on the Detroit Lansing & Lake Michigan Railroad have instituted proceedings to foreclose.

Erie Railway.—The referee to pass the accounts of Hugh J. Jewett, receiver, has filed reports with the county clerk. The report of all Mr. Jewett's transactions to the first day of 1876, including $147,593 received as cash from the old company, sums up $16,781,191 received between May 27, 1875, and Dec. 31, 1875; but of this $1,680,000 was from loans. The payments during the same time were $16,389,264. The payment of loans, 2,245,491, showed a decrease in floating debt of $565,491, but the interest on the mortgage debt has not been paid. Starting with a cash balance of $147,593, the receiver had on Jan. 1, 1876, a cash balance of $391,567. He has paid out, on account of debts accruing before he became receiver, $5,962,502, and has received on such account $1,339,253.

Mr. Jewett considers the subject of the receiver's paying money to save to the Erie Railway Company the coal lands in Pennsylvania. The amount paid by the receiver on this account last year was £231,714. Mr. Jewett, in his testimony, gives his view that the contracts under which over 8,000 acres of anthracite coal-land and 26,000 acres of bituminous coal-land were secured for the Erie Railway—the first at about $2,000,000 and the second at about $1,000,000—were, at the time they were made, good contracts for the road, and now, when only $700,000 is due on the first and $600,000 on the second, it would be folly to sacrifice what has already been paid by a failure to pay the rest.

The January statement of the receiver shows that he has increased his certificates of debt $193,460, and his cash balance only $13,814, while the extraordinary expenses are $39,200 for locomotives, $13,950 for construction, &c., and $33,423 for payments on mortgages and to the two coal companies. The following is the statement of the receiver's certificates of debt issued and redeemed in January, 1876:

|---|---|---|
| Outstanding January 1 | | $606,539 40 |
| Issued since | $250,000 00 | |
| Paid since | 56,539 40 | |
| Increase | | 193,460 60 |
| Outstanding, February 1, 1876 | | $800,000 00 |

The statement of the accounts for January gives receipts for freight, $1,483,378 61; for passengers, $258,848 38; and other receipts, including a net loan on certificates of $193,460 60, with the balance on hand at the beginning of the month, $391,567 25, swell the amount to $2,523,759 09. The payments, besides the payments for the ordinary running of the road, include $216,265 86 for rents, $13,950 for construction account, $39,200 for the purchase of locomotives, and $51,196 51 on old account. In this last item is included $21,252 42 paid on mortgages, and $12,170 92 paid on account of the two coal companies mentioned above. The account is balanced by "cash on hand, $405,382 19."

Great Western of Canada.—A despatch to the Toronto Globe, April 29, said: "At the half-yearly meeting of the Great Western Railroad of Canada, in London, the president, Mr. Childers, said that in the management of the road the board would decline to enter into reckless competition with other lines. Mr. Childers answered charges made against the company by the Hour, and said that it was prepared to give preference shareholders bonds for interest due to them. The report was unanimously adopted."

Iowa Pacific.—A notice is issued by the President that "all persons are hereby warned not to purchase bonds issued by the Iowa Pacific Railroad Company of Iowa, and forwarded by them to Europe for negotiation. The contract for the purchase of said bonds was not carried out, yet it seems that in some manner some of said bonds have been put afloat on the market, and are being pressed for sale to brokers and others in New York. No value whatever has been paid this company for said bonds, and they are utterly worthless."

Lake Shore & Michigan Southern.—At the annual meeting, May 3, the following directors were chosen for the ensuing year: Cornelius Vanderbilt, Wm. H. Vanderbilt, Augustus Schell, Samuel S. Barger, Robert L. Crawford, John E. Burrill, and Francis P. Freeman, of New York; Henry B. Payne and Amasa Stone, of Cleveland; Wm. L. Scott, Charles M. Reed, and Judah C. Spencer, of Erie, Pa.; and Albert Keep, of Chicago. Nearly $37,000,000 of the stock was voted on. The new board re elected the old officers. The annual report has already been published in the CHRONICLE. The following is a detailed statement of assets and liabilities:

Long Island Railroads.—The Tribune says that at a joint meeting of the directors of the three Long Island railroads, a compact was completed by which the Long Island Railroad Company takes an indefinite lease of the Flushing and North Shore and Southern railroads, thus reducing under one general management the Long Island roads running from Hunter's Point to all stations east on the Island. This result was attained through the influence of Mr. Poppenhusen, who lately obtained a controlling interest in all three roads. The Long Island Railroad Company, in accepting the lease, does not accept the liabilities of the other roads, the mortgages on those roads remaining as before. It is anticipated that a large gain will be made by avoiding competition in rates and reducing the operating expenses.

Missouri Kansas & Texas.—It is reported by telegraph that, under a decree of Judge Dillon in Davenport, the Missouri Kansas & Texas Railroad has been transferred from the hands of Wm. Bond, the receiver, to the Union Trust Company of New York. Under this arrangement it is stated that Mr. Bond is appointed general manager of the road.

Mortgage Loans in Nebraska.—A telegram from Omaha, Neb., May 4, says: Judge Dillon, in the United States Circuit Court, in the case of Moore, assignee in bankruptcy, against the Mutual Life Insurance Company, rendered a decision adverse to the insurance company. The Court holds that its loans on real estate in this State, amounting to some $500,000, are usurious, and the penalty provided by the statute must be inflicted on the company. This decision involves the loan of $2,000,000 or $3,000,000 in this State. The legal rate of interest in Nebraska is 10 per cent, or any rate on express contract not greater than 12. Usury prohibits the recovery of any interest on the principal.

New York and Boston Railroad.—The New York and Boston Railroad will be sold under a decree of foreclosure at White Plains, in Westchester county, on May 9, to satisfy the first mortgage. This road was the first division of the New York Boston & Montreal Railway. A decree of foreclosure has been granted against the Dutchess & Columbia Railroad Company, the third division, and the Harlem Extension has been sold, leaving the Putnam & Dutchess and Pine Plains & Albany Railroads to satisfy the mortgage issued by the New York Boston & Montreal Railway Company, which amounts to $12,250,000. Bonds to the amount of $6,250,000 were negotiated by Bischoffsheim & Goldschmidt of London, and the money thus obtained was used in completing the New York and Boston division, improving the Dutchess & Columbia and Harlem Extension divisions, partially grading the Putnam & Dutchess, and surveying the Pine Plains & Albany division, no portion of the latter division having been graded.—New York Tribune.

New York & Oswego Midland.—The sale of the Western Extension will take place at Ithaca on the 16th of May, for the benefit of the holders of the western extension bonds. The part of the road embraced under the title of "Western Extension" is from Cortland, N. Y., to a point on the Niagara River, near Buffalo, of which 23¼ miles are completed.

Pennsylvania Railroad.—The annual report of this important corporation was given some weeks since in the CHRONICLE. From the full pamphlet report, since issued, we have the detailed statement of all the stocks and bonds owned by the company, which go to make up the enormous amount of $70,759,012 given as the cost thereof to the Pennsylvania Railroad. The par value of these stocks and bonds is $96,045,869, and their actual market value is a matter of vast importance to the company. Nearly the whole of these securities are issued by companies leased or in some way under the protection of the Pennsylvania Railroad, and their value depends largely, in many cases almost entirely, on that protection. A decline of only 1 per cent. in their value is a loss to that company of $960,458; a decline of 10 per cent. would be a loss of $9,604,586. This statement seems to be sufficient to show the extraordinary care that should be taken as a mere matter of policy, if for no other reason, to guard with the utmost jealousy every guaranty or use of the credit of the Pennsylvania Railroad, in whatever form it may be put forth. For this reason we have maintained that it was bad policy for the Pennsylvania Railroad not to pay the interest on the C. C. & I. C. first consolidated mortgage, even granting that they can succeed in beating the bondholders in the courts.

Portland & Ogdensburg.—It is stated that parties interested in the Vermont portion of the Portland & Ogdensburg road, from the Connecticut River to Swanton, are seeking authority to get a preference mortgage of $500,000 put below the present bonded debt of $2,300,000, in order to complete the line and open it through to its Ogdensburg and Montreal connections. Of the whole distance of 117 miles, only 35 miles are incomplete, and, if the means are obtained at once, this portion can be finished and the road fully opened by August. The prospects are now said to be encouraging, more than two-thirds of the necessary proportion of the present bonded interest having agreed to the arrangement. If carried out it would give a road 117 miles long, with a bonded debt of $2,800,000, or less than $24,000 a mile.

Railroad Freights.—After communication with representatives of the Central Vermont, Michigan Central and Grand Trunk companies, Colonel Scott, Mr. Jewett and Mr. King addressed the following communication to the President and Vice-President of the New York Central:

NEW YORK, April 27, 1876.

Commodore C. Vanderbilt, President, W. H. Vanderbilt, Vice-President, New York Central and Hudson River Railroad Company.

GENTLEMEN: Believing that the existing differences in regard to the transportation of east-bound traffic a not understood as thoroughly as they should be, and that these differences should be adjusted on a basis of equity to all interests, we have, through telegraphic correspondence, requested Mr. Hickson, of the Grand Trunk line, and Governor Smith, of the Vermont Central, to meet us in New York and talk the subject over, to see whether we could not arrive at some satisfactory basis of adjustment. We believe that your shorter line between the West and New England ought to make a reasonable concession to the Grand Trunk route, which embraces that line, the Vermont Central and other connections, owing to its location and climatic and other causes incidental to it as a through route.

In order to protect and promote the interests of the various roads of the country, as well as the best interests of the public, we trust you may find it your interest to agree, if it can be arranged, to allow the Grand Trunk route the following scale of differences on east-bound traffic to competitive points in New England, which are much less than those heretofore existing, and which we deem, under the circumstances, to be reasonable:

On live stock, 7 cents; on cut-meats and perishable property, 6 cents; on first and second class, of which there is but a very limited quantity, 4 cents.

The Grand Trunk to carry third and fourth class, which embraces 90 per cent. of the entire traffic, at equal rates, as fixed from time to time. The matter of west-bound rates from New England to remain as adjusted between your line and the lines of the Grand Trunk route.

Looking over the whole ground, it seems to us that if we can prevail on Mr. Hickson to agree to this schedule, you should agree, as well for your own interests as those of all the other lines in the country, to make this adjustment, and, if it is made, that the Grand Trunk route should then become one of the Eastern Trunk lines, and be a part of the organization for making and adjusting rates and classifications from time to time, on the general basis that has prevailed among the four trunk lines during the last year. By adopting this policy its result must be to protect large amounts of property, owned in this and other countries, from a destruction that we think, under the circumstances, is not warranted, and we believe that the adjustment of this whole matter rests entirely with you. The pending consequences are, in our opinion, so serious that we must respectfully request you to give us an answer by Saturday morning of this week. If you will address your reply to us to the care of Mr. Jewett, at the Erie Railway office, we shall be glad to co-operate to the end that an adjustment of existing and anticipated difficulties may be reached, and a destructive competition be avoided.

Very truly yours,
THOMAS A. SCOTT, Pres. Penn. Railroad,
H. J. JEWETT, Pres. Erie Railway Co.,
JOHN KING, Jr., Vice-Pres. B. & O. R. R.

The following reply was sent to this letter by Mr. W. H. Vanderbilt:

NEW YORK CENTRAL AND HUDSON RIVER RR. Co.,
GRAND CENTRAL DEPOT.
NEW YORK, April 28, 1876.

GENTLEMEN: Your letter of the 27th, addressed to C. Vanderbilt, President, and Wm. H. Vanderbilt, Vice-President, has been received and duly considered. This company has arrangements with all the competitive roads for west-bound business, which we understand to be satisfactory to all parties interested. So long as good faith is maintained, these arrangements will enable us all to receive a fair compensation for transportation, and we are not only willing, but anxious, that they shall continue in force.

On March 2, 1876, we entered into an agreement with the Baltimore and Ohio, and other roads you represent, in regard to east-bound traffic, and hoped and believed that we had by it satisfactorily settled the differences of the Western roads and equitably distributed the business of the country over the great routes to the seaboard. It was in this spirit and to accomplish these results that the agreement was entered into. It is well known, however, that it has not been carried out, and one of the contracting parties did not issue the notices to its agents, requiring them to comply with its provisions, until about a month after it was signed. This company protested through its Vice-President against this injustice and bad faith.

An almost total loss of business followed, and we were finally compelled to give notice of withdrawal from an agreement which had been faithfully kept by us and constantly violated by others. This action does not, necessarily, affect any other arrangements which are and have been in force between the parties, and we should greatly deplore any action of the other companies which would bring upon the railroad interests controversies prejudicial to their stockholders. Our withdrawal from the agreement of March 2 simply places the Western roads on east-bound business in the same position we are on west-bound, and we refuse to exact from them any longer compliance with our dictation. We cannot for a moment admit that this action on our part endangers the railroad interests of the country, and if from a spirit of vindictiveness for what we have done, our competitors throw the transportation business of the country into disorder by a general reduction of rates, the responsibility must rest entirely with them. The special case of the Grand Trunk, referred to in your communication, is only one, and by no means the most important branch of this subject, and if chaos is to follow our declination to allow a difference on 10 per cent. of the east-bound business, as suggested by your letter, the cause would seem hardly sufficient to justify such a result. Yours, very truly,

WM. H. VANDERBILT, Vice-President.

To Thomas A. Scott, President Pennsylvania Railroad, and H. J. Jewett, Receiver Erie Railway Company.

St. Louis Rock Island & Chicago.—A company by this name has been organized for the purpose of taking the Rockford Rock Island & St. Louis road from the purchasers at the foreclosure sale, and operating it. The capital stock is fixed at $3,000,000. The corporators are John M. Gould, Charles H. Deere, Edward D. Sweeney, W. C. Brewster, Lorenzo Shricker, George Skinner, Walter Trumbull, Heyman Osterberg, some of them being now connected with the road.

The Auditor reports earnings for February as $64,225; working expenses, $42,554; track rentals, repairs of track, &c., $17,381; total expenses, $59,935; net earnings ($15 per mile), $4,289.

At the meeting of purchasing bondholders in Frankfort, March 21, Mr. Osterberg said that on his return to America, last fall, President Walker, on the part of the Chicago Burlington & Quincy Company, offered him $1,500,000 cash for the road; that on consultation with the Frankfort committee this offer was declined, and that thereafter the Chicago Burlington & Quincy took a hostile course towards the Rockford road.

The resolutions passed at this meeting authorized the committee to issue a loan of $260,000, bearing 10 per cent. interest, and payable in four years, having a first lien on the property, for the purpose of raising the money due, April 1, 1876, to the Court, to complete the payment for the purchase made last Fall at foreclosure sale. The loan to be offered to the holders of the new first-mortgage 7 per cent. scrip at 90, at the rate of $100 of 10 per cents. to $200 of their holdings of 7 per cents., all payments to be made by March 28.

The liens on the property now are the $260,000 of 10 per cent. and $290 000 of 7 per cent. bonds, on which about $53,000 currency interest will be due yearly.

Sunbury & Lewistown.—The purchasers of this road at the recent sale met in Philadelphia and organized a new company. The road will be put in good repair at once, and trains will be put on by the middle of May.

COMMERCIAL EPITOME.

FRIDAY NIGHT, May 5, 1876.

There is no change in the general aspect of trade matters. Business is slow, and there is nothing, apparently, to stimulate it. The weather has become more spring-like, and, though a little cool, may be regarded as generally favorable to the crops.

The following is a statement of the stocks of leading articles of domestic and foreign merchandise, at dates given:

The speculation in pork and lard tended strongly downward in the early part of the week, and the lowest prices in many months were made, mess pork going at $21 40@21 50 on the spot, and $21 25@21 50 for spring and summer deliveries. Lard sold down to $12 75 for prime Western steam on the spot and $12 65@12 90 for the future. These relatively low prices were followed by an active demand for export in lots on the spot, and to cover contracts in the speculative account, upon which a considerable recovery of prices took place, especially for delivery in the summer months. To-day, pork was quiet, but lard showed a further advance, with activity. The closing prices bid for pork were: $21 65 for June, $21 75 for July, and $21 90 for August and September; and for lard, $12 97½ for June, $13 12½ for July, $13 22½ for August, and $13 30 for September. Bacon and cut meats have slightly declined, with a fair business. Beef and beef hams have been quiet. Butter, at some further decline, has become more active. Cheese has been quiet, and closes lower; good to prime factories, 11@12½c. Tallow has further declined to 8⅛@8¼c.

Coffee has been more active, but prices are without essential change; the statistical position continues to exert a depressing influence. Rice is dull. Molasses has been active, the sales of Cardenas and Matanzas aggregating 5,000 hhds., all at or on the basis of 33 cents for 50 test. Sugars have been in fair demand at unchanged prices. Teas dull, and fruits quiet.

Ocean freights have continued to advance, and show much firmness, berth room especially, which is now rather scarce; grain charter tonnage is firm; but the increased arrivals of vessels suitable to the petroleum trade, have caused a slight unsteadiness, though no actual decline. Late engagements include: Grain to Liverpool, by steam, 7@7½d.; provisions, 30@35s. per ton; cotton, ⅛d.; grain, by sail, 6@6½d.; do. to London, by steam, 8d.; do., by sail, 7½d.; and flour at 2s. per bbl.; grain to Glasgow, by steam, 7½d.@8d.; do. to Antwerp, by steam, 8⅛d.; do. to Cork for orders, at 5s. 10½d.@6s.; though generally at the latter rate; do. to Rotterdam, 6s.; do. to Oporto, 17½c. per bushel; refined petroleum, in cases, to Corfu, 29c. gold; do., in bbls., to Bremen or Antwerp, 3s.@3s. 3d.; do. to the Baltic, 4s.; do. from Philadelphia to Bremen, 3s. 3d.; crude do., from Philadelphia to Havre, 3s. 10½d.; refined do., from Baltimore to Bremen, 3s.3d.@3s.4½d. To-day, the whole market showed firmness, though business was moderate; grain to Liverpool, by steam, 8d.; do., by sail, to London, 7½d.; do. to Cork for orders, and Rotterdam, 6s. per qr.; do. to Cardiff or Newport, 5s. 4½d.; refined petroleum from Philadelphia to the United Kingdom, 4s. 3d.

Spirits turpentine has latterly advanced and shown much firmness, under small stocks and higher advices from the South, closing at 37c. Rosins have been rather quiet, but generally steady; common to good strained quoted at $1 70@1 80. Petroleum has been very quiet, and a material decline has taken place, closing at 8@8⅛c. for crude, in bulk, and 13⅜c. for refined, in bbls. Ingot copper has sold to the extent of 400,000 lbs. Lake, at 21½@22c., cash. Whiskey closed dull at $1 11½@$1 12.

There has been a fair demand for Kentucky tobacco, and quotations have remained about steady at 5½@7c. for lugs and 7½@14c. for leaf. The sales of the week embraced 800 hhds., of which 600 were for export and 200 hhds. for consumption. Seed leaf has been active and prices firm. The sales embraced: Crop of 1872, 24 cases New England, at 14c.; crops of 1873, 1874, and 1875, 140 cases Ohio, on private terms; crop of 1873, 49 cases do., on private terms; crop of 1874, 100 cases Pennsylvania, at 11c.; 50 cases New England, at 19c.; crop of 1875, 1,258 cases New England, at 12@14c. for seconds and 6@7c. for fillers, 56 cases Ohio, at 5½c., and 326 cases Pennsylvania, on private terms; also 350 cases sundries at 7@30c. Spanish tobacco has ruled a shade lower and fairly active; sales 900 bales Havana, at 85c.@$1 10.

COTTON.

FRIDAY, P. M., May 5, 1876.

THE MOVEMENT OF THE CROP, as indicated by our telegrams from the South to-night, is given below. For the week ending this evening (May 5) the total receipts have reached 26,002 bales, against 29,858 bales last week, 30,920 bales the previous week, and 41,620 bales three weeks since, making the total receipts since the 1st of September, 1875, 3,941,356 bales, against 3,340,973 bales for the same period of 1874–5, showing an increase since Sept. 1, 1875, of 600,383 bales. The details of the receipts for this week (as per telegraph) and for the corresponding weeks of five previous years are as follows:

* New Orleans.—Our telegram to-night from New Orleans shows that (besides above exports) the amount of cotton on shipboard and engaged for shipment at that port is as follows: For Liverpool, 25,000 bales; for Havre, 9,000 bales; for Continent, 4,000 bales; for coastwise ports, 1,500 bales; which, if deducted from the stock, would leave 122,500 bales representing the quantity at the landing and in presses unsold or awaiting orders.

‡ The exports this week under the head of "other ports" include from Boston 1,834 bales to Liverpool; from Philadelphia 485 bales to Liverpool.

From the foregoing statement it will be seen that, compared with the corresponding week of last season, there is an increase in the exports this week of 28,572 bales, while the stocks to-night are 53,466 bales more than they were at this time a year ago. The following is our usual table showing the movement of cotton at all the ports from Sept. 1 to April 28, the latest mail dates:

These mail returns do not correspond precisely with the total of the telegraphic figures, because in preparing them it is always necessary to incorporate every correction made at the ports.

The market for cotton on the spot has been tending strongly downward the past week, and a material aggregate reduction is made in quotations. They were marked down 1-16c. on Saturday last and again yesterday; but the most important changes were made on Monday, when an extensive revision was entered upon: Strict good middling, middling fair and fair, were reduced 1-16c; good middling, middling, stained low middling, stained good ordinary, good ordinary, stained ordinary, 3-16c.; low middling, ¼c.; ordinary, ¼c.; and stained grades, ½c. The stock at this point has continued to accumulate, but at New Orleans has been relieved by liberal shipments to Europe. There have been no active influences to cause the decline above noted, but it proceeds from a general want of confidence in values. The current wants have been largely supplied by deliveries on May contracts. To-day, the market was quiet and unchanged. For future delivery, prices have been declining. There was, however, towards the close of Monday's business, and in the course of Tuesday, a recovery of fully ¼c., to be more than lost on Wednesday and Thursday. The weather was cold and stormy in the Atlantic States on Tuesday, but since then has been generally favorable for the crop, though still quite cool for the season. Foreign advices have been unfavorable, and an advance in gold and exchange has not been maintained. Yesterday, the next crop showed more weakness than the present. To-day, there was a demand to cover contracts, causing a considerable advance of an irregular character, which was, however, wholly lost at the close. The exchange was without the accustomed cable advices, and this contributed to the anxiety of parties who were "short;" but that interest being disposed of, the demand subsided.

The total sales for forward delivery for the week are 192,000 bales, including —— free on board. For immediate delivery the total sales foot up this week 4,663 bales, including 633 for export, 3,582 for consumption, 443 for speculation, and —— in transit. Of the above, —— bales were to arrive. The following were the closing quotations to day:

The above totals show that the old interior stocks have decreased during the week 5,057 bales, and are to-night 6,859 bales more than at the same period last year. The receipts at same towns have been 690 bales more than the same week last year.

WEATHER REPORTS BY TELEGRAPH.—The past week the weather has been very favorable for crop purposes in a considerable portion of the cotton section. This may be said especially of Arkansas, a small part of Texas, the most of Louisiana, Mississipi and Alabama. In Tennessee it has been too wet, and in the balance of Texas too dry and cold, while along the Atlantic States it has also been generally cold. Planting is now making rapid progress everywhere, the earlier districts having all their seed in, and many report a good stand secured.

Galveston, Texas.—There has been no rain here this week, but there was a hard wind with unseasonable cold on Tuesday and Wednesday. Many sections are now needing rain. Total rainfall for the month, two inches and seventy-six hundredths. Average thermometer for the week 73, highest 84 and lowest 54.

Indianola, Texas.—We have had no rain this week, and it is needed, as the ground is baked. There was a cold, blighting wind on Tuesday. The rainfall for the month of April is one inch and nine hundredths. Average thermometer this week 73, highest 85 and lowest 58.

Corsicana, Texas.—There has been no rain this week. Rain would be beneficial. Average thermometer 65, highest 88 and lowest 43. Rainfall for the month, three and sixty hundredths inches.

Dallas, Texas.—The weather the past week has been too cold. It was showery one day, the rainfall reaching four hundredths of an inch. The thermometer has averaged 77, the highest being 87 and the lowest 40. Total rainfall for April, eighty-four hundredths of an inch.

New Orleans, Louisiana.—One day this week was rainy, the rainfall reaching twenty hundredths of an inch. The thermometer has averaged 71. Rainfall for the month of April, eight inches and twenty hundredths.

Shreveport, Louisiana.—There were showers here on Monday and Thursday last, the rainfall reaching twenty-two hundredths of an inch. The crops are in fine condition. Average thermometer for the week 69, highest 90 and lowest 47.

Vicksburg, Mississippi.—Rain fell here on two days of the week to the extent of sixty-one hundredths of an inch. The thermometer has ranged from 49 to 84, averaging 68. Planting is progressing, but not with regularity; will finish next week.

Columbus, Mississippi.—The weather this week has been cool, and there have been two rainy days. The crop is already planted in some sections, and, though developing promisingly, needs warm weather, with occasional showers, to enable it to advance Total rainfall for the week, forty-six hundredths of an inch. Average thermometer 63, highest 70 and lowest 55.

Little Rock, Arkansas.—We have had three rains this week, which were very acceptable to planters. Crop prospects are very flattering. Average thermometer 63, highest 82 and lowest 39. Total rainfall, two inches and twenty-three hundredths.

Nashville, Tennessee.—There have been four rainy days here during the week, the rainfall aggregating two inches and eleven hundredths. The weather has been too cold. The thermometer has averaged 59, ranging from 49 to 69.

Memphis, Tennessee.—There have been three days of rain this week, and there was a heavy rain this morning. The excessive rain has prevented field work. Total rainfall, three inches and thirty-four hundredths. Average thermometer 63, highest 71, and lowest 40.

Mobile, Alabama.—We have had delightful showers this week, and the indications are that they have extended over a wide surface. Planting is about completed in this neighborhood, and the crop is developing promisingly. We have secured a good stand of cotton. Average thermometer during the week 69, highest 83, and lowest 48. Rainfall, forty hundredths of an inch; for the month, three inches and eighty-eight hundredths.

Montgomery, Alabama.—We had rain on three days of the week, but not enough. The days have been warm, but the nights cold. Average thermometer 68, highest 89, and lowest 46. Total rainfall, fifty-eight hundredths of an inch; for the month, eleven inches.

Selma, Alabama.—One day of this week was rainy, the rainfall reaching thirty hundredths of an inch. The thermometer has averaged 67.

Madison, Florida.—There has been one rainy day here this week. The thermometer has averaged 66, the highest being 74 and the lowest 58. Planting is about completed in this neighborhood, and a good stand of cotton has been secured.

Macon, Georgia.—There have been two rainy days here during the week. Average thermometer 73, highest 90 and lowest 44.

Atlanta, Georgia.—It rained constantly two days this week, the rainfall reaching eighty-one hundredths of an inch. The thermometer has averaged 62, ranging from 46 to 74. The weather has been too cold.

Columbus, Georgia.—On two days this week there was rain, the rainfall reaching one inch and ninety-five hundredths. The thermometer has averaged 65, the highest being 78 and the lowest 46. The weather has been too cold.

Savannah, Georgia.—It rained three days this week, but the rest of the week was pleasant. The rainfall has reached one inch and nine hundredths. The thermometer has averaged 68, the highest being 86 and the lowest 50.

Augusta, Georgia.—The early part of the week we had heavy rain on three days, but the latter part has been clear and pleasant. Average thermometer 62, highest 85 and lowest 43.

Charleston, South Carolina.—Telegram not received.

The following statement we have also received by telegraph showing the height of the rivers at the points named at 3 o'clock May 4. We give last year's figures (May 7, 1875) for comparison.

* Assumed.

This would show a very considerable movement. It remains, however, to be determined what portion will remain over unsold. Last year the amount left in agents' hands was very small.

GUNNY BAGS, BAGGING, &c.—Bagging has continued very quiet during the past week, and prices are without change. A small sale of 250 rolls, in Boston, is reported at 13½c., which is the only transaction we hear of. Holders are asking 12½c. Bales are quoted at 9c. for India, and 12½@13c. for Borneo. Bags rule dull and nominal, at 13c. for 440's. Butts have ruled quiet during the week, and only small sales are making, and prices are held at 2¾@3c.

FAILURE IN NORTH ADAMS.—The telegraph brings the news to-day of the suspension, at North Adams, Wednesday of this week, of Harvey Arnold & Co., the well-known print-works firm. They have employed 225 men and done an annual business of $2,500,000, taking the entire product of five other cotton mills, so that six mills were closed up last night: (1) Harvey Arnold & Co.'s print-works; (2) Gallup, Houghton & Smith's Beaver; (3) E. H. Arnold & Co.'s cotton mills at North Adams; (4) the Williamstown Cotton Manufacturing Company at Williamstown; (5) the North Pownal Cotton Manufacturing Company at Pownal, Vt., and (6) the Arnoldsville cotton mill at South Adams. Altogether, these mills ran over 1,000 looms on print cloth, and some 800 employees are thrown out of work, with no immediate prospect of relief.

LIVERPOOL, Thursday, May 4,—2:00 P. M.—BY CABLE FROM LIVERPOOL.—Estimated sales of the day were 12,000 bales, of which 2,000 bales were for export and speculation. Of to-day's sales, 8,900 bales were American. The weekly movement is given as follows:

BREADSTUFFS.

The course of prices in the flour market has again been downward the past week, and yet no considerable reduction can be made in quotations. Desirable lines of low grades are not abundant, and the local trade have purchased fairly of the medium and better grades; and yet, such is the apparent eagerness of holders to sell, that weakness of tone is imparted to the market. Receipts are moderate. The most conspicuous of the depressing influences have been the recent decline in wheat and an upward turn to ocean freights. To day, there was a steadier tone generally, with a better demand for good lines of shipping extras.

The wheat market was quite active at some decline early in the week, holders meeting with much readiness the views of shippers; but, latterly, holders have not been inclined to make further reductions, and business has been on a limited scale, with quotations more or less unsettled. Receipts are moderate at the Western markets, owing to the occupation of the farmers with seeding operations. There is some reduction, consequently, in the visible supply, but the aggregate is still largely in excess of former years. To-day, there was a large business in No. 1 Spring, at $1 27 in store, and No. 2 Milwaukee at $1 19 in store, with a firmer market generally.

Indian corn has been in much better supply for immediate delivery, under which a serious decline took place; but, with a brisk demand, there was a quick recovery. For future delivery prices took a similar course. Supplies are not coming forward so freely, either here or at the West, as was anticipated, and holders regard the future with more confidence, but the demand continues quite moderate. To-day, there was a fair business, at 62@62¼c. for steamer mixed; also, sail mixed at 62¼@63c. on the spot, and 61c. for May.

Rye has materially declined, and closes unsettled. Barley and barley malt have brought full prices in a small way. Canada peas have sold at $1 in bond.

Oats were pressed upon the market until No. 2 mixed sold at 40c., but this decline was followed by an active demand, with a recovery of No. 2 to 41@41¼c. Choice qualities have been scarce, and the best mixed sold at 47@48c., and white at 52@54c. To-day, there was a slightly firmer feeling, with sales of No. 2 Chicago at 42@42½c.

THE DRY GOODS TRADE.

FRIDAY, P. M., May 5, 1876.

The past week has witnessed a quiet dry goods market, and aside from a slightly increased demand for heavy woolens by clothiers for the early fall trade, there has been no animation in any department. Western trade, has been interrupted by cold weather, and accounts from the South are not very encouraging. Northwestern trade has been very good, and from near-by sections a moderate demand has been felt. The local jobbing trade is uniformly quiet and unsatisfactory in volume, while prices for many fabrics continue low and unprofitable. Foreign goods have manifested a declining tendency in private hands, and at public sale still lower prices have been reached on dress goods.

silks, white goods, &c. The export in cotton goods has shown a decrease as compared with late weeks, mainly owing to the dulness of the British markets and a decline in prices abroad. Messrs. Bennett & Smith, manufacturers of felt skirts, felts, &c., and employing about 400 operatives in Brooklyn, Massachusetts and Connecticut, have suspended payment, but their liabilities have not yet been ascertained.

DOMESTIC COTTON GOODS.—The exports of cotton goods reached 872 packages for the week, of which about two-thirds went to Great Britain, and the remainder in small lots to other countries. The home demand was mainly restricted to moderate parcels of the most staple productions, although there was some inquiry for piques, Marseilles quilts, sackings, etc. Agents' prices for domestics are unchanged, and the supply of Corporation makes of brown and bleached cottons is not considered large, but outside makes of each are in redundant supply. Colored cottons were in limited request, except low grade cheviots, and dyed ducks, for which there was a fair inquiry. Cottonades continued quiet and irregular in price. Corset jeans were in steady demand for small lots, and rolled jacconets, glazed cambrics and silesias were lightly dealt in. Print cloths ruled quiet and weak at 3⅜c. cash to 3¾c. 60 days for extra 64x64 makes, which prices pay no profit to manufacturers. Prints continued quiet, and makes were still further reduced in price, including Dunnells, Bristol, Knickerbocker, Oriental and Washington fancies, Southbridge shirtings and Pacific percales. Cotton dress goods were sold in considerable amounts, but at a heavy concession from prices ruling a few weeks ago; and ginghams were in steady request.

DOMESTIC WOOLEN GOODS.—Spring-weight woolens, farmers wear, have been sluggish and difficult to move, even at a liberal reduction from late prices, but clothiers have been operating to a moderate extent in new styles of heavy cassimeres and suitings, worsteds, beavers, &c., for the early autumn trade. Cloths were taken in small lots, and doeskins were a trifle more active in a few leading makes. Diagonal worsted coatings were in fair request, but fancy styles were pressed to sale at low and unremunerative figures. Satinets were in fair demand, except plain blacks, which remained dull, and Kentucky jeans changed hands in moderate amounts. All-wool and domet white, and plain scarlet flannels were a little more active, and there was a fair movement in Brussels and ingrain carpets. Worsted dress goods were taken in small lots at unchanged prices.

FOREIGN DRY GOODS have been dull and depressed in importers' hands, and jobbers' sales have been light and unimportant. Prices of dress goods have shown such a shrinkage that some reshipments, in bond, have been made to Europe. Silks have been distributed to a large aggregate amount through the auction rooms, where blacks and choice colors brought fair prices, but fancies sold very low. Linen goods were in steady, although limited, demand, and large lines of white goods were disposed of at auction. Embroideries and laces were in fair request, but prices of the former are low and unsatisfactory. Woolen goods for men's wear moved very slowly, and Italian cloths, satin de chenes and other tailoring goods were quiet. Ribbons and millinery silks were freely sold at auction and brought fair prices, and fancy Canton mattings were distributed to a liberal amount in the same manner.

We annex prices of a few articles of domestic manufacture:

REAL ESTATE MORTGAGE BONDS

GUARANTEED BY THE

Equitable Trust Co.,

$1,000,000 CAPITAL.

THESE REAL ESTATE MORTGAGE BONDS ARE COMMENDED TO THE ATTENTION OF THE MOST

CONSERVATIVE INVESTORS.

First—They have the individual liability of the maker.

Second—Each bond is secured by a first mortgage of real estate of not less than double its value.

Third—The prompt payment of both principal and interest of every bond is guaranteed by this Company.

The Company guaranteeing these Bonds receives no deposits, owes no money, and incurs no obligations of any character except those arising from such guaranty thereby keeping its whole capital of One Million Dollars unimpaired, TO MEET AT ALL TIMES the prompt payment of both principal and interest of these Bonds.

All mortgages securing the Bonds are formally approved by the following Executive Board:

ROBERT L. KENNEDY, SAMUEL WILLETS, WM. REMSEN, CHAS. BUTLER, HENRY P. HAVEN, ADRIAN ISELIN, JAMES A. ROOSEVELT, EUGENE KELLY, JOHN D. MAXWELL, GUSTAV H. KISSELL.

These Securities bear Seven Per Cent Interest payable semi annually, and are offered for sale at one hundred and two and interest at the office of the Equitable Trust Company, Nos. 52 & 54 William street.

JONATHAN EDWARDS, President.

THE NEW ENGLAND

Mortgage Security Co.

OFFERS FOR SALE, AT PAR,

SECURED BY

FIRST MORTGAGES OF IMPROVED REAL ESTATE.

GUARANTEED, PRINCIPAL AND INTEREST,

BY ITS

CAPITAL STOCK OF $500,000.

Interest Coupons payable semi-annually. Bonds registered to order, or payable to bearer at option. Accrued interest is not required to be paid by purchaser, the next due Coupon being stamped so as to denote that interest begins at the date of purchase.

A Pamphlet with full information will be sent on application to the Company's Office,

43 Milk Street, Boston.

These Bonds are commended to the attention of the MOST CONSERVATIVE INVESTORS, as they are believed to be as perfect a security as can be obtained. The issue of Bonds is limited to one-half the amount of the same class of Bonds ever issued under a like Guarantee.

The security of each Bond is not confined to a single Mortgage, but extends over all the Mortgages owned by the Company. This Company receives no deposits, guarantees no other securities, and has no other debts than its bonds. Its Mortgages are of like character to those which have been bought in the last twenty years by Individuals, Life Insurance Companies and other Corporations, to the amount of more than Fifty Millions of Dollars, proving a most secure and satisfactory investment. The Loans are all upon improved Farms in some of the most fertile Western states, near the Railroads, with short and perfect titles, and average less than $650 each, upon property worth nearly four times their amount. Experience has proved that well selected Mortgages upon this class of property are safer than those upon city property, either in the East or West. They are not affected by Fires, or by Business revulsions; Principal and interest are more promptly paid; and upon the success of Agriculture depends that of almost every industrial investment.

Gross Assets held by Board of Management in New York, $1,600,000.

The Company's actual losses by Chicago conflagration in 1871 were $1,743,457 81.

The Company's actual losses by Boston conflagration in 1872 were $503,680 46.

Yet the Company paid these losses at sight without borrowing or selling a single dollar of permanent investments, continued regular dividends to their stockholders, and at the end of 1873 had entirely made up (not in this country, however), the losses of these two conflagrations and all others, commencing 1871 with a surplus over $100,000 larger than ever before.

Annual Income of Fire Department alone over $4,000,000.

Fire and Life Assets entirely distinct—the one not liable for the other.

The Company organized A. D. 1809. Commenced business in this country A. D. 1867.

Agencies in most of the principal cities and towns in the United States.

REAL ESTATE MORTGAGE BONDS

GUARANTEED BY THE

Equitable Trust Co.,

THESE REAL ESTATE MORTGAGE BONDS ARE COMMENDED TO THE ATTENTION OF THE MOST

CONSERVATIVE INVESTORS.

First—They have the individual liability of the maker.

Second—Each bond is secured by a first mortgage of real estate of not less than double its value.

Third—The prompt payment of both principal and interest of every bond is guaranteed by this Company.

The Company guaranteeing these Bonds receives no deposits, owes no money, and incurs no obligations of any character except those arising from such guaranty thereby keeping its whole capital of One Million Dollars unimpaired, TO MEET AT ALL TIMES the prompt payment of both principal and interest of these Bonds.

ROBERT L. KENNEDY, ADRIAN ISELIN,
SAMUEL WILLETS, JAMES A. ROOSEVELT,
WM. KEMSEN, EUGENE KELLY,
CHAS. BUTLER, JOHN D. MAXWELL,
HENRY P. HAVEN, GUSTAV H. KISSELL.

These Securities bear Seven Per Cent Interest payable semi annually, and are offered for sale at one hundred and two And interest at the office of the Equitable Trust Company, Nos. 52 & 54 William street.

JONATHAN EDWARDS, President.

BY ITS

CAPITAL STOCK OF $500,000.

Interest Coupons payable semi-annually. Bonds registered to order, or payable to bearer at option. Accrued interest is not required to be paid by purchaser, the next-due Coupon being stamped so as to denote that Interest begins at the date of purchase.

A Pamphlet with full information will be sent on application to the Company's Office,

43 Milk Street, Boston.

These Bonds are commended to the attention of the MOST CONSERVATIVE INVESTORS, as they are believed to be as perfect a security as can be obtained. The issue of Bonds is limited to one-half the amount of the same class of Bonds ever issued under a like Guarantee.

The security of each Bond is not confined to single Mortgage, but extends over all the Mortgages owned by the Company. This Company receives no deposits, guarantees no other securities, and has no other debts than its bonds. Its Mortgages are of like character to those which have been bought in the last twenty years by Individuals, Life Insurance Companies and other Corporations, to the amount of more than Fifty Millions of Dollars, proving a most secure and satisfactor investment. The Loans are all upon improved Farms in some of the most fertile Western states, near the Railroads, with short and perfect titles, and average less than $650 each, upon property worth nearly four times their amount. Experience has proved that well-selected Mortgages upon this class of property are safer than those upon city property, either in the East or West. They are not affected by Fires, or by Business revulsions; Principal and interest are more promptly paid; and upon the success of Agriculture depends that of almost every industrial investment.

LONG ISLAND CITY

Diagram of Location of Long Island City.

7 PER CENT COUPON
$1,000 WATER BONDS.

Interest payable March and September, at Marine National Bank of New York, principal re-payable from 1887 to 1902, a strictly first-class investment security, for sale in lots to suit purchasers.

These bonds are authorized by legislative act, under which, not only the entire taxable property of the city is liable for their payment, but, in addition, the water-works are specially pledged, which are now completed and in successful operation. Water bonds are the most popular and command the highest prices of any municipal issue.

Total debt is about $850,000.

Estimated real value, $30,000,000, while the assessed valuation is only $6,000,000. Population, 20,000.

LONG ISLAND CITY, adjacent to New York, with a water-front of six miles on tide-water, is a continuation of Brooklyn, and must eventually become annexed to that city, as was the case with the city of Williamsburgh. There is certainly no good reason why these bonds will not appreciate at or near to that of Brooklyn bonds, which are now selling at 116, which same security within the past two years sold at par, being about the same price at which we now offer LONG ISLAND CITY BONDS.

The security offered for the bonds of both cities being identical, present purchasers of Long Island City bonds must certainly secure an advance, thereby getting a premium as well as seven per cent interest on their investment. Bonds, as ordered, will be sent by express, C. O. D., accompanied with a certificate of the Treasurer of Long Island City as to their correctness, etc.

INVESTMENT SECURITIES AND CONSTITUTIONAL SAFEGUARDS.

It is a gratifying feature of the speculative excitement of our paper-money inflation that the more violent fluctuations of the last few years have usually been confined within the circle of speculative securities; and that an important and extensive class of choice investment securities has been for the most part exempted from capricious and sudden oscillations in value. To what extent this exceptional privilege is likely to continue, the future must show. There are some indications that might, by an unprejudiced observer, be interpreted as throwing a doubt over certain securities that have for years been regarded as among our most solid investments. The bears in their recent attacks on the stock market have not been slow to avail themselves of untoward facts of this sort which they could make available for their purposes. To this agitation, and to some other circumstances, we doubtless owe it that a minor difficulty about the Chicago certificates has, during the last week or two, attracted so much attention. The trouble arose from the decision of Mr. Justice McAllister, in the Cook County Circuit Court of Illinois, that the City of Chicago cannot, as was claimed, issue temporary obligations before the annual taxes are levied. Such securities have heretofore been issued without question, and several millions issued during the current year are in the hands of investors and in the vaults of banks and trust companies, here and in Boston. When the telegraphic announcement was made a few days ago that the City of Chicago was declared by the State courts incapable of borrowing in advance of the tax levy, the conclusion was hastily drawn that all the outstanding certificates would suffer discredit. We have been at some pains to ascertain the real state of the facts, and we are glad to find that there is no foundation for the injurious reports which have prevailed. Not only are the certificates in question perfectly valid, but there is nothing in the decision of the court by which their credit ought in the least to be impaired. Indeed, some of these certificates have matured during the last few days, and all of them have been promptly paid, as will be also the whole of those which are almost daily maturing. Such, at least, is the assurance we have received from competent sources. And it is corroborated by the fact that the Council of Chicago passed a resolution, at the beginning of this week, directing Mr. Comptroller Hayes to pay these certificates, and levying the needful tax, so that the Comptroller will have a balance of $500,000 in the Treasury after the whole of the certificates outstanding are fully paid off. This action of the Chicago authorities is in strict accordance with the decision of the Court, as we shall presently show.

The securities of Chicago have so long been a favorite investment with some of our conservative banks and capitalists, that it is gratifying to see all doubt pass away, if any there really were, as to the prompt redemption of the certificates in dispute. There are, however, several more important questions, from which this case derives its chief interest. It is the first judicial decision in which the power of the constitutional restraints imposed in certain States to prevent the increase of municipal debts, has been submitted to a full and adequate test. The necessity has been long apparent of preventing the mischievous growth of municipal debts in this country. One of the most effective means devised for this purpose is to introduce into the constitutions of the several States a positive limit, beyond which the municipal authorities shall not be allowed to run into debt. Another expedient for the same purpose is to require every bill incurring a debt, to impose a tax for the specific purpose of paying the annual interest and of redeeming the principal within a given number of years. The former of these two expedients is perhaps the best. It has been adopted in Illinois, in Iowa, and in other States. A few months before the Chicago fire of 1871, this new constitutional provision was adopted in Illinois. As Chicago at that time had its full proportion of indebtedness, there has been no new permanent debt created during the last five years, except for the purpose of renewing securities as they matured. The provision referred to is in Section 12 of Article 9, which declares that "No county, city, township, school district or other municipal corporation shall be allowed to become indebted in any manner or for any purpose to an amount, including existing indebtedness, in the aggregate exceeding 5 per centum on the value of the taxable property therein, to be ascertained by the last assessment for State and county taxes previous to the incurring such indebtedness."

Now the question is, whether this clear and simple prohibition is violated if the City of Chicago, after her funded debt is fully up to the constitutional limit, goes on to incur a floating debt of four or five millions more for current expenses in anticipation of the tax collections. This question has always been answered in the affirmative. To test the soundness of this view, the Comptroller of the State, Mr. S. S. Hayes, determined to obtain a judicial decision. A suit was brought on a claim upon one of the departments of the city government asking for a mandamus to compel the Comptroller to borrow the money to pay the claim in question. The Court denied the mandamus on the ground that the city had no right to borrow under the constitution, inasmuch as the funded debt of the city was already up to the extreme limit allowed by the organic law of the State. The Court distinctly held, however, that in all cases where an appropriation was made for a specific purpose, the city authorities were at liberty, as soon as the proper tax was levied, and before it was actually collected, to borrow temporarily any sum not exceeding the amount of the levy, and to repay these temporary loans out of the proceeds of the tax collections when they were actually received. Another point on which the Court was equally urgent was that the validity of the outstanding certificates was not in question before the Court. As this is a point on which so much anxiety has been expressed, we quote the paragraph referring to it from the opinion of the Court. After stating that the levying of a tax consists in the passage of the proper ordinance when the appropriation has been made, Judge McAllister concludes as follows:

"On the whole case, I am of opinion that, the corporation having already reached the prescribed limit of indebtedness, it would be within the prohibition of the law to add to that indebtedness by borrowing money and giving an absolute undertaking or obligation to repay it. I am further of opinion that when an appropriation has been made for the ordinary current expenses, and the tax levied to meet them, neither the incurring of such expenses nor the anticipation of such revenues to discharge them, will constitute a debt within the meaning of the prohibition in question; and it is upon the principle that when the appropriation and tax levy are made, these means are to be regarded as being already in the Treasury, and may be anticipated by orders or certificates, specifically payable out of the proper fund, to meet the ordinary current expenses. This mode seems to me free from legal objection. The orders, warrants, or certificates so payable, would be available, for they place the holder in a better position than even a judgment, as in the former case the holder need but present them; in the latter he might have to apply for a mandamus to compel a levy.

"It is a misunderstanding to suppose that this case involves the validity of certificates heretofore issued. No such question is involved, and its determination would depend upon other considerations. In that case, if they are absolute undertakings, the ultimate question would be whether the power to borrow money, which is effectual before the constitutional limit is reached, absolutely ceases, as to innocent holders, the moment that limit is reached, as if it had never been granted. This question is nice and difficult, and, so far as I know, has never been directly decided. Courts will be likely so to decide it as that such a prohibition shall not operate as a snare to innocent holders. But, in this case, the only question is as to the power and legal duty to borrow money under the circumstances as disclosed. I am inclined to deny the mandamus, solely on the ground that no tax levy had been made, and the writ is accordingly denied."

It is impossible to overestimate the importance of this decision. We admit that it opens the door to some abuses, but it virtually declares that where a constitutional limit is imposed upon municipal debts, the authorities cannot go beyond those limits except to pay the current expenses of the government, nor can they even do this except a tax be first levied sufficient to pay off the floating debt so created. It is probable that in future attempts to repress the increase of municipal debts by constitutional restrictions, more stringent provisions will be devised to prevent any extension, either of floating debt or of other obligations, beyond the bounds prescribed by the strictest interpretation of the written constitution. Before the damaged credit of our municipal securities can be rehabilitated, adequate precautions and safeguards will of course have to be applied. One of the chief advantages of a general nature resulting from the controversy we have been examining, is in the suggestive illustration which it gives of the necessity and practical operation of some of the safeguards of the credit of our municipal securities, and of the consequent negotiability of American securities here and in Europe.

ESTIMATED COTTON SUPPLY AND CONSUMPTION FOR YEAR ENDING OCTOBER 1, 1876.

The first of April is the half-way point in the cotton year, when the greater part of the crops produced in the previous summer have been marketed; when the remainder of the year's supply can be closely computed; when the approximate weekly rate of consumption in all the civilized world being known, it becomes easy to ascertain how much cotton is held by spinners in addition to the "visible supply" of the world, and when a safe statistical departure can be made for the ensuing half year. The April report of Messrs. Ellison & Co., of Liverpool, gives the statistics for most of these items applicable to Europe, in a compact form intelligible to every merchant, as follows:

HOME AND CONTINENTAL CONSUMPTION.—On the first page of our report we give particulars of the imports, deliveries, &c., for Great Britain and the Continent, for the first three months of the current year, and for the first six months of the season, compared with last year. The total deliveries to spinners for the six months compare as follows:

GREAT BRITAIN.

| | Bales. | Average weight. | Pounds. | Bales per week. |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| 1875-6 | 1,665,560 | 418 | 696,204,080 | 64,060 |
| 1874-5 | 1,771,380 | 389 | 689,066,820 | 68,130 |

CONTINENT.

| | | | | |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| 1875-6 | 1,351,400 | 404 | 545,965,600 | 51,970 |

The increase in the average weight is owing to the greater preponderance of American and Egyptian packages, as shown in the detailed figures on page 1 of our report. In bales of the uniform weight of 400 pounds, Great Britain has taken nearly 18,000 bales, and the Continent about 270,000 bales, more than last season.

STOCKS HELD BY SPINNERS.—In our Annual Review for the season ended 30th September last, we showed that English spinners held a surplus stock of 8,000,000 pounds, or 20,000 bales of 400 pounds, on the 30th of September, 1875, against about 34,000,000 pounds, or 85,000 bales, on the 30th of September, 1874; and that Continental spinners held no surplus stock last September, against 28,000,000 pounds, or 70,000 bales, the year before. The consumption for the current season we estimated at 1,265,000,000 pounds for Great Britain, and 937,000,000 pounds for the Continent. The actual consumption last season was about 1,224,377,000 pounds in Great Britain; but, except during the stoppage of machinery at Oldham, &c., the rate of consumption was on the basis of 1,244,000,000 pounds—about 20,000,000 pounds, or 50,000 bales, having been saved by the stoppage of machinery aforesaid. On the Continent the actual consumption in 1874–5 was 908,329,000 pounds. With this explanation the following statement will be understood:

| | GREAT BRITAIN. | | CONTINENT. | |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| | 1875–6. Pounds. | 1874–5. Pounds. | 1875–6. Pounds. | 1874–5. Pounds. |
| Deliveries six months | 696,204,080 | 689,066,820 | 545,965,600 | 427,383,100 |
| Surplus stock held by spinners September 30th | 8,000,000 | 34,000,000 | ..... | 28,000,000 |
| Supply | 704,204,080 | 723,066,820 | 545,965,600 | 455,383,100 |
| Consumption six months | 632,000,000 | 622,000,000 | 468,000,000 | 451,000,000 |
| Surplus stock held by spinners March 31st | 72,204,080 | 101,066,820 | 77,965,600 | 11,383,100 |
| Bales of 400 pounds | 180,000 | 252,000 | 195,000 | 28,000 |

English spinners, therefore, hold 72,000 bales less of surplus stock than they held twelve months ago, while Continental spinners hold 167,000 bales more. For all Europe the surplus stock at the mills is 95,000 bales larger than at this time last year. By surplus stock we mean stock in addition to the quantity requisite for ordinary working purposes. The total surplus held at the mills in Europe, as shown above, is 375,000 bales this year, against 280,000 bales last year.

The rate of consumption above given is necessarily an estimate, predicated, of course, upon the spinning capacity, i. e., number of spinning spindles running, and average number of pounds of cotton used per spindle, in England and on the Continent respectively. When, however, we consider the utter want of enterprise or speculative spirit prevailing in Great Britain, the absence of which always must show itself in smaller production; the strict economy among all working classes, which the continued depression in commercial circles makes necessary; and also the law reducing the hours of labor now in force;—when we consider all these adverse influences, we can scarcely give the figures for England our fullest confidence. Of course there is compensation in the higher speed of machinery and the lower count of yarn, which always follows upon a material decline in the price of raw cotton; but yet we cannot think this is a sufficient offset. Then, again, the figures given for the Continent look to us, under the circumstances, like a maximum estimate, even after allowing the largest influence for the fact of cheap cotton. In accepting, therefore, Messrs. Ellison & Co.'s rate of European consumption, it must be understood as indicating, according to our view, the highest possible total, and one which very likely will not be quite reached.

By "surplus stock" is to be understood, as the above extract from the circular tells us, the stock held by spinners "in addition to the quantity requisite for ordinary "working purposes." That surplus in the mills of Great Britain was, according to Ellison & Co., reduced to 8,000,000 pounds, or 20,000 bales of 400 pounds each, on 30th of September last; and on 1st April they find it was 180,000 bales of 400 pounds each. It follows that the English spinners had increased their "surplus" 160,000 bales in the six months. Hence, for more than four months following the 1st of April, they could, on the basis of the above consumption, cut down their takings from market 10,000 bales per week below their estimated consumption without exhausting that first of April surplus. In like manner, the Continental spinners could run their full consumption for the same time, though taking weekly 12,000 bales short of what they use. In accepting Messrs. Ellison & Co.'s meaning of "surplus stock" held by spinners in Europe, we should claim that the "quantity requisite for ordinary working purposes" held by them besides the surplus on 1st April was, according to the CHRONICLE statement, (see CHRONICLE of July 31, 1875, p. 99–100), several hundred thousand bales. But that matter we omit at the present time, and confine ourselves to the surplus gained since 1st October, and one indisputably existing and available 1st April, 1876.

The importance of this invisible stock in forecasting the future, increases in force upon examining the expending or yarn-producing value of this year's supply of cotton compared with that of last year. It is probable that supply from India will fall off, say, 250,000 bales; but that from the United States to Europe can be increased some 600,000 bales, and from Egypt about 50,000 bales beyond all deficit from other countries. Egyptian bales average 574 lbs., those of Brazil only 158. We do not know the average weights of the American crop of 1875–6, but from partial returns received it looks as if the average would be 15 lbs. per bale, or more than 3 per cent, more than the crop of 1874–5. The crop of 1874–5 was cleaner and of better grade than usual, but of very poor staple—characteristics of a dry maturing season. The crop of 1875–6 has a larger portion of low grades and dusty cotton, quite too many bales described as "dirty;" but few crops have ever had such average excellence of staple, the great point of value in spinning. This, when "waste" in spinning from all causes is made up at the mills, more than compensates for the greater portion of trash and dust in the crop of 1875–6, leaving the increased weights a net gain in expending value—equal to 150,000 bales of the average of 1874–5. These facts are presented in explanation of the great difference found by spinners in the average weights of cotton in the supply of 1876 as compared with that of 1875, in the statistics above quoted, 7½ per cent in Great Britain and about 5 per cent on the Continent, and to show that computations of supply and consumption, based on the number of bales only, and not of pounds, will be delusive.

With these explanations, we give the following as our minimum estimate of supply for the year ending October 1. The weights of bales we state the same as they averaged in consumption last year, except for American, which we increase ten pounds, instead of, as above, fifteen pounds, seeking to understate rather than overstate the total.

EUROPEAN SUPPLY FOR YEAR ENDING OCTOBER 1, 1876.

| | Bales. | Average. | Weight, lbs. |
|---|---|---|---|
| American | 3,250,000 | 449 | 1,459,250,000 |
| East Indian | 1,250,000 | 360 | 450,000,000 |
| Brazil | 520,000 | 158 | 82,160,000 |
| Egyptian | 410,000 | 574 | 235,340,000 |
| Other descriptions | 250,000 | 225 | 56,250,000 |
| Total, year end'g Oct. 1, 1876. | 5,680,000 | 402 | 2,283,000,000 |

Now, if we accept Messrs. Ellison & Co.'s estimate of consumption, the total statement would be as follows:

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| Year's consumption, Gt. Britain..lbs. | 1,265,000,000 | |
| Year's consumption of Continent | 937,000,000 | |
| Total consumption | | 2,202,000,000 |
| Total supply as above | | 2,283,000,000 |
| Leaving surplus, visible and invisible.....lbs. | | 81,000,000 |
| Equal to, in bales of 400 lbs. each, | | 202,500 |

This result after our large crop is surprising. To find that, even in this period of universal depression, the world's supply is all consumed at the year's end, except about 200,000 bales, when our contribution has been so much increased, is certainly a fact of some significance. And yet we must not presume too much upon it, for, as we have already said, the above estimate of supply is a minimum figure, and the consumption is a maximum figure. Besides, the surplus already in the hands of spinners will enable them to largely decrease their takings for many weeks, as we have already seen; and in case our crop should promise through the Summer a full yield, the above excess in production will be about as effective in depressing prices as if larger. Messrs. Ellison & Co. give the "prospects" as follows:

The market closes very quietly, and for the immediate future the outlook is not very cheering. Spinners, as already shown, hold considerable surplus stocks of the raw material, and although they are also fairly under orders, their contracts are running out faster than new business is coming in, and, unless trade in Manchester improves, consumers may operate very sparingly in this market for some time to come. The stocks of goods abroad, however, are not excessive, and a trifling decline in values would lead to a repetition of the activity witnessed three or four weeks ago. By and by the course of the market will be influenced more by the prospects of the new American crop than by the current supply, and as some reduction from the yield of the past season is pretty certain to be indicated by the earliest reports, producers are not likely to take extensive orders for the forward delivery of yarns and goods, on the basis of the present low prices, without covering. It is possible that prices may be allowed to sink a little further, but a very trifling circumstance would bring in buyers, and lead to a reaction more extensive even than that witnessed during the first three weeks of March. Prices are so low, and the circumstances of the market are such, that there is more need for caution in selling than in buying.

We leave these conclusions with regard to the "prospects," to our readers. The potent influence of the "new American crop" is undeniable. But it is hardly wise to make much of a venture on the expectations with regard to that crop, or to say more about it, until at least a "stand" is secured and it is well out of grass.

THE OPENING OF THE PHILADELPHIA EXHIBITION.

It is a great pleasure to know that more than usual success attended the opening of the International Fair at Philadelphia on Wednesday of this week. To repeat the varied incidents of the occasion, so fully and well reported by the daily press, would be of little profit. Through almost unnumbered trials and discouragements the enterprise has been carried, and the present very promising condition reflects great credit upon all connected with the management. For, although national in name, it has received but feeble and tardy assistance, both from the General Government and from the great mass of our people.

That, however, was inevitable in a country like ours. We have no powerful central authority to organize and direct such a work. In the very inception of the enterprise this was known to be a difficulty which, in any event, could only partially be overcome. And yet it was necessary that official sanction or recognition should be obtained to give it an international standing throughout the world. We are all familiar with this portion of its history and with the final incidents in its connection with the Government; and we only refer to them, and to the numberless other hindrances and embarrassments met and overcome, as circumstances which enhance the success now it is attained—a success, not of the country, but of one city and one State mainly, guided by the judgment and energy of a very few men.

Under such circumstances, an opening so satisfactory, must be peculiarly gratifying. Every one admits that the grounds and their arrangement are superior to any ever before devoted to such a purpose; that the buildings are very complete, and remarkably well adapted to the necessities and wants of the exhibitors and visitors; that even now the display of the productions of different nations is very creditable and attractive; and in a brief time all parts of the exhibition will be in complete order. We trust the enterprise will also prove a financial success, and there is every reason now to expect that it will.

RAILROAD EARNINGS IN APRIL, AND FROM JAN. 1 TO APRIL 30.

Gross earnings for April compare favorably with the corresponding month of 1875. The general movement of produce and merchandise in the country seems to be ahead of last year, in volume, and railroad business for the first four months shows a material improvement. The important event of the past month was the reduction in freight rates from Chicago eastward, in consequence of the breaking up of the pooling arrangements of the trunk lines. An attempt was also made by the Grand Trunk of Canada to reduce passenger fares from Boston to Chicago to $16, but as it has been stated that Mr. Joy, of the Michigan Central, refused to "pro-rate" on this basis, it is to be presumed that the Grand Trunk was unable to carry out its proposal. There have been numerous charges and counter charges, including the published correspondence between Mr. Vanderbilt and the officers of the trunk lines further South, as to the responsibility for the present reduction in rates, but without settling the matter to the satisfaction of stockholders. The following statement of Commodore Vanderbilt, reported as having been made in conversation with a Tribune reporter, seems to be a comprehensive and pretty fair view of the general freight question involved between the trunk lines:

The primary cause of the trouble is the fact that the railroad facilities of the country are more than sufficient for the work to be done. As a natural result of this, each railroad tries to get as great a monopoly of what traffic there is as it possibly can, and the law of self-preservation obliges each road to protect itself against the competition of the others. The great source of income to the trunk roads is the freight which is carried from the West to the seaboard. For the sake of illustration, suppose all goods to be shipped from Chicago to the seaboard to be for either Boston, New York, Baltimore, or Philadelphia. The distance from Chicago to Baltimore, by the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad, is 100 miles less than the distance from Chicago to New York, by way of the New York Central, and the distance between Chicago and Philadelphia, by way of the Pennsylvania Railroad, is also about 100 miles less than the New York Central route. The Baltimore & Ohio and the Pennsylvania roads have demanded from the Central the right to reduce their fares to correspond with the difference in distance, but Mr. Vanderbilt thought that if the Central could afford to carry freight 100 miles further for the same charge, and make a living by it, the demand ought not to be complied with. On the other hand, the Grand Trunk Railway, from Chicago to Boston, is a longer route by 150 miles than the Central route, and on this account the Grand Trunk demands the right to reduce its fares below those of the Central to attract shippers.

Thus the Central Railroad, Mr. Vanderbilt asserts, is placed on the defensive by all the other trunk lines, one road demanding the right to reduce fares because it is a longer route, and the other roads demanding the same right because they are shorter routes. The Central road would be satisfied with uniform rates from the West to all points on the seaboard.

It is certainly unreasonable to ask that New York should be allowed none of its proper advantages in the way of capital and shipping facilities, and that the other cities should be placed ahead of this by a tariff which practically forbids shipments of grain, &c., to this point.

As to the actual status of affairs at present, notwithstanding the various rumors, we are unable to learn that there has been any reduction in West-bound freights or in passenger rates, and the officers of the different roads, as well as the stockholders, are deeply interested in preventing any. While low freights on a steady basis are greatly desired by merchants, both East and West, it is a significant fact, in regard to these railroad "wars," that the mercantile community is as much opposed to them as any one else, and now even the Chicago grain men are complaining that the unreasonably low rates have injured their business by sending grain right through Chicago from points further West, and by making previous contracts for Lake shipment turn out to be unprofitable.

It is yet too early to make any estimate of the profits likely to arise from Centennial passenger business, though nearly all the roads expect to make something by it; the accounts given of the Exhibition are so far favorable as to stimulate travel and bring up receipts to the best point that had reasonably been anticipated.

[From our own Correspondent.]

LONDON, Saturday, April 29, 1876.

Since the reduction in the Bank rate of discount last week to 2 per cent, the money market has assumed a still easier appearance, and, were it possible, a still lower official minimum might be looked forward to. But although the Bank rate is at the low figure of 2 per cent, the Bank is still underbid by the open market, the best short-dated and three-months' bills being taken at 1¼ per cent. It is even said that choice parcels of bills have been discounted at ⅞ per cent, while in the Stock Exchange it has been found impossible to lend money for short periods upon Government security. The demand experienced for money is, in fact, upon a very restricted scale in all quarters, and there appear to be no indications of a change from that unsatisfactory condition of affairs. The caution exercised in commercial circles causes the financial requirements of the mercantile community to be very limited, and with no prospect of any immediate improvement in trade, there is no hope that the supply of mercantile paper will increase. The serious failures of last year have naturally had an important influence in fostering a spirit of extreme caution, and there is still great indisposition to depart from this policy. The effect, however, of the cautious trading of the last few months ought to be beneficial. So many reckless firms have now been weeded out, whilst many firms prone to speculative operations have been compelled to trade within legitimate bounds, that a sounder condition of affairs must certainly exist, and in this respect it will be admitted that we are in a much better position than we were at this period last year. There is, nevertheless, great timidity amongst capitalists, both large and small, and as to regain confidence is a slow process, we must naturally expect that, after the many difficulties which have arisen since the war of 1870-'71, all classes of the community are circumspect in what they undertake. The numerous commercial and financial panics which have occurred during the last five years, the disclosures which have been made respecting the negotiation of foreign loans in this country, the fluctuations in the rates of discount, the important movements in gold, and the fall in the price of silver, are all having their influence, and great difficulty is experienced in trading with any certainty of profit. No outlet being found for our supplies of idle money, the accumulation in the London market is necessarily very great, and it is a general opinion that during the next few months there will be no check to it. We must now await the period when the trade in autumn and winter goods will commence, but even the advent of that period can have but little influence, as there is no reason to believe that the spending power of the country, or of those countries which are large buyers of us, will, during the brief period which has to elapse, have been materially enhanced. The most encouraging view we can take of the commercial position is that it is sounder than it was, and that compared with this period last year, a marked improvement has taken place—not, indeed, in the actual business doing, but in the more legitimate manner in which bargains are concluded. All classes of the community are undoubtedly compelled to economize, and where thrift is exercised, a beneficial result must eventually be attained. The process may be, and, indeed, always is, a slow one, but a position must eventually be reached which will justify the extension of commercial transactions with confidence.

The present year promises to be more bare of financial enterprise even than its predecessor. A few companies have, since its commencement, been introduced to public notice, but they appear to meet with but little support. Foreign loans, after the recent experience, are certain not to meet with favor, and as those countries in whom the public have confidence do not seem to require financial aid, there is no reason to anticipate the introduction of loans for foreign countries at present. It becomes, therefore, a difficult question to answer as to how our supplies of idle money will find employment. The general impression is that money will remain easy in this market for a long time to come, and that there need be no discussion about dearer money until the autumn arrives. And even then, perhaps, equal difficulties will exist in procuring safe employment for our supplies of idle capital.

The position of the Bank has improved during the week, the proportion of reserve to liabilities being 48·66 per cent. The supply of bullion is as much as £26,258,687, against £21,023,290 last year; while the reserve of notes and coin amounts to £13,800,027, against £9,180,760. At the commencement of the year the proportion of reserve to liabilities was somewhat under 29 per cent; so that an important improvement has been established. The reserve at the commencement of the year amounted to £8,134,241; and the supply of bullion to £21,215,761. The Bank rate was then at 5 per cent.

The demand for money during the week has, as already stated, been upon an extremely moderate scale, and in the open market the rates of discount have had a downward tendency. Choice parcels of bills have been sought after, and it is said that business has been done at as low a figure as ⅞ per cent. The following are the quotations:

| | Per cent. | | Per cent. |

| 30 and 60 days' bills | 1⅛ | 6 months' bank bills | 1⅛@1⅛ |
| 3 months' bills | 1⅛ | 4 and 6 months' trade bills | 2 @2⅛ |

Owing to the difficulty experienced in employing money, some of the discount houses have reduced their terms, the rates now allowed for deposits being as follows:

Business on the Stock Exchange has been upon a restricted scale, and the tone has been dull. A prominent feature has consisted in a demand for consols, which have, in consequence, been advancing in price. The public have been operating to a very limited extent, and all speculative securities have therefore been adversely affected by the dealings of speculative cliques. The closing prices of consols and the principal American securities at to-day's market, compared with those of last Saturday, are subjoined:

Messrs. J. S. Morgan & Co. notify that in conformity with the terms of the mortgage of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad Company's six per cent loan of £2,000,000, the sum of £9,000, together with the interest accrued on investments, has been employed in the purchase of $53,000 Sandusky Mansfield & Newark Railroad Company's seven per cent currency consolidated mortgage bonds, which are held for account of the sinking fund.

A new loan for 120,000,000 francs for the city of Paris is about to be introduced in that city. The bonds, which are to be of 500 francs each, are to bear interest at 4 per cent, and are to be redeemed at par within 73 years.

The weather during the week has been favorable, and business in the wheat trade has been exceedingly quiet, but there has been no material change in prices. Good English wheat is very scarce, and there has been a moderate inquiry for sound descriptions of foreign produce. The supply of wheat afloat to this country has increased to 1,250,000 quarters. The large visible supply in the United States, and the belief that Russia has still a large stock of grain available for exportation, induce millers to operate with extreme caution, and principally from hand to mouth. The stocks here are considerable, though they are less than they were.

The return for the week ending April 22, shows that in the 150 principal markets of England and Wales the sales of English wheat amounted to 37,396 quarters, against 68,744 quarters, the deficiency being partly due to the fact that in the current year the holidays had interrupted supplies. In the whole Kingdom it is estimated that the sales were 149,600 quarters, against 275,000 quarters in 1875. Since harvest, the sales in the 150 principal markets have been 1,529,777 quarters, against 2,049,514 quarters; and in the whole Kingdom, 6,120,000 quarters, against 8,198,100 quarters during the corresponding period of 1874–5. It is also computed that last year's crop has thus far produced nearly £16,000,000, while nearly £18,000,000 was realized in the same period in the previous season. The falling off is as much, therefore, as £4,000,000. It is estimated that the following quantities of wheat and flour have been placed upon the British markets since harvest:

IMPORTS AND EXPORTS FOR THE WEEK.—The imports this week show a decrease in dry goods and an increase in general merchandise. The total imports amount to $5,052,744 this week, against $5,092,609 last week, and $6,954,749 the previous week. The exports amount to $5,065,313 this week, against $3,589,380 last week and $4,582,548 the previous week. The exports of cotton the past week were 1,488 bales, against 2,741 bales last week. The following are the imports at New York for week ending (for dry goods) May 4, and for the week ending (for general merchandise) May 5:

Peoria & Rock Island.—J. R. Hilliard, receiver, filed his report for March, showing:

RECEIPTS.

|---|---|
| Local agents and conductors | $16,549 49 |
| Foreign roads | 10,098 15 |
| Sundries | 253 78 |
| Cash on hand March 1 | 19,770 95 |
| Total | $55,672 37 |
| Disbursements (including cash on hand, $10,118) | $35,674 37 |

Rockford Rock Island & St. Louis.—The report of J. P. Whitehead, auditor, shows the business in March, as follows:

|---|---|
| Total earnings | $60,333 |
| Less operating expenses for March | 46,606 |
| Net earnings | $13,728 |

In addition to the above expenses, there has been paid for miscellaneous purposes, since last November, the sum of $10,856, and the further sum of $10,310 22 for interest. All pay-rolls and bills for supplies for March have been paid, but there are yet some outstanding claims against the road for damages, done by trains, and balances due to other roads.

Valley (Va.) Railroad.—Negotiations have been pending lately for a lease of the Virginia Valley Railroad to the Shenandoah Valley Road, or to any one else that wanted it. At a meeting of the stockholders, held in Alexandria some months ago, it was voted to withdraw from the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad Company, and since that time efforts have been made to lease to anybody, at $30,000 per year, for two years. The Shenandoah Company offered $20,000 a year for fifteen years, but the directors declined the offer. Baltimore city owns $1,000,000 stock in the Virginia Valley Road, and the Baltimore & Ohio another million, and the Virginia stockholders $1,200,000. What will be done now is difficult to say, for the Baltimore & Ohio has withdrawn its rolling stock.

—We call attention to the advertisement of Mr. E. B. Newburn of No. 50 Broad street, in to-day's issue of the CHRONICLE, offering a limited amount of "Long Island City 7 per cent Water Bonds." These bonds are authorized by Legislative act. Long Island City, lying as it does, directly opposite the upper portion of New York, is probably destined at no remote date to have a large population; the estimated real value of its property to-day is $30,000,000, while the assessed valuation is only $6,000,000. The total debt of the city is about $850,000. These bonds are issued for water-works which are already completed and in successful operation, and in this respect should commend themselves to those seeking investments in city bonds.

—Mr. James Middledith, a member of the New York Stock Exchange, has undertaken to make a specialty of first-class stock privileges. This class of operations now forms a large part of the transactions in speculative stocks, and the argument urged in their favor is that the possible liability of the operator is limited to a certain fixed sum. Mr. Middledith is highly recommended, and having been a member of the board for a number of years, is well posted in regard to this specialty. We call attention to his card in our to-day's issue.

FRIDAY, MAY 12, 1876—6 P. M.

The Money Market and Financial Situation.—Quiet markets, with an improved tone in speculative stocks, have been the features of the week which has witnessed the opening of the long-expected Centennial Exposition. There is a rather better feeling in trade circles, and a hope among railroad stockholders that the competition between the different trunk lines will not lead to any additional reductions in the passenger or freight tariffs. On another page, in the article on railroad earnings, reference is made to some of the main points involved in the freight question, and to the present situation of affairs. The Centennial Exhibition has opened auspiciously, and there is every reason to suppose that it will accomplish all the good in business circles which has been anticipated for it, by those who took a rational view of the matter. Receipts for admission on the first day were $38,066.

The money market has worked easily at 3 to 4 per cent, with some exceptional transactions at 2½ per cent., and the prospect is considered good for easy money during the summer months. The only disturbing element seen in the future—and this is not imminent—is the large amount of greenbacks temporarily locked up by the deposits of National Banks to withdraw their own notes from circulation. The legal tenders paid into the Sub-Treasury on the recent gold sale come out gradually, and in last week's bank statement the effect of their withdrawal was shown very clearly. Strictly prime commercial paper is in demand at 4½ to 6 per cent.

On Thursday the Bank of England report showed a loss of £49,000 for the week, and the rate of discount remains unchanged at 2 per cent. The Bank of France gained 15,308,000 francs in specie.

The last statement of the New York City Clearing-House banks, issued May 6, showed a decrease of $1,964,275 in the excess above their 25 per cent. legal reserve, the whole of such excess being $7,569,350, against $9,533,625 the previous week.

The following table shows the changes from the previous week and a comparison with 1875 and 1874:

United States Bonds.—There has been a very fair business in government securities this week, which is more noticeable from the fact that the market has shown rather a declining tendency. It is believed that a part of the sales of fives of 1881, which have supplied the recent demand, has come from one of the parties interested in the recent purchase from the Treasury. With the prospect of easy money ahead, and the necessary demand for governments from corporations, the leading dealers do not seem to anticipate materially lower prices.

State and Railroad Bonds.—There have been considerable transactions in Tennessee bonds this week, and to-day the old bonds sold at 43¼, and the new and new series both at 41¼. Many of the friends of the State anticipate that the finances will be put in a better condition by the next Legislature, and believe that a sentiment is growing in the State against repudiation. Missouri bonds are well held for the long-date issues, and are now selling at about the best prices of the current year. Proposals for $500,000 20-year Georgia 7's will be received at the State Treasury till June 10, and no bid will be received under par. Railroad bonds continue to show a little more activity, and prices are about steady. The St. Paul and Northwest bonds are strong, and the Pacifics about steady at their late range. The wide fluctuations in values of the best stocks known to the market, and the possibilities of a large increase in the stock and debt of railroads, without corresponding increase in their property—such as that which took place in the case of the Erie Railway and some other less prominent companies—will lead careful investors to look for the mortgage bonds of companies having an established traffic and an amount of bonded debt which their earnings will provide for under any probable contingency. The Erie first five mortgages are strong illustrations of the soundness of first mortgage bonds, of limited amount, under the worst misfortunes that can happen to a railroad company.

Railroad and Miscellaneous Stocks.—The stock market has been somewhat variable in tone, but, upon the whole, much better than last week. There was a sharp rally in Michigan Central from the decline noticed in our last report, and with this an improvement in Lake Shore. Western Union Telegraph has sold up to 67⅝, and closes at a re-action of about 1 per cent; there have been confident reports that a quarterly dividend of 1½ per cent would be declared in July. Had the Western Union never paid more than 1¼ per cent quarterly, and carried a large surplus, there would have been no need of passing any dividend, and the company would have had larger resources to keep up its property and fight opposition. The terms on which control of the Southern & Atlantic line has been obtained, have not yet transpired. There are no new facts in regard to the railroad freight war, though rumors innumerable of some new reduction have been circulated daily. The coal-carrying railroad stocks are stronger to-day, in consequence of the statement that a meeting of officers yesterday, at Pottsville, resulted in harmonious action, which will probably keep up the combination. Railroad earnings for April turn out to have been good, and the few reports yet received for the first week in May are also favorable—the Ohio & Miss. just received reporting an increase of $16,827 over the same week last year. As this company now shows an increase of $172,359 in gross earnings from Jan. 1 to date, and as it requires but $140,000 to pay a semi-annual dividend on the preferred stock, it is probable that such payment would be looked for in September, if there was any assurance that the company had made a saving in expenses similar to that of nearly all other railroads. There is a decidedly better feeling in stocks, but the diverse interests in the market, and the opportunity for spreading unfavorable rumors, tend to keep up a feverish tone, with a considerable fluctuation in prices from day to day.

The Gold Market.—Gold has been steady, and closes a trifle firmer on the continued shipments. On Thursday, $500,000 in coin was shipped, and the specie engagements for to morrow are reported at $800,000. The payments of silver continue at the Sub-Treasury, and to-day $12,630 were paid under the $100 limit, $19,365 under $400 limit, and $37,868 on silver drafts from Washington. The total paid since April 20 is $1,474,697. The premium paid for silver to-day was 2@3 per cent, and California bankers were among the buyers.

On gold loans the carrying rates were 1 and 3 per cent., loans having been also made "flat." Customs receipts of the week were $1,759,000.

The following table will show the course of gold, and operations of the Gold Exchange Bank, each day of the past week:

Exchange.—The volume of business continues small, and the bankers who are selling, ship specie against their bills, as the supply of commercial bills, which they usually buy up, is quite limited. At the close to-day rates were hardly as firm as in the morning, and prime sterling was sold at 4.87¼@4.88 for 60 days, and 4.89¾ for demand.

In domestic exchange the following were the rates on New York to day at the cities named: Savannah, 5-16 premium; Charleston, ⅛@¼ premium; New Orleans, Commercial, ¼@5-16; Bank, ⅜; Chicago, 50c. premium; Cincinnati, firm, 90@100 premium; and St. Louis, 1.25 premium.

ANNUAL REPORTS.

Georgia Railroad.

(For the year ending March 31, 1876.)

The President's annual report has the following:

In the reported operations of railroads in the last two or three years, especially at the South and West, there is one feature very common to all: reduced business by the poverty of the people, or reduced receipts from a ruinous competition. The net profits of railroad property are not unfrequently affected by a combination of both these causes.

The Board has no wish to speak despondingly, or to discourage stockholders with a gloomy prospect in the future, but it cannot be ignored, and need not be denied, that the present and early future of the railroad interest, especially South and West, is very discouraging. This is everywhere seen and everywhere felt; and as it is occasioned by one general cause, and extends to all industrial interests, the truth of the sentiments expressed in a late report of one of our neighboring institutions will be generally acknowledged: "It has been a year of unusual hardship upon the railroad interests of the country—ever responding in quick sympathy to unfavorable conditions of other industries."

It will be recollected that it has been the policy of the company, since the war, to charge all expenditures for, and on account of, the road, and especially expenditures for restoration of property, to profit and loss, so that nothing should appear as an asset which could not be separated from the road and outfit, and made available for payment of debts or dividends.

The Superintendent's report says:

The earnings have been:

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| From passage | $245,119 | |
| From freight | 920,911 | |
| From mail | 28,292 | $1,194,324 |

The expenses of conducting the business have been:

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| For conducting transportation | $163,014 | |
| For motive power | 228,714 | |
| For maintenance of way | 197,013 | |
| For maintenance of cars | 52,931 | $641,677 |
| Net | | $552,646 |

The expenses are 53¼ per cent of the gross earnings.

The future prospects of your road are not gloomy, and with close and economical management we can see nothing that will prevent the company hereafter from continuing to pay their regular dividends to its stockholders.

Atlantic & Gulf.

(For the year ending December 31, 1875.)

This company owns and works the following lines:

| | Miles. |
|---|---|
| Main Line—Savannah, Ga., east by south to Bainbridge | 237 |
| River Extension—To wharves on Savannah River | 2 |
| Albany Division—Thomasville to Albany | 59 |
| Florida Division—Dupont, Ga., to Live Oak, Fla | 48 |
| Junction Branch—Savannah & Charleston connection | 4 |
| Total | 350 |

The Junction Branch, which gives the road for the first time a direct connection with the Savannah & Charleston road, and opens to the trains of that road an entrance into Savannah, was begun in October and opened for the passage of trains Dec. 1.

Excluding the ordinary current balances, the capital account at the close of the last two fiscal years was as follows:

| | 1875. | 1874. |
|---|---|---|
| Stock | $3,693,700 | $3,693,200 |
| South Georgia & Florida guaranteed stock | 785,976 | 786,475 |

| Company's bonds | 2,310,000 | 2,310,200 |
| South Georgia & Florida bonds | 664,000 | 664,000 |
| Bainbridge Extension, free bonds | 52,500 | 52,500 |
| Junction Branch bonds | 45,000 | ..... |
| Coupon notes | 500,000 | 500,000 |
| Total bonds and notes | $3,561,500 | $3,526,700 |
| Due bills, used as currency | 80,000 | 76,800 |
| Bills payable | 194,978 | 175,364 |
| Total floating debt | $264,978 | $252,064 |
| Total | $3,806,155 | $3,778,440 |

The earnings of the year were as follows:

| | 1875. | 1874. |
|---|---|---|
| Freight | $682,733 | $738,892 |
| Passage | 209,503 | 195,501 |
| Mails | 33,264 | 26,266 |
| Incidentals | 35,357 | 71,685 |
| Total earnings | $965,869 | $1,032,256 |
| Working expenses | 648,941 | 735,229 |
| Net earnings | $326,928 | $297,027 |
| Per cent of expenses | 60·15 | 71·23 |

Of the freight earnings, 73 per cent was from local business, 14 per cent from Florida through and the rest from other through business. Of passenger earnings, 58 per cent was from local, 31 per cent from Florida and 11 per cent from other through travel. The Florida business increases steadily in importance, and more than balances the loss by the diversion of the Chattahoochee River trade to Eufaula and Columbus. The decrease in freight earnings was caused by short cotton and other crops, but was nearly made up by increase in naval stores and by fruit and vegetable shipments. The latter business promises well, and pains are being taken to foster it by giving every possible advantage in rates and accommodations.

Expenditures for improvements and additions to property were $11,457 31. The cost of the Junction branch was $38,782 05, about $9,500 per mile.

The decrease in incidental earnings results from the fact that there was included under that head, in 1874, $49,268 21, recovered from the Central Railroad of Georgia for rails seized by the Confederate Government during the war and converted to the use of that road.

All payments necessary to maintain the credit of the company have been promptly met. Considering the general depression, the results of the year have not been unfavorable, and an improvement is confidently expected during the current year.

Delaware & Hudson Canal Company.

(For the year ending December 31, 1875.)

The very brief annual report of this company, just issued, has the following:

The coal tonnage of the year was increased beyond expectation, owing to strikes in the Schuylkill and Lehigh regions. The New York and Canada Railroad was opened for through business December 1st, by using twelve miles of the Ogdensburg Road, between Moore's Junction and Rouse's Point. The line from Chazy to Rouse's Point, twelve miles in length, is being constructed and will be opened for business by July of the present year, completing the road. The new office building, corner Cortlandt and Church streets, New York, was completed and occupied about the middle of January of the present year.

The prospects for the year upon which we have entered are not flattering for the coal trade, upon which the prosperity of the company largely depends, and so long as the iron and other manufacturing industries of the country continue in their present depressed condition, but little improvement can be expected. The managers, therefore, deem it but justice to the stockholders to express, in advance, their belief that a temporary reduction in dividends may be prudent, and for the best interests of the stockholders.

Missouri River Fort Scott & Gulf Railroad.

(For the year ending Dec. 31, 1875.)

The report for 1875 shows the following:

|---|---|
| From freight | $443,718 |
| From passengers | 187,203 |
| From miscellaneous | 46,916 |
| Total | $677,843 |

OPERATING EXPENSES.

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| For operating | $493,636 | |
| For taxes | 68,545 | |
| For insurance | 4,056 | |
| For Boston office | 4,249 | |
| For construction, etc | 2,475 | —480,932 |
| Net earnings | | $196,910 |
| Land expenses | | 22,381 |
| | | $174,528 |
| Receipts from land department | $51,070 | |
| Receipts from collection of county-bond coupons | 18,017 | —69,088 |
| Total net revenue | | $243,616 |

The gross earnings of the year show a decrease from those of the previous year of $15,550. This decrease is due to local causes.

The present year (1876) opens with much encouragement, the earnings showing an increase of $50,000 for the first quarter, as compared with the corresponding period of last year, and the sales of land, commencing with Dec. last, an increase for the four months ending March 31, 1876, of $177,398, as compared with the corresponding months of the previous years.

Pursuant to our circular of Dec. 15, 1874, and in conformity with last year's practice, all the net revenues of the road, from Jan. 1, 1876, are to be placed in the hands of the trustees of the first mortgage bonds, and a dividend will be paid to the holders of said bonds on the first day of July next, which may reasonably be estimated as a half coupon, or 2½ per cent on the first mortgage bonded indebtedness of the company.

Sales of land during the year 1875, and total sales to January 1, 1876, have been as follows:

| | No. of Acres. | Average Price. | Amount of sales. |
|---|---|---|---|
| Total sales of lands, as per report of 1874 | 420,735 | $5 66 | $2,385,911 |
| Less cancelled in 1875 | 77,429 | 8 35 | 647,483 |
| | 343,306 | $5 06 | $1,737,927 |
| Sales of U. S. granted lands, 1875 | 280 | 3 90 | 1,094 |
| Sales of neutral lands, 1875 | 27,036 | 7 74 | 209,470 |

TOTAL CASH RECEIPTS AND DISBURSEMENTS TO JAN. 1, 1876.

|---|---|
| Total receipts for account of land account | $755,483 |
| Amount paid in on tax account | 7,846 |
| Profit on county orders | 3,124 |
| Royalty account | 53 |

St. Paul & Sioux City Railroad.

(For the year ending Dec. 31, 1875.)

The condition of the land grant is reported as follows:

|---|---|
| Deeded to company by the State | acres. 836,387 |
| Certified, but not yet deeded | 72,675 |
| Due as indemnity for land granted to pre-emptors | 40,000 |
| In dispute with Winona & St. Peter Company, about | 40,000 |
| Total | acres. 969,053 |

During the year 1875 the sales were 14,078 acres for $93,448; the receipts on land contracts, $103,587. The total sales up to the close of the year have been 152,070 acres; cash receipts, $735,970. Both sales and collections were retarded by the grasshopper plague of last year.

The liabilities of the company are as follows:

|---|---|
| Capital stock | $2,400,000 |
| Preferred stock and scrip | 2,116,399 |
| Bills payable | 243,518 |
| Current accounts | 45,242 |
| Total | $4,805,080 |

The assets of the company, exclusive of road and unsold lands, amount to $391,438, of which $83,117 are in its own securities, $31,114 in those of the Sioux City & St. Paul Company, and $183,456 in interest-bearing land contracts. The preferred stocks are a special charge on the land grant and the income derived therefrom.

The earnings of the road were as follows:

| | 1875. | 1874. |
|---|---|---|
| Freight | $118,932 | $382,338 |
| Passengers | 124,231 | 134,927 |
| Mails, express, &c. | 20,850 | 25,924 |
| Total | $560,014 | $545,189 |
| Working expenses | 384,069 | 393,318 |
| Net earnings | $175,944 | $151,871 |
| Per cent of expenses | 68·6 | 72·1 |

Economy in train expenses has been secured by running only one exclusively passenger train daily, the other being made a mixed train. A decrease in receipts in the early part of the year has been more than overcome by the increase of the last three months.

The road-bed has been fully kept up, and 702 tons of re-rolled iron, with 50,000 new ties, have been laid. In the track between St. Paul and Mendota 420 tons of steel were laid, one-half the expense being paid by the Chicago Milwaukee & St. Paul Company as joint owner.

A summary of the profit and loss account is as follows:

|---|---|
| Net earnings | $175,944 79 |
| Rents | 2,809 27 |
| Land department | 95,622 35 |
| Personal accounts | 49 81 |
| Total | $274,456 22 |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| Taxes for 1874 and one-half of 1875 | $17,000 63 | |
| Insurance | 4,936 56 | |
| Interest on floating debt | 27,996 93 | |
| Dividends on preferred stock | 163,266 93 | $213,231 07 |

GENERAL INVESTMENT NEWS.

Atlantic & Pacific.—The St. Louis Republican says: "There have recently been filed in the recorder's office of Greene county, deeds of considerable importance from the Atlantic & Pacific Railroad Company, transferring to Oliver Ames, George S. Curtis, Jacob Sleeper, Uriel Crocker and F. B. Hayes, capitalists of Boston, 96,647 acres of land lying in Greene, Dade, Polk, Stone, McDonald, Barry, Lawrence and Newton counties, in this State, and Benton county, Arkansas. The consideration mentionsd in the deed is $308,949 57."

Boston Clinton & Fitchburg.—It is said that the proposed consolidation of the Boston Clinton & Fitchburg Railroad and the New Bedford Railroad will go into effect June 10. The stock of the latter will be put in at 110 and of the former at 75.

Burlington & Missouri.—In the U. S. Circuit Court at Omaha, on the 6th inst., Justice Miller rendered a decision in the case of the United States against the Burlington & Missouri Railroad in Nebraska, involving the title to 150,000 acres of land lying on the north side of the road, confirming the title of the road thereto, and dismissing the bill.

Central Pacific.—In response to a letter from the Portland (Oregon) Board of Trade, this company expresses its willingness to build the proposed branch from Winnemucca, Nev., to Portland on the following terms: The company to be guaranteed 7 per cent. interest on $3,000,000 for thirty years; the road to be exempted from taxation until the net earnings exceed the interest on the capital invested; the Legislature to authorize the city of Portland to subscribe in aid of the road a sum not to exceed $1,000,000 in 8 per cent. bonds.

The Board of Trade agreed to recommend an agreement with some modifications from this: the guarantee of interest and the exemption from taxation to extend not more than twenty years, and the sum to be raised by Portland to be limited to $500,000.

The Railroad Gazette says: The distance from Winnemucca to Portland is about 350 miles, and the route is said to be a practicable one, and its construction almost as cheap as would be the completion of the connection with Oregon by the present Oregon Division. The extension of that division, through the mountain region of Northern California and Southern Oregon, to a connection with the Oregon & California road, presents very great engineering obstacles and would be enormously expensive. Winnemucca is the most northerly point of the Central Pacific in Nevada, and the line from that point would give Oregon a very direct Eastern rail connection, and a Californian connection sufficiently direct for all practical purposes. The length of road to be built could be considerably shortened by making a connection with the Oregon & California road south of Portland.

Charlotte Columbia & Augusta.—Col. John B. Palmer, President of the Charlotte Columbia & Augusta Railroad Company, has just completed the sale of sufficient bonds to retire the entire floating debt of the company. The bonds sold comprise $500,000 of the first mortgage and $500,000 second mortgage. This makes the entire bonded debt of the company consist of $2,000,000 first mortgage bonds and $500,000 second mortgage bonds; the remaining $500,000 second mortgage bonds, in accordance with the terms of the negotiation, having been cancelled and destroyed. The features of the negotiations are, the retirement of the floating debt, and, at the same time, the reduction of the bonded debt $500,000. The whole transaction has the appearance of being an exceptionally good piece of business in the present unfavorable times.

Consolidation Coal Company.—The petition of the State of Maryland to the Judges of the Circuit Court for Alleghany County, Maryland, for the forfeiture of the charter of the Consolidation Coal Company of Maryland, has been filed by the Attorney-General of the State by authority of Governor Carroll. The petition alleges various abuses of its chartered rights on the part of the company, among others illegal rates of charge for transportation, the purchasing by the Consolidation Coal Company of the Cumberland and Pennsylvania Railroad, "without authority of law," and various other charges.

Grand Rapids Greenville & Alpena (Mich).—This unfinished road was sold at public sale under foreclosure of mortgage in Grand Rapids, Mich., May 6, to William W. Niles, of New York, for $1,000. Over $100,000 was expended on the grading between Greenville, Mich., and Rockford, three years ago.

Louisville Paducah & S. W.—The following is the Receiver's regular monthly report:

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| RECEIPTS, APRIL, 1876. | | |
| To cash on hand from last month | $101,519 30 | |
| To cash received during the month | 104,790 82 | |
| DISBURSEMENTS. | | |
| For audited vouchers and pay-rolls, &c., &c | $213,936 70 | |
| By cash on hand to next month's account | 292,403 42 | |
| EARNINGS AND EXPENSES PROPER FOR MARCH, 1876. | | |
| Gross earnings | $80,756 81 | |
| Net earnings | 15,217 84 | |
| Other expenses and liabilities | 9,024 51 | |
| Net proceeds | | $6,193 33 |

Memphis & Little Rock.—In the United States Circuit Court at Little Rock, Ark., the cross-bills filed by some of the stockholders, and by H. L. Brinkley as a creditor and stockholder, have been thrown out. The Court decided that the first mortgage was not usurious and that the company was legally organized. A decree of foreclosure of the first mortgage was granted and a sale ordered.

Missouri Kansas & Texas.—The Union Trust Company, of New York, gives notice that it will pay $20, gold, on each of the coupons maturing in January and February, 1876, on Missouri Kansas & Texas first and Union Pacific, Southern branch, first-mortgage bonds, to such holders as will sign the agreement of March 1, 1876, present their bonds to be stamped, and deposit the past-due coupons to be exchanged hereafter for second-mortgage income bonds, as provided in that agreement. The adjustment of the company's affairs by the Union Trust Co. is regarded as very successful.

New Orleans City Bonds.—In the U. S. Circuit Court, the premium-bond plan was sustained. Judge Woods, in the case of Morris Ranger vs. the city of New Orleans, reviewed the consolidation of the several municipalities of the city and referred to the charges of the bill that the issuance of bonds since has been illegal. The bill complains particularly against the premium-bond plan, and asks particularly to restrain the city from carrying it into effect. The part of the injunction, asking that the city be restrained from receiving scrip, he refused, on the ground that all the bondholder can ask is that the tax shall be levied and collected and his interest paid. The injunction, as to enjoining the city from diverting the interest funds was granted, but otherwise it was refused.

—Another judge has refused to grant a mandamus to compel the city authorities to pay a judgment obtained on over-due bonds.

New York & Boston.—The sale of this railroad, under a decree of foreclosure, has been adjourned until May 25.

New York State Taxation.—The Chairman of the Committee on Ways and Means reported May 2, and the Assembly at once passed the tax bill of the session, fixing the total amount of the State tax at 3 11-24 mills. This is calculated on the equalized valuation of last year, which raises the amount of the tax to be raised to $8,290,519. The tax, as finally assessed, is the smallest laid in any year since 1859, and is reduced nearly one-half on the average of the past year. As assessed, it agrees very closely to the tax proposed by the Governor in his last message, or 3.321 mills. In making a comparison with past years some allowance must be made for the increased valuation, which would raise the tax to nearly 3.75 or thereabout. If past experience shows anything, it is quite possible that this large reduction will leave a deficit to be made up in future years. The tax levied this year, as compared with that of late years, is as follows, the year in each case beginning October 1:

| General purposes, including new Capitol | 1⅞ | 1⅞ | 2 6-16 | 2 5-16 | 1 6-8 | 1 6-8 |
| Interest on debt and to provide for redemption | 1⅛ | 2 | 2 | 2 | 2 | 2 |
| Canal and general fund deficiency | .... | 11-20 | 69-160 | .... | 3⅛ | .... |
| Canal floating debt | .... | ⅛ | 1-10 | ⅛ | 9-80 | ⅛ |
| Awards canal appraisers, &c | .... | 1-5 | 7 32 | 7-10 | .... | .... |
| Extraordinary reform | .... | .... | ⅞ | ⅛ | 7-10 | ⅜ |
| Champlain Canal enlargement | .... | .... | .... | .... | .... | 1-5 |
| Academies and Union schools | .... | .... | .... | 1-10 | 1-16 | .... |
| Schools | 1⅛ | 1⅛ | 1⅛ | 1⅛ | 1⅛ | .... |
| Total | 3 11-24 | 6 | 7⅛ | 6 93-100 | 9⅜ | 5 79-120 |

The amount raised in each of these years was as follows, including school tax for the next year, calculated on a basis of $2,367,780,102, the equalized valuation of the current year:

| | Tax. | Sum raised. | Equalized valuation. |
|---|---|---|---|
| 1876 | 3 11-24 | $8,290,519 | $2,367,780,102 |
| 1875 | 6 | 14,206,680 | 2,367,780,102 |
| 1874 | 7⅛ | 15,727,482 | 2,169,307,573 |
| 1873 | 6 93-100 | 14,800,901 | 2,129,625,386 |
| 1872 | 9⅜ | 19,580,884 | 2,088,627,445 |

Pennsylvania Railroad.—A correspondent suggests that the list of stocks and bonds owned by this company, as published in the CHRONICLE of May 6th, should be supplemented by a statement showing the net annual income of the several corporations whose securities are held, and the amount of annual liability of the Pennsylvania Railroad on leases and guarantees. Such a statement with the annual report every year would be excellent; but none has ever been made except that in the famous report of the investigating committee, two years ago, from which full extracts were published at the time in the CHRONICLE.

Railroad Taxation.—The recent decision of the United States Supreme Court was given by the unanimous concurrence of the Judges, and carries more weight for that reason. The propositions established were as follows:

First—Neither irregularity in the proceedings, excess in the valuation, nor hardship of the law, if it be constitutional, nor any grievance remediable by a suit at law, will authorize an injunction against the collection of taxes.

Second—This rule is founded on the principle that the levy of taxes is a legislative and not a judicial function, and also in the necessity that the taxes, without which the State cannot exist, should be regularly and promptly paid into its treasury.

Third—The same rigid rule would probably not apply to taxes levied by municipal corporations for corporation purposes.

Fourth—No injunction, preliminary or final, can be granted to stay collection of taxes, until it is shown that all the taxes really due have been paid or tendered without demanding a receipt in full.

Fifth—The Constitution of Illinois declares in express terms that certain persons and corporations engaged in special pursuits may be taxed by a general law, uniform as to the class upon which it operates, and under this provision a statute is not unconstitutional which prescribes a different rule of taxation for railroad companies from that for individuals.

Sixth—Nor does it violate any provision of the Constitution of the United States.

Seventh—The capital stock, franchises, and all the real and personal property of corporations, are justly liable to taxation, and a rule that ascertains the value of all this by ascertaining the cash value of the funded debt and of the shares of the capital stock, as the basis of assessment, is probably as fair as any other.

Eighth—Deducting from this the assessed value of all the tangible real and personal property, which is also taxed, leaves the real value of the capital stock and franchise subject to taxation as justly as any other mode, all modes being more or less imperfect.

Ninth—It is neither in conflict with the Constitution of Illinois nor unequitable that the entire taxable property of the railroad should be ascertained by the State Board of Equalization, and that the State, county and city taxes should be collected within each municipality on this assessment in the proportion which the length of the road within such municipality bears to the whole length of the road within the State.

Tenth—The courts cannot substitute their judgment as to valuation for that of the Board.

Eleventh—The Supreme Court of Illinois having decided that the law complained of in these cases is valid, this Court adopts that decision as a rule to be followed in the Federal courts.

Twelfth—Does it follow that in cases where the proceedings are faulty or illegal, that a court of equity will enjoin the collection of the whole tax, when it is obvious that a large part should be paid, and, if not paid, the complainant would escape taxation altogether? The question is important because the immense weight of taxation rendered necessary by the debts of the United States, of the several States, and of the counties, cities and towns, has resulted very naturally in a resort to every possible expedient to evade its force. It has been repeatedly decided that neither the mere illegality of the tax complained of, nor its injustice nor irregularity, of themselves give the right to an injunction.

The United States has a complete system for the correction of injustice to tax-payers, but there is no place in it for application to the courts until after the tax is paid. An act of 1867 covers this point particularly. This is a wise policy. It is founded on the simple philosophy, derived from the experience of ages, that the payment of taxes has to be enforced by summary and stringent means against a reluctant and often advised sentiment. No court of equity will, therefore, allow its injunction to issue to restrain their action, except where it appears that the enforcement of the tax would lead to a multiplicity of suits or produce irreparable injury, or, when the property is real estate, throw a cloud upon the title of the complainant before the aid of a court of equity can be invoked. The Court will always incline to require a clear case of equitable relief before it will sustain an injunction against the collection of a tax, which is part of the revenue of a State.

But there is another principle of equitable jurisprudence which forbids in these cases the interference of a court of chancery in favor of complainants. It is that universal rule which requires that he who seeks equity at the hands of the Court must first do equity. It is clear that the road-bed within each county is liable to be taxed at the same rate that other property is taxed. Why have not complainants paid this tax?

Before complainants seek the aid of the court to be relieved of the excessive tax, they should pay what is due. Before they ask equitable relief, they should do that justice which is necessary to enable the court to hear them.

It is a satisfaction that our judgment concurs with that of the State court, and leads us to the same conclusions. The decrees in all these cases are reversed. The cases are remanded to the Circuit Court, with directions to dissolve the injunction granted in each case and to dismiss the bills.

Tennessee Finances.—Colonel James E. Bailey recently made a strong speech, at Clarksville, in favor of paying interest on the State debt. He gave the following summary: Total debt upon which we must pay interest, $21,220,505; and if to this we add the bonds due to common schools of $2,500,000, we will have a grand total of $23,720,505.

|---|---|
| The interest on this sum will be, per annum | $1,423,230 |
| And if to this we add for expenses of our State government | 660,000 |
| We will have | $2,083,230 |

to be raised by taxation.

Now, how can we raise this large sum of money?

The Comptroller reports the value of property assessed for taxation on the general lists, in 1875, to be $278,000,000, which by releases and otherwise may be reduced to $275,000,000.

|---|---|
| A tax rate of six mills on this, will make | $1,650,000 |
| Deduct 10 per cent. for cost of collecting, insolvencies, etc | 165,000 |
| Leaves | $1,485,000 |
| Now add tax on railroad | 80,000 |
| Average tax for 1873-4 for merchants, privileges, etc | 321,488 |
| Increase these taxes in the same ratio with the tax on bonds | 160,779 |
| Tax on litigation and from other sources | 50,000 |
| And we find a total of | $2,064,237 |

Which will leave a surplus of more than forty thousand per annum.

Now observe, fellow-citizens, that in this estimate no mention is made of other methods of supplementing the aggregate, as by taxing litigation before justices of peace, but still we have a fund sufficient to pay the expenses of the State Government, and to pay the interest on the public debt.

It may not be inappropriate in this connection to refer to the suggestion lately made by some of our creditors in Maryland, to the effect that the State shall tax the bonds themselves wherever held, and collect the assessment by retaining the money in the hands of the Treasurer. If the tax shall be levied it will yield, at the same rate per cent. of six mills, about $150,228, and give us a surplus of about $200,000 per annum.

It may admit of doubt whether we can constitutionally levy this tax.

The question was presented, in substance, to the Supreme Court of the United States in the Pennsylvania tax cases, 15th Wallace's reports, and the decision was adverse to the right claimed, but the court was divided in opinion, five to four, and, inasmuch as it reversed a decision of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, we may regard the question as open for re-argument. If the tax shall be assessed without the consent of the non-resident bondholder, the courts should be opened to contest it.

Union Pacific.—A letter from the President of the Union Pacific Railroad Company was received by the House Judiciary Committee, in response to its recent request for the submission within ten days of some proposition for the creation of a sinking fund, which should not include an offer to re-convey to the government any portion of the land grants. It seems to be an important omission that the letter does not refer at all to the fact that the lands of the company are now covered by two mortgages, amounting together to upwards of $20,000,000. Of course, it is impossible to ignore these mortgages, and the presumption is that the lands would be re-conveyed to the government, subject to the lien of these mortgages. The following extracts embrace the important parts of the letter:

SIR: After as much consultation with my associate directors of this company as has been practicable in the brief time allowed by your letter of the 25th of April, I find myself unable at this time to submit, as requested therein, a new money proposition for the creation of a sinking fund to meet the eventual liabilities of the company to the government under the second mortgage, but should any such proposition proceed from your committee, or in any way from the government, the company will give it immediate and careful consideration, with a view to its acceptance, if found to be fair and just to the other creditors and to the stockholders of the company. * * *

The opinion of your committee that it would be inexpedient to accept, on account of the company's future indebtedness, a reconveyance of any of the lands granted by the United States in aid of the construction of the road, we trust will, on a further examination of the subject, be reconsidered and a different conclusion reached. The amount to become due from the company to the government on the maturity of the bonds about the year 1897 is so large that annual sinking fund payments in money sufficient to cancel it at that date would be beyond the reasonable means of the company. There must, therefore, in any settlement, be either an extension of time for payment, or some wise and legitimate method must be found for reducing, by a substantial credit, the indebtedness, or for in some way augmenting the sinking fund. A fair and reasonable method of accomplishing this latter object, is by the re transfer to the government of the whole, or a part, of the lands granted to the company, which, although valuable and sure to be ultimately largely profitable, do not produce cash returns with the rapidity which was first expected. If by more rapid settlement of the country along the line, and by speedier sale of lands, large cash returns were secured, the company would be better able to make larger annual sinking fund payments to the government; but, in the absence of such rapid sales, such payments cannot safely be attempted. The land grant to this company was about 12,000,000 acres; the total sales to December 31, 1875, were about 1,200,000 acres, leaving nearly 11,000,000 acres unsold. The average price realized has been $4 47 per acre; manifestly, the land grant to the company has not been so immediately productive as was expected. Why, then, should not the lands constituting the only gift from the government to the company, and which it must have been intended should be largely relied on to enable the company to repay the loan of the government to the company, be utilized in any agreement with the company. * * * *

Although a credit of 8,000,000 acres of land at the Government price of $2 50 per acre amounts to $20,000,000, yet, as this latter will be thus discharged twenty-one years before it is due, its present value is only $5,883,100, and the above quantity of lands valued at less than $1 per acre is sufficient to meet it.

As the company is thus willing to convey to the United States 6,000,000 or 8,000,000 acres, or more, if desired, of its lands, at the price of $2 50 per acre, and to make in addition to such annual sinking fund, money payments, as will cancel the whole debt at maturity in 1897, or if this settlement is not agreeable to Congress, is willing to consider any proposition which may be made by the Government, with a disposition to accept it, if its means and its other obligations will permit. I have to express the hope that in no case will Congress lend itself to the passage of harsh, forcible, or hostile measures against the company. The Government has only a second mortgage; any blow at the company's credit is an injury to the Government, and diminishes its chances of collecting its debt, while whatever strengthens the company increases the Government's security and its prospect of ultimate reimbursement.

COMMERCIAL EPITOME.

Business circles continue to present a dull appearance; in fact what is termed the "spring trade" has ended almost before it began. The interest which was excited by the opening of the Centennial Exhibition diverted much attention from trade matters. We have had, much of the week, spring-like weather, and on two days it has been very warm; and throughout the country crop prospects are generally good. The lowering aspect of political affairs in Southeastern Europe has as yet had but little effect upon trade or prices, though felt to some extent in leading staples of domestic produce. A decline in gold and scarcity of freight room have been encountered by exporters.

Pork has materially declined, with sales of mess as low as $20 75 on the spot, $20 78 for June, and $20 90 for July. To day the market was firmer, with sales at $21 on the spot, and bids for future delivery at $20 85 for June, $21 for July, and $21 30 for August and September. There has also been a semi-panic in lard, with large sales of prime Western steam down to $12 42½@$12 45 on the spot, $12 45 for June, $12 55 for July, $12 67½ for August, and $12 75 for September; but yesterday there was a decided recovery, followed to-day by an active and buoyant market at $12 75@$12 80 for prime steam on the spot, with bids for future delivery at $12 65 for June, $12 80 for July, $12 95 for August, and $13 for September. Bacon has declined to 12@12½c. for city long clear, with more doing. There has also been a partial decline in cut meats. Beef and beef hams are quiet, but firm. Tallow has done a little better at 8⅝@8¾c. for prime. Butter has been more steady, but cheese has declined to 9@11c. for good to prime new factories, but old ranges from 10½ to 12c.

The foreign exports of hog products from seven principal ports, October 30 to May 6, 1875–6, were:

| | Pork, bbls. | Lard, lbs. | Bacon & Hams, lbs. |
|---|---|---|---|
| November 1, 1875, to May 6, 1876 | 133,362 | 90,452,097 | 219,598,376 |
| Corresponding time 1874-5 | 130,651 | 111,951,036 | 174,146,581 |
| Decrease | .... | 21,498,989 | ..... |

Rio Coffee has been more active, and prices are steady, at 17½@18½c. for fair to prime cargoes. The stock at this port is reduced to 109,600 bags, and the visible supply for the United States to 225,200 bags. Mild grades have been pressed on the market at 20@24c. gold, for Java, and 16@19c. gold, for Maracaibo, with stocks other than Rio, 36,800 bags and 178,000 mats. Trade in rice has remained quite dull. Teas are dull and depressed. Foreign dried fruits have been quiet, and Turkish prunes have declined to 5½@6c. Molasses is firmer, with 50-test quoted at 33½c., but grocery grades are without improvement. Sugars have been more active, and prices are a trifle higher; fair to prime refining, 7⅞@8c, and standard crushed refined, 10½c.

| | Hhds. | Boxes. | Bags. | Melado. |

| Sales past week | 9,957 | 3,816 | 5,025 | 263 |
| Stock May 1, 1876 | 79,086 | 34,572 | 223,018 | 5,465 |

During the past week the market for hides has been dull, weak and unsettled; dry California sold at 16c. gold, 30 days, and city slaughter ox at 7½@8c. currency. Linseed oil has been in fair jobbing demand and steady at 55@56c. Crude sperm has ruled lower at $1 37@$1 40, with 400 bbls. sold for export. Menhaden is also lower and dull at 41@43c. for prime. Codfish have been in good demand and firm at $5 00 for new Georges. Whiskey has been dull at $1 11@$1 11½.

Kentucky tobacco has ruled firmer and fairly active at 6c.@7c. for lugs, and 7½c.@16c. for leaf; the sales for the week embraced 800 hhds., of which 600 were for export, and 200 were for consumption. Seed leaf has been in fair demand, and prices are very firm; the sales embrace: Crop of 1873, 14 cases New England at 12½@20c.; crop of 1873 and 1874, 100 cases Wisconsin at 5½c.; crop of 1873 and 1875, 84 cases Ohio at 5½c.@8½c.; crop of 1874, 300 cases New England at 10c.@30c.; crop of 1874 and 1875, 187 cases Ohio at 5½c.; crop of 1875, 200 cases Pennsylvania at 15c., and 700 cases New England on private terms; also 200 cases sundries at 7c.@25c. Spanish tobacco has ruled a shade firmer, with sales 500 bales Havana at 88c.@$1 15.

Naval stores have remained about steady, spirits turpentine selling fairly and closing at 36c. Rosins, early in the week, were more active, but close dull at $1 70@1 80 for common to good strained. Petroleum has latterly advanced, owing to the buoyant advices from the Creek; the close was very firm, at 14c. for refined in barrels, and 8½c. for crude in bulk. Ingot copper has latterly been dull, and is lower, the sales being 200,000 lbs. Lake at 21½@21¾c. cash.

The business in ocean freights has been fairly good, both for berth and charter; the rates for the former have been maintained with firmness, but on the latter a slight irregularity has been noticeable. Late engagements and charters include: Grain to Liverpool, by steam, 7½@8d.; cotton, ½d.; provisions, 35@40s. per ton; grain, by sail, 7d., and cotton at ½d.; grain to London, by sail, 7½@7¾d.; do. by steam to Glasgow, 9d.; do. to a direct port in the Bristol channel, 5s. 3d.; do. to Havre or Antwerp, 5s. 6d.@5s. 9d.; refined petroleum to Antwerp, 3s. 2d.; naphtha to Morganpill, 4s. 3d.; do. to Rouen at 4s. To-day, the position was the same, viz., firm for berth, but a little irregular for charter room, with business rather slow; no engagements of importance; and only two or three charters, including grain to Hamburg, at 6s. (small vessel); do. to Antwerp, 5s. 6d.; oil cake to Newcastle, 23s. 9d. per ton; case oil to Odessa, 28c., gold.

COTTON.

FRIDAY, P. M., May 12, 1876.

THE MOVEMENT OF THE CROP, as indicated by our telegrams from the South to-night, is given below. For the week ending this evening (May 12) the total receipts have reached 26,441 bales, against 26,002 bales last week, 29,858 bales the previous week, and 30,920 bales three weeks since, making the total receipts since the 1st of September, 1875, 3,967,779 bales, against 3,360,951 bales for the same period of 1874–5, showing an increase since Sept. 1, 1875, of 606,828 bales. The details of the receipts for this week (as per telegraph) and for the corresponding weeks of five previous years are as follows:

The exports for the week ending this evening reach a total of 20,701 bales, of which 11,008 were to Great Britain, 5,396 to France, and 4,297 to rest of the Continent, while the stocks as made up this evening are now 479,953 bales. Below are the stocks and exports for the week, and also for the corresponding week of last season:

* New Orleans.—Our telegram to-night from New Orleans shows that (besides above exports) the amount of cotton on shipboard and engaged for shipment at that port is as follows: For Liverpool, 25,000 bales; for Havre, 8,000 bales; for Continent, 500 bales; for coastwise ports, 1,000 bales; which, if deducted from the stock, would leave 120,500 bales representing the quantity at the landing and in presses unsold or awaiting orders.

† Galveston.—Our Galveston telegram shows (besides above exports) on shipboard at that port, not cleared: For Liverpool, 1,814 bales; for other foreign, none; for coastwise ports, 323 bales; which, if deducted from the stock, would leave remaining 20,730 bales.

‡ The exports this week under the head of "other ports" include from Baltimore 502 bales and 70 bags Sea Island to Liverpool; from Boston 300 bales to Liverpool; from Philadelphia 623 bales to Liverpool; from San Francisco 46 bales to Liverpool.

From the foregoing statement it will be seen that, compared with the corresponding week of last season, there is a decrease in the exports this week of 3,647 bales, while the stocks to-night are 53,247 bales more than they were at this time a year ago. The following is our usual table showing the movement of cotton at all the ports from Sept. 1 to May 5, the latest mail dates:

These mail returns do not correspond precisely with the total of the telegraphic figures, because in preparing them it is always necessary to incorporate every correction made at the ports.

There has been some further decline in cotton on the spot in the past week, in spite of a strong effort to support prices. On Monday, another revision of quotations was made. Strict low middling and grades above were 1-16c. lower, good ordinary and stained cottons 1 16c. lower, and low middling and strict good ordinary ¼c, lower; and on Wednesday there was a general decline of 1-16c., carrying middling uplands down to 12⅝c. This decline did not lead to any important increase in business. The stock continues to increase at this point, and holders have been discouraged by weak foreign advices, better weather for the new crop, and a decline in gold. Yesterday, there was a further reduction of ¼c., in sympathy with a decline at Liverpool. To day, the market was inactive and easier, but without quotable decline. For future delivery the market has quite broken down, and, except a partial recovery on Tuesday, the tendency has been almost uniformly downward. The depressing influences have been mainly such as were felt in the market for cotton on the spot, above stated, to which may be added, as affecting both, the unprosperous state and dubious prospects of trade in manufactures. Yesterday, a further decline of 1-16@3 32c. made an aggregate decline from last Friday of about 5 16c. To-day, the opening was at a further decline of 3 32@⅛c., but a part of it was recovered at the close, on reports that the Mississippi River is rising between Cairo and Memphis, and that heavy rains have fallen in the Atlantic States.

The total sales for forward delivery for the week are 205,600 bales, including —— free on board. For immediate delivery the total sales foot up this week 6,646 bales, including 2,933 for export, 2,732 for consumption, 981 for speculation, and —— in transit. Of the above, 125 bales were to arrive. The following were the closing quotations to day:

* Actual count.

The above totals show that the old interior stocks have decreased during the week 901 bales, and are to-night 12,648 bales more than at the same period last year. The receipts at same towns have been 2,640 bales more than the same week last year.

BOMBAY SHIPMENTS.—According to our cable despatch received to-day, there have been 27,000 bales shipped from Bombay to Great Britain the past week, and 26,000 bales to the Continent; while the receipts at Bombay during this week have been 54,000 bales. The movement since the 1st of January is as follows. These are the figures of W. Nicol & Co., of Bombay, and are brought down to Thursday, May 11:

| 1876 | 27,000 | 26,000 | 53,000 | 238,000 | 207 000 | 495,000 | 54,000 | 772,000 |
| 1875 | 42,000 | 8,000 | 50,000 | 582,000 | 316,000 | 898,000 | 66,000 | 935,000 |
| 1874 | 30,000 | 7,000 | 37,000 | 489,000 | 252,000 | 751,000 | 68,000 | 964,000 |

From the foregoing it would appear that, compared with last year, there is an increase of 3,000 bales this year in the week's shipments from Bombay to Europe, and that the total movement since January 1 shows a decrease in shipments of 313,000 bales compared with the corresponding period of 1875.

WEATHER REPORTS BY TELEGRAPH.—The past week has been fairly favorable in most sections for the development of the crop. In much of Texas it is too dry, while at some other points they have had too much rain, and at still others there are complaints of its being too cold. Yet, take it altogether, little damage has been done except in limited districts, and over a considerable section good progress has been made. A portion of the Valley of the Mississippi, between Memphis and Vicksburg, still remains under water, and the higher water at Cairo and Memphis the last few days, is, therefore, an unfavorable feature. But the district which is overflowed, is, according to the best information we have been able to get, not very extensive.

Galveston, Texas.—Some sections in this vicinity have had showers on three days, but many other points are needing rain badly. The total rainfall here this week is seventy-two hundredths of an inch. The average thermometer is 73, the highest 87 and the lowest 60.

Indianola, Texas.—There has been no rain this week, and it is much needed, as the ground is very dry. Average thermometer 73; highest 83 and lowest 58.

Corsicana, Texas.—It was showery here on two days of the week, but there was not enough rain to do much good. The rainfall was fifty-five hundredths of an inch. The average thermometer is 68, the highest being 89 and the lowest 48.

Dallas, Texas.—There has been no rain here throughout the week, and it is generally needed. Wheat is still in a promising condition, but there is considerable complaint of rust. The thermometer has averaged 78, ranging from 45 to 83.

New Orleans, Louisiana.—The early part of the week we had three rainy days, but the latter part has been clear and pleasant. The rainfall is five inches and fifteen hundredths. The average thermometer is 72.

Shreveport, Louisiana.—We had a rainstorm this week, lasting from Saturday evening to Sunday noon, the rainfall reaching seven and forty-three hundredths inches. The damage to crops is comparatively small. Average thermometer 69, highest 87 and lowest 54.

Vicksburg, Mississippi.—We have had two rainy days this week, the rainfall reaching five inches. The thermometer has averaged 67, the highest being 84 and the lowest 50.

Columbus, Mississippi.—There has been rain on three days of the week, the rainfall reaching two inches and seven hundredths. The weather has been too cold, and so unfavorable that much seed planted has failed to come up. Average thermometer 63, highest 72 and lowest 54.

Little Rock, Arkansas.—There have been three cloudy and two rainy days during the week. The cool nights have caused some damage to the crops from the cut-worm; but, if it continues warm from now, the damage will not be material. Average thermometer during the week 67, highest 86 and lowest 48. Rainfall, one inch and sixty-seven hundredths.

Nashville, Tennessee.—Rain fell on two days of the week, to the extent of one inch and twenty-eight hundredths. The rest of the week has been pleasant. The thermometer has averaged 66, the extremes being 55 and 76.

Memphis, Tennessee.—There have been three rainy days this week, the rainfall reaching two and eighty-five hundredths inches. The earlier part of the week was rainy, but the latter part has been clear and pleasant. Planting is about completed in this neighborhood, except in the overflowed lands. Much damage has been done by last week's heavy rains, washing and baking. The average thermometer is 68, the highest 78 and the lowest 58.

Mobile, Alabama.—It rained here severely the early part of the week on two days, but the latter part has been clear and pleasant. Crop accounts are more favorable, and the plant is developing promisingly. The thermometer has averaged 70, the highest being 83 and the lowest 54. The rainfall is three and sixty-nine hundredths inches.

Montgomery, Alabama.—The early part of the week was rainy, but the latter part has been clear and pleasant. There were three rainy days, the rainfall reaching two inches and thirty-seven hundredths. Average thermometer 69, highest 88 and lowest 53.

Selma, Alabama.—There have been two rainy days this week, but the rest of the week has been pleasant. The thermometer has averaged 68. The rainfall for the week is two inches and seventy hundredths.

Madison, Florida.—There was rain at this point the first of the week on two days, the rainfall reaching sixty hundredths of an inch. The latter part of the week has been clear and pleasant. Average thermometer during the week 72, highest 84 and lowest 60.

Macon, Georgia.—Rain fell here on one day this week. The thermometer has averaged 68, the extremes being 47 and 88.

Atlanta, Georgia.—The weather has been too cold this week, and we are having too much rain. It rained on two days constantly, the rainfall reaching two and thirty-four hundredths inches. The rainfall for the month is six inches and one hundredth. Average thermometer for the week 67, highest 74 and lowest 50. There is twelve per cent. less cotton planted in this district this year than last.

Columbus, Georgia.—It has been showery three days this week, but the remaining four days have been pleasant. Planting is about completed in this neighborhood, there being more corn and less cotton planted than last year. Average thermometer 69, highest 84 and lowest 50.

Savannah, Georgia.—It has been rainy one day this week, but the rest has been pleasant. The thermometer has averaged 75, the highest being 86 and the lowest 54. The rainfall has reached two hundredths of an inch.

Augusta, Georgia.—The earlier part of the week we had rain, showers, on two days, but the latter part has been clear and pleasant, the rainfall reaching seventeen hundredths of an inch. The average thermometer is 71, the highest 88, and the lowest 47.

Charleston, South Carolina.—There has been one rainy day this week, the rainfall reaching fifty-two hundredths of an inch. The thermometer has been up to 82, and down to 28, averaging 54.

The following statement we have also received by telegraph showing the height of the rivers at the points named at 3 o'clock May 11. We give last year's figures (May 14, 1875) for comparison.

New Orleans reported below high-water mark of 1871 until Sept. 9, 1874, when the zero of gauge was changed to high-water mark of April 15 and 16, 1874, which is 6-10ths of a foot above 1871, or 16 feet above low-water mark at that point.

ESTIMATED COTTON SUPPLY AND CONSUMPTION.—In our editorial columns will be found an article on the supply and consumption of cotton in Europe for the year ending October 1, 1876.

GUNNY BAGS, BAGGING, ETC.—Bagging is without change; the market continues in the same quiet state noted in our last, and no sales have taken place that we hear of. Holders are firm, however, as to price, and are asking 12½c. cash. Bales are quiet and nominal at 9@9½c. for India, and 12¾c. for Borneo. Butts are slow of sale, and no lots have been moved; prices continue steady at 2⅞@3c. for spot parcels. To arrive, quotations are unchanged.

Up to May 1st the receipts at the ports this year showed an excess of 602,193 bales over the previous season, while the overland movement was at the same time probably about 60,000 bales larger, so that even with no increase after May 1st, this crop would reach nearly 4,500,000 bales.

SOME OF THE PLEASURES AND DIFFICULTIES OF A PLANTER'S LIFE IN MISSISSIPPI.—A correspondent at Carson's Landing, on the Mississippi, after telling us about the flood in that district, describes, in an amusing way, some of his experiences as a planter as follows:

CARSON'S LANDING, Miss., April, 1876.

Gentlemen: * * * * There is no country on earth to equal this in fertility, but, taking it altogether, I doubt if there is any country in the world that has to the planter so many vexations. When an overflow comes, the whole district is filled with a kind of fly called bull gnats, which are very destructive to stock of all kinds. They last as long as the water continues to rise, and. are said to be born of the water. We have five crops of this insect, all varying in size. They are enough to make a preacher swear, especially if he has a good riding-horse devoured by them; and yet there are so few of these reverend gentlemen dwelling among us, perhaps this is an overstatement. We ought really to have a preacher every square mile, for I hold it to be a fact as true as Holy Writ, that any man who has to deal much with our newly-made voters and fellow-citizens can't get nigh to the promised land without additional helps—he will learn to do everything else but pray.

Planters, as a general rule, are reducing their expenses to the lowest point, in order to meet the present low scale of prices of the staple. If they could only raise their meat, they could do very well, even as it is, but the negroes would be shocked at the idea of suffering the white man to raise hogs. As one of my old negroes remarked to me a short time since: "You raise hogs, Massa! never!—a penitentiary on every plantation wouldn't do it." Respectfully, R. C. H.

WEEKLY RECEIPTS OF COTTON.—Below we give a table showing the receipts of cotton each week at all the ports of the United States for several seasons, indicating, also, the total crop each year. Our figures are given in thousands of bales.

LIVERPOOL, May 12,—3:30 P. M.—BY CABLE FROM LIVERPOOL.—Estimated sales of the day were 10,000 bales, of which 1,000 bales were for export and speculation. Of to-day's sales, 6,400 bales were American. The weekly movement is given as follows:

BREADSTUFFS.

The flour market remained dull and somewhat depressed during the early part of the week, but on Wednesday, stimulated by the belligerent aspect of affairs in Europe, an active demand sprung up, and in the course of that day and Thursday twelve or fifteen thousand barrels were taken by shippers, mainly at $5@$5 30 for extra and fancy State. Other grades are without essential change, though less depressed than early in the week. Production is now on a large scale at all points, but receipts at this market are as yet quite moderate. To-day, the market was firmer, with 4,000 bbls. common shipping extras sold at $5 10@$5 15, but a scarcity of freight room checked the demand.

The wheat market gathered strength as the week advanced and in the course of Tuesday afternoon and Wednesday morning a large business was done, mainly for the Continent, including the better qualities of No. 2 spring at $1 19@$1 22, in store and afloat, and No. 1 at $1 27@$1 30. Low grades of spring, as well as most qualities of winter wheat, were neglected. Receipts of wheat at the West have fallen much below last season, and the visible supply has been rapidly reduced by the recent large exports, so that the stock is more controllable, both as regards quality and condition. To-day, prices were 1@2c. higher, with choice No. 1 spring sold at $1 32. The demand was mainly for milling and for export to the continent.

Indian corn has arrived more freely and ruled lower for immediate delivery. At the concession, however, an active demand sprung up, new Western selling at 60@60½c. for steamer mixed, and 61@62c. for sail do., with damp at 56@58c. Prime Southern white in boat loads brought 70c. The speculation in futures has been tame, but prices well maintained, with recent sales of steamer mixed for May at 59½c., and sail do. for June at 61c.

Rye has been active at 88½c.@90c. for Canada in bond, and 80c. for Western. Canada peas have sold down to 95c., to arrive in bond. Barley and barley malt are nominal.

Oats ruled dull and depressed until yesterday, when at some decline there was a large business, including No. 2 city-graded mixed at 39½c.@40c., and No. 2 Chicago at 40½c. To-day, there was some further improvement, with a fair business.

THE DRY GOODS TRADE.

FRIDAY, P. M., May 12, 1876.

The trade movement this week has continued sluggish with manufacturers' agents and importers, and jobbers have also been doing a comparatively light business. Western, southwestern and California jobbers bought a fair quantity of assorted merchandise for the renewal of assortments, but the demand from Southern and near-by States was comparatively unimportant. There were a few large transactions in cotton goods and calicoes, which were closed out by manufacturers' agents at low figures, in order to close their half-yearly accounts with the mills, and a more active demand for heavy woolens was developed. The event of the week was an auction sale of the Bates Manufacturing Company's crochet and honeycomb quilts, which was held by Townsend, Montant & Co., by order of Messrs. Wright, Bliss & Fabyan, the selling agents in this market. The sale was a great success—1,293 cases, amounting to over $100,000, having been closed out in fifty minutes, at very fair prices. The entire stock of Garner's prints—all makes—was sold to a leading jobbing-house, and offered to the trade at exceptionally low figures.

DOMESTIC COTTON GOODS.—The export trade in cotton goods has been a little more active, and 1,389 packages were shipped in the course of the week to the different markets, Great Britain having been our best customer. Brown sheetings and drills were in steady, but moderate, demand at unchanged prices, and there was a fair inquiry for fine and medium bleached shirtings and wide sheetings. The stock of Wessacumcon B bleached shirtings was sold to a jobbing firm who offered them to the trade at 7¼c. by the package—a very low figure. Tickings, deaims, and other colored cottons were lightly dealt in, except cheviots, which were in better demand by Western buyers. Cottonades continued dull and weak. Corset jeans and satteens changed hands in fair amounts, and rolled jacconets, cambrics and Silesias moved slowly. Carpet warps were in improved request, and there was a fair inquiry for domestic twines. Print cloths remained dull and nominal at 3⅞c., cash, to 3¾c., 60 days, for extra 64s. Prints were dull in first hands, but fairly active with jobbers who had cheap lots to offer. Garner's productions were jobbed as follows: Garner's fancy, 5¼c.; do. shirtings, 5c.; do. solids, 5½c.; Amoskeag fancy, 5c., and Wamsutta fancy and robes, 4½c. Southbridge fancies were reduced to 5¼c., Hamilton do. to 6c., and Knickerbocker cambrics to 11c. Ginghams were in steady request, and cotton dress goods ruled quiet.

DOMESTIC WOOLLEN GOODS.—Men's-wear woollens have been in irregular demand. Light weight cassimeres and worsteds were comparatively quiet, but the larger clothiers of this and other cities were more disposed to operate in new styles of heavy cassimeres, suitings and worsteds, as well as desirable makes of fancy overcoatings for the early fall trade. Cloths and doeskins were taken by the trade in comparatively small amounts, but are fairly steady in price. Kentucky jeans moved slowly, despite offers of price concessions by some holders, and satinets continued in moderate request. Flannels were in about the usual demand for this time of year, when it is yet too early to look for large transactions, and carpets were rather quiet in first hands, although fairly active with jobbers. Dress goods were in fair request for small re-assortments, but shawls continued depressed.

FOREIGN DRY GOODS of nearly all descriptions have been quiet in importers' hands, and prices are generally low and unsatisfactory. Dress goods of a fancy character continued dull, and many makes are selling at less than the cost of importation. Staple dress goods are fairly steady, but are paying a very small profit. Silks were sluggish, except millinery makes, which were freely distributed through the auction rooms. Linen goods were quiet in first hands, but values are well maintained, and white goods moved slowly. Embroideries were in rather better demand, and lace goods brought fair prices at auction. Woolen goods for men's wear were a little more active, but prices are very low, and unremunerative to importers. Ribbons, hosiery and gloves were severally in steady request.

We annex prices of a few articles of domestic manufacture:

NEW YORK.

Guaranty Cash Capital, $125,000,

Invested in U. S. Five-Twenty Bonds.

This Society separates the Insurance Part of the Premium from the Reserve or Deposit Part, which latter is held merely for accumulation.

This Society recognizes the Policy-holder as owner of the Reserve.

This Society, therefore, will either issue policies on the payment of uniform annual premiums, guaranteeing a specified surrender value for every year in cash; or it will furnish the PROTECTION OF LIFE ASSURANCE at actual current cost for death claims and expenses of management, each year by itself, renewable at the close of any year without further medical examination.

These Plans are indorsed by leading Actuaries and State Commissioners, and also by the "Society for the Promotion of Life Insurance among Clergymen," James Brown, President; Howard Potter, Treasurer.

REAL ESTATE MORTGAGE BONDS

GUARANTEED BY THE

Equitable Trust Co.,

THESE REAL ESTATE MORTGAGE BONDS ARE COMMENDED TO THE ATTENTION OF THE MOST

CONSERVATIVE INVESTORS.

First—They have the individual liability of the maker.

Second—Each bond is secured by a first mortgage of real estate of not less than double its value.

Third—The prompt payment of both principal and interest of every bond is guaranteed by this Company.

The Company guaranteeing these Bonds receives no deposits, owes no money, and incurs no obligations of any character except those arising from such guaranty thereby keeping its whole capital of One Million Dollars unimpaired, TO MEET AT ALL TIMES the prompt payment of both principal and interest of these Bonds.

All mortgages securing the Bonds are formally approved by the following Executive Board:

ROBERT L. KENNEDY, ADRIAN ISELIN,
SAMUEL WILLETS, JAMES A. ROOSEVELT,
WM. REMSEN, EUGENE KELLY,
CHAS. BUTLER, JOHN D. MAXWELL,
HENRY P. HAVEN, GUSTAV H. KISSELL.

These Securities bear Seven Per Cent Interest payable semi annually, and are offered for sale at one hundred and two and interest at the office of the Equitable Trust Company, Nos. 52 & 54 William street.

Interest Coupons payable semi-annually. Bonds registered to order, or payable to bearer at option. Accrued interest is not required to be paid by purchaser, the next-due Coupon being stamped so as to denote that interest begins at the date of purchase.

A Pamphlet with full information will be sent on application to the Company's Office,

43 Milk Street, Boston.

These Bonds are commended to the attention of the MOST CONSERVATIVE INVESTORS, as they are believed to be as perfect a security as can be obtained. The issue of Bonds is limited to one-half the amount of the same class of Bonds ever issued under a like Guarantee.

The security of each Bond is not confined to a single Mortgage, but extends over all the Mortgages owned by the Company. This Company receives no deposits, guarantees no other securities, and has no other debts than its bonds. Its Mortgages are of like character to those which have been bought in the last twenty years by individuals, Life Insurance Companies and other Corporations, to the amount of more than Fifty Millions of Dollars, proving a most secure and satisfactory investment. The Loans are all upon improved Farms in some of the most fertile Western states, near the Railroads, with short and perfect titles, and average less than $650 each, upon property worth nearly four times their amount. Experience has proved that well-selected Mortgages upon this class of property are safer than those upon city property, either in the East or West. They are not affected by Fires, or by Business revulsions; Principal and Interest are more promptly paid; and upon the success of Agriculture depends that of almost every Industrial Investment.

LONG ISLAND CITY

Diagram of Location of Long Island City.

$1,000 WATER BONDS.

Interest payable March and September, at Marine National Bank of New York, principal re-payable from 1887 to 1902, a strictly first-class investment security for sale in lots to suit purchasers.

These bonds are authorized by legislative act, under which, not only the entire taxable property of the city is liable for their payment, but, in addition, the water-works are specially pledged, which are now completed and in successful operation. Water bonds are the most popular and command the highest prices of any municipal issue.

Estimated real value, $30,000,000, while the assessed valuation is only $6,000,000. Population, 20,000.

LONG ISLAND CITY, adjacent to New York, with a water-front of six miles on tide-water, is a contiguation of Brooklyn, and must eventually become annexed to that city, as was the case with the city of Williamsburgh. There is certainly no good reason why these bonds will not appreciate at or near to that of Brooklyn bonds, which are now selling at 116, which same security within the past two years sold at par, being about the same price at which we now offer LONG ISLAND CITY BONDS.

The security offered for the bonds of both cities being identical, present purchasers of Long Island City bonds must certainly secure an advance, thereby getting a premium as well as seven per cent interest on their investment. Bonds, as ordered, will be sent by express, C. O. D., accompanied with a certificate of the Treasurer of Long Island City as to their correctness, etc.

RESUMPTION AND BANK RESERVES.

As will be seen from an announcement elsewhere, the Comptroller of the Currency has called for another report from the national banks. For several reasons, the aggregates of this report will be looked for with more interest than usual. We are at a critical period of the year, and one of the periodical drains has just been made by the country banks on the banks of the financial centres. It is always instructive to watch the relative position of the various classes of our banks at this season, and to compare one year with another. Besides, there will be a special importance in the forthcoming reports, arising out of various important movements which are going on in our banking system. These changes are due to a number of conflicting causes. One of these is, of course, the depression of trade, which is lessening the business of the national banks throughout the country, and is likely, if it continues, to operate much more conspicuously hereafter. Other changes are being developed in our financial system by the recent bank legislation; and others, again, by the approach of specie payments. If we compare the previous reports of the Comptroller together, we shall see how these various causes have produced, since the panic of 1873, their distinctive results. In the last report of that officer, there are, on pages 82 to 91, a series of statistics, from which we compile the following table, showing the movements of the 48 national banks in this city:

MOVEMENTS IN THE NATIONAL BANKS OF NEW YORK.

Although these figures are confined to the national banks, and leave out of view the private banks and the State banks, still such statistics give us very important information as to the progress of our banking system, especially in connection with the points which we intend just now to illustrate, and which are chiefly connected with the deposits and the reserves. The mischievous theory has been adopted by an influential body of agitators, in and out of Congress, that our national bank regulations in regard to the cash reserves and the issues of notes have never been sufficiently elastic; and legislation has been devised to relax them, under the belief that the activity of business was in this way susceptible of being stirred up, and industrial prosperity restored. It was in vain that the advocates of sound banking expounded the true causes of our commercial stagnation, and the inefficiency of the proposed remedies. The predominant desire was in favor of making some efforts to modify the banking system. To carry out the new policy, two great changes were introduced into our banking legislation. The restriction on the emission of bank notes was repealed, so that instead of the aggregate being limited to 300 millions, as formerly, the issues might be enlarged, with scarcely any other check than is afforded by the impossibility of emitting notes and keeping them afloat at a profit. As to the reserves, they were formerly held against the bank notes, as well as the deposits. But by the new legislation the reserve against the notes was reduced to five per cent, and was to be deposited at Washington. This item forms the last line in the foregoing table. As the whole subject, however, is so familiar to our readers, we need not say more about the principle of these changes than that they were intended to carry into practical effect the inflationist theory that whenever an abundance of currency is poured into the channels of the circulation, an infallible specific is always supplied against business stagnation. It was to induce the banks to issue more currency that the restrictions were taken off the aggregate of their authorized notes, and that the banks were allowed to disperse and pay out a part of their previous reserves of greenbacks.

The question has long occupied the public attention, and has frequently been discussed in our columns, how the laws passed for the inflation of the currency and credit system of this country, have been prevented from producing their expected results. The inquiry is extremely practical and suggestive, but we are scarcely beginning as yet to feel the full effects of the new legislation. It would, therefore, at present, be premature to expect that an exhaustive exposition of the conservative checks and safeguards is possible. What is certain is, that the banks have not been so eager as was anticipated to avail themselves of the liberty of increasing indefinitely their note issues, or of weakening themselves by letting their cash reserves run down to a very low level. These facts are abundantly evident, and they are confirmed by the tabular statistics above given in regard to our New York national banks. We compile below a similar table for the banks of the fourteen reserve centres, Boston, Albany, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Baltimore, Washington, New Orleans, Louisville, Cincinnati, Cleveland, Chicago, Detroit, Milwaukee, and St. Louis.

The chief topics of importance in this table are the steady persistence with which the reserves have held their high level. The banks of these fourteen central cities have to keep a cash reserve of 25 per cent, and they have actually held 33 to 34 per cent, or from 28 to 30 millions more than the legal minimum. It has been affirmed that this accumulation of reserve is due in many cases to the dulness of trade, which prevents the banks from lending all they desire of their idle deposits. Be this as it may, there is no doubt that, unless in exceptional cases, a wholesome determination to keep ample cash reserves has been developed among our banks, and is one of the compensative benefits resulting from the Jay Cooke panic. The conservative policy of holding large reserves seems to be still more pronounced among the country banks, as will be seen from the subjoined table, which completes the Comptroller's statistics, except for California.

Among the general conclusions to which these statistics obviously lead, one of the most apparent is, that the national banks are vigorously at work to strengthen themselves, with a view to the severe pressure which may attend the preliminary stages leading to resumption, and that, as there are undoubtedly not a few exceptions to this general rule, the Comptroller at Washington should use special vigilance in his investigations, by means of inspection and examination, to bring to light such weakness or abuses as may anywhere prevail.

WHAT WE MOST WANT.

The past week has seen two political gatherings of much significance. One of them was in this city. The persons attending it were in no sense politicians, but they certainly represent the sentiment of the large body of the thinking men in this section of the country at least. We fancy that those who direct parties, little appreciate the depth, earnestness, and extent of this movement. They may heed it and be guided by it; but if they do not, they will feel it in the end. There is certainly a widespread determination among the better class of our people to-day, to be called by no party name, and to follow no one's dictation. They see the fearful plight we are in, and their influence will be thrown in such a way as best to relieve it. We must have reform in our civil service; we must be free from the corruption in which we are steeped; we must, as speedily as possible, return to a specie standard; and any man whose surroundings and life speak a doubtful word on these points, will, we think, find that party machinery has lost its efficiency. For these reasons, we look upon the meeting in this city as one of great importance—greater even than the honored names of those attending it would usually indicate.

But we have had another gathering during the week, representative of the very opposite elements. Cincinnati has made itself celebrated by a party assembly which has declared itself opposed to these very measures. To be sure, they talk about reform, but such words no longer deceive. If these people could be put into a place by themselves, where their policy would not harm any one else, we could bestow upon them no greater evil than a full compliance with their expressed wish. What is it the West needs now more than any other thing? Certainly it is capital. And yet, these men speak of repudiation as flippantly as if it were the merest trifle; they propose to float us in another sea of greenbacks, and to wipe out our banking system with one flourish of the pen. It would certainly seem that the free-school system must be very defective in that State.

It is satisfactory to know, however, that but little importance need be attached to the insane utterances of these men. There is not the least danger that either of our political parties will adopt any such programme, and if it did, the intelligence of the country would be a unit against it. No man who thinks, can hesitate a moment where to stand, even if self-interest were the only influence affecting his judgment. We are a borrowing nation. We have energy and enterprise and resources undeveloped without limit. All we need is capital. And Europe has it for us. Very many of the old channels for investment have been shut up within a year or two—Turkey, Egypt, Spain, South America; in fact, nearly all countries where much capital is needed, excepting the United States, have fallen into disrepute, but our securities have been constantly growing in favor. Here, then, is the wealth of Europe on the point, as it were, of throwing itself into our industries. Still there is a hesitancy, a natural one, before the movement becomes general and free. When we show that we are true to ourselves, this will be overcome. The necessary requisite for inspiring confidence among capitalists, is the righting of our monetary system. If we prove that we dare to do that now, even though it be through suffering, our credit will be established. Will not the West and South, who are to-day calling loudly for capital, heed this? Where, on the face of the earth, can be found richer lands and more promising surroundings than both of those sections present? But the power to develop them is wanting. Let us only show that we dare to be honest, and that power will quickly come.

ECONOMY IN THE POST-OFFICE DEPARTMENT.

The Post-Office Appropriation bill has been under discussion in the House, for the two weeks past, and the facts thus developed are very instructive. As we have often stated, decreased government expenses is the demand the public makes, and the figures for 1860 and 1875 are constantly, and, by many, thoughtlessly, paraded to show that it must and can be accomplished. We say thoughtlessly paraded, because it is becoming more and more evident, as the investigation goes on, that there can be very little material reduction in expenses, unless some portion of the public which is making this demand, is willing to give up something. A comparison of the totals now and in the ante-war period prove nothing, if we stop with those totals. They are a good starting point—a guide-board indicating simply which way to look. But we must go underneath them, and study their growth, if we would determine what our hopes and expectations in the way of economy may be. With this purpose, a brief examination of some of these figures now made public will be of decided service.

The total outgoes of the department we have often published, showing a gradual increase from 12 millions in 1860 to 33 millions in 1875; but we begin to obtain an inside view of the causes producing this result, by studying the following detailed statement, which we find in the speech of Mr. Cannon, of Illinois:

† Decrease.

The comparison here given with 1860 is inaccurate, or at least misleading, in the second and third items, "Total expenditures" and "Grants paid out of the General Treasury." By turning to the reports of that time, it will be found that the actual expenditures were really only about 12 millions (instead of over 19 millions, as given), and the government grant for 1860 was (instead of over 11 millions) only between three and four millions. A standing deficiency, however, of previous years, reaching $7,785,608 at the close of 1859, was provided for in 1860, and is now included in the totals above. Proper allowance should have been made in the table for this obvious fact, but we forgive the inaccuracy in consideration of the details furnished. We suppose the department or the Congressman who used the table could not resist the temptation of giving this deficiency in this form, desiring to make the total increase to 1875, as compared with 1860, appear less unfavorable. Still, this error does not enter into or affect the other items. But to show more clearly the late progress made in some of these expenditures since the war ended and the postal system was re-established throughout the South, we give the following further statement:

* For seven years.

Now, at first sight it would certainly appear to be the easiest possible undertaking to cut off or make deductions from innumerable items in these schedules. For instance, in 1874 the aggregate of mail routes in the United States was 269,097 miles, and in 1875 was 277,873 miles, an increase, say, of a little less than 9,000 miles, and yet the compensation to postmasters increased twelve hundred thousand dollars; again, the length of railroad routes in 1873 was 63,457 miles, and in 1875 was 70,083 miles, an increase of only about 7,000 miles, and yet the cost of railroad service increased from $7,257,196 to $9,216,518; again, since 1873 the mail routes have had 21,000 miles added to them, and yet the business of the country has fallen off everywhere, presenting no increased need for post-offices—thus unnecessarily expanding the Government service, while each individual has been compelled to retrench and exercise the strictest economy; again, the free-delivery cities in 1873 were 1,499, and in 1875 had been increased to 2,195, or an addition of 696 cities in the two years, and all of them, according to the Postmaster-General's report, at very considerable expense to the department over and above the receipts for postage. These would all seem to be points for the pruning-knife, and also very many other items in the above statements, which the reader will readily detect as strangely inc sistent with one another and with the present requi ment for economy. But it seems that none of them be touched, without, as it is called, "crippling Government."

Let us, by way of illustration, examine one sin point, for we have space for no more. Take the fr delivery cities. And here we should remember that special service is really for the benefit of a very localities, and that only three cities, New York, Bost and Philadelphia, are self-sustaining. The original pr ciple was, that it should be established only where seemed to be a business necessity. But latterly the l has been changed, so that whenever a Congressman wa to do a "big thing" for his district, he "rushes" to t Postmaster-General, gives a free-delivery system to so small city, makes a host of friends, and is, of course, elected. In this way, this branch of the service has b extended, until at present many cities are included c taining a population not exceeding 14,000, and some, understand, down as low as 12,000 persons, by the l census. Now, is there a question in the mind of man as to the folly and wrong of this proceedin Here is a luxury—not a necessity at all, except in la cities—which the great body of the people are requi to pay for, that communities may be tickled which h elect Congressmen. And yet, when this subject is for discussion in the House, we hear one gentlem charging Mr. Holman, of Indiana, because he advocat a change of policy in this respect, with having lost judgment—"pursuing a single idea until the line he "mounted has become a groove; the groove has work "itself into a rut, and the gentleman has fallen into 'gorge as deep as the cañons of Colorado, where t "sunlight can only reach when at its meridional heigh That certainly would be considered by his co stituents an admirable figure, if they could on be made to see its application. But, as t question stands to-day, every community w think what a blessing it would have been to the counti if the Congressman uttering this sentiment, and all l followers, had got down into the same cañon and ev let it close on them forever, rather than to have defeat this and other like measures. For it is simply one of very large class of proposed economies—each small itself, but all of them luxuries which have of late yea been added mainly to increase the influence of Congres men, under the idea that the Government is organized bestow gifts upon every hungry community.

It appears useless to discuss this subject further. Th bill has now passed out of the House. Another yea when our election is over, we may hope our legislato will display more courage. But the one truth we ha to learn is, that until we are willing, as communities ar as individuals, to have our Government remodeled on i old basis and give up its maternal side the growth late years—until we are willing to do this, it is folly t hold up the figures of 1860 and 1875 together, for the have no features in common.

LONDON, Saturday, May 6, 1876.

There has been rather a better demand for money during the past week, but no material improvement in the rates of discount. Indeed, although a better inquiry has existed, the rates of discount are still as low as they can reasonably be, the best three months' bills being taken in the open market at 1⅛ per cent. There is still no reason to believe in any change from this condition of affairs. Now and then a solid investment, such as an Indian loan, or a loan for the Metropolitan Board of Works, is introduced to public notice, and this is, of course, quickly subscribed. The applications are certainly not so numerous as they used to be in the days of "enterprise," when nearly everybody, including clerks, "wrote," with a view to secure a premium ,if any. Now, and undoubtedly the circumstance is a satisfactory one, the applications are of a bona fide character, and, though they do not amount to the millions sterling which excited astonishment in former days, they are usually twice as much as is required, and this fact alone is sufficient to show that there is a large supply of money seeking profitable employment. Unfortunately, these loans, which are sound investments, are likely to be few and far between. Prudent nations, dependencies or corporations, are unwilling to run unnecessarily into debt, and it is obviously this fact that enables them to borrow on easy terms. Were the Government of India to ask for a loan of, say, £30,000,000 in a time of peace, there would be no termination to the argument as to the necessity of demanding so much, and yet Turkey, Egypt and Peru have had the boldness to ask for a similar sum, without producing much comment or excitement, while almost everyone knew that they were borrowing to pay for the service of previous loans at ruinous rates of interest. Financiers have, for some years past, traded upon the undeveloped resources of these large borrowing countries, but they were astute enough not to state that as long as those resources were undeveloped, the available wealth was much below what the popular mind imagined. We fear that the inhabitants of Turkey, Egypt and Peru do not possess the energy and activity calculated to develop the natural resources they possess, and as far as Turkey is concerned, the misgovernment no so evident must tend to destroy nearly all hope for the immediate future. There is naturally, just now, a good deal of talk about the want of "enterprise." If this means that the sad experience of the last few years, both commercially and financially, has induced the community to conduct their operations with more judgment, then the change has been a desirable one, and now that the principal "enterprising" firms have been weeded out, the general position of affairs ought to be more satisfactory. This should certainly be the case in commercial circles, as a fair amount of legitimate business is believed to be in progress, attended with moderate profits; but in the financial world much quietness prevails, the general public having as yet by no means surmounted the difficulties in which they have lately been entangled. No doubt, however, by the exercise of strict economy, the saving power of the country is again on the increase, but it is not likely that foreign loans or public companies will prove in future to be an attractive form of investment.

There has been a moderate demand for money during the week, there having been a somewhat increased inquiry in connection with a new Indian loan. The rates of discount show, however, no material change, being as follows:

The return of the Bank of England shows chiefly a large increase in the note circulation, amounting to £312,236. This is said to be due to the necessity which exists for a more extended system of cash payments. There is a moderate increase in the stock of bullion, viz., of £118,574; but, owing to the augmented note circulation, there is a diminution in the total reserve of £642,556. The proportion of reserve to liabilities amounts to 47·25 per cent, against 48·66 per cent last week.

The rates of discount at the leading cities abroad are as follows:

| | Bank rate. per cent. | Open market. per cent. | | Bank rate. per cent. | Open market. per cent. |
| Paris | 4 | 2¼ | Brussels | 2½ | 2¼ |

There has been scarcely any demand for gold for export, but as there have been only moderate arrivals from abroad, the operations at the Bank have not been very important. During the week included in the Bank return, however, £378,000 had, on balance, been sent into the establishment. The silver market has been decidedly quieter, and the price of fine bars is now 53½d. per ounce. Annexed are the prices of bullion:

Tenders were received at the Bank of England, on Wednesday, for £500,000 in Government bills on India, £320,000 being allotted to Calcutta, £160,000 to Bombay and £1,000 to Madras. Tenders on all Presidencies at 1s. 8¼d. will be entertained in full. It will be seen, therefore, that the Government are at length compelled to accept the market price of the day. The Hydaspes has taken out £371,928 in silver to the East; but there will probably be less demand in future, if the Indian Government continue to sell their drafts.

The Metropolitan Board of Works announce that they are prepared to receive tenders for £1,350,000 in bonds bearing 3½ per cent interest per annum, the object of the loan being for new works, for the conversion of existing debt, and loans to such other metropolitan bodies as are authorized to borrow from the Board. The minimum price is fixed at £99 per £100 stock.

Tenders have recently been received at the Bank of England for the new Indian 4 per cent loan of £4,000,000. The amount applied for was rather more than £8,000,000. Tenders at £102 8s. received 73 per cent, and at £102 8s. 6d. in full.

On the Stock Exchange, business has been exceedingly quiet, and a dull tone has prevailed. In the foreign market the amount of business in progress has been very moderate, and nearly all classes of securities have given way in prices. The speculation in progress is chiefly for the fall, and in this speculative cliques are assisted by the absence of investors, and perhaps by the disposition of the public to sell, rather than purchase stock. The closing prices of consols and the principal American securities at to-day's market, compared with those of last week, are subjoined:

* Ex 6 coupons, January, 1872, to July, 1874, inclusive.

We have had a week of fine weather, but the nights have been cold, and there have been complaints of frost. No serious damage, however, is reported. The crops, on the whole, are said to promise well. The trade for wheat during the week has been exceedingly quiet. Choice qualities of produce are steady in value; but inferior kinds have with difficulty supported former prices. A feature in the trade of late has been a demand for cargoes off the coast on French account, but it has not been sufficiently active to produce much effect. The quantity of wheat afloat is about 1,250,000 quarters.

The return for the week ending April 29, shows that in the 150 principal markets of England and Wales, the deliveries of home-grown wheat amounted to 41,916 quarters, against 58,799 quarters last year. In the whole Kingdom, it is estimated that they amounted to 167,664 quarters, against 235,200 quarters in 1875. Since harvest, the sales in the 150 principal markets have been 1,571,893 quarters, against 2,108,313 quarters; and it is computed that in the whole Kingdom they have been 6,287,600 quarters, against 8,433,250 quarters in 1874–5. It is estimated that the following quantities of wheat and flour have been placed upon the British markets since harvest:

Pacific Mail Steamship Co.—The following circular, issued by the President, was one of the influences affecting the stock on Thursday:

OFFICE PACIFIC MAIL S. S. Co., NEW YORK, May 17, 1876.

To the Stockholders of the Pacific Mail S. S. Co.

GENTLEMEN:—At the request of many of the largest stockholders and creditors, I assumed the presidency of this Company about March 1, 1875.

At that time the Company was involved in a ruinous competition with the Overland Railroad, and its operations were resulting in a loss of not less than $100,000 a month, and its accounts were in such a confused state that, upon a careful investigation, its liabilities were ascertained to be much greater than I had been led to suppose.

The following is a comparative statement of the liabilities February 28, 1875, and upon the striking of the last balance on March 31, 1876:

|---|---|
| Total liabilities February 28, 1875 | $4,503,957 56 |
| Total liabilities March 31, 1876 | 2,181,048 73 |
| Reduction in thirteen months | $2,327,908 83 |

The unexpected action of the Panama R. R. Company during the past few months, in interrupting the amicable relations that had existed since their formation, has seriously injured the credit and earning capacity of both companies, and has made it difficult to carry the present debt of the Company, very largely reduced, as it appears by the above figures: and but for the fact that myself and two of my co-directors have advanced over six hundred thousand dollars from our personal resources, the funds necessary to sustain the Company, and to protect it against pressing creditors, it would, ere this, have become seriously involved.

In surrendering back to the stockholders the trust which I have performed without salary or pecuniary reward, I hope that if you cannot be personally present at the approaching election, you will entrust your proxy to some reliable and honorable gentleman who will see that a board is selected that will have the confidence of the creditors and yourselves, and who are willing to assume these liabilities, and to pledge themselves to protect your property.

Any proxy entrusted to the undersigned will be used for your benefit.

Very respectfully, SIDNEY DILLON, President.

Rockford Rock Island & St. Louis.—At Chicago, May 11, in the United States Circuit Court, Judge Drummond refused the application of Osterberg for a personal deed of this railroad, but stated that such deed would be given him as trustee of the road for the bondholders, provided the court was satisfied by an examination of Osterberg's accounts, which has been ordered, that such a deed should properly be given.

Selma Marion & Memphis.—Judge Emmons, of the United States Circuit Court, appointed A. A. Coleman receiver, at Memphis, May 13, of the Selma Marion & Memphis Railroad, on his giving bonds for $50,000.

—Bonds issued for the construction of water works or other needed improvements, by different cities throughout the country, have, as a general thing, proved a first-class security. They have been much sought after by conservative investors, and rarely find their way back into the market again, unless at a higher price. Messrs. Blake Brothers & Co., the well-known bankers, are offering now a limited amount of the City of Providence 5 per cent. Water Loan bonds, due in 1,906. The total debt of the city, including this loan, is about $8,000,000, the assessed valuation is over $120,000,000, and, judging from the known standing of Providence bonds, these will probably be taken up in a short time.

—We call the attention of investors to the City of Logansport, Indiana, eight per cent. Water Loan bonds, offered by the well-known house of A. M. Kidder & Co. These bonds are payable, principal and interest, January and July, in New York City. Only a small amount are now offered, and the bonds belong to a class which has lately met with much favor.

—Investors or holders of Southern securities are referred to the card of Messrs. S. H. Tobey & Co., in another column. This firm makes a specialty of miscellaneous securities, and advertise for several in our to day's issue, which they desire to purchase.

The Money Market and Financial Situation.—A growing ease in money, a feverish and depressed tone in stocks, and a fair business in investment securities, have been the general points of the past week.

There is nothing new in commercial circles worthy of special comment ; a shade more of confidence is shown by the purchasers of commercial paper than there was a few weeks ago, indicating a better feeling as to the mercantile situation, though it is still noticeable that a wide difference is made between the prices of the best class of paper and that of a little lower grade. Strictly prime paper is sold quite readily at 4½ to 5 per cent., with exceptions at 4 per cent., while paper not as good runs up to 8 and 9 per cent. On call loans, rates have a lower tendency, and there is a great deal of money pressing for use on government collaterals at 2½@3 per cent., while on ordinary stock collaterals the rates are 3@4 per cent.

On Thursday, the Bank of England report showed a gain for the week of £237,000 in specie, and the discount rate remained unchanged at 2 per cent.

The last statement of the New York City Clearing-House banks, issued May 13, showed an increase of $1,979,975 in the excess above their 25 per cent. legal reserve, the whole of such excess being $9,549,325, against $7,569,350 the previous week.

The following table shows the changes from the previous week and a comparison with 1875 and 1874:

| | 1876. | | | 1875. | 1874. |
| | May 6. | May 13. | Differences. | May 15. | May 16. |

United States Bonds.—There has been a larger business in government bonds this week, and prices have generally advanced a fraction. The demand appears to have been well distributed, and not to have come from any particular quarter, though we still observe considerable purchases made for Baltimore account, where a good many bonds have gone within the past thirty days. As between this market and London, transactions do not seem to have been important either way. The prospect of the passage of the 4½ per cent. bond bill in Congress having become less imminent, there is not now so much discrimination against the five-twenties of 1865 and 1867.

State and Railroad Bonds.—The principal movement in State bonds was in Tennessees, which have advanced under considerable purchases to 43 for the new bonds and 44, or thereabouts, for the old. There is said to be a home demand for these bonds, indicating a more hopeful feeling there as to the finances. The governing committee of the New York Stock Exchange have decided to admit to the Board list the Louisiana 7 per cent. consols, as follows: No. 1 to 8,229, inclusive, each for $1,000 ; No. 1 to 871, inclusive, each for $500; No. 1 to 3,541, inclusive, each for $100; the last to be called as "small bonds." The bids for the Cincinnati six per cent. gold bonds were opened this week, and it was reported that the proposals largely exceeded in amount the $1,500,000 advertised for. The bids were from 103 to 105, and the awards were from 105 to 103½, all under the latter amount being excluded. The City of Providence new Water Loan of $1,500,000 30-year 5 per cent. gold bonds was awarded to Messrs. Blake, Brothers & Co.

Railroad bonds have been fairly dealt in, though at varying prices. In the Pacific issues, the prices of the first mortgage bonds have been strong, while some of the junior issues have been lower—notably, the Union Pacific sinking fund bonds, which declined to-day to 88½ in sympathy with the price of the stock. Central of New Jersey convertible bonds have also been weak with the stock. Comparing the present year with last, there is a decided improvement in the situation regarding railroad bonds, as the market was then depressed by the occurrence of new and unlooked-for defaults, and this year we have had scarcely any new defaults, and several companies have resumed payment of their interest in full or in part.

A dispatch from Washington, to-day, reported that the Judiciary Committee agreed to an amendment to the Pacific Railroad bill, that the sinking fund to be paid by the Union Pacific be fixed at $750,000 per annum for the first ten years, and $1,000,000 per annum thereafter, until the whole debt and interest be paid, these sums to be exclusive of the 5 per cent net earnings and government freight. The other roads to pay pro rata of their indebtedness in accordance with the above.

Railroad and Miscellaneous Stocks.—The stock market has been unsettled, with frequent fluctuations from day to day, and closes with considerable depression. The same general influences have been at work which we have recently commented on—principally the reduction in railroad freights, the war on Western Union Telegraph, and the depression among the coal-carrying roads ; the illness of Commodore Vanderbilt has been less talked of, although it appears that he is yet too sick to leave his bed. On Thursday, a remarkable movement took place in Pacific Mail, which opened at 21½, sold up to 24½ on large transactions, and then fell back to 19¾, and finally closed at 20¾. The cause for this singular fluctuation was attributed to some sort of operation preparatory to the coming election, but the precise character of the movement has not yet been explained ; to-day, the stock opened at 21, sold up to 23, and closed at 22⅝. Nothing of a definite character has transpired in regard to the attitude of the railroads on the freight question, although numerous statements have appeared in the newspapers that they are cutting under on West-bound freights. The only two roads forming parts of trunk lines which report their earnings, are the Michigan Central and Ohio & Mississippi, and these for the latest weeks reported show a material increase over last year. The Atlantic & Pacific Telegraph Company has given notice of the issue of 5,000 shares of new stock, which, if actually issued, will increase the stock by $500,000, and if paid for at 18 will furnish $90,000 to the company. They also notice a further reduction in rates. The main question now affecting the Western Union stock is : Will they pay any quarterly dividend in July? The questions more remotely affecting the value of both these stocks are these : 1. Is the present attack of the A. & P. Company made for the purpose of securing an amalgamation? 2. If they cannot obtain a consolidation, can they reduce the Western Union receipts so as to prevent the payment of dividends, without crippling themselves? 3. If the whole telegraphing business is in the hands of these two companies, will they probably continue to quarrel? These seem to be the main points touching the permanent prospects of the telegraph stocks, as there can be little doubt of a continued large business in telegraphing, and there is no immediate prospect of a further competition to divide it, such as exists among the railroads.

To-day, the most important decline was in New Jersey Central, which fell off to 83, apparently from the lack of any good support. Delaware Lackawanna & Western was also weak; and as to both stocks, the public has so little information about the present condition of the companies that they are unwilling to come in as purchasers.

The Gold Market.—Gold has shown at times a little more activity, but with small fluctuations. The only feature of any consequence is the shipment of specie, which continues to be made—some $1,200,000 having been shipped on Wednesday and Thursday, and $500,000 reported as engaged for to-morrow's steamers. On gold loans, the rates paid for carrying to-day were 1¼, 1 and 2 per cent. Loans were also made flat. Customs receipts of the week were $1,791,000.

The following table will show the course of gold and operations of the Gold Exchange Bank each day of the past week:

Exchange.—The business continues to be very light, and there has hardly been a variation of ¼ of a point during the week. There is some little changing off of bankers' bills for lower-priced bills taken by them, and coin continues to go out to a moderate extent.

In domestic exchange the following were the rates on New York to day at the cities named: Cincinnati, easier, 75@100 premium; Charleston buying ¼@3–16 premium, selling ¼ premium; Savannah, 5–16 premium; Chicago, 50 premium; New Orleans, commercial, 5 16, bank, ⅜; and St. Louis, 125 premium.

ANNUAL REPORTS.

Railroads in Pennsylvania.

From advance sheets of the State Auditor's report we glean information of value to the railroad public. The system reported on, covers 7,016.50 miles of main and 1,857.71 miles of branch railroads, or a total of 8,874.21 miles. Connected with and auxiliary to this mileage, there were at the close of 1875 1,815.95 miles of second-track and 2,831.26 miles of sidings, turnouts, &c. The total length of track to be maintained is therefore 13,220.42 miles. Of this length, 2,829.84 miles are laid with steel rail. About one-fifth of the whole consists of extensions into or from adjoining States. To complete existing lines or lines under construction, there is in project or progress 1,368.64 miles of road, which is represented in the capital accounts of the companies affected thereby.

In the following tables the aggregates of the years 1874 and 1875 are compared:

| | 1874. | 1875. |
|---|---|---|
| Main line | 6,829.87 " | 7,015.50 m. |
| Branch lines | 1,547.64 " | 1,557.71 " |
| Second tracks | 1,806.28 " | 1,815.95 " |
| Sidings | 2,733.14 " | 2,831.26 " |
| Total system in use | 12,916.93 m. | 13,221.42 m. |
| Main line in Pennsylvania | 4,392.91 " | 4,512.54 " |
| Steel tracks | 2,733.14 " | 2,829.84 " |
| Main line in progress | 1,056.89 m. | 1,369.64 " |

From this it appears that the completed main track of the system, increased by 185.63 miles, the branch track by 10.07 miles, the second track by 9.67 miles, and the sidings by 98.12 miles. The increase in steel tracks was 96.70 miles; the length of line in progress is increased by 312.92 miles.

The equipment of the above railroads at the same periods compares as follows:

| | 1874. | 1875. |
|---|---|---|
| Locomotive engines | 4,100 | 4,075 |
| Passenger cars, first-class | 1,581 | 1,641 |
| Passenger cars, second-class | 278 | 320 |
| Baggage, &c., cars | 659 | 783 |
| Freight cars | 53,193 | 53,012 |
| Coal and ore cars | 79,839 | 87,446 |

The "locomotives" were very nearly "stationary" as to number. The same may be said of the ordinary passenger, baggage and freight cars collectively. In the number of coal and ore cars, however, there is the material increase of 7,607, or nearly 10 per cent.

The financial condition of the aggregate companies, at the close of 1874 and 1875, is shown in the following figures:

| | 1874. | 1875. |
|---|---|---|
| Stock paid up | $466,534,923 | $482,206,495 |
| Funded debt | 427,967,918 | 479,469,072 |
| Floating debt | 35,150,435 | 30,714,461 |
| Total capital | $929,653,376 | $992,390,028 |
| Cost of works | 744,701,827 | 751,290,394 |
| Balance, employed in other ways | $184,951,549 | $241,099,634 |

showing an increase in the total capital of $62,736,652, — 6.74 per cent; and, in the total cost, of $6,588,567, — 0.89 per cent.

The capital stock has been most largly increased in the following roads:

| | 1874. | 1875. | Increase. |
|---|---|---|---|
| Delaware Lackawanna & Western | $23,500,000 | $25,889,000 | $2,389,000 |
| Lehigh Valley | 24,419,250 | 27,012,900 | 2,625,650 |
| North Pennsylvania | 3,150,000 | 3,978,150 | 828,150 |
| Philadelphia & Erie | 6,048,700 | 8,448,700 | 2,400,000 |

The total increase of stock is $15,671,572, so that more than half the increase has been made by the four companies as above.

The increase in the funded debt is larger, being $51,501,154. The largest contributors to this increase were the following:

| | 1874. | 1875. | Increase. |
|---|---|---|---|
| Allegheny Valley | $17,461,000 | $20,767,900 | $3,306,900 |
| Atlantic & Great Western | 67,220,693 | 68,994,811 | 1,773,918 |
| Erie | 45,576,814 | 54,271,814 | 8,695,000 |
| Lehigh Valley | 16,850,000 | 22,129,000 | 5,279,000 |
| Northern Central | 13,499,000 | 14,384,000 | 885,000 |
| Pennsylvania | 41,290,600 | 51,219,760 | 9,929,160 |
| Pennsylvania & Western | .... | 5,000,000 | 5,000,000 |
| Philadelphia & Erie | 16,252,000 | 17,680,000 | 1,428,000 |
| Philadelphia & Reading | 51,074,883 | 56,128,006 | 2,053,123 |
| Total | $280,555,190 | $319,400,791 | $38,845,601 |

The Lehigh Valley and the North Penn. constructed important lines. The Pennsylvania has been "improving" its property, and the same may be said of the P. & E. and P & R. The Delaware Lackawanna & Western has decreased its own funded debt, by redemption and conversion, from $6,951,200 to $2,831,100.

The operations of the roads in the two years are shown in the following summary:

| | 1874. | 1875. |
|---|---|---|
| Passenger train miles | 21,907,390 | 21,472,072 |
| Freight train miles | 52,536,314 | 50,154,413 |
| Total train miles | 73,443,704 | 71,626,485 |
| Passengers carried | 42,297,162 | 40,712,847 |
| Tonnage carried | 80,571,837 | 76,345,730 |

The tonnage was classified as follows:

| | 1874. | 1875. |
|---|---|---|
| Anthracite coal | 29,20',629 | 27,445,777 |
| Bituminous coal | 10,444,657 | 14,699,353 |
| Anthracite and bituminous coal | 4,096,060 | ..... |
| Petroleum | 3,882,641 | 4,127,171 |
| Iron, pig | 1,653,226 | 1,598,062 |
| Iron, railroad | 351,643 | 351,262 |
| Iron, other, and castings | 1,104 568 | 1,078,760 |
| Iron and other ores | 4,160,295 | 2,676,554 |
| Lime, stone and slate | 2,381,111 | 2,651,092 |
| Agricultural productions | 6,027,300 | 6,007,505 |
| Merchandise and manufactures | 4,424,775 | 4,689,263 |
| Live stock | 1,837,467 | 1,647,853 |
| Lumber | 5,916,142 | 3,102,548 |
| Other articles | 5,147,333 | 6,262,023 |

The financial results of operations, to many the most important part of the railroad movement, for the years 1874 and 1875, are stated comparatively in the annexed tabulations, the mileage in operation having been materially the same in both years:

| | 1874. | 1875. |
|---|---|---|
| Passenger | $27,763,621 | $25,507,620 |
| Freight | 101,485,824 | 94,617,778 |
| Mail and express | 3,712,884 | 3,574,605 |
| Use of cars | 1,196,030 | 1,424,217 |
| Miscellaneous | 3,236,565 | 4,895,592 |
| Total gross earnings | $137,446,944 | $130,013,815 |
| Road-way | $22,461,935 | $21,382,850 |
| Machinery | 16,236,470 | 15,404,540 |
| Operating | 44,241,700 | 40,728,595 |
| Total gross expenses | $82,940,105 | $77,516,046 |
| Net earnings | $54,506,239 | $52,497,769 |
| Expenses, per cent | 60·34 | 59·62 |

As shown, the gross earnings decreased from $137,446,344 to $130,013,815, or by $7,432,529, equal to 5·41 per cent; and the operating expenses from $82,040,105 to $77,516,046, or by $5,424,059, equal to 6·46 per cent. The decrease in net earnings amounted to $2,008,470, or 3·69 per cent.

Schuylkill Navigation Company.

(For the year ending December 31, 1875.)

The annual report contained the following:

|---|---|
| INCOME FOR THE YEAR 1875. | |
| Rent payable by the Philadelphia & Reading Railroad Company | 635,502 |
| Interest and discounts received | 3,021 |
| CHARGES IN 1875. | |

| Total | $628,060 |
| Balance to the credit of the general income account, Jan. 1, 1876 | $79,334 |

Out of this balance, dividends of sixty cents per share on the preferred stock and thirty cents per share on the common stock were declared January 8, 1876, clear of taxes.

|---|---|
| These dividends amount to | $43,566 |
| And the State taxes thereon will be | 3,920 |
| Taking | $47,486 |
| And leaving a credit to the general income account of | $31,844 |

The temporary loan of the company is now practically provided for by the securities held by the company, but it is deemed best to wait a more favorable state of the market for their realization. The works of the company have been kept in good order and repair by the lessees, and they have in all respects faithfully complied with the obligations of the lease.

Rome Watertown & Ogdensburg Railroad.

(For the year ending Dec. 31, 1875.)

The recent annual report has the following:

"The road was commenced in 1848, and first operated through from Rome to Cape Vincent in 1852, which with 1875, both inclusive, make up the twenty-four years of its existence. The first dividend was in 1852, since which not a single year has passed without dividends being paid, amounting in the aggregate to 189 per cent on the capital stock. The gross sum paid in dividends during that time is $2,829,304 55, or an average of 8 per cent per annum for the whole period. Of this sum there was paid in cash $2,352,619 10, and an additional sum in stock of the company amounting to $476,685 48, the same having been issued to represent to that extent the bonds of the company, paid off through the sinking fund. We may also add that during the whole period no bond, coupon or other obligation of the company has become due without being promptly paid on presentation, nor have the employees of the company ever waited for their money one day beyond the regular pay-day in each month. It is proper to say, in this connection, that the question of ability to pay a dividend at this time (Jan., 1876,) has not been affected in any degree by the purchase of additional property in the last two years.

"The annual report made to the State Engineer shows the loss of tonnage during the year to be as follows:

| | 1874. Tons. | 1875. Tons. |
|---|---|---|
| Products of the forest | 95,573 | 77,731 |
| Products of animals | 32,683 | 18,780 |
| Vegetable food | 54,740 | 74,640 |
| Other agricultural products | 5,231 | 11,796 |
| Manufactures | 66,316 | 47,927 |
| Merchandise | 71,294 | 30,314 |
| Other articles | 157,546 | 115,392 |
| Total | 423,931 | 376,633 |

Showing a deficiency in 1875 of 107,348 tons.

"The gross earnings for the fiscal year, as shown, are about the same as for the previous year, but portions of the Lake Shore road have been worked during construction; and the earnings, as well as the expenses, are included in the statement.

"We will not express too confidently the expectation of an immediate restoration of traffic, nor yet withhold the expression of a belief, when our eastern and western connections are established, and the business of the country restored to its normal condition, that the average earnings per mile will come nearer to, if they do not exceed, the sum of $10,000 per mile. The road has been well built; the principal bridges and viaducts of iron; the buildings first class; engine houses and shops of brick; an extensive water front and harbor property; with more than sixty acres of land at Oswego, besides other valuable real estate in that city and elsewhere on the line.

"We have been, and are now, engaged in preparing suitable equipment, which, together with what can be spared from the former road, will be quite sufficient for the present.

"The property now owned by this company originally belonged to five different corporations, to wit:

| | Miles. |
|---|---|
| Watertown & Rome—Rome to Watertown and Cape Vincent | 97½ |
| Oswego & Rome—Oswego to Richland | 29 |
| Potsdam & Watertown—Watertown to Potsdam Junction | 95½ |
| Syracuse & Northern—Syracuse to Sandy Creek | 45 |
| Lake Ontario Shore—Oswego to Niagara | 150 |
| Total | 417 |

"In addition, there is about 50 miles of double and side tracks, spurs to mills, mines, &c.

"In the purchase of these properties, the sum paid in the aggregate is more than $5,000,000 less than the cost to the original owners, which sum, in the reorganization and consolidation, is not at present represented by the issue either of stock or bonds. Whatever it shall prove to be worth in the future, it will belong to the stockholders of this company.

"On one point, and one of the first importance, we can speak with full confidence. The road, equipment and property have been more than fully maintained, so that the condition of the company has never before been as good to do a large amount of business, and do it cheaply, as now. More than 2,000 tons of new iron, and about 100,000 new ties, have been placed on the track. More than $40,000 has been expended in repairs of locomotives, and in a sufficient degree to the rest of the rolling stock."

Kansas City St. Joseph & Council Bluffs Railroad.

(For the year ending Dec. 31, 1875.)

The report says:

The gross earnings show a decrease from those of the previous year of $73,366. The operating expenses are increased, but the percentage of operating expenses should not blindly be accepted as a criterion of the management, for its amount is dependent, not only upon the gross earnings, but also upon the actual condition of the property and mode of keeping accounts. Important improvements have been made upon the property during the past year.

In view of the lack of co-operation by the holders of quite an amount of the lower securities, in the funding plan, dated March 25, 1874, and of the unexpected decrease in the earnings of the road, that plan has necessarily been abandoned, and no further action is deemed advisable at this time.

The earnings and expenses were as follows:

|---|---|
| From passengers | $528,841 |
| From freight | 746,665 |
| From mail | 38,133 |
| From express and miscellaneous | 49,060 |
| Total | $1,362,706 |
| Total expenses, exclusive of taxes and rentals | $917,823 |
| For taxes | 60,005 |
| For rentals | 33,507 |
| Total charged to operating expenses | 1,010,836 |
| Net earnings for 1875 | $351,869 |
| Proportion of expenses to earnings, exclusive of rentals and taxes | 67·35 p. c. |
| Proportion of expenses to earnings, including rentals and taxes | 74·18 p. c. |

The operating expenses for 1875 include a class of expenditure, which in former distributions has been charged to construction account, the items of which amount to $24,895.

During the year there was expended:

|---|---|
| Account of construction | $304,022 |
| Account of equipment | 34,048 |
| Total construction and equipment | $338,071 |

BUSINESS OF THE ROAD.

| Freight earnings for year 1875 | $746,665 |
| Freight earnings for year 1874 | 817,086 |
| Decrease | $70,420 |

The general manager's report says:

"Last year, owing to the failure of the crops in Southern Missouri and Kansas, a large business was done between Iowa and Kansas City, in the first half of the year, in supplying that part of the country with corn; there was also at the same time an unusually large California travel. Owing to an almost entire failure of the crops along our line of road, the earnings of the latter half of the year fell off greatly from those of the same period the year before, and has caused a like falling off this spring. The prospect of good crops this coming season warrants me in saying that the net earnings of this year will fully equal those of 1875."

Boston Water Power Company.

(For the year ending December 31, 1875.)

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Boston Water Power Company was held recently. The Boston Post report says: The Auditing Committee reported that they find the payments correctly cast and properly vouched; that the balance of cash on hand in bank, and proper certificates of indebtedness, amounted to $44,588 25; that the balances of accounts in stock ledger amounted to 64,375 shares on April 20 at 2 P. M. Mr. W. B. Brown, the treasurer of the corporation, submitted his annual report, in which he said the year just closed had been in various ways an eventful one. One year ago the company owed in unfunded debts, due on demand, $219,233 86, many of which had been protested and sued. To-day the company had no unfunded debts, excepting an obligation to pay certain mortgages held by various parties, amounting to $35,000, which were secured on land of greater value than the indebtedness, located on Huntington avenue, and one of $9,000 secured by land on Northampton street worth double that sum. Some complications existing at the commencement of the year, April 1st, 1875, have been finally settled; and some claims the corporation held against other parties have been adjusted, as it is believed, on the whole, for the interest of the stockholders. The only remaining matter of importance to be adjudicated is the settlement to be made between the company and Nathan Matthews.

Pending negotiations, as measures of protection for the corporation, we have been compelled to give public notice of the stoppage of payment of all interest coupons on the bonds owned by Nathan Matthews, and have also forbidden the negotiation of any of our bonds owned by Mr. Matthews, thus endeavoring to secure the equities existing between this company and said Matthews. We were also compelled, as a further measure of protection for the corporation, to give similar notice to apply to the mortgages which Mr. Matthews had agreed to pay on or before June 1, 1875, which he has hitherto failed to do. These measures, though disagreeable to the directors, in view of increased complications, were deemed imperative, in order to protect the interests of the corporation. The report closed with the following financial statement of the standing of the company on the 31st of March: Assets, real estate, 2,180,600 feet east of Parker street, 1,040,000 feet west of Parker street and north of Boston and Albany Railroad; 5,900,600 feet basin west of Parker street and south of Boston and Albany Railroad; 18,000 feet south of Providence Railroad, near Northampton street; 25,000 feet in the town of Brookline—9,163,600 feet of land (estimated value), $6,481,250; mortgage notes receivable, $299,333 33; first mortgage bonds, $62,000; Huntington avenue certificates, $40,000; cash funds, $44,588 25. Total assets, $6,927,171 58. Liabilities, first mortgage bonds, $1,740,000; loans payable, secured by collateral, $253,333 33; mortgage notes payable, $871,273 92; dividend No. 16, cash, $410; dividend No. 17, scrip, $29,433; total, $2,885,450 25; total assets over liabilities, $4,041,721 33.

GENERAL INVESTMENT NEWS.

Albany & Susquehanna.—The new consolidated bonds, guaranteed by the Delaware & Hudson Canal Company, lessee, have been put upon the list at the New York Stock Exchange. The entire amount is $10,000,000, of which $3,450,000 are retained to provide for outstanding bonds of other issues; $1,500,000 are to be issued at once, and the rest from time to time as needed by the lessee to pay for improvements.

Burlington Cedar Rapids and Minnesota.—It is announced that the sale of portions of this road in foreclosure will take place at Cedar Rapids on June 22d next. The road to be sold consists of the main line, the Postville Branch, and the Muscatine Branch, in all about 300 miles. The main line is sold under a mortgage of $5,400,000, the Postville Branch under one of $2,200,000, and the Muscatine Division under one of $800,000

California Pacific.—Anthony Coalet, a stockholder of the Central Pacific, has filed a bill in equity against the company and its officers and directors, asking for an injunction to prevent the use of the funds of the Company in paying interest on $1,600,000 California Pacific bonds, and also for a decree to the effect that the indorsement of the Central Pacific on such bonds is without authority and void. The principal object of the suit is said to be to prevent the completion of the settlement made with holders of California Pacific Extension bonds, and the issue of new bonds in accordance with that settlement.

It has been suggested by some that impediments in the way of carrying out the agreement with the California Pacific bondholders were probably acceptable to the Central Pacific. But we have it stated on good authority that such is not the case, and the Central Pacific is desirous of fulfilling its agreements with the California Pacific to the utmost extent, and will take all needful measures to protect their right to do so.

The Central Railroad of Iowa.—The announcement is made that at a meeting of the bondholders of the Central Railroad of Iowa, held in the city of Philadelphia, on the 13th inst, the Farmers' Loan and Trust Company of this city was removed from its position as trustee under the mortgages, and Mr. Paine, of Boston, and Mr. Bullitt, of Philadelphia, were appointed such trustees in its stead.

This statement, affecting as it does one of our oldest and most highly respected moneyed corporations, seemed to call for some explanation, and we find the facts of the case to be substantially as follows:

That the suit for the foreclosure of the mortgages came before the United States Circuit Court of Iowa in October last, and a decree was then made, which, Judge Dillon states in an order in the suit, dated January 14, 1876, was "the result of consultation and compromise among the parties in interest, and entered as the result of such agreement, and not upon an independent consideration by the Court of the rights and equities of the various parties." The decree contained a provision directing the Trust Company to bid at the sale of the road at least the amount of the principal and interest of the first mortgage bonds, and that, on such purchase being made, the title should pass absolutely to the trustee, in trust for the first, second and third mortgage bondholders, and for the creditors and stockholders of the road; and that the property should be conveyed to a new corporation, in which the controlling interest should be given to the first mortgage bondholders—the second mortgage bondholders to receive a second class of stock for the full amount of their bonds, and the third mortgage bondholders and creditors common stock at par for the respective amounts due them; and the stockholders of the original company common stock at the rate of one dollar for every three now held by them. Such an arrangement might be equitable enough, if the first mortgage bondholders would agree to it; but, although a majority testified their willingness so to do, a minority not only declined to accept the proposed provision made for them, but took an appeal to the Supreme Court of the United States, furnishing the requisite bond (which appeal is now pending), claiming that the Court could only authorize the trustee to buy in the road for their benefit, and could not give the junior encumbrancers any interest in the bid.

The committee which claims to represent a majority of the bonds endeavored to prevent this appeal from being taken on motion before Judge Dillon, and subsequently before Judge Miller, on the ground, among others, that the Trustee had consented to the decree, and failing in this they lately requested the Trustee to allow their counsel to make a motion to dismiss the appeal in the Supreme Court at Washington in the name of the Trustee. The Trustee could hardly have granted this request and maintained an impartial position, as by so doing it would have thrown the weight of its position in favor of preventing the minority from having the question passed upon by the Appellate Court. The Trust Company, therefore, declined to be represented by the counsel of the bondholders' committee, but replied that it would, if desired, be present by its own counsel when the motion should be made. The committee then issued a circular, recommending a change of trustee, and succeeded in obtaining, as they state, a sufficient number of proxies to effect this result at the Philadelphia meeting. As a matter of law, it would appear that a mortgage, after decree in a foreclosure suit, is merged in the decree, and, if this is true, it is difficult to understand how the present action can be taken. But the Courts must settle this, and also the very difficult question as to the right of those claiming to be bondholders to vote. For bonds may be sold any day, and we presume evidence will have to be offered to show that the persons voting, by proxy or otherwise, were the owners of bonds on the day of the meeting.

If this plan was adopted with a view of shortening the legal complications of this unfortunate road, and hastening the time of its reorganization, no such result is likely to follow. Through the influence of the committee, a decree has been obtained on a principle which we understand that its members themselves have formerly stated, in a letter to the Trust Company, can not be upheld; and, to prevent the Appellate Court from passing on the point in question, they pursue a course which can hardly fail to give rise to further complicated litigation.

Meanwhile, from all this there is one lesson for those who may be requested to act as Trustees under such mortgages. No position of the kind should be accepted where the trustee is exposed to the possibility, by a provision like that contained in the present mortgage, of being dismissed from his trust either for some technical causes or summarily without cause, and merely by a vote of a majority of bondholders, when the main purpose of having a Trustee is to secure a middleman, of entire impartiality, who shall protect alike the rights of all parties interested in the mortgage.

Columbus Chicago & Indiana Central.—In the suit of the Pittsburg Cincinnati & St. Louis Railway Co., against the C. C. & I. C., in the United States Circuit Court, District of Indiana, an order has been obtained directing the P. C. & St. L. lessees of the C. C. & I. C. to pay over to the receivers of the last-named road, for the benefit of the bonds having a prior lien to the consolidated mortgage of the C. C. & I. C, the sum admitted by the lessees to be the amount of net earnings of the road during 1875, this payment to be made on the 1st of next June; also, after that, at the beginning of each month, the amount of net earnings for the month expiring ninety days previous to the date of payment. The lessees named have had full possession of the C. C. & I. C. since 1868, but since February, 1875, have paid over nothing to the lessors. This order will protect the consolidated bonds so far as it provides for the payment of the interest on the bonds which precede the consolidated mortgage. The net earnings are to be paid without prejudice to the claim for the minimum rental of 7 per cent on $15,821,000 bonds, which is the amount guaranteed by the lease.

Galiipolis McArthur & Columbus.—The right of way and partly graded road-bed of this road was offered at Sheriff's sale, April 29, but the sale was adjourned, no bid being made.

It has been proposed to transfer the property to the Michigan & Ohio Company, and an agreement to that effect has been made. The Sheriff's sale may, however, interfere with this arrangement.

Lafayette Bloomington and Mississippi.—SPRINGFIELD, May 17.—John A. Jones, Master in Chancery of the Circuit Court of the United States, Southern District of Illinois, yesterday sold at auction, under a decree of the court, the Lafayette Bloomington and Mississippi Railroad, leased line of the Toledo Wabash and Western, for a debt of $1,445,941, with interest. It was bought by Mr. John T. Martin on behalf of the bondholders for $500,000.

Missouri Kansas and Texas—PARSONS, May 17.—At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Missouri Kansas and Texas Railroad, which was held here to-day, the following Directors were elected: E Riggs, N. L. McCready, Francis Skiddy, J. L. Agnew, H. A. Johnson, John Elliott, Shepard Gandy, and Henderson Moore, all of New York; Erastus Corning of Albany, N. Y.; W. M. Gentry of Sedalia, Mo.; B. P. McDonald, Fort Scott, Kan.; C. H. Pratt, Humbolt, Kan.; H. C. Cross, Emporia, Kan. The Directors will meet in New York City at an early day to elect officers. Over $16,000,000 in stock was represented, and the proceedings were entirely harmonious.

Missouri River Fort Scott & Gulf.—Holders of coupon No. 11, due July 1, 1874, on the first mortgage bonds of this company, are notified that upon surrender of same to Charles Merriam, treasurer, No. 26 Sears Building, Boston, on and after June 1 next ensuing, they will receive one-half of the face thereof in cash, and the other half in the six-months promissory notes of the company, due December 1, 1876, payment of which is secured by the unpaid balance of the coupons so surrendered, held in trust for that purpose by the trustees.

COMMERCIAL EPITOME.

There is scarcely a new feature to trade reports. The volume of business has, on the whole, somewhat increased, and there is apparently more confidence felt in the stability of prices; transactions are not in so large a proportion merely speculative. The weather has become very fine, and from no quarter of the United States is any serious complaint heard regarding the prospects of the crops. Political intelligence from Turkey and its provinces is scanned with much eagerness, and the danger of active hostilities discussed with much activity, with reference to the future values of our leading agricultural staples. The more important failures of the week have been in cotton and wool.

The speculation in pork has been tame, and prices have been declining, the closing bids to day being for mess $20 55 for May, $20 65 for June, $21 for July, $21 25 for August, and $21 30 for September. The local trade has been dull. Lard was quite buoyant early in the week, but latterly has been declining sharply, and for future delivery the closing bids for prime steam were $12 50 for May, $12 55 for June, $12 67½ for July, $12 77½ for August, and $12 90 for September. Bacon and cut meats have ruled a shade firmer, but quiet. Beef and beef hams are dull and drooping. Tallow has been fairly active at 8½@8¾c. for prime. Butter has been about steady, with the demand fair. Cheese is easier at 8@10½c. for good to prime new State factories.

The foreign exports of the hog product, from principal ports, November 1 to May 15, compare as follows:

| | 1874-5. | 1875-6. | Increase. | Decrease. |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| Pork, lbs | 27,105,800 | 28 274,200 | 1,164,400 | .... |
| Lard, lbs | 114,688,134 | 93,785,791 | .... | 20,902,361 |
| Bacon, lbs | 178,667,903 | 223,674,326 | 45,006,453 | .... |
| Total, lbs | 320,461,857 | 345,734,349 | 46,174,853 | 20,902,361 |

Rio coffee has not been active, but in the absence of arrivals stocks have been reduced to 97,534 bags at this point. The visible supply for the United States has been increased, however, to 248,190 bags. There has been a fair business for mild grades, with stocks at the close 35,702 bags and 176,000 mats, the latter mostly Java. Rio, fair to prime cargoes, quoted 17½@18½c.; Java, 20@23c., and Maracaibo, 16@19c., all gold. Rice has remained quiet. Foreign dried fruits quiet, except rather more firmness in currants. Teas are in better demand, with a steadier feeling. Molasses has been quiet, but prices rule firm on the basis of 33½c. for 50 test. Sugars have been less active, and prices are scarcely so firm; fair to prime refining Cuba quoted at 7⅞@8½c.; refined, 10½c. for standard crushed. The movement in raws has been:

| | Hhds. | Boxes. | Bags. | Melado. |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| Receipts past week | 13,349 | 2,507 | 5,074 | 858 |
| Sales past week | 9,403 | 1,036 | 5,844 | 825 |
| Stock May 20, 1875 | 112,402 | 26,936 | 87,095 | 1,893 |

Naval stores have been rather dull, until near the close, when spirits turpentine was more active and firm at 33c.; rosins also sold to a better extent; common to good strained quoted at $1 70 @$1 80. Petroleum has shown much firmness, notwithstanding a quiet market of late; crude in bulk closed at 8½c., and refined in bbls. at 14½@14¾c., for prompt deliveries. Copper is again lower, with sales at 21@21½c., cash, to the extent of 300,000 lbs. Of iron, 2,000 tons American pig sold at $20 for No. 2 and $22 for No. 1.

The market for ocean freights has shown a fair degree of activity, charter room especially. The offerings of tonnage have undergone a reduction, so much so that late rates show an advance and much firmness. Late engagements and charters include: Grain to Liverpool, by sail, 7½d.; cotton, ½@9-32d. Provisions, by steam, 40@50s. per ton. Grain to London, by sail, 7½d.; flour at 2s.; grain, by steam, 8½d. Grain to Glasgow, by steam, 8½d.; do. to Bristol, by sail, 7@7½d. Grain to Cork, for orders, 6s. per qr.; do. to the Continent, direct port, 5s. 9d. Case oil to the Mediterranean, 27½c., gold; naphtha to Morganpill, 4s.; refined petroleum to London, 3s. 3d. To-day, business was rather slow, both in berth and charter room; still, rates were maintained with firmness. Cotton to Liverpool, by sail, 9 32d. as it runs; grain to Bristol, by sail, 7½d.; flour, 2s. 6d.; grain to the Continent, 5s. 10½d.; refined petroleum from Baltimore to Bremen, 3s. 1½d.

There has been a fair demand for Kentucky tobacco, and prices are firm at 6@7½c. for lugs and 9@15c. for leaf; the sales for the week embraced 800 hhds., of which 300 were for export and 500 were for consumption. Seed leaf has been in moderate demand and about steady. The sales embrace: Crop of 1873, 36 cases Pennsylvania, on private terms: crop of 1874, 264 cases New England at 7@25c., 38 cases New York at 8c.; crop of 1874 and 1875, 69 cases Ohio at 4½@5¾c., and 145 cases Wisconsin at 4@5¾c.; also 200 cases sundry kinds at 7@25c. Spanish tobacco has ruled a shade lower and fairly active; the sales were 700 bales Havana at 84c.@$1 10.

There has been a good demand for prime hides during the past week, and the market closes firm; common have been dull and nominal; dry Montevideo sold at 17½c @18c., gold, four months; do. seconds, 15c.@15½c., gold, four months; do. kips, at 14c., gold, four months; Tobasco at 13c, 60 days; dry Texas at 16c., cash, less 4 per cent., currency. Linseed oil has ruled a shade lower; quoted at 54c.@55c. Crude sperm sold to the extent of 600 bbls. at New Bedford at $1 37@$1 39. Codfish have been in fair demand, with sales at $4 75@$5 for Georges, and $3 25@$3 50 for Grand Bank. Whiskey closes dull and nominal at $1 11½@$1 12.

COTTON.

FRIDAY, P. M., May 19, 1876.

THE MOVEMENT OF THE CROP, as indicated by our telegrams from the South to-night, is given below. For the week ending this evening (May 19) the total receipts have reached 19,995 bales, against 26,441 bales last week, 26,002 bales the previous week, and 29,853 bales three weeks since, making the total receipts since the 1st of September, 1875, 3,987,774 bales, against 3,379,335 bales for the same period of 1874-5, showing an increase since Sept. 1, 1875, of 608,439 bales. The details of the receipts for this week (as per telegraph) and for the corresponding weeks of five previous years are as follows:

* New Orleans.—Our telegram to-night from New Orleans shows that (besides above exports) the amount of cotton on shipboard and engaged for shipment at that port is as follows: For Liverpool, 20,000 bales; for Havre, 9,000 bales; for Continent, 4,500 bales; for coastwise ports, 1,000 bales; which, if deducted from the stock, would leave 104,500 bales representing the quantity at the landing and in presses unsold or awaiting orders.

‡ The exports this week under the head of "other ports" include from Baltimore 344 bales to Bremen; from Boston 1,446 bales to Liverpool; from Philadelphia 499 bales to Liverpool.

From the foregoing statement it will be seen that, compared with the corresponding week of last season, there is a decrease in the exports this week of 25,852 bales, while the stocks to-night are 88,018 bales more than they were at this time a year ago. The following is our usual table showing the movement of cotton at all the ports from Sept. 1 to May 12, the latest mail dates:

These mail returns do not correspond precisely with the total of the telegraphic figures, because in preparing them it is always necessary to incorporate every correction made at the ports.

The market the past week has been drooping for cotton on the spot. A decline to 12 3-16c. for middling uplands, which took place on Saturday, was followed, in the course of Monday and Tuesday, by a liberal business for export, but this demand subsided on Wednesday; and the stoppage of additional mills of New England has resulted in a reduced demand for home consumption. Yesterday, holders partially withdrew samples for higher prices, but the only effect was to check business. To-day, quotations were reduced 1-16c. to 12¼c. for middling uplands, leading to rather more business. For future delivery, speculative manipulation has been active, and the feverish condition of the market proved quite effective. Crop accounts were varied, but on the whole moderately favorable. Too much rain was reported in some sections, and the temperature has continued low; while there seemed to be an impression prevailing that some decrease in the acreage will become apparent when the reports are published. Saturday was panicky, and yesterday was extremely buoyant, with intermediate fluctuations very frequent. To-day, the failure of a house largely involved in the shipment of cotton, Messrs Fachiri Brothers, quite broke down the market for futures, and prices declined 3-16c.; good weather for the crop, and a weakening of the gold premium, contributing slightly to the depression.

The total sales for forward delivery for the week are 192,100 bales, including —— free on board. For immediate delivery the total sales foot up this week 8,251 bales, including 4,817 for export, 2,271 for consumption, 1,163 for speculation, and —— in transit. Of the above, —— bales were to arrive. The following were the closing quotations to day:

The above totals show that the old interior stocks have decreased during the week 3,847 bales, and are to-night 13,922 bales more than at the same period last year. The receipts at same towns have been 1,565 bales more than the same week last year.

BOMBAY SHIPMENTS.—According to our cable despatch received to-day, there have been 42,000 bales shipped from Bombay to Great Britain the past week, and 13,000 bales to the Continent; while the receipts at Bombay during this week have been 44,000 bales. The movement since the 1st of January is as follows. These are the figures of W. Nicol & Co., of Bombay, and are brought down to Thursday, May 18:

| | Shipments this week | | | Shipments since Jan. 1 | | | Receipts. | |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| | Great Britain. | Continent. | Total. | Great Britain. | Continent. | Total. | This week. | Since Jan. 1. |
| 1876..... | 42,000 | 13,000 | 55,000 | 330,000 | 220,000 | 550,000 | 44,000 | *741,000 |
| 1875..... | 45,000 | 30,000 | 75,000 | 537,000 | 346,000 | 883,000 | 62,000 | 1,017,000 |
| 1874..... | 47,000 | 28,000 | 75,000 | 536,000 | 291,000 | 824,000 | 58,000 | 1,062,000 |

* We correct to-day an error in these figures last week.

From the foregoing it would appear that, compared with last year, there is a decrease of 20,000 bales this year in the week's shipments from Bombay to Europe, and that the total movement since January 1 shows a decrease in shipments of 333,000 bales compared with the corresponding period of 1875.

WEATHER REPORTS BY TELEGRAPH.—The past week has been generally favorable for the development of the cotton plant and the continuance of farm work. In Texas, however, they need rain, and in portions of it they need it badly. Other than this we hear of no complaints, except in the section covered by the overflow of the Mississippi, and that has remained without material change during the week. We see our telegram from Dallas, Texas, states that increased immigration has added materially to the cotton acreage in that district.

Galveston, Texas.—It has been warm and dry here all the week. Rain is badly needed. Average thermometer during the week 76, highest 87, and lowest 69.

Indianola, Texas.—We have had no rain this week, and vegetation is suffering greatly. The fields are clear of weeds. Average thermometer 76, highest 85, and lowest 66.

Corsicana, Texas.—The weather has been warm and dry all the week. We are needing rain, as it is getting too dry to work to advantage. Average thermometer 79, highest 93, lowest 67.

Dallas, Texas.—We have had no rain this week; a good rain is wanted. The thermometer has ranged from 54 to 86, averaging 79. Increased immigration has added materially to cotton acreage. The wheat crop, though disappointing in some sections, will be heavy in the aggregate.

New Orleans, Louisiana.—The weather here has been warm and dry all this week, the thermometer averaging 76.

Shreveport, Louisiana.—We have had no rain this week, but some planters complain of the cool nights. The thermometer has averaged 75, the extremes being 59 and 86.

Vicksburg, Mississippi.—The weather this week has been warm and dry. The average thermometer is 75, the highest 88 and the lowest 60. Planting is still unfinished.

Columbus, Mississippi.—There has been no rain here, the weather being warm and dry all the week. Average thermometer 72, highest 80 and lowest 64. The growing crop is about two weeks late.

Little Rock, Arkansas.—We have had no rainfall this week. "Planters are getting on tolerably well." Average thermometer 74, highest 88 and lowest 55.

Nashville, Tennessee.—The weather has been showery on three days of the week, the rainfall reaching eighty-nine hundredths of an inch. The thermometer has ranged from 60 to 82, averaging 71.

Memphis, Tennessee.—Telegram not received.

Mobile, Alabama.—The weather has been warm and dry all the week, without rain. The thermometer has ranged from 63 to 89, averaging 77. The cotton plant looks strong and healthy, and is developing promisingly.

Montgomery, Alabama.—There has been one rainy day here this week, the rainfall reaching twenty-one hundredths of an inch. The rest of the week has been pleasant and warm. Average thermometer 76, highest 88 and lowest 63. We have secured a good stand of cotton. The plant looks strong and healthy.

Selma, Alabama.—Excepting one day, on which there was a rainfall of twenty-nine hundredths of an inch, the past week has been warm and dry. The thermometer has averaged 75.

Madison, Florida.—No rain has fallen all this week. The thermometer has ranged from 69 to 83, averaging 76.

Macon, Georgia.—There has been one rainy day here this week. Average thermometer 72, highest 89 and lowest 55. Planting is about completed in this neighborhood, and there has been more corn and less cotton put in the ground this year than last.

Atlanta, Georgia.—There was a shower here one day this week, the remaining days being pleasant. We have secured a good stand of cotton. Crop accounts are more favorable. The rainfall for the week is seventy-five hundredths of an inch. The average thermometer was 76, the highest 83 and the lowest 64.

Columbus, Georgia.—It rained here severely one day of the week, the rainfall reaching one inch and sixty-four hundredths. The thermometer has ranged from 62 to 88, averaging 77.

Savannah, Georgia.—Rain fell on one day this week, to the extent of two hundredths of an inch. The rest of the week has been pleasant. The average thermometer is 74, the highest 86 and the lowest 54.

Augusta, Georgia.—There has been no rain here, the weather being warm and dry all the week. The thermometer has averaged 74, the extremes being 54 and 89.

Charleston, South Carolina.—There has been one rainy day this week, the rainfall reaching three hundredths of an inch. The thermometer has averaged 71, the highest being 84 and the lowest 62.

The following statement we have also received by telegraph showing the height of the rivers at the points named at 3 o'clock May 18. We give last year's figures (May 21, 1875) for comparison.

New Orleans reported below high-water mark of 1871 until Sept. 9, 1874, when the zero of gauge was changed to high-water mark of April 15 and 16, 1874, which is 6-10ths of a foot above 1871, or 16 feet above low-water mark at that point.

COTTON ACREAGE REPORT.—The Memphis Avalanche has prepared, and in its issue of Tuesday, May 16, gives a report of the cotton acreage this year. We, of course, by publishing it, do not endorse it and are in no condition, as yet, to express an opinion on the many points it covers. Our usual information on that subject we never obtain until after the first of June, and hence we have very few facts from our correspondents, except what have been given from time to time in our weather reports. We must say, however, that with regard to the Atlantic States, all the information we have would indicate a greater decrease in the planting than the Avalanche gives. As to the Western and Southwestern States, we are not prepared to express any opinion of our own. The prevailing belief, however, calls for an increase somewhat in excess of the estimate below. With these explanations, we insert the material portions of the Avalanche report:

In several cases, owing to the recent overflow of the Mississippi River, we have been obliged to accept estimates of acreage likely to be put under cultivation in several counties during this season, which, if done, we will report during the next month. * * * Comparing the present planting season with any previous one, there is probably none we could draw as closely as the season of 1874. That season opened with a partial dry April, wet May, and a spring overflow. It was not unusual to hear, during that season, of planting as late as the 15th of June in the Mississippi Valley, and in many cases, where such late planting took place, a full crop, but in most cases but half a crop, was the result. The dry summer which followed was felt everywhere, and proved a disastrous one in Texas, Arkansas, Tennessee, and part of Mississippi, and had it not been for the proportionately good out-turn in the Atlantic States, the probability would have been that a crop, not exceeding 3,500,000 would have been marketed. We are almost inclined to think that the state of the weather and temperature of this season up to date warrant our taking the planting season of 1874 as a comparison, and adopting this view, we must say that the outlook to-day is not even as encouraging as that of 1874, for the reason that Texas and the Atlantic States are from two to five weeks backward in planting. This unfavorable item might only be counterbalanced by the additional acreage this year compared with two years ago. There is probably no section or sections of the cotton belt more advanced than those on the upper Arkansas and in Tennessee, and it remains to be seen how they will continue for the balance of the season. Allowing every acre of land to be planted, as it appears in our report, it will be seen at a glance that there is a visible increase of acreage of a fraction above ½ per cent. compared with last year; but deducting the estimate as supplied by our correspondents yet to be planted, it would show a result of 3½ per cent. less than last year. Should the late planting occur, such as took place last year and the year previous, there can be but little doubt that the total acreage anticipated "yet to be planted," as shown in our report, will be planted, while, should the high water of the Mississippi continue for any length of time, most of that acreage will have to be abandoned for cotton-planting purposes. We would finally remark to our readers that acreage reports from other sources may, in all probability, show a much larger increase in acreage than ours, and to this we would say that those reports of last season showed a deficiency of 200,000 acres less than actually planted, which may have occurred from late planting not taken into account, or a process of estimating, which we look upon as anything but a sure guide.

N. B.—The total acreage of 1875 includes additional acreage report, dated June 9th, 1875, consequently showing an increase of acreage of 5 03-100, compared with 1874.

Detailed reports showing condition of crop of 1876, up to May 7th:

ARKANSAS.—Planting north and northwest of Pu seki county two weeks late; south of that county four to six weeks late. Along the lower Arkansas and Mississippi a number of plantations still partly under water. Labor satisfactory. Less grain planted in this State than last year.

TENNESSEE.—Planting in this State mostly finished on uplands end of April. Somewhat backward along the rivers. Labor satisfactory. Weather seasonable. A slight increase of grain planted.

MISSISSIPPI.—Planting backward northwestern Mississippi as far as Warren county. On an average this State will be fully five weeks, compared to the planting of last year. Weather up to 3d of May unusually cold. Labor good and more plentiful than last year. Little difference in grain planted compared with 1875.

ALABAMA.—North Alabama planting two weeks late. Central Alabama about the same as last year. South Alabama, along the Alabama and Tombigbee rivers, two weeks late. Weather seasonable. No change in grain planting. Labor satisfactory, with the exception of a few complaints in counties bordering on Georgia.

LOUISIANA.—Planting on the Upper Red river two weeks late. Northeastern part of this State averages three weeks late. South and southeast, three to four weeks late. Labor satisfactory. Grain planting about the same as last year.

TEXAS.—This State on an average three to five weeks late in planting, and so far reports compared with last year very unsatisfactory, owing partly to excessive rains in some sections, and cold temperatures in others. The emigration during the last twelve months to this State has been larger than in any previous year. Increase of grain planted fully five per cent compared with last year.

GEORGIA.—Planting about two weeks late on an average; weather seasonable; some sections report excessive rains during April; labor not equal to last year; fertilizers used in larger proportions than any previous year.

SOUTH CAROLINA.—Several sections of this State report a slight increase of acreage; some about same as last year, a number less; some sections two weeks late in planting, others same as last year; quite a number of complaints with reference to labor, and fearing grave apprehensions during the fall on account of political matters; fertilizers used freely.

NORTH CAROLINA.—Planting about same time as last year with exceptions of three counties, where planting has been retarded. Weather seasonable; labor about same as last year.

FLORIDA AND MISCELLANEOUS.—Planting about same time as last year. Weather fair, though some sections report excessive rains. Labor same as last year, little change.

WEEKLY RECEIPTS OF COTTON.—Below we give a table showing the receipts of cotton each week at all the ports of the United States for several seasons, indicating, also, the total crop each year. Our figures are given in thousands of bales.

GUNNY BAGS, BAGGING, &c.—Bagging has been in better demand during the past week, and we hear of about 2,000 rolls, part at 12c. cash and part at 12¼c., half cash and half time. We also hear that sales had been made in Boston of about 5,000 rolls at 12c. cash. The market closes steady, with holders asking 12½c., cash. Bales are quiet at 9@9¼c. for India. Bags dull and nominal at 13c. asked for 440s. Butts have been in light demand, the late arrivals having supplied consumers' wants. We note sale of 800 bales now landing, at 2¼c. currency, cash, the market closing at 2¼@2¼c. cash, and 3c. time, the latter for choice quality.

LIVERPOOL, May 19,—3:30 P. M.—BY CABLE FROM LIVERPOOL.—Estimated sales of the day were 8,000 bales, of which 1,000 bales were for export and speculation. Of to-day's sales, 6,100 bales were American. The weekly movement is given as follows:

BREADSTUFFS.

There has been an upward tendency to prices of flour the past week, and at times an active business, though the market has not fully shared in the advance which has taken place in wheat. The medium Western extras from winter wheat have become less plenty, and have not competed so actively with low extras from spring wheat. Local millers have been fully employed upon orders, and regular shipping extras have met with a free sale at $5 10@$5 25. Low grades have also done better. The higher grades of bakers' and family brands have been more salable. The production of flour is progressing generally on a pretty liberal scale. To-day, a line of 2,000 bbls. extra State sold at $5 20, and choice superfine brought $4 60, but otherwise the market was quiet.

The wheat market has been buoyant, and early in the week was quite active, but since the higher quotations were established business has been less active. There have been large lines sold of No. 2 Milwaukee at $1 24@$1 26, of No. 1 spring at $1 32@$1 33. Shippers have been favored by advancing gold and a liberal supply of freight-room. The demand early in the week was mainly from the Continent and for local milling, but latterly more business has been done for Great Britain. Receipts at the Western markets continue to show a falling off from last year, and the visible supply is rapidly reduced. Crop accounts are generally favorable. To day, the market was firm, and moderately active, but closed quiet.

Indian corn has been in large supply, but so active was the demand that prices of merchantable qualities have advanced 1@2c. per bushel, a large business being done yesterday at 59½@62½c. for new Western mixed, as in quality. In Southern white there has been an exceptional decline, two small cargoes selling at 65c. Receipts at the West are considerably in excess of last year, and for future delivery, prices are no higher; prime mixed sold yesterday at 61c. for June. To-day, there was a slight further improvement, with sales of steamer mixed at 61½@61¾c., but the market was generally quiet.

Rye has been active and higher, mainly at 92@94c. for Canada in bond, mostly for arrival, but the close is quiet. Some sales of barley have been made, and barley malt has brought rather more money. Canada peas, after further sales at 95c., advanced to 98c. in bond. Oats declined rapidly, until yesterday, at 38c. for No. 2, and 41c. for No. 1 graded mixed, an active demand sprung up, and a steadier tone was developed, with No. 2 graded mixed at 38½@39c.

THE DRY GOODS TRADE.

FRIDAY, P. M., May 19, 1876.

The package trade has been quiet the past week in nearly all branches. Early in the week, Messrs. Wright, Bliss & Fabyan, representing several of the most prominent New England manufacturing corporations, announced their determination to sell at auction, on the 23d inst., 6,000 packages domestics, and this had a depressing influence upon the market, and restricted operations, although it is thought such a sale will be of ultimate benefit to the trade, as bottom prices will be thus reached, which will probably be followed by a steadier market than has been witnessed since the autumn of 1873. The stock of the Johnson Manufacturing Company, consisting of 321 cases, book fold ginghams, was peremptorily sold at auction and brought good prices. There has been a slight improvement in the demand for heavy woolens for the early fall trade, but operations in light-weight fabrics have been quite moderate. Further failures among woolen manufacturers are reported, including the Berkshire Woolen Company of Great Barrington, Mass., and Messenger & Wright, of Worcester, Mass. The latter failure has also caused the suspension of Messenger, Fisher & Co., dry goods jobbers in this city, with liabilities of $200,000. The small profits attending the production of print cloths (at present selling at 3⅜c., cash), and a lull in the export demand, have caused manufacturers at Fall River to take into consideration the expediency of working half-time from June 1, which measure will probably be adopted. In foreign goods business has been very light, and prices of most fabrics are low and unsatisfactory.

DOMESTIC COTTON GOODS.—The export trade in cotton goods has been less active, only 820 packages having been shipped from this port last week, of which about one half went to Liverpool, 160 packages to the British East Indies, and the remainder in small lots, to other countries. The home trade was very light, and restricted to such small lots as were absolutely necessary for keeping up assortments. Prices were nominally unchanged in first hands, but there was virtually no market, both buyers and sellers anxiously awaiting the result of the great trade sale alluded to above, which will be the largest peremptory offering of domestics ever made in the United States, and comprising the productions of the following mills, which run over half a million spindles: Pepperell Manufacturing Company, Laconia Company, Androscoggin Mills, Continental Mills, Bates Manufacturing Company, Otis Company, Boston Duck Company, Warren Cotton Mills, Columbian Manufacturing Company, and other corporations. Fancy prints continued in limited request, but shirting styles were distributed to a fair aggregate amount, and Lancaster cambrics having been reduced to eight, net, met with liberal sales. Ginghams were in steady request for moderate lots, despite the auction sale of these fabrics, referred to above.

DOMESTIC WOOLEN GOODS.—There was an increased demand by the early clothing trade for moderate parcels of heavy cassimeres, and the same class of buyers commenced operating in heavy worsteds, but transactions were cautiously conducted, and buyers evinced much less liberality in their purchases than in former seasons at this period. Light-weight cassimeres received little attention aside from a few specially attractive styles which were placed with cloth jobbers to a moderate amount. Overcoatings were in less than the usual demand at this time of year, because, perhaps, of heavy stocks carried over by clothiers, owing to the mildness of the past winter. Satinets and jeans were in limited request, and there was merely a hand-to-mouth demand for flannels. Carpets were comparatively quiet, but steady. Worsted dress goods moved slowly, and shawls were very quiet.

FOREIGN DRY GOODS.—Much of the interest pertaining to imported goods was centred in the auction rooms, where several large and successful sales were made, including a line of 2,000 pieces dress silks of the importation of Messrs. E. Warburg & Co., and a large assortment of real laces and lace goods, which were sold by order of Mr. Richard Salembier to good advantage. In first hands, dress gooda were quiet and those of a fancy character are selling low. Black silks were in steady request, and there was a fair movement in millinery silks and ribbons. Housekeeping linens and handkerchiefs met with moderate sales, and there was a fair inquiry for staple and fancy white goods and Hamburg embroideries. Mens'-wear woolens were dull with importers, but a little more active in jobbers' hands.

We annex prices of a few articles of domestic manufacture:

Gross Assets held by Board of Management in New York, $1,600,000.

The Company's actual losses by Chicago conflagration in 1871 were $1,743,457 81.

The Company's actual losses by Boston conflagration in 1872 were $508,880 46.

Yet the Company paid these losses at sight without borrowing or selling a single dollar of permanent investments, continued regular dividends to their stockholders, and at the end of 1873 had entirely made up (not in this country, however), the losses of these two conflagrations and all others, commencing 1874 with a surplus over $100,000 larger than ever before.

Annual income of Fire Department alone over $4,000,000.

LONG ISLAND CITY

$1,000 WATER BONDS.

Interest payable March and September, at Marine National Bank of New York, principal re-payable from 1887 to 1902, a strictly first-class investment security for sale in lots to suit purchasers.

These bonds are authorized by legislative act, under which, not only the entire taxable property of the city is liable for their payment, but, in addition, the water-works are specially pledged, which are now completed and in successful operation. Water bonds are the most popular and command the highest prices of any municipal issue.

Estimated real value, $30,000,000, while the assessed valuation is only $6,000,000. Population, 20,000.

LONG ISLAND CITY, adjacent to New York, with a water-front of six miles on tide-water, is a continuation of Brooklyn, and must eventually become annexed to that city, as was the case with the city of Williamsburgh. There is certainly no good reason why these bonds will not appreciate at or near to that of Brooklyn bonds, which are now selling at 116, which same security within the past two years sold at par, being about the same price at which we now offer LONG ISLAND CITY BONDS.

The security offered for the bonds of both cities being identical, present purchasers of Long Island City bonds must certainly secure an advance, thereby getting a premium as well as seven per cent interest on their investment. Bonds, as ordered, will be sent by express, C. O. D., accompanied with a certificate of the Treasurer of Long Island City as to their correctness, etc.

THE TREASURY AND THE SMALL-CHANGE DIFFICULTY.

Silver coin and fractional currency are still selling at a premium. With a view to the more speedy relief of the business troubles incident to the scarcity of small change, the attention of the Secretary of the Treasury has been called to a provision in the Resumption act of January, 1875, with the request that, if compatible with the public interests, some appropriate use may be made of the facilities sanctioned in the law. These facilities are ample, and some important advantages seem likely to result from their adoption. The first section of the statute, in which alone the fractional currency is referred to, declares that "the Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized and required, as rapidly as practicable, to cause to be coined at the mints of the United States, silver coins of denominations of ten, twenty-five and fifty cents, of standard value, and to issue them in redemption of an equal number and amount of fractional currency of similar denomination; or, at his discretion, he may issue such silver coins through the mints, sub-treasuries, public depositories, and post-offices of the United States, and upon such issue he is hereby authorized and required to redeem an equal amount of such fractional currency, until the whole amount of currency outstanding shall be redeemed."

It will be observed that two different methods are here set before the Secretary, by which to effect the substitution of silver coins for the fractional currency; and he is left perfectly free to choose either or both of them at his discretion. First, he may decide to issue the metallic currency for the discarded paper, by simply exchanging the one for the other at the various offices of the Treasury, or, secondly, he may decide not to wait for this slow process of exchange, and he may issue the silver "through the mints, sub-treasuries, public depositories and post-offices," to any extent needful to supply the country with small change. Now, as the chief conditions of success required the Secretary to move with caution, he decided to confine himself at the outset to the first of these two legal methods for the emission of the new silver. When the second silver bill was passed, on the 10th of April, Mr. Bristow appointed thirteen offices, in various parts of the country, at which the holders of fractional currency might obtain silver coin in exchange for it. The plan has worked better than was expected, and the chief activity, so far, has been developed at Washington and New York, though there has been a considerable demand for silver at all the points of distribution. The preliminary success of the great work of substituting our bright new coin for the filthy fragments of paper, which might so easily become the bearers of infection and disease, suggests the question whether the time has not come when the second expedient prescribed in the law should be put in force without further delay. It consists of two consecutive steps, as will be seen from the foregoing quotation. The first step is, that the silver is to be paid out through the sub-treasuries, the post-offices and the depositories, on precisely the same terms and conditions as have for so many years applied to the emission of fractional currency. What these are is so well known that we need not stop to describe them; their general operation has always been that any citizen who wanted fractional currency could easily get it in exchange for greenbacks, at the Treasury or elsewhere. The obvious intention is, that similar rules should be adopted for the emission of the new coins under the law of January, 1875, and, if this be done, it is easy to see that the fourteen millions of silver now in the Treasury would become immediately available. The hoarding would be stopped, the mischiefs it has caused would disappear, and the scarcity of small change would cease.

Passing next to the other step of the process of substitution enjoined in the law, we find that as fast as the new metallic money is thus emitted, the Secretary has to take action for the cancelling of an equal amount of the fractional currency. This withdrawal, it has been said, cannot be easily effected. The difficulty is, however, exaggerated, as a little experience and reflection will show; for, as the fractional currency is not being renewed, it must soon become mutilated and unfit for use. It will thus accumulate in the financial centres, so that it can readily be controlled and cancelled. Moreover, we may reasonably expect that the exit of the fractional notes from the channels of the circulation will be especially facilitated, if, as is predicted by some hygienic authorities, the coming summer should be somewhat unhealthful; for it is very likely that the filthy bits of paper, saturated and reeking with the moist exudations of disease and danger, will speedily become unpopular when the clean and harmless silver coins are everywhere accessible.

But it is needless to argue in favor of this proposition to the Secretary for aiding the emission of the silver coinage. Perhaps its chief advantage is that it requires no new legislation. Indeed, it may serve a good purpose in preventing undue haste in passing any of the silver bills which are so urgently pressed on the attention of Congress. In this point of view, there is a peculiar fitness in the time which has been chosen for the agitation of this practical remedy for the small-change trouble. A few days ago, at Washington, the Committee on Banking and Currency held a session for the discussion of the bills now before them relative to this subject. General Banks and Mr. Randall addressed the Committee in favor of their several measures. Much as these proposed laws differ from each other, their general intent, so far as it is a popular one, is to apply a remedy to the very evil we are now discussing. If, as is believed, this evil can be completely cured without any new legislation, and by the simple use of the wholesome and well-tried expedients prescribed in existing laws, then the chief arguments in favor of the bills of Mr. Randall and General Banks, as well as others still more mischievous, will lose their force. The former of these two bills has been amended in Committee, and will be reported to the House. It proposes to enact as follows:

Be it enacted, That in addition to the amount of subsidiary coin authorized by law to be issued in redemption of fractional currency, it shall be lawful to manufacture at the several mints, and issue through the Treasury and its several offices, such coin to the amount of $20,000,000.

SEC. 2. That the silver bullion required for this purpose shall be purchased from time to time at the market rate by the Secretary of the Treasury, with any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, and the resulting coin may be issued in the ordinary disbursements of the Treasury, or in exchange for legal-tender notes at par; but no purchase of bullion shall be made under this act when the market rate for the same shall be such as will not admit of the coinage and issue or exchange, as herein provided, without loss to the Treasury, and any gain or seignorage arising from this coinage shall be accounted for and paid into the Treasury, as provided under existing laws relative to subsidiary coinage; provided, that no more than one million shall be paid out at any one time for such silver bullion.

SEC. 3. That the trade dollar shall not hereafter be a legal-tender, and the Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized to limit from time to time the coinage thereof to such an amount as he may deem sufficient to meet the export demand for the same.

It is evident to every one who takes the pains to ascertain the real course of public opinion on the silver question, that our people are averse to all rash and hasty experiments in this as in other departments of monetary legislation. This conservative reluctance to sanction crude monetary innovations, is supported by the latest results of scientific inquiry and economic investigation. It is well known to be the opinion of the best authorities that, during the first decade after gold was discovered in Australia, the value of gold was depreciated. The causes of the depreciation are well known, and its amount is variously fixed at 15 to 25 per cent., some economists rating it still higher. During the second decade, no further depreciation seems to have been made; and since 1868 a contrary movement of appreciation is, by some persons, believed to have begun from the adoption of the gold standard and the partial demonetization of silver in Germany and in other countries of Continental Europe.

Whatever we may think of this theory, it is certain that the people of the United States are not prepared for any fundamental changes in the monetary laws, such as are proposed in some quarters. In view of this attitude of the public mind, the announcement is gratifying that the existing laws sufficiently provide for the immediate exigencies of the country for small change. By the plan suggested above, or by some similar arrangement, it is hoped that the Secretary will be able to apply an efficient remedy, and thus obviate the need for further legislation, until the most important of the questions involved have been submitted to a thorough, if not a complete and exhaustive investigation.

OUR STATE FINANCES AND THE CANALS.

Our excellent Governor has a very quiet yet persistent way of following up his reform measures. His "grinding" is much like that of "The Gods"—slow, but extremely fine. He is now, we believe, the only surviving member of the finance committee in the Constitutional Convention of 1846—a committee which carried through the policy of engrafting upon our Constitution the system under which our State debt has since been substantially extinguished. But we remember no work of his at that time of greater use to the State than the very able and comprehensive address he delivered upon our canal system. Though spoken in 1846, scarcely a word needs to be altered in it or added to it to-day. The policy, there so plainly expounded, has been the one which he has enforced during his administration, and which he is still following up. His aim then and his aim now is simply to carry out to its full fruition the idea in the construction of the canals, and that, of course, was economy of transportation. To attain this, his speech advocated, and his administration has sought, first, a decrease in the cost of maintaining them, and, second, a more perfect adaptation of the water-way and the boats to one another; in other words, he applied a little common sense to the subject, and thus found that all we needed was to perfect our machine and then run it economically. This is no great discovery, one will say. Most certainly not; and yet the working out of this simple policy has stirred up a wonderful commotion among our politicians, and brought to light a corruption which very few outside of the combination believed possible.

We are led to this subject to-day by Mr. Tilden's veto of the bill providing a tax to meet the deficiency in the Canal Debt Sinking Fund. It will be remembered that, about the first of April, the Governor sent a message to the Legislature requesting it to appropriate the surplus from the previous year's Canal tax to improvements in its water-way, &c. What the Legislature actually did and the results of their action is best told in the following extract from the memorandum of the Governor accompanying his present veto or non-approval of the bill referred to:

Assembly Bill No. 274, entitled: "An act to authorize a tax of three-tenths of a mill per dollar of valuation, to provide for deficiency in the Sinking Fund, under section three of article 7 of the Constitution."

This bill authorizes a tax of three-tenths of one mill to meet the deficiencies in the Canal Sinking Fund, in obedience to section 3 of article 7 of the Constitution. The valuation, as nearly as can now be ascertained from the reports of the assessors in the Comptroller's office, is $2,390,803,696. The produce of this tax, computed on that valuation, would be $717,241.

This bill came into the Executive chamber on the 27th day of April. It is rendered unnecessary by a subsequent act which came into the Executive chamber on the 4th of May—the day after the adjournment—and which provides for paying these deficiencies without a tax. This latter bill, in accordance with my special message of March 24, 1876, in relation to the canals, provides for the completion or cancellation of pending contracts for extraordinary repairs, and for the application of $1,000,000 of money yet unexpended, which had been reclaimed from the folly, waste and fraud incident to those expenditures.

It contained two appropriations for real improvements to the Erie Canal. The one was $400,000 for bottoming it out and restoring it to the lawful depth of seven feet. The other was the subsequent use of $800,000 to go on with like improvements in the water-way, which would facilitate and quicken the transit of the boat, by deepening the volume of the water through which it should move on the levels. No doubt, a measure so practical, so simple and economical would lessen the cost of transportation, and would be of more real service to the navigation than $10,000,000 expended in the usual manner.

At the very close of the session, the Chairman of the Canal Committee of the Assembly, who had supported such improvements on the Erie Canal as well as on the Champlain, came to me with the information that the latter appropriation of $800,000 for the Erie would fail in the Senate, which had manifested opposition to these measures. The next best use of the rescued moneys seemed to be to pay debts and remit taxes. An amendment was prepared making that change. It was adopted fifteen minutes before the close of the legislative session. I have signed that bill, and now reject this.

What has the State gained, therefore, as a result of ability added to honesty in Mr. Tilden's administration? This can be best illustrated by the following statement of the rate of taxation and tax levied for a series of years:

| Year. | Rate in mills on the dollar. | State Tax levied. |
|---|---|---|
| 1865 | 4 53-80 | $7,230,976 53 |
| 1866 | 5 9-16 | 8,517,464 85 |
| 1867 | 7 3 5 | 12,697,218 71 |
| 1868 | 5 4-5 | 10,243,317 01 |
| 1869 | 5 5-8 | 10,463,179 33 |
| 1870 | 7 41 156 | 14,285,976 55 |
| 1871 | 5 79-120 | 11,613,943 61 |
| 1872 | 9 3 8 | 19,580,882 30 |
| 1873 | 6 95 100 | 14,800,903 38 |
| 1874 | 7 1-4 | 15,727,482 08 |
| 1875 | 6 | 14,206,630 61 |
| 1876 | 3 11-24 | 8,268,196 00 |

This, certainly, is a very satisfactory exhibit—a matter for congratulation for both the Governor and people. It should, however, be said in the same connection, and in justice to previous administrations, that a part of this deduction is, of course, due to decreased appropriations to the sinking funds, which has become possible by the payment of the State debt. The amount applied to sinking funds, this year, is $2,746,000 against $4,458,000 in 1874, and the deduction in the taxation is to the extent of this difference, (or about $1,700,000), to be charged to that account. But the direct saving to the canals, by the Governor's reform measures, is best indicated by the following statement, showing the amount of taxation paid for canal purposes alone during the last ten years:

| | | | |
|---|---|---|---|
| 1865 | $2,147,630 92 | 1871 | $1,324,229 04 |
| 1866 | 1,406,817 23 | 1872 | 1,663,069 57 |
| 1867 | 1,019,265 98 | 1873 | 2,765,319 86 |
| 1868 | 1,828,400 39 | 1874 | 2,537,819 04 |
| 1869 | 1,595,053 56 | 1875, about | 769,528 53 |
| 1870 | 3,880,035 93 | 1876 | Nothing. |

This is the burden from which our canals have been relieved, and out of which relief has arisen the ability to lower tolls. The great need of this country is cheap transportation. We are constantly raising agricultural products of every description in excess of our own consumption. A large surplus is left for export. There is no problem more important than this—how to bring that surplus to the seaboard at the least possible cost. For that reason, we feel so deep an interest in the work Captain Eads has undertaken at the mouth of the Mississippi. For that reason also, if there were no other, Governor Tilden's measures deserve and will receive the hearty co-operation of all except a few politicians who fatten upon corruption. What trade New York City can retain or build up, by making that route less costly than others, she is entitled to, no more.

SILVER A LEGAL TENDER.

[Communicated.]

Your article of 29th April discussed the bill recently reported to the United States Senate by its Finance Committee, with regard to the issue of silver coin as a legal tender to the amount of 20 dollars in one payment, and the compulsory purchase of silver bullion by the United States Treasury. Further discussion, even if faulty in itself, may help to the knowledge of practical effects which should guide legislation. Serious mistakes have been made in acts of Congress touching the currency, now recognized and regretted sincerely by some who bore active part in their adoption. No more mistakes should be made. Henceforward every step should be of progress and out of the quagmire of "legal tender." In every step it should be remembered that gold is the world's measure of value, the only one universal tender; and that where silver coin is a legal tender with gold, the fact is regarded as an evil of increasing magnitude and difficulty, held in check by limitations of amount in issue. An eminent Swiss merchant and banker, writing under date of 18th ult., says: "Another object of apprehension is the fall in "the value of silver, lately 52¼ pence per ounce standard, against 60¾ pence, which expresses the legal "value in French money of 15½ pounds of silver—1 "pound of gold. If nothing is done in the so-called "Latin countries, say the countries where the French "franc is the measure of value—France, Belgium, Italy "and Switzerland—in order to demonetize silver at least "partly, which is very difficult, we shall in the end lose "20 or 25 per cent. on all claims stipulated in francs, "just as if we had a currency depreciated to that extent."

The Senate bill limits the silver tender to sums of twenty dollars or less. The limitation would avoid in great part the loss and trouble in which the Latin countries of Europe now find themselves involved, but it would be, in practical operation, unequal; therefore unjust, opening a legal discrimination against small creditors, wages-earning people, and petty dealers, in favor of employers, and a hardship not operative against large creditors. The question arises, will employers and others, having a legal right to pay in a depreciated currency, use that right? The right would be in every person to compel every other person (in the absence of special contract) to accept silver currency up to the sum of 20 dollars, however much the silver dollars might be depreciated. This would be the same compulsion of law in kind, differing only in its limitation, as that which forced, and still forces, the acceptance of legal tender notes. The difference in degree is wide. The compulsory acceptance of greenbacks applied to all persons and all amounts, rich and poor faring alike. There was no odious discrimination. The payment of silver dollars in discharge of small obligations, when those dollars become seriously depreciated, would be wrongful, and perhaps so odious as to be impracticable. The vice of this feature of the bill is that, under legal sanction for wrong-doing, its avoidance would rest upon the capricious forbearance of individuals. Neither of the Senators who reported this bill would knowingly sanction such legislation. Objection to it assumes that silver dollars will soon be worth less than paper dollars as the latter shall appreciate towards par of gold.

Now, what conditions should the workings of the law produce?

1. The deposit in the mints of all the silver bullion which its producers and dealers can sell there better than elsewhere.

2. The issue of all the silver dollars that can be exchanged for greenbacks; i. e., until the want of them shall be satisfied, or until they become worth less than greenbacks—a glut of silver coin, this process going faster even than the appreciation of greenbacks by contraction, both proceeding at once.

3. Silver possibly at 85 in gold in 1879, when United States Treasury notes are to be at par of gold by redemption.

Will the price of silver (its gold value per ounce) continue to decline? The elements of calculation are new or under new conditions. Besides the great increase in the production of silver from the mines, we have the fact, perhaps more important in its bearing on this question, that the Orientals, to whom silver has for centuries been so precious and desirable, are now rejecting it and demanding gold; recognizing the law of cheapening by abundance. Once impressed with the idea that silver will continue to depreciate, they may send it back to Europe, whence it has been flowing eastward so long a time. All people, of every nation, show an inclination to cheapen silver and prefer gold. Its use as currency may be enforced by law, as is the use of our Treasury notes now, but law cannot sustain its exchangeable value. There is reason, then, to suppose that under the concurrent effects of excessive production and the cessation of hoarding, silver will gradually fall in price so long as these influences shall co-operate.

The third section of the bill gives to every holder of silver bullion the legal right to deposit the bullion in the U. S. mints, at the market value (of pure silver, of course,) "as ascertained and publicly announced from time to time by the Director of the Mint with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, and to be paid for, either in silver dollars or with gold coin or United States notes." No discretion is given to the Secretary or other officer of the Treasury, except in ascertaining the market value of bullion. No seller of bullion would accept silver dollars in payment—alloyed silver at its nominal value for pure silver—therefore, the option of silver dollars or gold is meaningless, unless the option is to vest in the officers of the mints or Treasury, in which case it is absurd. To pay out government gold when holding the option to pay with silver coin worth 15 or even 10 per cent. less, an officer must be very weak or corrupt, or both. The words "or with gold coin or United States notes" mean to apply to the time when the notes shall be at par of gold, redeemable, or they, too, fail of any proper meaning. The words "or with lawful money" would keep in the government officers the right to pay with greenbacks while legal tender. The use of the words "gold coin" seems to intend that the seller of silver bullion may claim to be paid in gold; and this would be right, because his bullion is to be appraised at its market value in gold. The words should be "to be paid for with gold coin," so avoiding all doubt and obscurity. Just so long as the new dollars should be worth as much or more than greenbacks, and no longer, could the Secretary of the Treasury "exchange them for United States notes, which shall be retired and cancelled" (for account of the sinking fund). That would be until enough silver coin got into common circulation to serve the public convenience; and still longer, if the substitution of silver coin for Treasury notes should fail to appreciate the latter above the gold value of silver. Such appreciation would surely follow upon any large cancellation of United States notes, and perhaps upon a very small exchange of silver coin for greenbacks, in addition to the silver redemption of the fractional currency now in progress. What then? According to this bill, the mints must buy all the silver bullion deposited with them, at market value, though the Secretary be unable to dispose of it as authorized in the act. The only restraint upon accumulation of silver coin and bullion in the mints and Treasury, would be a market rate for the bullion unsatisfactory to those persons who wish to "deposit" it. Whatever amount should be stored up in the government depositories without chance of issue, would be out of market, enhancing the "market value" of what remained in market. What should hinder the producers of silver from compelling the United States Treasury to take and carry just so much of the surplus bullion as would keep its market rate too high for export, yet not high enough to open the market to alloyed silver, or coin? This would be a new bonanza worth working.

Silver coin is gladly accepted as a token currency, for the convenience of business, and will be even if its gold value be further reduced; certainly to the extent of its common use. The existing limit for which it is a legal tender (five dollars) is sufficient for all useful purposes. If not forced into excessive issue by needless and costly purchases of bullion and extension of the legal tender limit, silver coin will perform its function fully and at least loss of interest to both government and people, and with no more loss by depreciation than will be shared by other nations having the gold standard alone.

BUILDING MATERIALS.

Few branches of business have suffered more from the prevailing depression of the past two years and a half than the trade in "building materials." This is very natural, as landlords are not likely to multiply houses while they have many on their hands unrented, and especially when they see such a shrinkage in values going on. Besides, there is a decided influence against building, in the sacrifices which are being forced in the foreclosure sales under the hammer. Parcel after parcel has been sold for relatively much lower figures than improvements on similar property could be made, and shrewd operators would naturally desire to exhaust these chances, which bring a quick return, rather than await the slow process of erecting additional buildings, even if the large number of "To lets" did not negative the idea of a remunerative return on anything except decided bargains. In fact, there is likely to be very little building hereafter until the investor believes we have reached the "lower deep;" and he never can be satisfied of that before we are on a specie basis. Stable, fixed values are what the capital now lying idle is waiting for; and it will wait till every industry is dried up, unless we sooner accept the situation and definitely show by our acts that we will henceforth pursue that end unwaveringly till reached. The real condition of this trade, and the shrinkage which has taken place, will be best indicated by a rehearsal of the facts in each department.

LUMBER.

The leading article, lumber, has shown no life in this section since 1873. In the Northwest, inactivity and dulness are of a later date. The great fire in Chicago, in 1872, gave a decided impetus to the lumber trade of that section; but, unfortunately, reliable statistics do not go farther back than 1874; and the notable fact is developed that 1875 showed a considerable increase in the movement over the preceding year. The extensive region known in the trade as the "Northwest" is divided into the sections, Michigan, Wisconsin, Minnesota, and the Mississippi River, the comparative importance of which is set forth in the annexed data for 1875:

| | Michigan. M feet. | Wisconsin. M feet. | Minnesota. M feet. | Miss. R. M feet. |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| Lumber manufactured | 2,746,866 | 1,034,577 | 342,623 | 291,487 |
| Lumber on hand, Dec. 31 | 744,679 | 342,753 | 257,623 | 112,251 |
| Logs on hand, Dec. 31 | 585,593 | 267,638 | 89,111 | 100,460 |

The annexed is a comparison of the totals of the above figures with those for 1874:

| | 1874, M. feet. | 1875, M. feet. |
|---|---|---|
| Lumber manufactured | 4,229,149 | 4,417,553 |
| Logs on hand, Dec. 31 | 1,001,301 | 1,013,107 |

These statistics are taken from the Lumberman. Although they show an increased business, the year has not been a prosperous one. The fact will readily be recalled, that, during the latter part of 1875, the failures among lumber merchants were frequent, and for large amounts, in nearly all of our principal cities; and the prospects for 1876 are thus far of a very unsatisfactory character. The lumber interest of the Northwest is extensive, as the statistics demonstrate. It gives employment to much capital, labor, and transportation. Not less than seventy-five thousand men are, it is estimated, constantly employed, and the industries to which it has near relations are even more important.

In this vicinity, for nearly three years, the market has been tending downward, and the present condition is not encouraging. The distribution from yard, for building purposes, is very small, while all the manufacturing interests are also light consumers, and the general tendency of buyers is to operate with great caution. There was, for a time, a little doing to fill export orders, but this has now subsided, and most foreign advices do not appear to encourage shipments. In short, the market is a decidedly dull one, and presents few signs of latent vitality. On the 1st of January last, the stocks were estimated to be 25 per cent below the corresponding period for 1875, yet the supply and assortment fully equal all wants, and our dealers are very indifferent about entering into contracts for additions. Our supplies are drawn from all quarters,—the spruce timber, &c., from the eastward, yellow pine from the South, and white pine, hemlock, and hard woods from the interior, and embrace millions upon millions of feet in an ordinary business year, but we find it simply impossible to obtain any data of even an approximating character upon which to form comparisons. The shrinkage in values during the past three years is shown below, the figures for clear pine being the rate at Albany, where most of our buyers make wholesale purchases:

| Clear pine, per M | $35@$47 | $50@$52 | $58@$60 |
| Eastern spruce, per M | 13@ 15 | 17@ 19 | 20@ 21 |
| Yellow pine, per M | 18@ 20 | 20@ 23 | 28@ 31 |

In view of the foregoing, it is natural to suppose that the work of the lumbermen will be somewhat curtailed for the current year. In one section it is believed that it will not exceed 90 per cent of 1875. A return of prices to a safe basis, it is hoped, will thus be secured. But a revival of building on the extensive scale of five years ago need not be expected until our currency shall be restored to a sound basis, and confidence thus re-established. The stock of lumber at the principal distributing points of the interior on Jan. 1, was as follows:

| | 1875. | 1876. |
| Albany, N. Y. | 79,000,000 | 76,300,000 |

The above, it will be observed, does not include any point in either Maine or the Southern States, nor does it make allowance for the supplies available in Canada.

BUILDING BRICK.

With the exception of some massive structure now and then erected, the great majority of buildings require in their construction quite as large a share of brick as any other material, and the proportion tends toward a gradual increase. Brick fronts are coming into fashion again, both on account of desirability, economy and taste, and even where the rows of brown-stone "fronts," which are still being run up in some of the up-town wards, are examined closely, the veneer of brown-stone will be found attached to a backing of brick. Thus far this spring the distribution has been very fair, and a goodly amount of brick was sold on various outlets, but just at the moment there is a slight lull in the demand, as the winter contracts are completed, and summer work has hardly commenced. The sale of many millions of brick has also been prevented, or at least delayed, by the stoppage of work on the piers for the Elevated railroads, under the injunctions served upon the companies. With the exception of an occasional overstock sent in from Long Island, New Jersey or Staten Island, our supply of ordinary building brick, known as "Hards," is drawn from the yards situated along the line of the Hudson River. At Haverstraw Bay the largest quantity and best average quality is produced, though now and then very fair stock is received from "Up River." The total productive capacity of the Hudson River manufacturers is estimated at about 600,000,000@750,000,000 per season and during the lively times in building this capacity was frequently taxed to its utmost. During the past two years, however, the production has fallen off to about 450,000,000, and promises to run still lower this year unless a more positive call is developed, as manufacturers have perfected a combination which commenced work a month late, and proposes keeping the supply guaged to the demand. On the first of January last, there were 70@75,000,000 brick available, most of which has since found a market here, and new brick may soon be expected. A poorer grade, known as pale brick, and outlawed in this city, forms a considerable portion of the offering, but finds a good sale at other points, and, it is hinted, is occasionally run in here in a quiet way. The "Croton fronts," from Croton Point on the Hudson, with the exception of a few choice brands, have gone out of general favor, though doing well for rears on first class dwellings, &c. Choice front brick are received mainly from Philadelphia and Baltimore, and, having been recently much reduced in cost, have already commenced to attract attention. The following is a comparison of present rates with those ruling in 1873, just before the break set in, and which were themselves somewhat under the highest points reached during the excited period. The rates named are by cargo:

| | 1873. | 1876. |
| Pale brick, Per M. | $6 00@ $6 25 | $3 50@ $3 00 |
| Hards, up river | 10 50@ 11 00 | 5 00@ 5 50 |
| Hards, Haverstraw | 12 00@ 12 25 | 6 00@ 6 50 |
| Croton fronts | 13 00@ 16 00 | 10 00@ 12 00 |
| Philadelphia fronts | 40 00@ 45 00 | 23 00@ 27 00 |
| Baltimore fronts | 50 00@ 58 00 | 34 00@ 38 00 |

CEMENT.

Of hydraulic cement, both a domestic and foreign grade are in use. The home production is known to the trade under the general name of "Rosendale," from the town on the Rondout Creek, from which about all the supply is obtained. The consumption has been affected in common with all other building material, and thus far this year manufacturers have kept the output down to about one-half the usual quantity. This has prevented any great accumulation of stock, a fair city demand prevailing, and considerable quantities going eastward, owing to cheap freight room offering. Values have been very irregular for two or three seasons, and last year went as low as one dollar per bbl., under competition from outside makers against a combination of producers, but this year there is no combination, and about $1 20 has been the ruling figure. Foreign stock of several kinds is received, but the supply is made up mainly of the Roman and Portland and English product. For sub-marine work, cellar linings, artificial building stone, patent pavements, &c., these grades are principally used, and, though comparatively unknown ten or twelve years ago, are now a leading article of import. Six years ago, the cost was about $10 per bbl., but competition among importers has brought the rates down to $3 50@$4 per bbl. There has been an excellent business this spring for distribution throughout the entire country, and importers are largely sold ahead. The following shows the shrinkage on values for the past three years:

| | 1874. | 1875. | 1876. |
| Rosendale, per bbl. | $1 50@$1 75 | $1 25@$1 30 | $—@$1 2 |
| Portland, per bbl. | 5 25@ 5 75 | 4 25@ 4 50 | 3 50@ 4 0 |

LATH.

Although an important item in the building material line, there are not many features of positive interest to advise on lath, beyond the gradual falling off in cost since the war. Ten years ago, sales were making by the cargo at $5 per M., followed for a few years by a range of $2 50@$3 per M., since which there has been a fall to $1 50@$1 75 per M., the rate ruling now, but only sustained by a temporary scarcity. The construction of fire-proof buildings, both public and private, has greatly diminished the consumption of lath in this city during the last decade. No positive figures on the supply used can be obtained, but a responsible dealer estimated the receipts for 1875 from the Eastern coast and the British Provinces at 100,000,000 pieces, and this may be accepted as an approximate figure. A large proportion of the above, however, goes to Brooklyn and other points.

LIME.

Rockland, Maine, furnishes the great bulk of the lime used in this market. The grades are two—"common," used for all ordinary building purposes, and "finishing," adapted to finer work. As a rule, this has been a very close market, under strict control of a strong combination of manufacturers, who, through their agents here, regulated values pretty much as they pleased. Very considerable quantities also come in via the North River, and compete strongly with the Eastern, so much so that one of the leading State companies was taken into the combination last year for safety. All combinations are broken up this year, however, the result of which, so far, has been to keep values easy, through the competition for the moderate prevailing demand. Not more than one half the kilns are burning this spring.

| | 1866 to 1870. | 1871 to 1875. | 1876. |
| Common, per bbl | $1 50@$2 00 | $1 00@$1 50 | $0 80@$0 90 |

LABOR.

About the most important item of cost in the erection of buildings, and, for a long time, the most difficult one to deal with, was labor. It was also the last in the downward turn of values, but has now fallen in line on the general shrinkage, and is about in consonance with other necessary expenditures. Happily, too, the power of the arbitrary Trade Union demagogism has become well broken down, if not entirely destroyed, and intelligent workingmen commences to appreciate the value of a personal control of their own labor. Columns might be written on this subject in reviewing the past, but it could scarcely be done without stirring up bitter feelings between employer and employee, and we have no desire to become a party to such an act. The decline on the general market in two years is estimated by a leading contractor at about forty per cent. average, with skilled labor now calculated at $2 50 per day, and unskilled $1 50 do. There has recently been an attempt to force the latter up to $1 75, by a few injudicious workmen, but, finding their discharge ready, and their places quickly filled the moment the threat to stand out was made, they are now sorry enough. Old strikes may be talked about, but it will hardly pay to attempt repeating them in the present condition of the building trade.

[From our own correspondent.]

LONDON, Saturday, May 13, 1876.

There has been a moderate demand for money during the past week, and a slight improvement has been established in the rates of discount. The increase in the demand is chiefly to be attributed to the loans which have been introduced, but principally to that for the Metropolitan Board of Works. This loan was for £1,350,000 in a 3½ per cent. stock. The applications amounted to £7,300,000, or nearly five and a-half times the amount offered. Tenders at £100 2s. received in full, and at £100 1s. 6d. about 26 per cent. As this investment will only yield 3½ per cent., while there is not much, if any, hope of its rising to a premium, we must conclude that the applications are all genuine, and that there is a large supply of money seeking profitable and safe employment. Some of our leading railway companies are also exercising their borrowing powers, and are raising considerable sums upon debentures or debenture stocks. These are also quickly taken up, as they have all afforded a secure means for the investment of our surplus capital. As no foreign loans, either for governments or for public undertakings, have been introduced, it is evident that only home enterprise engages attention. This is obviously regarded as the safest, but it will not have the effect of materially increasing the value of money. The Metropolitan loan will of course be devoted to metropolitan works, while the various railway loans will be employed in the extension of the existing systems, and hence, not only will a large amount of work be found for the laboring classes, but a considerable quantity of iron and other building materials will be consumed. The change in the appearance of London, under the management of the Metropolitan Board of Works, has, during the last twenty years, been remarkable. By the erection of more capacious and more suitable buildings, by the widening of old and the construction of new streets, rentals have been largely increased, and, in spite of the very large outlay incurred and the heavy amounts of interest which have to be annually distributed, the work has, in a commercial sense, proved lucrative. Though the yield of interest is small, the loans are perfectly secured, and investors may be sure that the same lot will not befall them as visited those who ventured upon receiving usurious rates of interest in foreign loans. Loans for municipal improvements, whether in London or the provinces, and loans also for the leading railway companies, are certain to be freely subscribed; but the investing public are, as is well known, not in a temper to tamper with anything in the slightest degree dangerous. These loans will not, however absorb all our surplus capital, and as the trade of the country is still conducted on a strictly legitimate basis, merchants, as a rule, trading within their own means, the money market will not at present be influenced by mercantile operations.

There was a moderate demand for money in the early part of week, and at one period the lowest rate for choice bills was 1⅝ per cent.; but the market is now somewhat easier, and the quotations are as follows:

| | Per cent. | | Per cent. |

In the Stock Exchange a very quiet tone has been apparent, but, on the whole, the tendency has been favorable. There are complaints of the paucity of transactions, but this was to be expected when it is borne in mind that the speculative element has almost completely vanished. The closing prices of consols and the principal American securities at to-day's market, compared with those of Saturday last, are subjoined:

* Ex 6 coupons, January, 1872, to July, 1874, inclusive.

In the state of the corn trade there has been no material alteration. The supplies of English wheat have continued small; but those of foreign produce are ample, both actual and prospective. Millers still operate with caution, and only purchase for the supply of their immediate wants. The weather has been bright but cold, and, consequently, vegetation makes slow progress. Cereals are reported, however, to look healthy, a cold spring being said to be favorable to a sound development. The failure has been announced of Messrs. Turner, Nott & Strong, of Bristol, with liabilities estimated at £80,000 to £100,000, caused, it is said, by numerous suspensions in Cork.

The latest weekly return shows that the sales of English wheat in the 150 principal markets of England and Wales, amounted to 45,291 quarters, against 62,236 quarters last year. The total sales for the whole Kingdom are estimated at 181,200 quarters, against 249,000 quarters in 1875, showing a deficiency of 67,800 quarters. Since harvest the deliveries in the 150 principal markets have reached a total of 1,617,184 quarters, against 2,170,549 quarters, while in the whole Kingdom it is estimated that they have been 6,469,000 quarters, against 8,682,200 quarters in the corresponding period of last season. The deficiency now amounts, therefore, to 2,213,200 quarters. It is computed that the following quantities of wheat and flour have now been placed upon the British markets during the present and last two seasons:

According to the official returns, the estimated value of our imports of cereal produce since harvest, viz., from September 1 to April 30, was as follows:

|---|---|---|---|
| Wheat | £19,150,050 | £12,895,838 | £19,641,496 |
| Barley | 3,043,304 | 4,394,231 | 2,674,304 |
| Oats | 2,835,920 | 2,681,581 | 2,666,215 |
| Peas | 342,010 | 503,047 | 464,902 |
| Beans | 894,127 | 810,345 | 1,092,348 |
| Indian corn | 4,251,699 | 8,998,989 | 5,717,797 |
| Flour | 4,281,025 | 3,012,637 | 3,577,432 |
| Total | £34,818,165 | £28,303,093 | £35,852,481 |

The increase this season over its predecessor now amounts, therefore, to about £7,500,000, due chiefly to the largely augmented importations of wheat and Indian corn. It is remarkable that, although there has been a large diminution in the receipts of barley, the price both of English and foreign produce has remained low. The abundance of the supplies of Indian corn has, undoubtedly, had considerable influence upon the markets for other feeding stuffs.

The following figures show the imports and exports of cereal produce into and from the United Kingdom since harvest, viz., from September 1 to the close of last week, compared with the corresponding periods in the previous three years:

The Board of Trade returns for April, and for the four months ended April 30, have been issued this week. They show the following results:

IMPORTS.

| | 1874. | 1875. | 1876. |
|---|---|---|---|
| In April | £31,616,521 | £30,327,214 | £35,050,490 |
| In four months | 123,915,925 | 119,549,154 | 127,355,687 |

EXPORTS.

| | | | |
|---|---|---|---|
| In four months | 77,234,354 | 73,282,069 | 66,306,295 |

From the above, it will be seen that the state of our export trade is very unsatisfactory. The diminution for the month amounts to as much as nearly £5,000,000; but that for the four months is relatively not so formidable, being about £7,000,000. In our imports, there is an increase of about £4,700,000 for the month, and of nearly £8,000,00 for the four months, compared with last year. It is inferred from these figures, therefore, that after making allowance for re-exports, there is a considerable balance of trade against us. To what extent the exchanges will be affected is a difficult question to reply to, as so large a portion of the goods imported and exported into, and from this Kingdom is conveyed in English ships; and these charges have to be accounted for. In addition to this, we hold, as is well known, a large amount of foreign stocks, the annual interest upon which is, perhaps, adequate to correct any adverse commercial balance. As regards the movements in bullion, the following is the result for the month and four months:

| | In April. | | | In four months. | | |
| | 1874. | 1875. | 1876. | 1874. | 1875. | 1876. |
| | £ | £ | £ | £ | £ | £ |
| Imports of gold | 815,971 | 893,121 | 1,733,063 | 4,027,610 | 5,889,903 | 5,799,766 |
| Imports of silver | 1,337,394 | 633,100 | 813,038 | 5,224,354 | 3,201,125 | 3,244,137 |
| Total imported | 2,153,365 | 1,526,221 | 2,566,126 | 9,249,994 | 9,091,028 | 9,043,903 |
| Exports of gold | 1,138,843 | 833,335 | 81,070 | 4,348,959 | 6,115,921 | 3,208,286 |
| Exports of silver | 1,506,650 | 695,811 | 757,145 | 5,298,989 | 3,134,145 | 3,032,591 |
| Total exported | 2,644,993 | 1,519,166 | 842,215 | 9,647,968 | 9,250,116 | 6,390,890 |

Comparing these figures with the imports and exports of merchandise and produce, the result is remarkable. Of silver, we have imported this year rather more than we have exported, while the imports of gold during the four months have been as much as £5,800,000, and the exports have not exceeded £3,300,000. It is evident, therefore, that the large amounts of interest due and psid to us by foreign nations, in spite of the serious defaults, now so well known, have had a great regulating influence.

It appears that during the four months the entries and clearances of British and foreign vessels, from and for foreign countries and the British colonies, were as follows:

| | 1876. | 1875. | 1874. |
|---|---|---|---|
| Entered tons. | 5,884,164 | 4,915,629 | 5,515,097 |
| Cleared tons. | 6,177,482 | 5,642,013 | 5,893,403 |

—while the extent of the coasting trade has been as under:

| | 1876. | 1875. | 1874. |
|---|---|---|---|
| Entered tons. | 7,412,623 | 7,295 526 | 6,794,388 |

These figures also show results favorable to our commerce, so that although the state of our trade is, in some respects, unsatisfactory, it is not in such a condition as to produce any apprehension in the future. To a considerable extent, the diminution in our exports is the result of reduced prices; but our imports have been large, and as we have, as the bullion movements show, been able to pay for them with ease, while the shipping trade has benefitted by them, some benefit must have accrued to the community. A somewhat important proportion of the increased value of our imports comes under the head of breadstuffs, of which the particulars are given below.

The following were the principal exports from the United Kingdom during the four months:

Mobile & Ohio.—A press despatch, dated Memphis, May 22, says: Previous to the adjournment of the United States Circuit Court to-day, Judge Emmons issued a decree ordering the sale of the 118 miles of the Mobile & Ohio Railroad within Tennessee, with the rolling-stock, to satisfy the claims of the bondholders who hold the lien of the State on said road.

Pacific Mail.—A letter was addressed to Mr. T. W. Park, President of the Panama Railroad, by Messrs. Whitehouse & Co., White, Morris & Co., and H. Kennedy & Co., proposing the following ticket for directors of Pacific Mail at the coming election on the 31st: Chas. G. Francklyn, of Cunard Steamship Company; Henry Hart, President Third Avenue Railroad Company; S. C. Thompson, President First National Bank; Andrew Boardman, attorney at-law; Ed. A. Quintard, President Citizens' Savings Bank; Chas. H. Mount, retired merchant; H. K. Thurber, merchant; Jeremiah Milbank, retired merchant; Wm. P. Clyde, of Clyde's line steamers. The letter inquired whether, in case of the election of this Board, the Panama Railroad would postpone the payment of its claims against Pacific Mail, and give it the "same advantages and facilities for business" as any other company. The answer of Mr. Park is as follows:

PANAMA RAILROAD COMPANY,
NEW YORK, May 22, 1876.

GENTLEMEN:—In answer to your letter, received on the 20th inst., I would say that I have consulted with our Executive Committee and with Mr. Clyde, the manager of the Panama Transit Steamship Company, and am able to say that in case the stockholders of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company elect the Board of Directors you propose, who are not identified with any competing line, the Panama Railroad Company will—

First—Adjust the claims of our company against the Pacific Mail Steamship Company, and will (so soon as adjusted) extend the time of payment so as to prevent a sacrifice of property, taking security on the property of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company, and we will to any reasonable extent within our power, aid said steamship company in providing for its other indebtedness, so as to re-establish the credit of the company.

Second—A contract will be made with the Pacific Mail Steamship Company (with the consent and co operation of the Panama Transit Steamship Company), giving said company as favorable terms for transportation of freight and passengers in connection with our road, as is given any other steamship line doing business in connection with us.

Third—I am advised that the Panama Transit Steamship Company will enter into a contract with the Pacific Mail Steamship Company by which both companies may be operated in entire harmony, believing there is profitable business for both, if so operated. Yours truly, T. W. PARK,
President Panama Railroad Company.

The writers of the first letter add:

The ticket submitted to stockholders is identical with that above proposed, and we invite proxies to be sent to Whitehouse & Co., 25 Broad street.

WHITEHOUSE & CO.,
WHITE, MORRIS & CO.,
H. KENNEDY & CO.

Rockford Rock Island & St. Louis.—Mr. Osterberg has received the formal transfer of the road. The name is changed to the St. Louis Rock Island & Chicago Railroad. The headquarters of the road will continue to be at Rock Island, Ill.

St. Louis City.—ST. LOUIS, May 22.—Bids were opened at the Mayor's office to day for 1,200,000 7 per cent. anticipation bonds, and an award was made to Britton, Lomax & Co., of this city, at a premium of $5 15 on each bond of $1,000.

Syracuse & Chenango.—The bondholders' committee, consisting of T. B. Fitch, J. J. Belden, and Myron Bangs for the first, and Judge Comstock, Dennis McCarthy, and Hiram Eaton for the second mortgage bondholders, has agreed upon a plan of reorganization. It includes the completion of the foreclosure and organization of a new company, which is to issue $250,000 first mortgage bonds, $250,000 preferred, and $500,000 common stock. The new bonds, the preferred and some of the common stock, are to be issued to the present first mortgage bondholders, and the rest of the common stock to the second mortgage bondholders. The first mortgage bondholders will have the controlling interest.

—The Senate to-day confirmed the nomination of Seligman Brothers, to be financial agents of the United States at London.

—Messrs. Abell, Craig & Gibson, of Mattoon, Ill., advertise that they will place farm loans on land in Central and Northern Illinois at nine per cent net. Their advertisement will be found on another page.

—We call attention to the card, in to day's issue of THE CHRONICLE, of Mr. L. F. Berje, cotton buyer and commission merchant in New Orleans, La.

The Money Market and Financial Situation.—The most important event of the past week was the large dry goods auction sale, which was a transaction of so great magnitude as to have an influence extending far beyond the limits of dry goods circles. The sale was a bold move by certain heavy New England manufacturers to clear off a large stock of staple cotton goods, and at the same time to establish some basis of prices on which to form an estimate for future business. The experiment proved a decided success—not in an advance of prices, for this was not expected—but in the great animation shown by the trade, and the active competition among buyers from all parts of the country. On Tuesday some $2,000,000 worth of goods were distributed, and on Thursday about $1,500,000 more, making, perhaps, the largest public sales of domestic goods ever known in this city. The effect has been decidedly wholesome, and both mercantile and financial interests have experienced a more cheerful feeling in consequence. In Wall street there have been no features of striking importance—money grows easier, particularly on government collaterals; the stock market shows a partial recovery from the late extreme depression; gold and exchange are without animation.

In our local money market, rates on call have become still easier, and the leading government bond dealers have no difficulty in getting money at 2 per cent., while the prevailing rates on miscellaneous stock collaterals are 2½@3 per cent. For prime short date commercial paper there is a good demand at 4½ to 6 per cent., with some exceptionally choice paper selling at 4 per cent.

The Bank of England report, on Thursday, showed a gain in bullion for the week of £530,000, the discount rate remaining unchanged at 2 per cent.

The last statement of the New York City Clearing-House banks, issued May 20, showed an increase of $2,541,000 in the excess above their 25 per cent. legal reserve, the whole of such excess being $12,090,725, against $9,549,325 the previous week.

The following table shows the changes from the previous week and a comparison with 1875 and 1874:

United States Bonds.—The early part of the week showed but a slack business in governments, but during the past few days there has been more activity in dealings and stronger prices. The best part of the demand, so far as we can learn, comes from home purchasers, and among these the moneyed corporations have been, as usual, the principal takers. It is yet quite uncertain as to what measures, if any, will be adopted by the present Congress for the issue of new bonds, and in the meantime purchasers are left to calculate the chances.

State and Railroad Bonds.—There has not been much doing in State bonds beyond the sales of Missouris and Tennessees, of which the prices continue firm. Louisiana consols, placed on the Board last week, sold to-day at 66⅝, the demand coming from New Orleans.

The Board of Finance of Jersey City to-day awarded the $150,000 ten year city bonds at 105.

In railroad bonds there has been an improving demand for first mortgages, and both these and the junior issues are, as a rule, held at firmer prices. The inquiry for good railroad bonds to carry money through the summer should naturally be stimulated by the small temptation offered for its use, either in mercantile business or stock speculation. Among the strong bonds are the Pacific first mortgages, and this afternoon the Washington despatches state that the Senate Railroad Committee has reported a bill to create sinking funds to pay the debt of these companies to the Government, which accepts a re conveyance of lands on certain terms. In general terms, the Central and Union Pacific are each to convey 6,000,000 acres of land back to the Government (subject, of course, to the land mortgages which the companies must take care of) at $2 50 per acre, making $15,000,000 for each, which, with the amount now due for Government transportation, is to form the basis of a sinking fund, which is to be increased by annual cash payments of such amount as together with the above amounts, will make, at 6 per cent. interest, a sufficient sum to pay the Government debt at maturity. This comes much nearer to the terms offered by the companies, and looks more like coming to a settlement.

The various complications in the affairs of these companies with the Government, including the propositions made on both sides, and the pending litigation as to net earnings, have become sufficiently intricate to befog quite thoroughly the outside holders of their securities. On the one side, we have proposals from both of the presidents of the two leading companies that they should convey back to the Government their land grants, altogether ignoring the fact that the lands have been covered by mortgages, and the bonds long ago sold to the public. If it was the intention to re-convey the lands subject to the mortgages, it would certainly have been better to state the matter plainly in that respect. On the other hand, was the House bill referred to last week, which, if it become a law of the United States, would seem to be, in nearly all its important provisions, in direct opposition to the late decision of the U. S. Supreme Court in favor of the companies, and to the laws under which they have been built, and which form contracts on the part of the Government. The law, if passed, would probably be unconstitutional and of no effect. The great question affecting the Pacific Railroads was settled last year, when the Supreme Court decided, unanimously, that the interest on the U. S. bonds, issued in their behalf, was not payable till the principal falls due, some twenty years hence.

Railroad and Miscellaneous Stocks.—The stock market has continued to be quite unsettled in tone, with frequent fluctuations in prices. In the early part of the week there was further depression in several of the principal specialties—particularly the coal stocks—and on some the lowest prices yet made were reached; but yesterday and to-day there has been an improved feeling, and the tone at the close is decidedly better, with prices materially recovered from the lowest point. Among the various influences commonly spoken of as affecting the market, have been the alleged control of Pacific Mail stock for the coming election by the Panama party; the reported sale of some 25,000 shares of Western Union Telegraph by Commodore Vanderbilt, with the concurrent statement that he had made provision to give a more permanent support to his railroad stocks; and the report in to day's papers of a meeting yesterday of trunk line managers in this city, resulting in an agreement to restore and maintain West-bound freight rates. The market, upon the whole, looks healthier, and from present appearances a better business is anticipated. Mr. J. F. Joy has tendered his resignation as President of the Michigan Central Railroad.

The Gold Market.—Gold has been quiet and steady. There is scarcely any speculative interest, and the mercantile demand is moderate, so that the market remains without special influence to move it, beyond that which may be exerted by the coin exports and the foreign questions. The silver disbursements have had hardly any appreciable effect on the market from the beginning, as the silver business is not looked upon as having much immediate effect on the general resumption of specie payments. Gold loans to day were made flat and at 1 per cent. for carrying or borrowing. Customs receipts of the week were $1,893,000.

The following table will show the course of gold, and operations of the Gold Exchange Bank, each day of the past week:

Exchange.—Exchange has still been without animation, and with scarcely a change in rates until to-day, when leading drawers advanced their rates half a point. There was a report that certain bills, sold at about 4.87½, had been drawn against a railroad loan in London, negotiated for one of the coal roads, but this could not be verified. Cables from London yesterday reported a decline in consols, and that Messrs. Rothschilds were sellers, but the effect here is not large.

ANNUAL REPORTS.

Pittsburgh Cincinnati & St. Louis Railway.

(For the year ending December 31, 1875.)

The annual report of this company for 1875 has just been published, and is an interesting railroad document, embracing, as it does, the reports of four other roads operated by it, which form a part of the great Pennsylvania Company's system.

The report shows the following result of operations:

| GROSS EARNINGS. | | EXPENSES. | |
|---|---|---|---|
| From freight | $2,317,514 | For conducting trans'p'tn | $941,771 |
| From passengers | 755,191 | For motive power | 626,686 |
| From express | 64,919 | For maintenance of road | 867,604 |
| From mails | 35,400 | For maintenance of cars | 213,856 |
| From rents | 1,831 | General expenses, (including taxes,) | 92,677 |
| From miscellaneous | 919 | | |
| Total | $3,175,960 | Total expenses, (76 8-10 per cent of earnings) | $2,742,008 |
| Gross earnings for 1874 | 3,573,316 | Expenses for 1874 | 2,576,531 |

|---|---|
| Net earnings, 1875 | $733,962 |
| Add amount received for interest on investments | 9,276 |
| Total net revenue for 1875 | $743,210 |
| Net earnings, 1874 | $891,297 |
| Deduct— | |
| Interest on first mortgage bonds, &c | $569,790 |
| Excess (after paying interest on first mortgage) | $73,450 |
| Rent on Monongahela Extension | $14,757 |
| Interest paid on floating debt | 117,729 — 132,078 |

Under the arrangement made with the holders, your second mortgage bonds are not a charge upon the revenues of your company, unless a surplus is shown sufficient to pay the interest thereon. The issue of the $10,000,000 of income bonds authorized at your last meeting has, however, been delayed by a question as to the power of the company under existing legislation to create such a security.

There were carried over your road, during the year, 1,536,261 tons of freight, as against 1,471,207 tons in 1874; being an increase of 65,054 tons, or 4 42–100 per cent.

The average rate received per ton per mile in 1875 was 1 12-100 cents as against 1 3-10 cents in 1874. The passenger travel also increased over your road during the year, but the rate per mile shows a reduction, being 2 56–100 cents as against 2 84–100 in 1874.

LEASED LINES.

The aggregate results from the other roads operated by your company, including the Little Miami, Chartiers Valley, Cincinnati & Muskingum Valley Railroads, and the Columbus Chicago & Indiana Central Railway, which has been worked since January 1, 1875, subject to the order of the U. S. Circuit Court, were as follows:

|---|---|
| Gross earnings | $5,230,696 |
| Income from securities | 107,441 |
| Gross revenue | $5,410,140 |
| Expenses | 4,409,910 |
| Net earnings | $1,031,230 |
| Amount payable for rental and interest | 1,409,116 |
| Deficit for 1875 | $378,683 |

To this deficit is also to be added $37,064, expenses C. C. & I. C. Railway, incurred prior to Jan. 1, 1875, but not settled till after that date.

The St. Louis Vandalia & Terre Haute Railroad, in which your company and the C. C. & I. C. Railway Co. are interested, together with the Terre Haute & Indianapolis Railroad Co., its lessee, shows a deficit for the year, which has been charged, however, by the lessee against past profits accrued from the operations of the road.

No change has occurred since the last annual report in the relations of your company with the Columbus Chicago & Indiana Central Railway Co. The legal proceedings instituted for the protection of your interests are still pending; but it is believed, and we are so advised, that by reason of the failure of the C. C. & I. C. Railway Co. to perform its covenants under the lease, the lease itself has been practically terminated by their action. It is hoped that the litigation referred to may be terminated during the present year, and that thereupon a fair and equitable adjustment may be arrived at for all interests.

Several committees representing the bondholders of that company have had interviews with the officers of your company during the past year, having in view the perfecting of a basis for such a financial reorganization of that company, that the interest on its funded indebtedness might bear a nearer relation to the present earning ability of the road; but no definite conclusion has been reached.

This shows the amount of net earnings to be $35,744 63, which is an increase of $39,344 74 over last year (there having been a deficit of net earnings in 1875 of $3,600 11).

There was an increase in the quantity of freight and passengers moved, but a reduction of the rates, which caused the loss in gross earnings.

| Total expenses | 938,914 95 | $1,012,186 63 | ..... | 73,271 68 |

This shows a decrease in gross earnings of $95,825 71. There was a decrease in ton mileage, and also a reduction of 18–100 cent in the rate. The passenger rate was also decreased 17–100 cent, but the passenger mileage was increased 3 3–10 per cent. The reduction in the expenses amounted to $73,271 68.

The condition of this road and its equipment is much improved.

This shows results as follows:

|---|---|
| Decrease of gross earnings | $244,179 14 |
| Increase in expenses | 83,369 37 |

The loss of revenue resulted from a decrease in the ton and passenger mileage, and also in the rates received.

There is an increase in general expenses of $124,036; this being considered, the operating expenses are reduced, as compared with last year, $81,074. The increase of $31,304 in conducting transportation of freight is caused by the charge of $72,534 on account of "hire of cars." This road and its equipment is in good condition, and I think has improved during the past year.

The above earnings were per mile of road $6,235 in 1875, and $6,656 in 1874, a decrease of $421 per mile, or 6 3 10 per cent. Of the $169,397, shown as a decrease in the freight earnings, $93,257 occurred in the local business, and $76,140 in the foreign or competitive business. The decline in the earnings from local freight was the result of a reduction in the average rate received. This reduction was equal to 6 3 10 per cent. There was an increase of 7,577 tons, or nearly 1 per cent in the local tonnage. In the foreign or competitive branch of the freight traffic the diminished earnings were caused by a decrease in the tonnage of 27,991 tons, together with a reduction of 1¼ per cent in the average rate received. The latter was, in 1875, 7 5-10 mills per ton per mile, as against 7 6 10 mills in 1874, in both cases less than the general average cost.

In the passenger business there was also a considerable falling off in earnings, amounting to $53,407, of which $28,763 was in the local traffic, and $24,643 was in the foreign passengers, or those received from or destined to other roads.

A large decrease is shown in the item of earnings from rent of railway, amounting to $30,038. This was caused by a re-adjustment of the terms of the contract with the Chicago Danville & Vincennes Railroad Company, for the use of a portion of the track of the C. C. & I. C. Railway, leading into Chicago, and by a large credit to this account in 1874 of the amount due from the Chicago Danville & Vincennes and Columbus & Hocking Valley Railroad Companies for rent of tracks prior to 1874, and paid in that year.

The earnings absorbed by expenses in 1875 were 83¼ per cent, in 1874 they were 75 83-100 per cent.

The expenses of this road have varied greatly in the different departments of service. In that of motive power a considerable decrease is shown, equivalent to 8 3-10 per cent., but this was absorbed twice over by the increase in other departments. In general expenses alone the increase was $126,874. Of this amount, $42,302 was for increased taxes paid; $78,512 for rents of property, now charged to this account instead of, as before, to operating expenses, and $4,399 for increased legal expenses. The net absolute increase in the expenses of this road was $83,369. The increase computed on the basis of service performed, or mileage of trains, was 5 per cent., for while the expenses per mile run in 1874 were 69 35 100 cents, they increased to 72 83-100 cents in 1875. This is in the face of the fact of a reduction in the train mileage of 87,327 miles, or 2 07.100 per cent. The great difficulty in the way of attaining favorable results in the operating of this road is the low earning capacity of its trains. These were 87 49-100 cents per mile run in 1875, and 91 46-100 in 1874. Until they can be considerably augmented, so that they may compare more favorably with those of other roads, either by the obtaining of higher rates for the freight carried, or a greater amount of tonnage per train mile, which in 1875 was only 81 7-10 tons, it will be idle to hope for much better results on this road.

St. Louis Vandalia & Terre Haute Railroad.

(For the year ending October 31, 1875.)

|---|---|
| From freight | $592,915 34 |
| From passengers | 319,078 83 |
| From express | 33,102 15 |

| The amount heretofore credited to this company by the lessee on account of profit in operating was | | 102,546 |
| Of which has heretofore been charged back to this company as loss in operating | | 80,516 |
| The balance of | | $72,018 |

The lessee is now authorized, under the terms of the lease, to charge against the rent.

There has been $250,000 preferred stock issued to the lessee on account of construction and equipment advances; and there is a balance of $94,018 17 due the lessee on construction account, payable in like manner, when called for by lessee.

The income bonds, referred to in the last report as retired and canceled, have been destroyed, in accordance with a resolution of your board; the fact of their destruction by fire being certified by the Treasurer of the Pennsylvania Company and the Treasurer of this company.

Mobile & Ohio.

(For the year ending December 31, 1875.)

The annual report has the following:

On the first day of May, 1875, this company defaulted in the payment of the interest on its first mortgage bonds, due on that date, being then in default on the coupons which matured on and subsequent to the first day of May, 1874, as shown by the last annual statement. The road and property thereupon, in accordance with the conditions of the deed of trust, passed into the custody of the trustees of said first mortgage bonds, who were subsequently clothed with the powers of receivers by the Circuit Court of the United States.

Therefore, the report of the company is from the commencement of the fiscal year (1st January, 1875,) up to the 8th day of May, 1875, at which period the trustees entered into possession of all the property and revenues of the company. The results after the 8th day of May, 1875, are from the data furnished by the books of the trustees.

GENERAL INVESTMENT NEWS.

Alabama & Chattanooga.—The Montgomery (Ala.) Advertiser says: "It affords us great pleasure to state that the holders of the $2,000,000 straight Alabama & Chattanooga Railroad bonds have fully agreed to accept the proposition of the State, and have written that they are ready to give up the bonds and accrued interest, and take the State's interest in and title to the lands. This will about take up all the endorsed and straight bonds of the Alabama & Chattanooga road, and that part of the debt settlement may be considered a finality."

Boston Clinton & Fitchburg.—It is stated that the agreement of consolidation between this company and the New Bedford Railroad Company has been finally settled. The stock of the New Bedford Company is to be put into the consolidation at $110, the Boston, Clinton & Fitchburg preferred at $75 and the common at $35. Holders of the Fitchburg Company's common stock will have the option of paying $65 and receiving one share of new for one of old stock, or of taking seven shares of new for each twenty of old stock. Holders of preferred stock may pay $25 per share and exchange share for share, or take three shares of new for four of old, while holders of New Bedford stock will receive eleven shares new stock for ten of old, or one share new and $10 cash for one of old stock, or, if they so elect, may transfer their stock to the new company at $110 per share in money. The Fitchburg Company's stock consists of $1,063,000 preferred, and $109,600 common; the New Bedford Company's capital stock is $1,678,500. A consolidated mortgage is to be executed to include the present bonded debt of both companies, which amounts to $1,721,100.

The consolidated company will own 121 miles of road and lease 26 more.

Buffalo City Special Loan.—Proposals for $125,000 certificates of indebtedness will be received at the Controller's office until Wednesday, the 31st inst. The said certificates will bear interest at the rate of seven per cent., and the principle will be redeemable five years from May 15, 1876, and be issued in sums of not less than five thousand dollars each.

Central Pacific.—Mr. Huntington, Vice-President of the Central Pacific, and its head and representative at the East, has addressed a letter to the Chairman of the House Judiciary Committee, in which he states, at much length, what he considers to be the true situation of affairs between his company and the Government. We regret that it is impossible for us to publish the letter in full, but the following extracts will show some of the principal points which are made therein:

"This company recognize, as fully as do the committee, the fact that it would be very desirable, both to the Government and the railroad companies, that some equitable and final settlement should be made of all matters now in dispute. Before embarking the accumulations of their lives and their services in this immense undertaking, the promoters of this company gave to the law which was to form the basis of their contract and agreement with the nation the most careful study and scrutiny. They entered upon the work in the confident expectation that the Government, through the constituted authorities, would, in good faith, keep its part of the covenant, and they have, at all times, been willing and anxious to comply with their part as defined by the law. * * *

"I beg the committee to bear in mind, therefore, that in asking us to cooperate for the creation of a sinking fund for the extinguishment of the principal and interest of these bonds, we are asked to pay in advance debts maturing between January 16, 1895, and January 22, 1900, from twenty to twenty-four years hence, for which a specific mode of payment is defined by the law, and confirmed by the Supreme Court.

"Congress may have the power to commit the nation to a great wrong, to break faith with its creditors, or to repudiate its most solemn engagements; but whether it has a right to do it, or can afford to disregard the national honor, is another question.

"Among the things which it cannot do under our Constitution is to take away vested rights; neither can it, as we are advised, substitute a new contract, containing harsher conditions, without our consent. * * *

"The calculations in detail are somewhat lengthy and complicated, but may be condensed so as to show roughly the operation of the law as it now stands, contrasted with that of the proposed sinking fund, as follows:

|---|---|
| The issue of bonds to the Central Pacific Railroad Company was | $25,885,120 |
| And to the Western Pacific Railroad Company, to which the Central is successor | 1,970,560 |
| Or a total of subsidy bonds issued between 1865 and 1870 | $27,855,680 |
| Thirty years' interest thereon, at 6 per cent, amounts to | 50,140,224 |
| Making a total of principal and interest | $77,995,904 |

"If the existing plan were to continue in force till the bonds mature, and allowing the re-payment by one-half of services, and 5 per cent of net earnings, as defined by the Supreme Court (if it should be so adjudged), to amount to a quarter of a million yearly, for the remaining twenty-four years, there would remain to be paid a balance of about $70,000,000, or an average of $80,000 per mile for that portion of the main line on which the subsidy bonds were issued. These bonds and their interest are a second lien, subordinate to a first mortgage, averaging $30,000 per mile.

"To provide for the payment of this vast sum in advance by the operation of a sinking fund would require nearly a million dollars annually ($997,536), in semi-annual instalments, if invested according to the calculations of one of your committee, presumably made at a rate of interest less than that which is paid upon the bonds. Annual payments of about $500,000, made half-yearly, if invested at the same rate of interest that the bonds bear (6 per cent), would suffice to cancel the bonds and interest by the average date of maturity.

"By forming a sinking fund in our own custody, and investing the proceeds as opportunity offers at 7 per cent. interest or upward, we might be able, in the course of twenty or twenty-five years, to accumulate a reserve sufficient to extinguish this indebtedness by contributions not exceeding five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000) per annum, in addition to the sums re-paid by transportation, &c.

"This privilege we now have; but we would greatly prefer not to assume the care and responsibility involved in the custody of such a fund; but unless we can come to some common agreement with the Government to the same end, for establishing a sinking fund in the Treasury, we shall be compelled to decide whether we will voluntarily establish such a fund or leave the subject to be dealt with by our successors.

"If, therefore, it should be the determination of the committee to insist upon cash payments within the time and on the terms named by one of your number, we should decidedly prefer the contract as it now stands, trusting that, as the time of the maturity of the bonds approaches, your successors and ours may see the necessity of some other and final adjustment upon equitable terms. * * *

"Moreover, the very bonds we are now asked to redeem were at times, owing to the high premium in gold, sold at 50 per cent. of their par value in gold to pay our laborers; and the prospect is that we may have to re-pay every paper dollar which we have thus received at a great depreciation with a gold one. The interest on the bonds which the Government has been paying in currency, worth from 50 to 90 cents on the dollar, we are liable to pay in a currency approaching a gold value."

As to re-conveying the Government lands, he says:

"It should be understood that, though the rate at which it is proposed that these lands shall be taken in settlement of a claim is nominally $1 50 per acre, the real consideration is but the equivalent of about 75c. per acre, cash in hand, for the reason that the debt is not due for an average of 23 years to come, and this latter sum, invested at 6 per cent interest, with its accumulations, will, at the expiration of that period, amount to the former sum. In other words, it requires only that sales of 125,000 acres at the present minimum price shall be made yearly, and the proceeds invested half-yearly, in order to produce the sum now proposed to be canceled by the transfer of 6,000,000 acres by the time this claim becomes due. There can be no question, I think, that the security of the United States is more perfect with these lands in its own control than it can be without them.

"The adjustment of the accounts with the Central Pacific Railroad Company, under the present law, is rendered more complicated by the fact that of the 1,212 2-3 miles owned and operated, and from which its revenues are derived, only 860 2-3 were aided by subsidy bonds of the United States; on 352 miles, therefore, or between 1-4 and 1-3 of the whole, the Government has no claim under the acts, either for a portion of the net earnings, or as final security for principal and interest. The proportion of net earnings on the unaided portions exceeds that on the aided portions.

"While in this communication we have not complied literally with the suggestions of the committee, we trust the facts and considerations herein presented may be deemed of sufficient importance to justify us in bringing them to your attention."

Eastern Railroad.—Judge Ames, of the Supreme Court, Boston, has declined to grant the petition of the President of the Eastern Railroad for the appointment of trustees for that Company under the recent act of the Legislature, until certain questions are decided by the full court. The ground of Judge Ames' action is that there is a doubt whether the court, notwithstanding the act of the Legislature, has any authority to appoint trustees, and this point will be argued before the full court in June. Street reports of Judge Ames' refusal caused a sudden and heavy decline in Eastern Railroad stock.

Erie.—The Erie Railway Company announce that the laying of the third rail between Buffalo and Elmira is completed, and test trains run in both directions over the entire distance. The completion of the third rail enables Erie to run narrow-gauge cars between all points of the West and Philadelphia without change.

Jersey City Bonds.—Sealed proposals will be received at the office of the City Treasurer, until 25th inst., for the purchase of $150,000 Jersey City seven per cent. bonds, either coupon or registered, payable in ten years from June 1, 1876.

Louisville New Albany & St. Louis.—The foreclosure sale of this road has been postponed to June 20 at New Albany, Ind.

Missouri Kansas & Texas.—The Receiver of the Missouri Kansas & Texas Railroad, Mr. William Bond, has filed a report of the earnings and expenses of the line for the year ending Dec. 31, 1875, in the Circuit Court of the United States for the District of Kansas, which shows the following as the result of its operations:

EARNINGS.

| Taxes on railway equipments for 1875 | | 116,960 47 |
| Net proceeds | | $1,221,560 65 |

The Receiver, in his report, recommends that 200 additional freight cars be added to the equipment of the road, and that $30,000 be expended for improving and maintaining the trestles upon the road between Hannibal and Moberly.

West Wisconsin.—Mr. William H. Ferry, as agent for the trustees under the first mortgage, has taken formal possession of the property, and will continue to hold it for the present. It is said that this action is taken preparatory to the beginning of a foreclosure suit.

COMMERCIAL EPITOME.

Except the large auction sales in dry goods, elsewhere referred to, there is scarcely a new feature this week to note in trade circles; but speculative values of leading staples have undergone a further large decline, and are greatly unsettled. It would appear that as prices decline, confidence weakens in the future, and ordinary bases of action are ignored. The only fact of an assuring or comforting character, that now appears to be well established, is, that the export demand for good breadstuffs and provisions will be very large, and that we shall be able to meet it at comparatively moderate prices, thus giving assurance of safety to the whole movement.

There has been a very sharp decline in pork, with but a moderate trade. Holders regard the future with some anxiety, not from any excess of stocks, or other circumstance of a positive nature, calculated to depress prices, but from the general want of confidence which prevails. To-day, mess sold at $26 25 on the spot, and the closing bids for future delivery were at $19 95 for June, $20 for July, and $20 30 for August and September. Laid has, at times, been almost panicky, with sharp fluctuations daily, and between the opening and closing of business. The export business has been large, but stocks are believed to be heavy. To day, prime Western steam sold at $12 05 on the spot, with buyers for future delivery at $11 95 for June, $12 12½ for July, and $12 25 for August. Bacon and cut meats at some decline have sold more freely. Beef and beef hams have been dull and drooping. Tallow has ruled firmer at 8⅝@8¾c. for prime. Stearine has been more salable at 13¼@13½c. for prime Western. Butter has been depressed by large receipts. Cheese has rather favored buyers, and closes at 8@11½c. for fair to prime new State factories. The foreign exports of provisions from New York, Nov. 1 to May 22, inclusive, for 4 years:

| | 1875-6. | 1874-5. | 1873-4. | 1872-3 |

Coffee has declined materially in the past week; Rio, fair to prime cargoes, quoted at 16½@18c.; Java in mats, 20@22c., and Maracaibo, 15½@19c., gold. The stock of Rio has been increased by free arrivals, and was 125,500 bags at this point yesterday morning, with a visible supply for the United States of 264,000 bags. The stock of mild grades remains at 37,000 bags, but that of Java is reduced to 126,500 mats. Rice has been dull and weak. Foreign and dried fruits met with a better demand from the trade. Teas have been quiet, and the auction sales have shown lower prices. Spices very quiet. Molasses has been more active at full prices; six cargoes of Cuba sold at 33½c., for 50 test, and the stock is somewhat reduced at the close. Sugars have been rather dull, and stocks begin to feel some accumulation; fair to prime refining Cuba quoted at 7⅞@8c.; and standard crushed refined at 10½c. The movement in raws has been:

| | Hhds. | Boxes. | Bags. | Melado. |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| Receipts past week | 12,937 | 4,223 | 2,249 | 198 |
| Sales past week | 3,329 | 170 | 613 | 625 |
| Stock May 25, 1876 | 92,540 | 39,056 | 224,084 | 4,874 |
| Stock May 27, 1875 | 112,825 | 41,516 | 86,413 | 4,368 |

Naval stores have latterly been slightly more active, and quotations at the close show more steadiness and regularity; spirits turpentine, 32c.; common to good strained rosin, $1 70@1 80; Wilmington tar, $2 10. Petroleum closes very quiet, but still steady; the late strong tone, however, is wanting; crude, in bulk, 8⅝@8¾c.; refined, in bbls., at 14½@14⅝c.

Ocean freights have latterly advanced, berth and charter alike bringing higher figures; this is due principally to the increased demands for room, and somewhat reduced offerings of desirable tonnage. Late engagements include: Grain to Liverpool by steam 7d.@7½d.; provisions, 40s.@50s. per ton; grain by sail, 6d.@6½d.; cotton, 9-32d., as it runs; grain to London, by steam, 9½d.; do. by sail, 7½d.; and flour at 2s. 1½d.; grain to Hull, by steam, 8½d.; grain to Cork for orders, 6s.; do. to the Penarth Roads, 5s 6d.; do. to Hamburg, 6s. 3d.; refined petroleum to the Baltic, 4s. 6d. To-day, there was a pretty fair business at further advanced rates, which were maintained with firmness; grain to Liverpool, by steam, 7½d.@7¾d.@7½d.@8d.; do. by sail, 7d.@7½d.; grain to London, by sail, 7½d.; oil cake, 21s. per ton; and rosin, 3s. per bbl.; grain to Cork for orders, 6s.; refined petroleum from Baltimore to Antwerp or Bremen, 4s. 1½d.

The market for Kentucky tobacco has been active and higher at 6½@8c. for lugs, and 8½@16c. for leaf; the sales for the week embraced 1,300 hhds., of which 650 hhds. were for export, and 650 for consumption. Seed leaf has been in fair demand, and quotations are steady; the sales embrace: Crop of 1871, 13 cases New England at 10c.; crop of 1873, 15 cases do. at 8½c., 113 cases Ohio on private terms; crop of 1874, 200 cases New England at 11@20½c., 27 cases New York at 8c., 4 cases Florida at 8c., 426 cases Pennsylvania on private terms; crop of 1874 and 1875, 290 cases Ohio at 4½@6c.; and crop of 1875, 65 cases New York on private terms. Spanish tobacco has ruled lower and fairly active; the sales were 600 bales Havana at 85c.@$1 10.

There has been rather more doing in hides during the past week, at steady prices; dry Montevideo sold at 18c., four months; do. seconds, 14½c., four months, gold, and dry Texas at 17c., four months, currency.

COTTON.

FRIDAY, P. M., May 26, 1876.

THE MOVEMENT OF THE CROP, as indicated by our telegrams from the South to-night, is given below. For the week ending this evening (May 26) the total receipts have reached 16,330 bales, against 19,995 bales last week, 26,441 bales the previous week, and 26,002 bales three weeks since, making the total receipts since the 1st of September, 1875, 4,004,104 bales, against 3,396,636 bales for the same period of 1874-5, showing an increase since Sept. 1, 1875, of 607,468 bales. The details of the receipts for this week (as per telegraph) and for the corresponding weeks of five previous years are as follows:

* New Orleans.—Our telegram to-night from New Orleans shows that (besides above exports) the amount of cotton on shipboard and engaged for shipment at that port is as follows: For Liverpool, 19,500 bales; for Havre, 9,000 bales; for Continent, 4,000 bales; for coastwise ports, 500 bales; which, if deducted from the stock, would leave 92,500 bales representing the quantity at the landing and in presses unsold or awaiting orders.

† Galveston.—Our Galveston telegram shows (besides above exports) on shipboard at that port, not cleared: For Liverpool, 3,632 bales; for other foreign, none; for coastwise ports, 54 bales; which, if deducted from the stock, would leave remaining 14,805 bales.

‡ The exports this week under the head of "other ports" include from Baltimore 350 bales and 60 bags Sea Island to Liverpool; from Boston 1,500 bales to Liverpool; from Philadelphia 816 bales to Liverpool.

From the foregoing statement it will be seen that, compared with the corresponding week of last season, there is a decrease in the exports this week of 2,692 bales, while the stocks to-night are 79,947 bales more than they were at this time a year ago. The following is our usual table showing the movement of cotton at all the ports from Sept. 1 to May 19, the latest mail dates:

There has been another sharp decline in cotton on the spot the past week, and yesterday middling uplands were quoted at 11¼c. This decline led to rather more business for export, as well as consumption. A feeling of steadiness was momentarily infused into the market by the comparatively favorable result of the auction sale of cotton goods on Tuesday, and the reported refusal of the Fall River spinners to agree to short time or a temporary stoppage of works; but, yesterday, advices that English spinners were running short time had a very depressing influence. To-day, there was a good business for export, and prices were without quotable decline, but closed weak and irregular. For future delivery, Saturday opened a shade firmer, but throughout Monday and till late on Tuesday there was a pressure to sell, which amounted almost to a panic, during which prices fell off about ⅝c. There was a slight recovery towards the close of Tuesday's business, on the favorable reports of the result of the auction sale of cotton goods, but Wednesday was variable, and yesterday the announcement of short time in English mills precipitated another decline of ¼@⅜c., making a decline of 7-16@⅝c. from the previous Friday. To day, the opening was at some further decline, which was mostly recovered at the close, as Liverpool reported a steadier closing.

The total sales for forward delivery for the week are 226,800 bales, including —— free on board. For immediate delivery the total sales foot up this week 8,007 bales, including 3,330 for export, 3,433 for consumption, 1,239 for speculation, and —— in transit. Of the above, — bales were to arrive. The following were the closing quotations to day:

These figures indicate a decrease in the cotton in sight to-night of 57,461 bales as compared with the same date of 1875, a decrease of 252,718 bales as compared with the corresponding date of 1874, and a decrease of 73,968 bales as compared with 1873.

AT THE INTERIOR PORTS the movement—that is the receipts and shipments for the week and stock to-night, and for the corresponding week of 1875—is set out in detail in the following statement:

| | Week ending May 26, 1876. Receipts. | Shipments. | Stock. | Week ending May 28, 1875. Receipts. | Shipments. | Stock. |

The above totals show that the old interior stocks have decreased during the week 3,002 bales, and are to-night 15,842 bales more than at the same period last year. The receipts at same towns have been 895 bales more than the same week last year.

BOMBAY SHIPMENTS.—According to our cable despatch received to-day, there have been 25,000 bales shipped from Bombay to Great Britain the past week, and 13,000 bales to the Continent; while the receipts at Bombay during this week have been 40,000 bales. The movement since the 1st of January is as follows. These are the figures of W. Nicol & Co., of Bombay, and are brought down to Thursday, May 25:

|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| 1876..... | 25,000 | 13,000 | 38,000 | 355,000 | 238 000 | 593,000 | 40,000 | 881,000 |
| 1875..... | 19,000 | 4,000 | 23,000 | 526,000 | 380,000 | 906,000 | 53,000 | 1,070,000 |
| 1874..... | 56,000 | 3,000 | 59,000 | 592,000 | 293,000 | 885,000 | 60,000 | 1,092,000 |

From the foregoing it would appear that, compared with last year, there is an increase of 15,000 bales this year in the week's shipments from Bombay to Europe, and that the total movement since January 1 shows a decrease in shipments of 218,000 bales compared with the corresponding period of 1875.

WEATHER REPORTS BY TELEGRAPH.—The past week the weather has, on the whole, been very favorable to the development of the crop. Rain has fallen almost everywhere, and has not been excessive anywhere. Texas (which for several weeks has especially needed rain), has been visited with much needed showers, and now, over all the State, except along the coast, where more rain would be beneficial, they have had sufficient to remove all cause for anxiety, and the reports now are of satisfactory progress. A good stand and clean fields seem to be the general report from most points.

Galveston, Texas.—It has been warm and dry all the week here, until to-day; to-day we have had a refreshing rain, and it is still raining. All sections have had a welcome rain this week, but some have not had enough. The coast belt is needing more, badly; the central and northern districts have had plenty for the present, and accounts from those sections are very encouraging. New wheat, rye, oats and barley are beginning to come into market. The thermometer has averaged 81, the highest being 89 and the lowest 74.

Indianola, Texas.—We have had rain this week, but not enough to do much good. There was a shower on one day, the rainfall reaching twelve hundredths of an inch; but we are needing more badly, as corn is twisted, and other crops are making no progress. Unless a good rain comes within a week, corn will be ruined. Average thermometer 78, highest 86 and lowest 72.

Corsicana, Texas.—We have had delightful showers this week, and the indications are that they extended over a wide surface. There have been five rainy days, the rainfall reaching one inch and fifty hundredths. Crops of all sorts are wonderfully improved, and farmers are cutting small grains, which promise well. Average thermometer 78, highest 95 and lowest 65.

Dallas, Texas.—There have been three rainy days this week, and the rain has been very refreshing, but more would be beneficial. All crops are doing well. The wheat harvest is progressing, and the yield will be heavy. The rust seems to have injured only the blade, leaving the head unhurt. Corn and cotton are promising. Average thermometer during the week 81, highest 88 and lowest 60. Total rainfall, sixty-six hundredths of an inch.

New Orleans, Louisiana.—There have been three rainy days this week, the rainfall reaching two and eleven hundredths inches. The thermometer has averaged 77.

Shreveport, Louisiana.—We have had showers on four days during the week, the rainfall reaching eighty-four hundredths of an inch. The thermometer has averaged 76, the highest being 89 and the lowest 63.

Vicksburg, Mississippi.—Telegram not received.

Columbus, Mississippi.—The weather has been warm and dry all the week. Rain is now needed. The thermometer has averaged 73, the highest being 82 and the lowest 64.

Little Rock, Arkansas.—It has been more or less cloudy here all the week, but we have not had much rain. Crops are in very good condition, and well cultivated so far, excepting wheat, which is quite inferior. Average thermometer 73, highest 90 and lowest 60. Total rainfall, seventy-five hundredths of an inch.

Nashville, Tennessee.—It rained lightly three days of the week, the rainfall aggregating sixty-seven hundredths of an inch. Average thermometer 73, highest 82 and lowest 64.

Memphis, Tennessee.—On one day this week we had rain, the rainfall reaching twenty-four hundredths of an inch. The remaining six days have been pleasant. The early planting is developing promisingly, but the late planting needs rain. Average thermometer this week 73, highest 82 and lowest 66.

Our telegram of last week from Memphis, which came to hand too late for publication, says: The weather here has been warm and dry all the week. Planting is about completed in this neighborhood, save in the overflowed lands; stands are good, and but little replanting will be necessary; cultivation is progressing well; there is little grass and no weeds in the fields. Average thermometer 75, highest 86 and lowest 64.

Mobile, Alabama.—There has been no rain here, the weather being warm and dry all the week. The crop is developing promisingly. Average thermometer 79, highest 89 and lowest 68.

Montgomery, Alabama.—We have had warm, sultry, wet weather during much of this week. Three days were rainy the early part of the week, with a rainfall of eighty-nine hundredths of an inch, but the latter part has been clear and pleasant. The thermometer has averaged 78, the extremes being 62 and 92.

Selma, Alabama.—Rain fell on three days this week to the extent of ninety-nine hundredths of an inch. The thermometer has averaged 77. The crop is developing promisingly.

Madison, Florida.—We have had no rain here this week, but the weather has been warm and dry. The thermometer has ranged from 72 to 86, averaging 79. We have secured a good stand of cotton, and it is developing promisingly.

Macon, Georgia.—There has been one rainy day here this week. The thermometer has averaged 77, the highest being 96 and the lowest 64.

Atlanta, Georgia.—We had a shower one day this week, the rainfall reaching six hundredths of an inch. With this exception, it has been warm and dry all the week. The thermometer has averaged 80, the extremes being 68 and 86.

Columbus, Georgia.—It has been showery two days of the week, the rainfall reaching twenty seven hundredths of an inch. Average thermometer during the week 78, highest 88 and lowest 66.

Savannah, Georgia.—We have had rain on two days of the week, the rainfall reaching eighty-four hundredths of an inch. The rest of the week has been pleasant, the thermometer averaging 79 and ranging from 63 to 94. Crop reports from the interior are favorable.

Augusta, Georgia.—On two days of the week we had sprinkles, amounting in the aggregate to two hundredths of an inch. The rest of the week has been cloudy. Rain is needed, but the crop is making good progress. Average thermometer during the week 78; highest 95 and lowest 58.

Charleston, South Carolina.—It has been showery four days this week the rainfall aggregating two inches and thirty-six hundredths. The thermometer has averaged 76, ranging from 67 to 88.

The following statement we have also received by telegraph showing the height of the rivers at the points named at 3 o'clock May 25. We give last year's figures (May 28, 1875) for comparison.

GUNNY BAGS, BAGGING, ETC.—The market for bagging has continued quiet during the past week, but the inquiry seems to be improving, and we hear rumors of several parcels having been taken for the Southern market. Holders are quoting 12¼c. cash here, and 12@12¼c. cash in Boston, with no disposition manifested to shade these figures. We note sales of 500 rolls, July delivery, at a private price. Bales rule dull at 9@9¼c. for India. Bags are quiet and nominal at 13c. The transactions in butts for the month foot up only about 2,000 bales at 2⅜@3c., cash and time, the higher figure for a good quality. The market is quiet, and prices at the close are held at 2⅜@2½c. cash, and 3c. time. To arrive, we hear of no transactions, and quotations are 2½c. for distant parcels, and 2⅜@3c. for lots near at hand.

LIVERPOOL, May 26—3:30 P. M.—BY CABLE FROM LIVERPOOL.—Estimated sales of the day were 7,000 bales, of which 1,000 bales were for export and speculation. Of to-day's sales, 5,200 bales were American. The weekly movement is given as follows:

BREADSTUFFS.

FRIDAY, P. M., May 26, 1876.

There has been a pretty free movement of flour the past week, but with holders anxious to realize, prices have declined 5 to 25c. per bbl. The greatest depression has been in the extremes of grades, such as No. 2 and superfine and the choice family brands, and patents. The grades best supported have been the common extras, State and Western, and the well-known city mill brands. These were taken very freely for export. The production of flour is now large at all points, and with warm weather at hand, there is a strong desire to close out old stock. To-day, the market was quiet, but steady; shipping extras were in demand, and a large line of State sold at $5 25.

The market for wheat opened the current week dull and depressed, but at a slight giving way of prices, the business has latterly been quite active for export as well as local milling. The sales on Wednesday were about 400,000 bush., at $1 05 for rejected spring, $1 12½ for No. 3 Chicago, $1 19@$1 20 for No. 2 do., $1 24@$1 25 for No. 2 Milwaukee, and $1 30@$1 33 for No. 1 spring. Yesterday, there was a partial advance in prices, but less activity. Receipts at the Western markets have somewhat increased, but are still below last year, and the visible supply is undergoing a rapid reduction. To-day, the market was active, mainly at $1 21 for No. 2 Chicago, and $1 26 for No. 2 Milwaukee, partly for arrival.

Indian corn has been in much more liberal supply, and, at some decline, the business has been large. The quality and condition of the offerings have not been so good, on the average, as for some time previously, and the weather has at times been very hot, necessitating prompt sales and active handling. The speculation in corn for future delivery has embraced steamer mixed for August at 62c., and sail mixed for June at 60¾c. To-day, the market was quiet and a little weak.

Rye has been held higher and quiet; 95c. bid yesterday for Canada in bond.

Canada peas firm, but quiet. Barlsy and barley malt are dull and nominal.

Oats were in speculative request on Monday, but on Wednesday there was renewed depression, and extreme low prices were accepted. Choice qualities are scarce and wanted. Yesterday, there was a renewal of speculation, with sales of 62,000 bush. No. 2 Chicago at 40@41c. To-day, the market was generally firmer, with No. 2 Chicago reported sold for export to France at 41c.

THE DRY GOODS TRADE.

FRIDAY, P. M., May 26, 1876.

This has been an unusually exciting week in the dry goods trade. On Tuesday, an immense public sale of domestics was made by order of the treasurers and directors of New England manufacturing corporations, represented here by Messrs. Wright, Bliss & Fabyan, which attracted the largest company of buyers ever seen in an auction room in the United States. The experiment of offering such a heavy line of goods in a depressed condition of the market was a bold one, but was amply justified by the result. Over 11,000 packages of cotton goods, amounting to more than a million dollars, was thus distributed in a few hours, and at prices which somewhat exceeded expectations. On Thursday, a similar public sale was held by order of Messrs. J. L. Bremer, Bro. & Co., selling agents for the well-known Amoskeag, Stark, Naumkeag and Langdon mills, when nearly 12,000 packages of goods were placed in the channels of distribution at fair prices. These large transactions rendered business quiet with commission houses and jobbers, but at the close of the week the market had an improved undertone, and buyers seemed to have more confidence in values than at any time since the panic of 1873.

DOMESTIC COTTON GOODS.—Agents' sales of domestics were comparatively light on account of the auction sales alluded to above, which had for the moment a depressing effect upon the market; but houses prepared to meet auction prices made some heavy sales. For export, 1,497 packages cotton goods were taken, of which about one-half went to Liverpool. Print cloths became firmer, and sales were made to printers and speculators at 3⅛c., cash, to 3⅜c., 30 days, for extra standard 64x64 makes. Fancy prints were a little more active, and there was an improved demand for shirtings. All other descriptions of cotton goods were so unsettled by the auction sales that prices were almost nominal as were transactions, aside from the heavy sales alluded to above.

DOMESTIC WOOLEN GOODS.—There has not been so much improvement in the demand for heavy woolens by the clothing trade as was expected by sanguine holders, but fancy overcoatings, cassimeres, and worsted coatings of the most popular makes, were distributed to a moderate aggregate amount. Spring-weight suitings and cassimeres were a trifle more active in jobbers' hands, but transactions with manufacturers' agents were light and unimportant. Cloths and doeskins were in steady request, but purchases were small and chiefly restricted to a few pieces of each. Satinets for printing purposes in low qualities, also blacks and mixtures changed hands in moderate lots, and Kentucky jeans continued quiet, unless when offered at a concession in price when some fair sales were effected. There was a little more inquiry for flannels, and country jobbers have commenced looking round the market preparatory to placing orders for the fall trade; sales were light, however, and were mostly restricted to small parcels of white and scarlet all-wool makes, and domets. Worsted dress goods moved slowly, but the supply in first hands has been much reduced within the last few weeks, and unusually small stocks of spring fabrics will be carried over to next spring. Carpets were fairly active in jobbers' hands, but quiet with selling agents.

FOREIGN DRY GOODS.—There has been little animation in any description of imported goods, and in volume the business of the week was comparatively small. Black cashmeres were less active, but there was more inquiry for plain and fancy grenadines. Fancy dress fabrics continued quiet, and the season now about closing has been signally unprofitable to importers and consignors, because of the low rates at which many goods have been sold. Black silks were in steady, although limited request, and there was a moderate inquiry for colored and fancy dress silks, as well as turquoise, serges, and other millinery silks. There were important auction sales of ribbons, including the importations of Messrs. Strange & Brother and Elliot C. Cowdin & Co., at which choice colors and blacks brought good prices. There were no features of importance in the distribution of linen and white goods, which were taken in small lots only. Hosiery was dull, and fancy cotton makes are barely steady in price.

We annex prices of a few articles of domestic manufacture:

Mortgage Security Co.

BY ITS

CAPITAL STOCK OF $500,000.

Interest Coupons payable semi-annually. Bonds registered to order, or payable to bearer at option. Accrued interest is not required to be paid by purchaser, the next-due Coupon being stamped so as to denote that interest begins at the date of purchase.

A Pamphlet with full information will be sent on application to the Company's Office,

43 Milk Street, Boston.

These Bonds are commended to the attention of the MOST CONSERVATIVE INVESTORS, as they are believed to be as perfect a security as can be obtained. The issue of Bonds is limited to one-half the amount of the same class of Bonds ever issued under a like Guarantee.

The security of each Bond is not confined a to single Mortgage, but extends over all the Mortgages owned by the Company. This Company receives no deposits, guarantees no other securities, and has no other debts than its bonds. Its Mortgages are of like character to those which have been bought in the last twenty years by individuals, Life Insurance Companies and other Corporations to the amount of more than Fifty Millions of Dollars, proving a most secure and satisfactory investment. The Loans are all upon improved Farms in some of the most fertile Western states, near the Railroads, with short and perfect titles, and average less than $650 each, upon property worth nearly four times their amount. Experience has proved that well-selected Mortgages upon this class of property are safer than those upon city property, either in the East or West. They are not affected by Fires, or by Business revulsions; Principal and interest are more promptly paid; and upon the success of Agriculture depends that of almost every industrial investment.

REAL ESTATE MORTGAGE BONDS

GUARANTEED BY THE

Equitable Trust Co.,

THESE REAL ESTATE MORTGAGE BONDS ARE COMMENDED TO THE ATTENTION OF THE MOST

CONSERVATIVE INVESTORS.

First—They have the individual liability of the maker.

Second—Each bond is secured by a first mortgage of real estate of not less than double its value.

Third—The prompt payment of both principal and interest of every bond is guaranteed by this Company.

The Company guaranteeing these Bonds receives no deposits, owes no money, and incurs no obligations of any character except those arising from such guaranty thereby keeping its whole capital of One Million Dollars unimpaired, TO MEET AT ALL TIMES the prompt payment of both principal and interest of these Bonds.

All mortgages securing the Bonds are formally approved by the following Executive Board:

ROBERT L. KENNEDY, ADRIAN ISELIN,
SAMUEL WILLETS, JAMES A. ROOSEVELT,
WM. REMSEN, EUGENE KELLY,
CHAS. BUTLER, JOHN D. MAXWELL,
HENRY P. HAVEN, GUSTAV H. KISSELL.

These Securities bear Seven Per Cent Interest payable semi annually, and are offered for sale at one hundred and two and interest at the office of the Equitable Trust Company, Nos. 52 & 54 William street.

INVESTORS' SUPPLEMENT

OF THE

Commercial and Financial Chronicle.

The Supplement is issued on the last Saturday of each month, containing a complete exhibit of the Funded Debt of States and Cities, and of the Stocks and Bonds of Railroad and other Companies.

It is furnished without extra charge to all regular subscribers of THE CHRONICLE; no single copies are sold at the office, as a sufficient supply is printed for subscribers only.

Transient advertisements are inserted at twenty-five cents per line; advertisements by the quarter, six months or year, at special rates.

INVESTMENTS IN MAY.

The month of May, 1876, has been less favorable for an active business in investment securities than the same month usually is in other seasons. The large depression in railroad stocks, including the coal-carrying roads, which have been regarded as among the best of investment stocks, together with the gloomy feeling in many departments of mercantile business, have contributed to reduce the demand for investment bonds.

Government bonds have been pretty well maintained on a good business, and a considerable part of the purchases in this market have been for out-of-town customers—Baltimore and points further South taking a fair share. Between London and New York transactions have not been active. City bonds continue in favor, and the new loans offered, (in most cases to take up old bonds) are easily placed, at good prices. The favor which city bonds meet with at present is undoubtedly due in part to the general wave of economy, which is passing over the country and forcing municipal governments to be more careful as to an increase of city debts. This economical mood commenced with the revelation of the Tweed frauds in New York city in 1871, and has since been greatly stimulated by the crisis of 1873 and its subsequent depression. These causes, which put a check upon the rapid increase of municipal debts, did not come a moment too soon, and the present high credit of most of our cities, and the eager demand for their 6 and 7 per cent bonds at prices above par, are largely due to the influences referred to. If the flood gates are again opened in the case of any particular municipality, and bonds issued like water, purchasers should take notice in time and limit their buying. It is an important inquiry for those having to do with the management of city finances, whether any practicable plan can be established, by law or constitutional provisions, to give city loans a priority of lien on revenues and property, in the order of their issue. If this cannot be done, the other safeguards can be more generally adopted of limiting the borrowing power of cities to a moderate percentage of their total assessed valuation, or in case of particular loans specifying the particular source of revenue, from taxation or otherwise, out of which the interest and sinking funds shall be paid. As to the last named, however, Judge Dillon of the U. S. Circuit Court has lately decided that a Clark County (Mo.) bond, provided for by a special levy of 1-20 of 1 per cent on the property of the county, had no further claim on the general revenues where the special levy proved insufficient to pay it.

In railroad bonds there has been rather more business this month, as the summer season approaches, when no use is found for money. The general course of railroad affairs, including the late decline in the coal stocks, so confidently held as investments, has a tendency to narrow down the views of strict investment purchasers, to bonds secured by mortgage on lines of railroad which have proved themselves abundantly able to earn interest on such mortgage bonds, and all other bonds of a prior lien thereto, and to show a considerable surplus in addition. In making any estimate of this sort, it is also necessary to be able to assume with considerable certainty, that the business of a railroad is so well established as not to be liable to meet with a heavy reduction from any temporary or exceptional causes. The present is comparatively a good time to make a safe estimate of railroad business, as there are few persons, even pessimists, who would allege that railroads will not in all probability show as good net results in future years as they have averaged in the past three years, 1873, 1874 and 1875. In making the examination as to railroad bonds, here suggested, it is evident that second mortgages of a number of roads will be found better than the first mortgages of others.

Real estate mortgage investments are in good demand, and it is at this season of the year that the companies selling real estate mortgage bonds begin to do their best business. The shaking in railroad securities has turned the attention of investors towards real estate mortgages, and the success of this class of loans at the West, wherever they have been carefully made, has been so good as to encourage investments in that direction. The Connecticut Insurance Companies, which have loaned on western mortgages for some years past, as well as private individuals, and more recently the Equitable Trust and other mortgage companies, have all given a favorable account of this class of investments. It is hardly necessary to suggest that great care should be taken in selecting suitable property to loan on, and also in having the title properly examined and the papers in all respects correct; to this end it is almost indispensable to loan through some responsible agent at the West, or to purchase the bonds sold by the mortgage companies, these latter having the advantage of a guaranty. In this connection, some interest attaches to the decision of Judge Dillon of the U. S. Circuit Court, recently given at Omaha, in the case of Moore, assignee in bankruptcy, against the Mutual Life Insurance Company. The first telegraphic report stated that the Court held the company's loans on real estate in Nebraska, amounting to some $500,000, were usurious. The legal rate of interest in Nebraska is 10 per cent, or any rate on express contract not greater than 12. Usury prevents the recovery of any interest on the principal. A private letter from a lawyer in that vicinity, which we have been permitted to copy, gives an explanation of the decision, as follows: The Life Insurance Co. made two loans to McMeekin of Nebraska City, one of $8,000 and one of $12,000, at the highest legal rate of interest, and required the borrower to take out life polices on his own life and that of others to the amount of about $80,000, as additional security. The agent of the Insurance Company also charged him a bonus of 3 per cent for procuring the loan. Judge Dillon declared the contracts usurious, and based his decision largely on the ground that the requiring such a large and extraordinary amount of insurance, not only upon his own, the borrower's, life, but that of others, as a condition of making the loans, is a direct loss to borrowers, and in violation of the purpose and policy of the usury law. The contracts, though usurious, are void only to the extent declared by statute. The writer adds "I don't think the decision will at all affect loans as ordinarily made."

STOCK AND BOND TABLES.

NOTES.

These tables are expressly intended to be used in connection with the information concerning Investment matters, published from week to week in the CHRONICLE—to which an index is furnished in the remarks at the foot of the tables. Annual reports are in black-faced figures.

A full description of U. S. Government Securities is published regularly in the CHRONICLE each month, as soon as the official "Debt Statement" is issued.

Prices of all Stocks and Bonds are quoted weekly in the CHRONICLE.

The following will give explanations of each column of the tables below:

Description.—Railroads leased to others will often be found under the lessee's name. The following abbreviations frequently occur, viz.: M. for "mortgage," s. f. for "sinking fund," l. gr. for "land grant," reg. for "registered," coup. for "coupon," Br. for "Branch," guar. for "guaranteed," end. for "endorsed."

Date of Bonds.—The date of issue on the face of the bond is referred to in this column.

Miles of Road.—Opposite Stocks, this means the miles of road operated, on which the earnings are based; opposite bonds, the miles covered by the mortgage.

Size or Par Value.—These figures are dollars, showing the denominations or par value. The figures "100, &c.," signify $100 and larger.

Rate Per Cent.—The interest per annum is given for bonds, but the per cent of last dividend for stocks; g means gold; x, extra; s, stock or scrip.

When Payable.—J. & J. stands for Jan. & July; F. & A., Feb. & Aug.; M. & S., March & Sept.; A. & O., April & Oct.; M. & N., May & Nov.; J. & D., June & Dec.; Q.—J., quarterly from January; Q.—F., quarterly from Feb.; Q.—M., quarterly from March.

Bonds, principal when due; Stocks, last dividend.—The date in this column shows the period when the principal falls due of bonds, but the time when the last dividend was paid on stocks.

Alabama.—The commissioners, under law of Dec. 1, 1874, to ascertain, liquidate and adjust, the legal liabilities of the State on its bonds, propose substantially that 30 year bonds bearing 2 per cent for 5 years, 3 per cent for next 5 years, 4 per cent for next 10 years, and 5 per cent for last 10 years, be exchanged for old bonds, without any allowance for past due coupons. The State has been in default since January, 1871. The value of all taxable property is given at $160,000,000; tax rate, 7½ mills. The assessed valuation of real estate in 1875 was $83,851,252. (V. 20, p. 139, 534, 570, 581; V. 21, p. 276, 294, 322, 534, 612; V. 22, p. 110, 157, 305.)

Arkansas.—Rate of taxation, 5 mills. Unfunded debt is mostly held by U. S. The State is in default for interest. By the last assessment for 1872 and 1873 the total valuation of property was $101,972,329. Interest was paid Jan. 1, 1876, on secured sinking fund bonds, issued under the law of December, 1874, to pay expenses. A Board of Finance was appointed in January, 1875, to confer with bondholders of the State and they issued a notice as quoted in V 21, p. 161. See CHRONICLE, V. 19, p. 167, 189, 637; V. 20, p. 139, 161; V. 21, p. 465, 590.

California.—California finances appear to be in a particularly sound condition. The State holds in trust for School and University funds the $500,000 Capitol bonds and $2,063,000 of bonds 1873. Total valuation of property, 1874, over $600,000,000. Tax rate, 50 cents per $100. As the debt is now practically extinguished, the Governor advises the gradual cancellation of the bonds held in trust and the purchase of foreign securities in their place. (V. 19, p. 3 of advertisements; V. 19, p. 32.)

Connecticut.—The debt of Connecticut was all created for war purposes, and has been reduced since 1866 from $10,000,000 to the present figures by sinking fund purchases. The 1861 bonds are payable at pleasure since July, 1871, and those of 1863 since October, 1874. Assessed value of real and personal property, $351,785,469; rate of taxation, 1 mill.

District of Columbia.—The total assessed value of taxable real estate in 1875 was $93,452,681. United States Attorney-General Pierrepont rendered an opinion that the faith of the United States is pledged for the payment of interest on the 3.65 bonds, but conflicting legal opinions have been rendered as to the right of New York savings banks to invest in these, as government securities. The interest due February, 1876, was not paid till March, as no appropriation was made by Congress. The total amount of 3-65 bonds issued to February were as above. (V. 20, p. 83. See also V. 19, p. 15, 61, 142, 189, 477; V. 20, p. 239, 416; V. 21, p. 63, 417, 465; V. 22 p. 131.

Florida.—Less the sinking fund of $19,900, and J. P. and M. loan, the total debt is $1,199,100. Real and personal property are valued about $35,000,000; tax rate, 7 mills. The loan to J. P. & M. RR. is secured by mortgage on road, and the question as to the State's obligation to the bondholders was before the United States Supreme Court, and decided in December, 1875, (V. 21, p. 591), in favor of the State; no interest has been paid on these bonds for some years past, and a decision of the State Supreme Court holds them unconstitutional. (V. 21, p. 466; V. 22, p. 158, 233.)

Georgia.—This is one of the Southern States that has paid the interest on its acknowledged debt, but the State Legislature declared void all the semi-annual gold bonds of 1870 ($1,880,000), and $102,000 of the quarterly bonds held by H. Clews & Co., the Brunswick & Albany bonds, $1,500,000; and all railroad endorsements, except, $1,950,000 Macon & Brunswick; $191,000 Ala. & Chatt.; $240,000 No. & So. Ga.; and $30,000 Memphis Branch. Assessed value of property in 1874, $273,000,000; in 1875, $261,755,884; rate of tax, four mills. Macon & Brunswick Railroad endorsement was declared valid by Legislature of 1872, but the later issue of $600,000 was declared void by the Legislature in 1875. Governor's Message, V. 22, p. 87. (V. 20, p. 83. See also V. 19, p. 111, 350, 375; V. 20, p. 241, 336, 570; V. 22, p. 440.)

Illinois.—The debt has been rapidly reduced of late years, and it, without the addition of new loans, will soon be extinguished. The Illinois Central Railroad charter tax on earnings contributes over $400,000 per year to the State revenue. The assessment of all property in 1875 was $1,035,529,856. Municipalities in Illinois are in some localities heavily incumbered with debt issued to railroads. (V. 19, p. 15, 38, 526.)

Indiana.—There are also $139,000 of war bonds. There is a question as to the State's obligation to pay the Wabash & Erie Canal debt. A reference to the origin of that debt, arising from the State's compromise with the bondholders in 1816, will be found in the CHRONICLE, V. 19, p. 493; see also p. 526. A suit on the question was brought and decree of sale obtained (V. 21, p. 85; V. 22, p. 104). Taxable valuation, 1875—real estate, $621,416,973; personal, $231,667,147; railroads, $18,436,919; corporations, $4,045,593; tax rate, 1¼ mills. A law permitting towns to issue bonds was passed in 1875, the main section being as follows:

"SECTION 1.—Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Indiana, That any corporated town in this State which shall have heretofore, by the action of its Board of Trustees, commenced the erection of any public buildings, to be used as a market house, engine-house or other public purposes, and shall not have the necessary means with which to complete such building, on the passage of an ordinance authorizing the same by the Board of Trustees of said incorporated town, issue the bonds of such town to an amount not exceeding in the aggregate $10,000, in denominations of not less than $50 nor more than $500, and payable at any place that may be designated in the bonds; the principal in not less than one year nor more than ten years after the date of such bonds, and the interest, annually or semi-annually, as may be therein provided, to provide the means with which to complete such buildings; provided that such bonds shall not be sold at a price less than ninety-four cents on the dollar, nor bear a greater rate of interest than eight per centum per annum."

A similar law was passed for counties, which, referring to contracts that have been made for public buildings, &c., says that in counties where such contracts have been so made, the board of commissioners of such counties are authorized to issue bonds to an amount not exceeding one-half of one per centum on the assessed valuation of the property of such county, in addition to any loan for said purpose for which bonds may have been heretofore issued, negotiated and sold. (V. 22, p. 209.)

Kansas.—Kansas has but a small State debt, but the issues of municipal bonds have been large. An extract from the State Auditor's report was given in V. 20, p. 14. The valuation of real and personal property in 1875 was $121,544,344; tax rate, 6 mills for State purposes and an average of 3.78 per $100 for all purposes. State funds hold $759,250 of the bonds. (V. 20, p. 14.)

Louisiana.—The funding bill passed Jan. 24, 1874, scaled the debt down to 40 per cent of the face value. For coupons lacking on bonds funded, similar coupons are cut from the new bonds issued; interest on consol bonds is paid in New York, but no interest paid on bonds unfunded. These consols were admitted to New York Stock Exchange, May, 1876. The principal bonds not fundable are, $111,000 of RR. bonds; $48,000 school; $230,000 Miss. & Mex. Gulf Canal; $80,000 Bocuf & Cr. Nav.; $875,000 N. O. M. & Chat. endorsed; and $2,500 000 N. O. Mob. & Texas. The same tax of 14½ mills. In 1875 as in 1874 (in 1873 the rate was 21½ mills.) The total assessed values of real estate in 1875 was $150,507,073; personal, $40,349,547; of which New Orleans had $93,463,269 of real and $25,118,883 of personal. The gross revenue in 1875 was $3,286,153 and expenses $3,185,707. The $2,500,000 bonds to N. O. Mob. & Texas Railroad have been declared void by State Supreme Court, but a re-hearing granted. (V. 20, p. 78, 83, 476, 521, 546; V. 21, p. 15, 63 110, 159, 231, 489, 535, 615; V. 22, p. 62.)

Maine.—The sinking funds, January, 1876, reduce the total debt to a net amount of $5,272,688. Valuation of total taxables in 1875, $255,000,000; tax rate, 5 mills. Governor's message in V. 22, p. 62.

Maryland.—The assessed valuation of property in 1875 was $427,753,393, on which the rate of taxation in 1876 is 17½ cents per $100; income from dividends on railroad, canal and other stocks owned by the State was $133,491. The State has largely assisted canals and railroads, and holds $4,787,235 of stocks and bonds of companies paying interest promptly, leaving only $5,916,582 of debt without any offset; the State also holds $22,555,188 in unproductive securities. On two investments only, the Comptroller says that the State has met no loss, viz., the Baltimore & Ohio and the Columbia & Port Deposit railroads.

Massachusetts.—Governor's message on finances, V. 22, p. 62. All interest on the funded debt of Massachusetts is paid in coin. The credit of the State stands high in London and at home. During 1874 the debt was increased $987,400, and in 1875, $1,500,000. The sinking funds in January, 1876, were $11,725,309. The Hoosac tunnel has cost the State over $14,500,000. Real estate assessed in 1875, $1,311,031,336; personal, including bank shares, $560,815,162; tax rate, 1·06 mills; deposits in savings banks, $237,848,963; corporation property (above real estate and machinery), $84,213,632. The loan to B. H. & E. Railroad was secured by deposit of $3,600,000 "Berdell" mortgage bonds, afterwards exchanged for new stock. (V. 20, p. 336, 521; V. 21, p. 377; V. 22, p. 62.)

Michigan.—The debt has been largely diminished in the last few years. Assessed valuation of real and personal property, 1871-72, $450,000,000, and tax rate 2¼ mills. Surplus revenue is applied to purchase of bonds. (V. 20, p. 139.)

Minnesota.—All the State bonds are now held by the permanent school fund. Minnesota is usually classed among the States which have avoided their obligations, in consequence of her refusal to recognize the "State Railroad bonds" of 1858 to the amount of $2,275,000. There seems to be a growing feeling in the State that those bonds should be acknowledged. See Governor's Message, V. 22, p. 63. Property valuation, 1875, $218,855,743, of which $45,162,467 was personal; tax, 2 1-10 mills. (V. 19, p. 493.)

Missouri.—Valuation of real and personal property in 1875 was $549,503,471, upon which the tax is 4½ mills. Railroad property was assessed at $54,849-312, as returned to County Courts; but at only $19,861,141, as returned to the State Auditor in 1875. The State had $1 428,000 bonds maturing in 1875, and $3,907,000 in 1876. To provide for these, a law of 1875 authorizes the sale of new bonds. The Hannibal & St. Joseph Railroad provides for its own debt. Bonds falling due are paid in currency, pursuant to a resolution of the Legislature, although some of these bonds are payable by their terms in "gold or silver." (V. 20, p. 83. 161, 290, 313, 336, 383. 477; V. 21, p.277; V. 22, p. 83.)

Nevada.—The debt of Nevada is hardly more than nominal.

New Hampshire.—The debt of New Hampshire was created for war purposes, and is being rapidly reduced. The Municipal loan of 1872 was issued to cities and towns, the proceeds to be used in reducing their several war debts, which the State thus assumed.

New Jersey.—The debt was created for war purposes. Of the first two classes of bonds the principal is payable $100,000 per year. Valuation of real and personal property in 1875 $612,731,094, against $619,997,903; State tax, 3½ mills.

New York.—There is also $68,000 contingent debt to Long Island Railroad, and $7,361 per annum for Indian annuities. An abstract of the Governor's Message was given in V. 22, p. 63, showing a net reduction of $2,744,505 in the debt for year ending Sept. 30, 1875. The following were valuations and tax rate for State purposes in the years 1859 and 1865, and from 1870 to 1874:

| Year. | Real Estate. | Personal. | State tax. |
|---|---|---|---|
| 1859..... | $1,097,564,524 | $307,319.155 | 2½ |
| 1865..... | 1,158,32 ,371 | 3 2,552 314 | 4 53-80 |
| 1870..... | 1,532,720,907 | 431,230,278 | 7 41-156 |
| 1871..... | 1,599,930,166 | 452,6 7,732 | 5 79-120 |
| 1872..... | 1,644,379,410 | 147,248,035 | 9½ |
| 1873..... | 1,692,523,071 | 437,102,315 | 6 95-100 |
| 1874..... | 1.750,693.918 | 418,608,935 | 7¼ |
| 1875..... | 1,960,332,703 | 407,427,399 | 6 |
| 1876..... | ..... | ..... | 3 11-24 |

For the present fiscal year, 1875-6, the tax rate of 3 11-24 mills reduces the rate of 1875 nearly one-half; this is partly owing to the considerable reduction in the Bounty debt, and the increase of sinking fund resources. It appears that the value of real estate by local assessors in 1874 was $1,750,693,918, while the full value, as estimated by the State assessors, is $4,168,330,757. The Comptroller says the actual value should be adopted as the basis of taxation. The total amount raised by tax, State and local, in 1875, was $56,926,420, or 24 mills on the $1 of assessed valuation. In 1874, the local debts of cities in New York State were $137,-539,6 9; of counties, $16,685,264, and towns, $25,-140,181. (V. 19, p. 350; V. 20, p. 28, 60, 615; V. 22, p. 63, 471.)

North Carolina.—North Carolina is heavily burdened with debt, in proportion to her taxable property. A lengthy extract from the Treasurer's report was given in V. 20, p. 84. Total property was assessed in 1872 at $123,507,628, a low valuation. Interest is paid on bonds issued to North Carolina Railroad ($2,800,000), as the State holds $3,000,200 stock and receives dividends thereon. Other interest in default. A funding bill passed the Legislature March, 1875. (See CHRONICLE, V. 20, p. 336.) In New York, bonds are classified thus: "Old," being those issued prior to May 1, 1861, coupons on from Jan. '69; "N. C. R. R." issue of $2,800,000 to that road, coups. on since Jan. & April, '69; same "coup. off" have had 7 coups. paid; "funding act '66 carry coups. Jan., '69; "funding act" '68 carry coupons April, '69. "New"—authorized before war, except $1,500,-000 in 1868; "Special tax, 1st," carry coup. April, '69; "2d" coup. of Oct. '69; "3d" coup. April, 1870. (V. 18, p. 166, 629; V. 20, p. 84, 161, 283; V. 21, p. 570.)

Ohio.—Ohio has a very small State debt, but large local debts, amounting in 1875 to $25,957,588. Valuations in 1874 were: Real estate in cities, &c., $366,031,721; other, $696,883,323; personalty, $535,-660,818. Tax rate in 1875, 3 2-10 mills for State, and an average of 25 9-10 mills for local purposes. Of the 1875 loan above, $868,230 was paid Jan. 1, 1876, and the balance April 1. Report on State and local debts, V. 22, p. 64.

Oregon.—The debt is provided for by sinking funds, payable from land sales. Taxable property in 1875 was assessed at $41,197,149; ½ mill tax was laid for Relief bonds and 1 mill for Bounty bonds.

Pennsylvania.—Total debt Nov. 30, $23,233,137; available assets, $9,466,572; net debt, $13,766,564. The financial system is remarkable in Pennsylvania, in the fact that no tax is laid for State purposes on real estate. Revenue is raised from numerous sources, principally from corporations. Taxes are levied on personal property, which was assessed at $159,382,242, and the tax was $574,817 in 1875. State expenses have lately exceeded revenue, and sinking funds have been diverted to meet the deficiency. The State holds $1,754,321 in stocks and $10,554,321 of railroad bonds. Interest is paid in gold on all the State debt issued prior to 1867. Any coupon bonds may be changed to registered. The bonds due in 1877 are payable at any time till 1882; those of 1882 till 1892. (V. 21, p. 137; V. 22, p. 64.)

Rhode Island.—The debt was all created for war purposes and is being steadily diminished. The valuation of real and personal property in 1873 was $217,798,530, and tax rate 20 cents on $100.

So. Carolina.—The Governor's message on finances in V. 21, p. 525. The funding law approved Dec. 22, 1873, provided for scaling down the old debt by giving new bonds to the extent of 50 per cent, and declared void the conversion bonds to the amount of $5,965,000. The January and July interest was paid on consolidated bonds, but a loss to the State of about $200,000 cash by failure of a trust company caused a suspension of payments afterwards. Total valuation of all property—in 1875, real estate, $88,177,218; personal, $46,791,066; rate of taxation in 1874, 12 mills. (V. 20, p. 81, 241, 291, 358, 517; V. 21, p. 489, 614.)

Tennessee.—On the first July, 1874, the payment of interest was resumed, and the interest due January 1, 1875, was paid by help of a loan of $300,00', but default again made July, 1875. The Governor's letter in December, 1875, on the finances, discouraged the expectation of further payments soon, and suggested "scaling." The law passed in March, 1873, provided for funding all outstanding, legally issued bonds, due between July 1, 1874, and July 1, 1884, as well as all past-due coupons, and coupons maturing on or before Jan. 1, 1874, in a 10-40 year 6 per cent bond. The total debt given above is, substantially, according to the last report of the Comptroller, January, 1875. The Comptroller estimated debt of solvent railroads at $3,288,896; due from purchasers of railroads then sold, $472,000; value of Knoxville & Charleston road, $100,000. The State's endorsements for railroads are $1,892,000, of which $1,560,000 is taken care of by the roads. Total valuation of real estate, $283,000,000, and railroad property, $51,000,000. The rate of taxation is 40 cents on the $100. Tennessee bonds, sold in New York as "old," are those issued before 1862, and having coupons of July, 1-69; Old "ex coupon," have only the coupon of July, 1875; "New," issued since 1862 carrying coupon of July, 1869, "ex coupon" July, 1875, only; "New Series," the new funding bonds. (V. 18, p. 143, 217, 350, 497; V. 19, p. 167; V. 20, p. 14, 84, 161, 282, 491; V. 21, p. 87, 313, 614; V. 22, p. 472.)

Texas.—The State Comptroller, in February, 1876, reported total funded debt $1,219,757; floating debt, $543,137, and bonds of doubtful validity remaining in hands of State Treasurer, $812,210. The valuation of taxable property in 1875 was $250,953,759, against $215,841,860 in 1874. Tax rate, 50. From the Comptroller's report we have the following statistics for 1875:

|---|---|
| Total value of taxable property assessed | $250,853,738 |
| State tax | 1,254,351 |
| Poll tax | 198,322 |
| County taxes | 1,959,194 |
| Miles of RR. in the State ass'd for taxes | 1,487 |
| Value of railroads | $16,605,122 |
| No. of acres of land assessed in the State | 66,637,920 |
| Value of lots assessed in the State | 41,666,937 |

(V. 19, p. 15, 117, 142; V. 20, p. 84; V. 22, p. 281.)

Vermont.—This State has a very small debt—all created for war purposes. Of the registered bonds $135,500 are held for Agricultural College. The sinking fund, Aug. 1., 1874, was $37,932.

Virginia.—The Funding act of 1871 provided that coupons of the funded bonds should be receivable for State taxes. For 2-3 of the old bonds a new bond was issued, and for the other ⅓ a deferred certificate given (as the proportion due by West Virginia). The act of 1872 amended that of 1871 by not allowing coupons to be received for taxes. All the amounts marked (*) may be funded under the amended act of 1872. The sinking fund holds $2,446,-983 of State bonds and certificates. All interest over-due and unpaid to Sept. 30, 1875, (on the basis of 4 per cent.) was $1,199,864. A part of the interest due July, 1874, has been paid since Jan 1, 1876. Assessed value of property is $329,424,152; tax rate, 5 mills. The circular of Messrs. Branch & Co., bankers, April, 1876, said: "The Legislature has adjourned, and no law in any way affecting the bonds of the State has been passed, if we except a clause in the tax bill subjecting the coupons cut from bonds held by a non-resident of the State to the same tax as has heretofore been deducted from coupons held by residents. This tax amounts to $1 70 on each coupon of $30, or five and two-fifths per cent—the coupons being received at 94·60 per cent of their par value in payment of taxes. The State is still in debt for money borrowed to meet temporary deficiencies in the revenue; and the payments to the sinking fund have been suspended, as also the payments of interest of July, 1874, on the non-consolidated debt. The tax bill includes some additional subjects of taxation, which will make a small increase in the revenue, but it is now certain that no cash payments will be made during the present year on account of interest, except that the small balance due on July, 1874, interest may be paid." Auditor's report, V. 21, p. 604. (V. 19, p. 295 502, 526, 582; V. 20, p. 14, 306, 356, 375, 547; V. 21, p. 527, 604.)

Coupons paid at Nassau Bank, Brooklyn.

Albany.—There are sinking funds for municipal bonds and for water stock. The loan to Albany & Susquehanna is secured by 1st mort. The equalized valuation of property in 1874 by State Board was: Real estate, $48,799,146; personal, $5,837,088; total, $54,636,234. Estimated true value of real estate, $102,764,770.

Augusta.—Of this debt, $600,000 was issued for railroads, and balance for canal enlargement, water works, &c.

Baltimore.—The fiscal year of Baltimore ends with Oct. 31. The city credit has been loaned extensively to railroads, in exchange for their securities, which it holds to a large nominal amount. The sinking fund for Balt. & Ohio Railroad $5,000,000 loan is $1,746,973; West Maryland Railroad sinking fund, $149,165; and the total of the several other sinking funds, $6,457,861. The Balt. & Ohio RR. pays interest on $5,000,000 loan; Water loan is paid by income of water works, and Public Park by City Passenger Railway, and out of a total debt of $22,943,425 only $16,154,794 is dependent on the tax levy. The assessed value of property in 1875 is $231,503,129; tax rate, 1876, $1 80 on the $100 for city purposes, and .17½ for State. Population in 1870 was 267,354, against 212,418 in 1860.

Bangor, Me.—The valuation of real and personal property is $11,052,211; rate of taxation, 2.50 per cent. The loans to European & North American Railroad and to Bangor & Piscataquis Railroad are secured by first mortgages on those roads.

Boston.—The population of Boston in 1870 was 292,497, against 177,840 in 1860. Valuation of real property in 1875, including the recent annexations, was $558,769,500, and personal, $234,998,400; upon which the rate of taxation is $13 70 per $1,000—$12 66 of this for city and $1 01 for State purposes, against a total of $15 60 per $1,000 in 1874. The total debt, both funded and unfunded, at the close of the last fiscal year, April 30, 1875, was $43,512,611, and the sinking funds, bonds, mortgages, &c., $16 218,402. The sinking fund provisions are sufficient to meet the debt as it matures. In March, 1876, Mr. Turner, city auditor, gave his estimates for the revenue required for the coming financial year 1876-77, commencing May 1, 1876. This estimate is based on an assumption of meeting the actual wants of the municipality and avoiding the borrowing of money for other than the water works, and extensive and costly improvements; the tax per each $1,000 will be reduced from $14 70 last year to $13 45 per $1,000 this year. The following is a comparison of the appropriations asked for and income to be received, compared with the estimates for 1875-6:

| Appropriations | $12,302,305 | $11,231,587 |
| Income | 2,861,425 | 2,939,900 |
| | $9,437,880 | $8,391,487 |
| | $9,721,016 | $8,643,232 |

| | 1875. | 1876 |
|---|---|---|
| City and County | $9,721,016 00 | $8,643,232 00 |
| State | 802,120 00 | 802,120 00 |
| | $10,523,136 00 | $9,445,352 00 |

During the last forty years, with a single exception, the taxable valuation has shown an annual increase. Mayor Cobb's message, January, 1876, gives a net decrease of debt in 1875, amounting to $395,579. (V. 22, p. 61.)

Brooklyn.—The statement of debt is from the Mayor's message dated January 1, 1876, which made the whole city debt as follows:

|---|---|
| Permanent loans | $26,063,000 |
| Sinking funds | 3,462,736 |
| Balance | $22,600,263 |
| Loans chargeable on specified property | 10,052,000 |
| Tax certificates | 2,379,000 |

—The Mayor, in his message, January, 1876, stated that the debt chargeable on taxation decreased in 1875 $5,29?, against an increase of $512,089 in 1874, $2,426,516 in 1873, $1,591,411 in 1872, and $3,590,581 in 1871. Population in 1870, 396,200, against 266,661 in 1860. Valuation of property in King's County in 1875, by the State Board of Equalization, $230,557,586 for real estate, and personal, $19,806,135; they estimated the true value of real estate in 1874 as $426,393,740. The Board of Supervisors value the total taxable property of Brooklyn in 1875 at $225,176,755, or about 65 per cent of true value. The debt of Kings County, separate from the debt of Brooklyn, is $3,936,000, of which the city is responsible for about $3,739,200. Average tax rate in 1875, $3 41 per $100, against $3 52 in 1874, and $3 46 in 1873. (V. 19, p. 142, 632; V. 20, p. 520.)

Buffalo.—The funded debt, January 1, 1876, was $5,743,189, and floating debt, $396,092. In 1875 real estate was assessed at $33,943,735, and personal at $8,021,370—total, $42,965,105. Buffalo also pays 7-10 (being $712,330) of Erie county debt. City tax-rate, 1875, $35 55 on the $1,000. (V. 22, p. 233.)

Charleston, S. C.—The bonds of Charleston are mostly held within the State of South Carolina. The total assessed value of property in 1873 was $27,978,991; rate of tax, 2 per cent. Sinking funds reduce the total debt to $4,672,663.

Chicago.—The total funded debt at the close of the year 1875 was $13,457,000. Certificates of indebtedness, $4,641,096. Assessed value of real property, '74, $258,549,310; personal, $45,155,830—total, $303,705,140. Tax rate, 18 mills. The Illinois State valuation is $224,118,620, and the city debt is limited to 5 p. c. of that. The comptroller says: "Owing to the wise provision in the Constitution of the State our funded debt cannot be increased above the present amount for some years to come. Of our $13,478,000 of funded debt $4,581,000 is on account of the Water Works, which last year yielded an income of $730,114 21. Question having arisen as to whether certificates were not an increase of debt, and therefore illegal, an ordinance was passed authorizing the Comptroller to make an endorsement thereon that they "were issued upon the appropriations and tax levies of the city."

Population in 1870 was 306,605, and in October, 1874, 395,226, against 109,260 in 1860. Cook Co. debt is all 7 per cent, and interest is all payable in J. & J., or in M. & N. The So. Park, W. Chicago Park, and Lincoln Park loans are not debts of the city, but of distinct corporations. (V. 21, p. 207.)

Cincinnati.—In addition to the issues above named, there remain several small amounts, as follows: $25,000 (T.) 6s, due July, 1876; $108,000 5s, November, 1845; $56,000 (YY2, & O.) 6s, 1885-88; $17,000 6s (Q.), Novemb.r, 1897; $27,000 6s, (A.), March, 1897. By the census of 1870 population was 216,900, against 161,011 in 1860. Tax rate for 1875, $23 82 per $1,000, against $23 38 in 1874. Under the laws of Ohio real estate has been valued for purposes of taxation once in ten years. The following table from the books of the Auditor of Hamilton County, Ohio, exhibits the assessed valuation of the city of Cincinnati in the year 1860 and from '70 to '74:

| Year. | Real estate. | Personal estate. | Total valuation. | Rate tax per $1,000. |
| 1860.. | $61,621,901 | $31,411,812 | $93,032,716 | $17 45 |

The debt of Cincinnati, exclusive of the new loan for the Cincinnati Southern RR., is small, being about $7,900,000, with sinking funds of $436,446. The city will be the sole owner of the stock of this railroad, and thus not "aid in building railroads," &c. (V. 20, p. 14; V. 21, p. 511; V. 22, p. 209.)

Cleveland.—The total valuation of property for taxation is $73,305,277 and tax rate 18 15-2) mills, of which 6¼ mills are levied for interest and sinking fund. The sinking fund, January, 1876, amounted to $1,700,000, market value. The sewer, street improvement and street opening bonds are for special local improvements, and redeemed by assessments on the property benefitted.

Columbus, Ga.—The total debt is $532,500, and the annual interest required about $40,000. Bonds are all coupon, and were issued in small amounts as wanted; 25,000 fall due each year. City holds some stocks and other property. Valuation of real estate, 1875, $8,923,575.

Detroit, Mich.—The population in 1870 was 79,601; in 1874, by State census, 101,083. The value of waterworks is $1,589,683, against a debt of $1,100,000. The water works bonds are issued on a pledge of the city credit, and $75,000 per year collected in taxes to pay interest on them. Assessed valuation, 1875, real estate, $20,225,875; personal, $7,448,755—total, $27,774,630; true value estimated at $92,582,100. Tax rate, $3 92 per $100.

Elizabeth, N. J.—Total debt of the city of Elizabeth August 1, 1875, was stated at $5,400,000, as follows: General debt, $950,000; assessment debt, $1,450,000. The sinking fund has to its credit $900,000. Valuation of real and personal property, $32,000,000; assessed valuation, $16,000,000. Tax rate is $2 66 within the lamp and water district, and $2 18 outside. Population in 1875, 25,000.

Galveston, Texas.—The total city debt is $873,000, of which all are 10 per ct. currency except $106,500.

Indianapolis.—The assessment of taxable property in 1874 was $67,301,546; taxes for that year, $510,026, or a levy of $1 35 per $100. Total debt June 30, 1875, was $1,455,000. The School Board is a distinct organization from the city, created by a separate act of the Legislature; levies its own tax, which is collected by the City Treasurer. The city warrants are discounted when sold. The floating debt of this character, Jan. 1, 1873, was $200,000, payable during this year.

Jersey City.—The total bonded debt of the city, April 1, 1875, was stated at $14,247,500, as follows: General, $3,558,000; assessment debt, $6,06 ,500; water debt, $4,629,000. The sinking fund was $525,565. Assessed valuation, including railroad property, is $88,496,885, on which the tax rate is $3 00 per $100 on $68,496,855, and 1 per cent on railroad property assessed at $1 ,000,000. Population by State census in 1875 was 116,883, against 85,000 by U. S. census of 1870. (V. 13, p. 190.)

Louisville.—The funded debt, January 1, 1876, exclusive of railroad loans, was $3,330,000, against $3,504,0 0 Janu ry 1, 1875. Of the $3,33 ,000 there is payable out of the sinking fund $3,705,000; payable by special tax, $4,625,000. Assets of the sinking fund, Jan. 1, 1875, were $3,180,625. Population by census of 1870 was 100,759, against 68,033 in 1860; now estimated upon the basis of 7 to a voter makes 120,000. Assessed value of property, about $79,-000,000. Real value, $100,000,0 0. Rate of taxation for all city purposes in 1875 is—Eastern District, $2 27 on $100; Western District, $2 33; State tax, 45c. The following figures give the assessed property valuation for the past six years. For 1868, $59,-425,974; for 1869, $63,284,091; for 1870, $70,806,712; for 1871, $76,845,995; for 1872, $77,156,642; for 1873, $77,225,372.

Memphis, Tenn.—The city has been in default for interest since Jan. 1, 1873. The total floating debt April 1, 1876, was $1,947,286, and there were nominal assets (unpaid taxes, &c) to balance this of $1,766,054. In 1874 the policy was adopted of receiving proposals for the sale of past due coupons, so far as the funds in hand permitted. The City Council declared the funding and paving bonds issued by Mayors Leftwich and Lofland 1867–8–9 to have been issued illegally, but allowed the coupons to be received, pro rata, according to the amount realized by the city for the bonds; but a decision of Tenn. Supreme Court, December, 1875, was against the city on this point. Assessed valuation, $32,000,000. Tax rate, $2 per $100. Population in 1870, 40,230. (V. 21, p. 186, 570.)

Milwaukee.—The city cannot issue debt beyond 5 per cent of its average assessed value for five years, which is $43 545,000; in 1875, valuation was $52,585,664 of real and personal; tax rate, 25.64 mills. Sinking funds are provided for all the bonds. Old railroad bonds, $200,000, due 1876 and 1877 (with interest about $400,000), were held valid against the city. Population by State census, 1875, 101,000. (V. 17, p. 187, 628, 691.)

Mobile.—The valuation of property in 1876 is $12,891,625 real estate and $5,377,716 personal property: tax rate, 1¾ per cent. Interest has been in default since July, 1873. A settlement with bondholders was offered by Commissioners in New York, Sept., 1875, viz.: $510 in 6 per cent bond for $1,000 of the old 8 per cent. The 5 per cent bonds have a lien on city revenue, and exchange for these is offered at 75 per cent of their face in the new 6 per cents. This has been accepted to a considerable extent, but no report yet given. Population about 38,000. (V. 20, p. 302.)

Nashville, Tenn.—At the close of the fiscal year, Sept. 30, 1875, there were $131,100 of past due bonds and $136 440 unpaid coupons. The total debt was $1,737,2 2. Assessed valuation of all property, about $13,625,775; tax rate, 1875, 2 per cent.

Newark.—The bonds in the first line in the table are payable out of the sinking fund of 1869, which amounts to $385,368; those in second line out of sinking fund of 1864, $8 2,757; public school bonds out of public school fund, $89,034; Clinton Hill bonds by sinking fund, $21,221, against local improvement bonds the city holds $2,568,080 of assessments unpaid and a lien on the property. Temporary loan bonds, Jan. 1, 1876, were $767,750. Valuation of real estate, 1874, $79,538,238; personal, $24,880,800; tax rate for all purposes, 1875, $1 98 per $100. Population in 1870, 105,059.

New Orleans.—Interest was in default December, 1874, but coupons then due were paid May 15, 1875. The total funded debt, April, 1876, was $20,872,332; certificates, coupons unpaid, &c., $671,781; other floating debt, $1,145,325. The assessed valuation of property is $98,463,269 real estate, and $24,118,823 personal. State tax, 14¼ mills; city tax, 25 mills; total tax, 39¼. A scheme for settling the debt by a bond premium drawing plan is in practice, and drawings take place Jan. 31, April 15, July 31, and Oct. 15. The premium bonds exchanged for others and outstanding, April 15, 1876, were $5,667,300. Population in 1870, 191,418; in 1860, 138,670. (V. 21, p. 64, 86, 159, 278, 511, 673; V. 22, p. 471.)

Less sinking funds

The equalized valuations by State Board in 1875, were $1,205,531,280, of which $933,050,399 was real estate. The true value of real estate is estimated at $1,935,021,510. By an act of 1874 the towns of West Farms, Morrisania and Kingsbridge, embracing about 12,000 acres, were annexed to New York.

From the termination of the Tweed regime in 1871 to January, 1875, the gross increase in debt was $33,252,049, and Comptroller Green has claimed that the old demands existing when he took office, together with the bonds issued to pay deficiency in State sinking fund, and for up-town improvements, aggregate more than this whole increase. All unadjusted claims against the city Jan. 1875, were nominally $6,971,149, a large part of which the Comptroller claims to be fraudulent and has determinedly opposed. The outstanding assessment bonds (payable out of local assessments on property benefitted) are represented by advances to contractors, advances on Boulevard work, and uncollected local assessments. Extract from Mayor's Message of January, 1876, is given in V. 22, p. 64. (V. 20, p. 14, 29; V. 21, p. 86.)

Norfolk.—The bonds due April, 1892, are two series—series 1st, issued to A. M. & O. Rlt. and Raleigh & Gaston RR.; series 2d, to private parties. Both series are secured by deed of trust on city property. Coupons of 1st series are payable at Citizens' Bank; coupons of 2d series at Peoples' National Bank. Tax rate, $1 60; water tax, 40 cts., (special); total rate, 2 per cent.

Philadelphia.—The total funded debt, January 1, 1876, was $55,625,691; guaranteed debt, $5,399,400; floating debt, $8,651,432. Sinking funds, $10,080,300. The net increase of debt in 1875 was only $253,529. Total disbursements of the city for 1875 were $13,416,451, classified as follows: Judgments, &c., $378,422; interest on city loan, $3,734,215; interest on endorsed warrants, $196,808; sinking funds, $785,899; warrants of previous years, $3,937,117; amount paid on loan warrants, $1,447,809; for the erection of public buildings, $520,412; school fund, $2,451; State tax on settlement, $53,515; cash for the departments, $2,389,377. The Comptroller's statement to form a basis for taxation in 1876, was issued Nov. 1, 1875, making total estimated liabilities, $26,296,282 64.

Of this amount $9,296,202 was estimated to come from other sources than taxes, leaving $17,000,080 to be raised by taxes, at a rate of $30 per $1,000 on full city property. These estimates, however, were materially reduced by the Councils, and the tax rate was kept at $2 15 for full city property. The following table exhibits the assessed valuation and tax rate in the city since 1870:

|---|---|---|---|
| 1870 | $470,851,800 | $8.188.873 | $18 00 |
| 1871 | 491,814,096 | 8,592,786 | 18 00 |
| 1872 | 502,415,863 | 8,608,819 | 20 80 |
| 1873 | 518,224,568 | 8,930,700 | 21 50 |
| 1874 | 539,003,602 | 9,239,983 | 22 00 |
| 1875 | 565,849,095 | 9,434,573 | 21 50 |
| 1876 | 583,408,705 | 10,001,673 | 21 50 |

There is no large amount of city debt maturing in the next five years. Assessed valuations for 1876 are: Full city property, $537,213,282; tax rate, $2 15; suburban property, $38,031,673; tax rate, $1 46: farm property, $20,168,423; tax rate, $1 12½. Population, 1870, 674,022, against 565,530 in 1860.

Alabama Central.—In default since January, 1872. Negotiations pending for a new adjustment.

Alabama & Chattanooga.—Road sold May 3, 1875, for $1,200,000, subject to lien of receiver's certificates. Time for bondholders to accept extended to June 15, 1876. (V. 21, p. 38, 62, 253, 302, 323, 511; V. 22, p. 61, 87, 135, 157.)

Albany & Susquehanna.—This road was leased for 150 years from 1870 to Delaware & Hudson Canal Co., at 7 per cent per annum, on stock and bonds. Important change in terms made in 1876. Consol. mortgage is for $10,000,000, of which $3,450,000 is to retire old bonds, and balance to lessee for improvements, which up to April, 1876, were $1,978,672. (V. 22, p. 299, 495.)

Alexandria & Fredricksburg.—The Pennsylvania Railroad holds $512,000 of the bonds and controls the road. Loss on operation in 1873, $25,074.

Arkansas Central. Most of the bonds were sold in London, where $600,000 of 2d mortgage bonds were also hypothecated. Receiver appointed, March, 1876. (V. 22, p. 374.)

Ashtabula, Youngstown & Pitts.—It is leased and operated by Pennsylvania Co. at cost. Net earnings paid to lessor, but lessee guarantees interest on 1st mortgage for five years. Common stock, $1,500,000; preferred, $400,000. Net earnings, 1873, $34,156.

Atchison & Nebraska.—Interest was in default September, 1873, and coupons funded. Gross earnings, 1875, $270,955; net, $272; unpaid coupons to Jan., 1876, $750,000. Annual report V. 22, p. 395.

Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe.—Net earnings, 1875, $321,107. Interest is paid on $976,000 of the 2d consol. mortgage bonds, but on the balance of that issue the coupons are funded to Oct. 1, 1876. (V. 21, p. 63, 136, 323, 591; V. 22, p. 232, 327, 445.)

Atlanta & Richmond Air Line.—Defaulted in 1873, and now in litigation. A decree of sale in foreclosure was made October, 1875. Report of earnings &c., V. 22, p. 135. (V. 20, p. 14, 85; V. 21, p. 14, 85, 323, 418, 488, 612.)

Atlanta & West Point.—The road has paid 8 per cent dividends for some years; it has about $200,000 of bonds.

Atlantic & Great Western.—This road was leased to the Erie for 99 years from May 1, 1874, but the lease did not go into effect. Shortly after (in July, 1874) default was made on its bonds. The last annual report, to October 1, 1875, will be found in V. 21, p. 371. Proceedings looking to re-organization are in progress, and a considerable amount of securities has been deposited by holders with the London Committee. (V. 20, p. 85, 139, 289, 499, 592; V. 21, p. 136, 159, 230, 393, 410; V. 22, p. 181, 327, 352.)

Atlantic & Gulf.—Gross earnings in 1875 were $965,869; net earnings, $328,938. The Company also has $500,000 10 per cent coupon notes outstanding. (V. 21, p. 275, 488; V. 22, p. 469.)

Atlantic, Mississippi & Ohio.—Of the stock $5,845,700 is common, $800,000 preferred, and $256,200 guaranteed; the company, itself, holds $3,441,200 of the common, all the preferred, and $165,700 of the guaranteed stock. Gross earnings year ending September 30, 1875, $1,782,453; expenses, $1,108,947; net earnings, $673,505. There was a decrease of gross revenue by $42,890, and a decrease of net revenue of $54,114. Of the $15,000,000 loan enough is held to retire all the old debt. The company funded one coupon on old bonds, Jan., 1874, but paid subsequent coupons in part. Funding notes due 1875 and 1879 were issued. In October, 1875, in London, the company made a proposal to fund whole coupon then due, on consol. bonds, and four-sevenths of coupons due up to 1881, paying three per cent cash on coupons till 1881, and balance, if earned. This proposition is still before the bondholders for their assent. A bill to foreclose the consolidated mortgage was filed by the trustees thereof, at Richmond, Va., March, 1876. Extract from President Mahone's circular to bondholders, showing the financial condition, is given in the CHRONICLE, V. 22, p. 256. (V. 21, p. 569, 591; V. 22, p. 110, 231, 280, 327.)

Atlantic & Pacific.—This was a consolidation, in Oct., 1870, of the Atlantic & Pacific and So. Pacific. The land grant amounts to some 1,000,000 acres. Interest was passed Jan., '74, on the land grant bonds, the 2d mortgage and the interest scrip, but coupons funded. A break in the company's affairs occurred in October, 1875; the Missouri Pacific lease was surrendered and complicated litigation against the Atlantic & Pacific Company: commenced on the ground of fraud in the Missouri Pacific management. Receivers were appointed. Interest of January, 1876, on land grant bonds was not paid, and interest on the 3d mortgage bonds of the Missouri Pacific is also unpaid. The latter were mostly held by the Atlantic & Pacific Company for improvements claimed to have been put on the Missouri Pacific road. (V. 19, p. 397; V. 20, p. 288; V. 21, p. 9, 418, 440, 466; V. 22, p. 61, 352, 374, 471.)
